Pokemon Breeding 101

...Pokemon can be bred with 2 pokemon of the same species. aka Egg type. Interspecies breeding is considered to be almost impossible. However, in rare cases it can be done. When a superior healthy male is engaging in the breeding, the interspecies breeding success rate grows 1000 fold.

...hmm... interesting...

Oh?

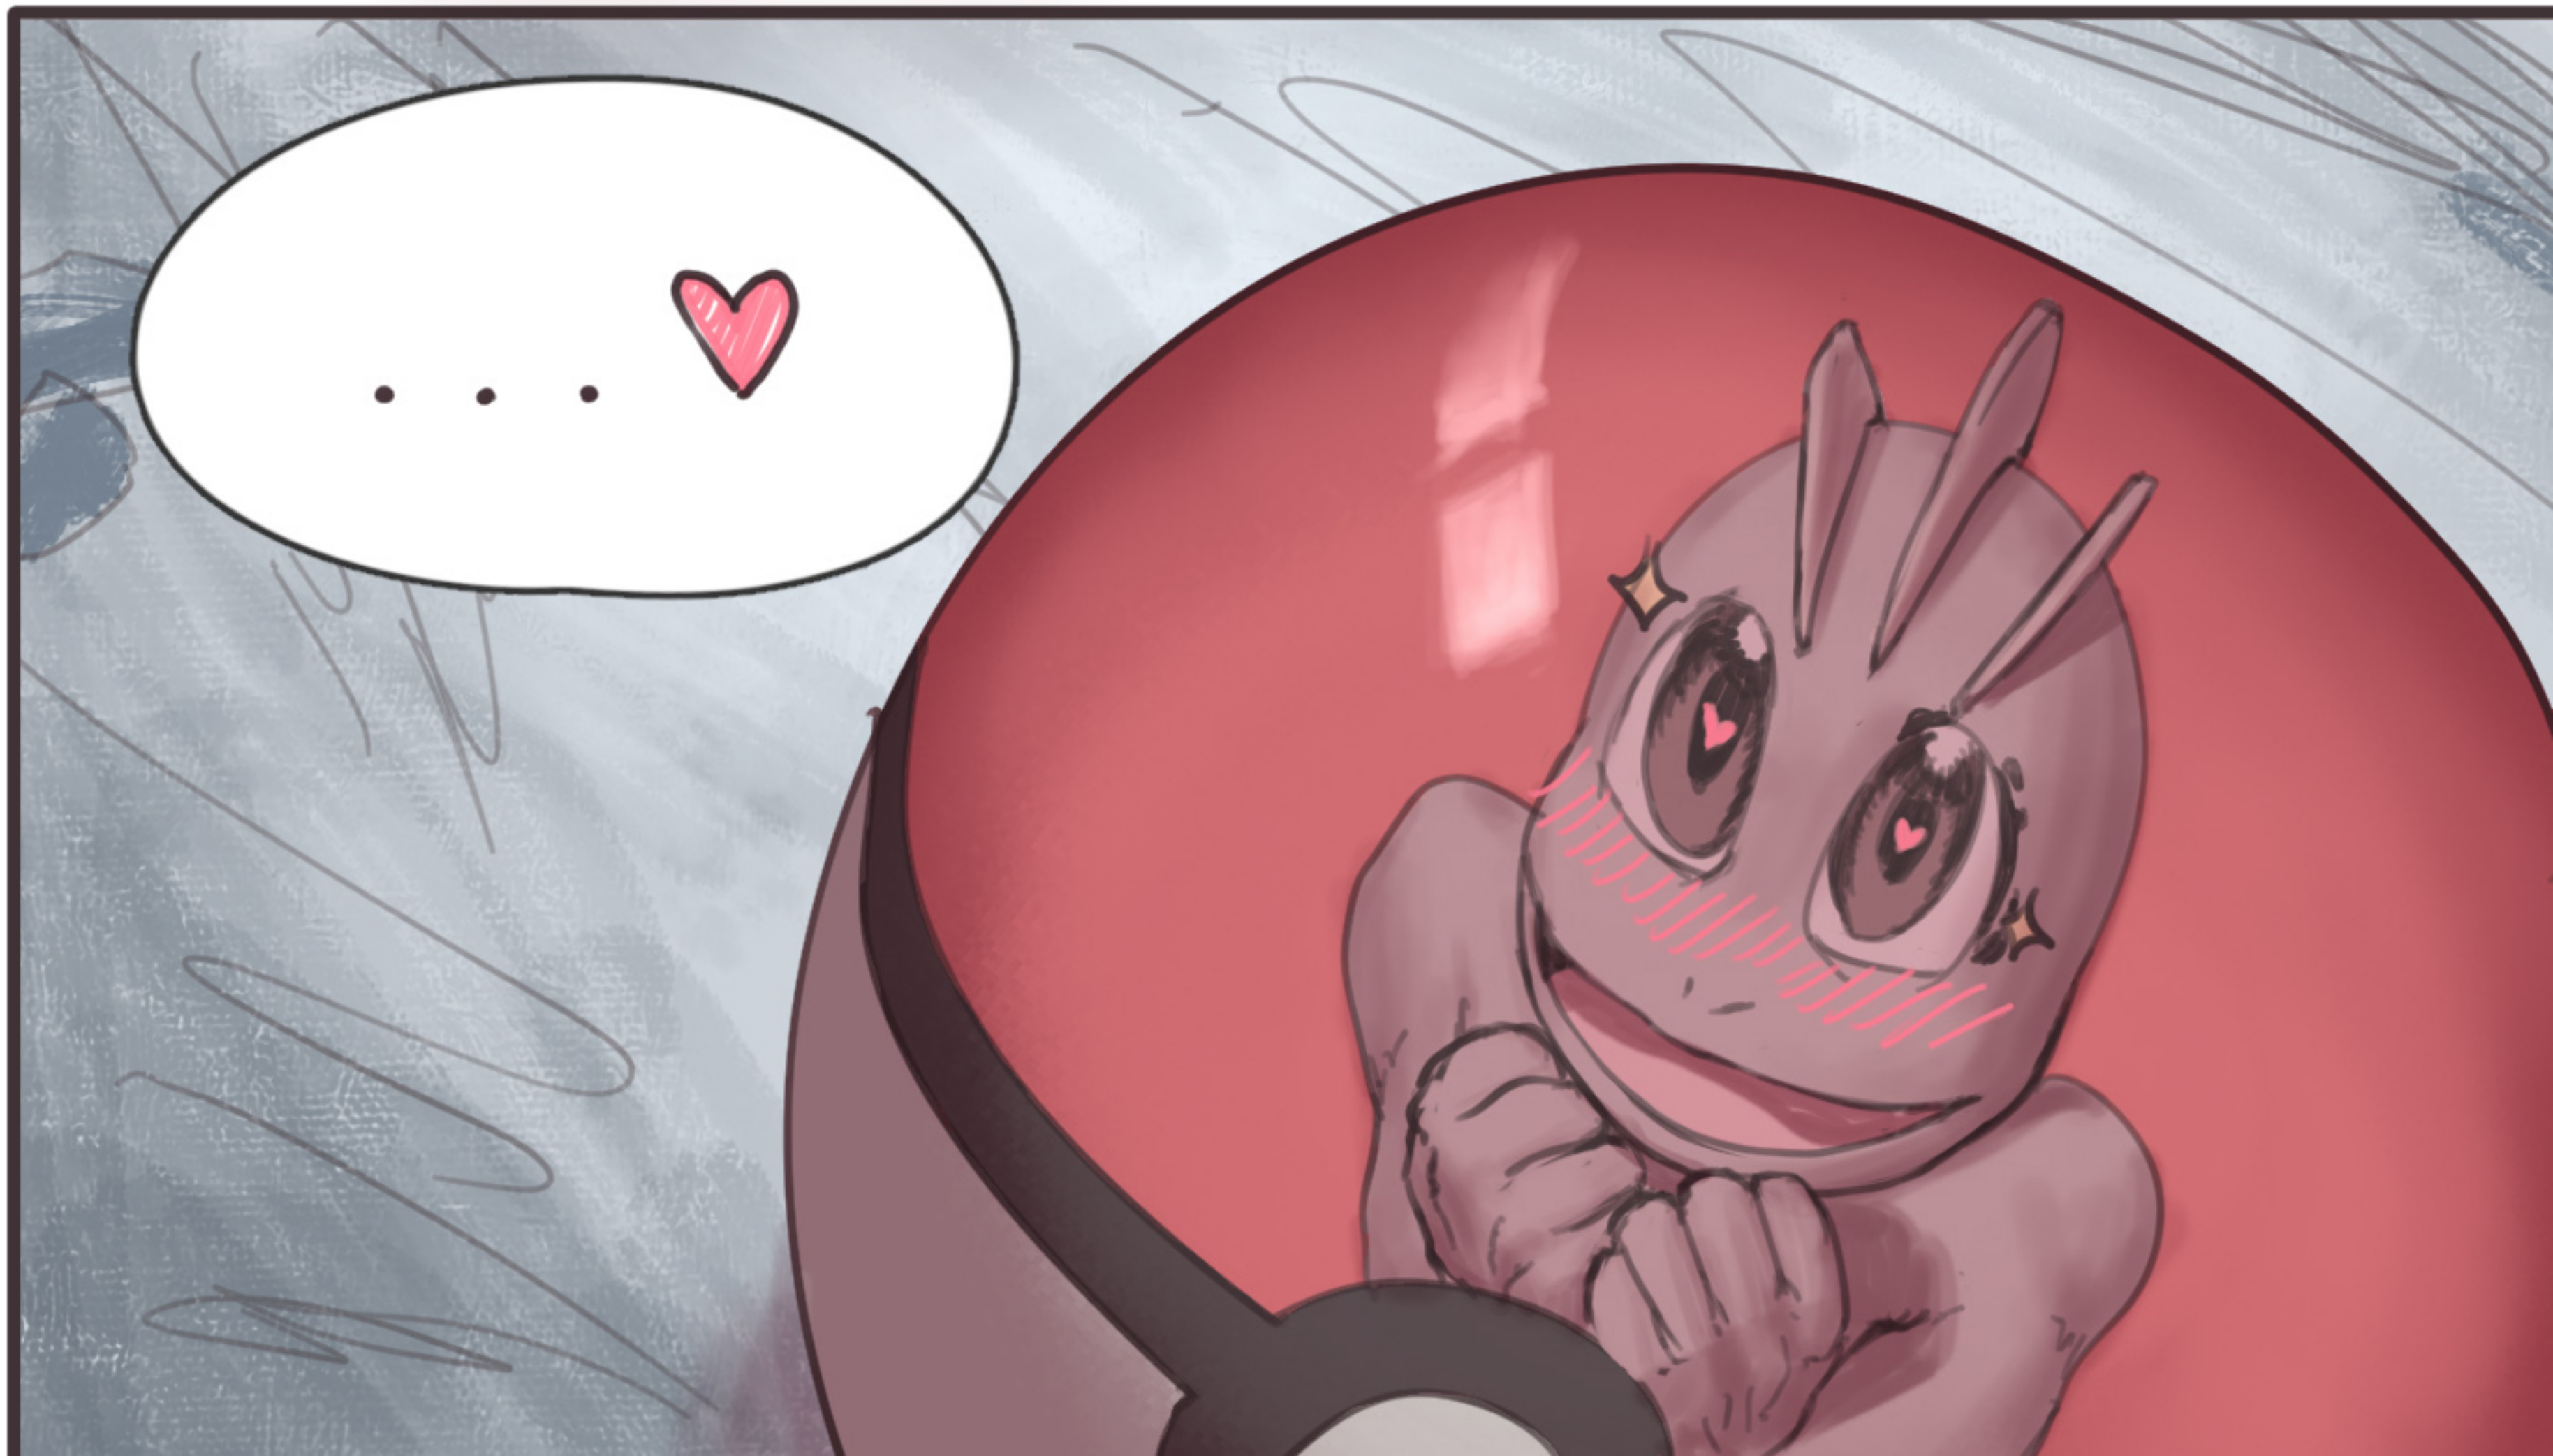

Ugh.. useless....
But might as well
keep it...

I thought I heard something...

I caught a Machop!

... ♡

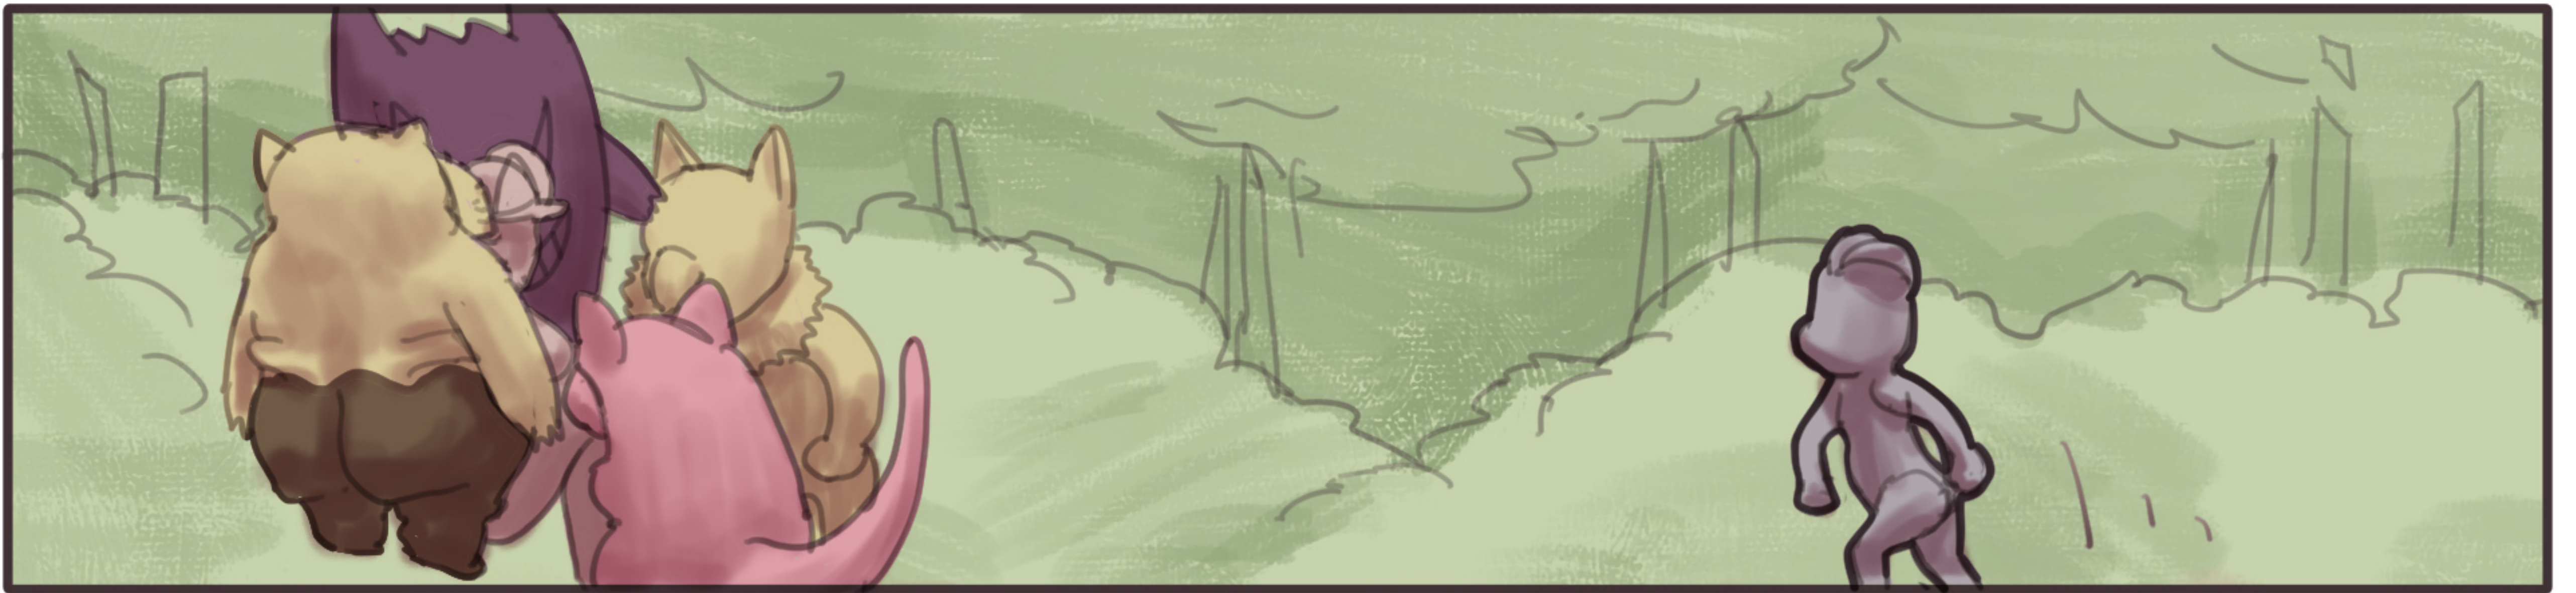

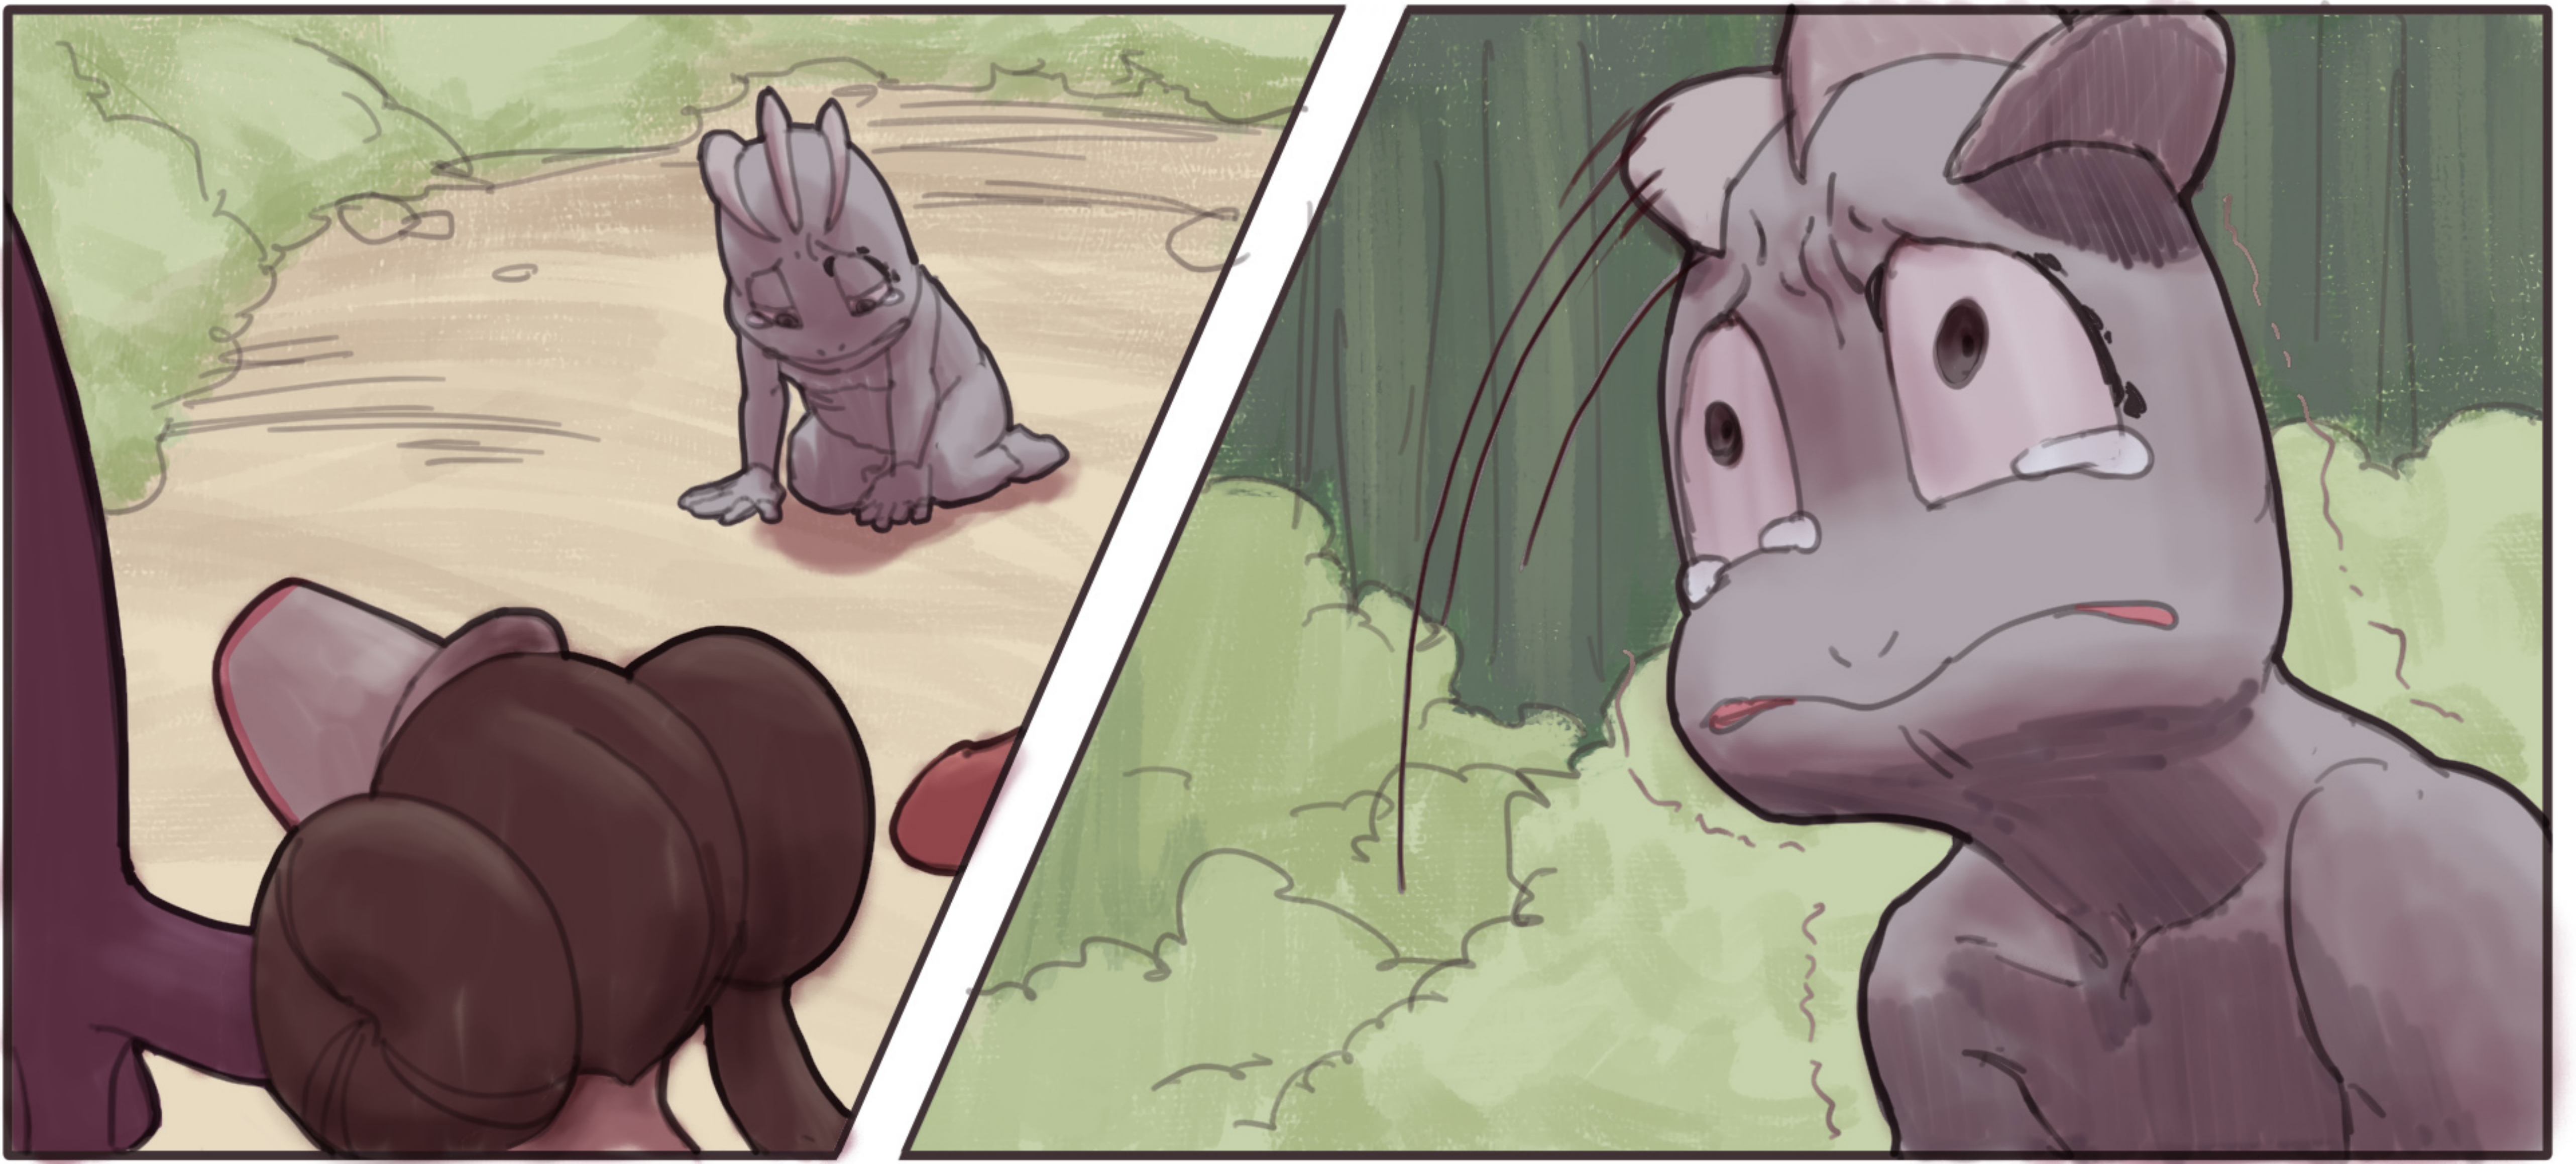

Later...

Everyone come out!

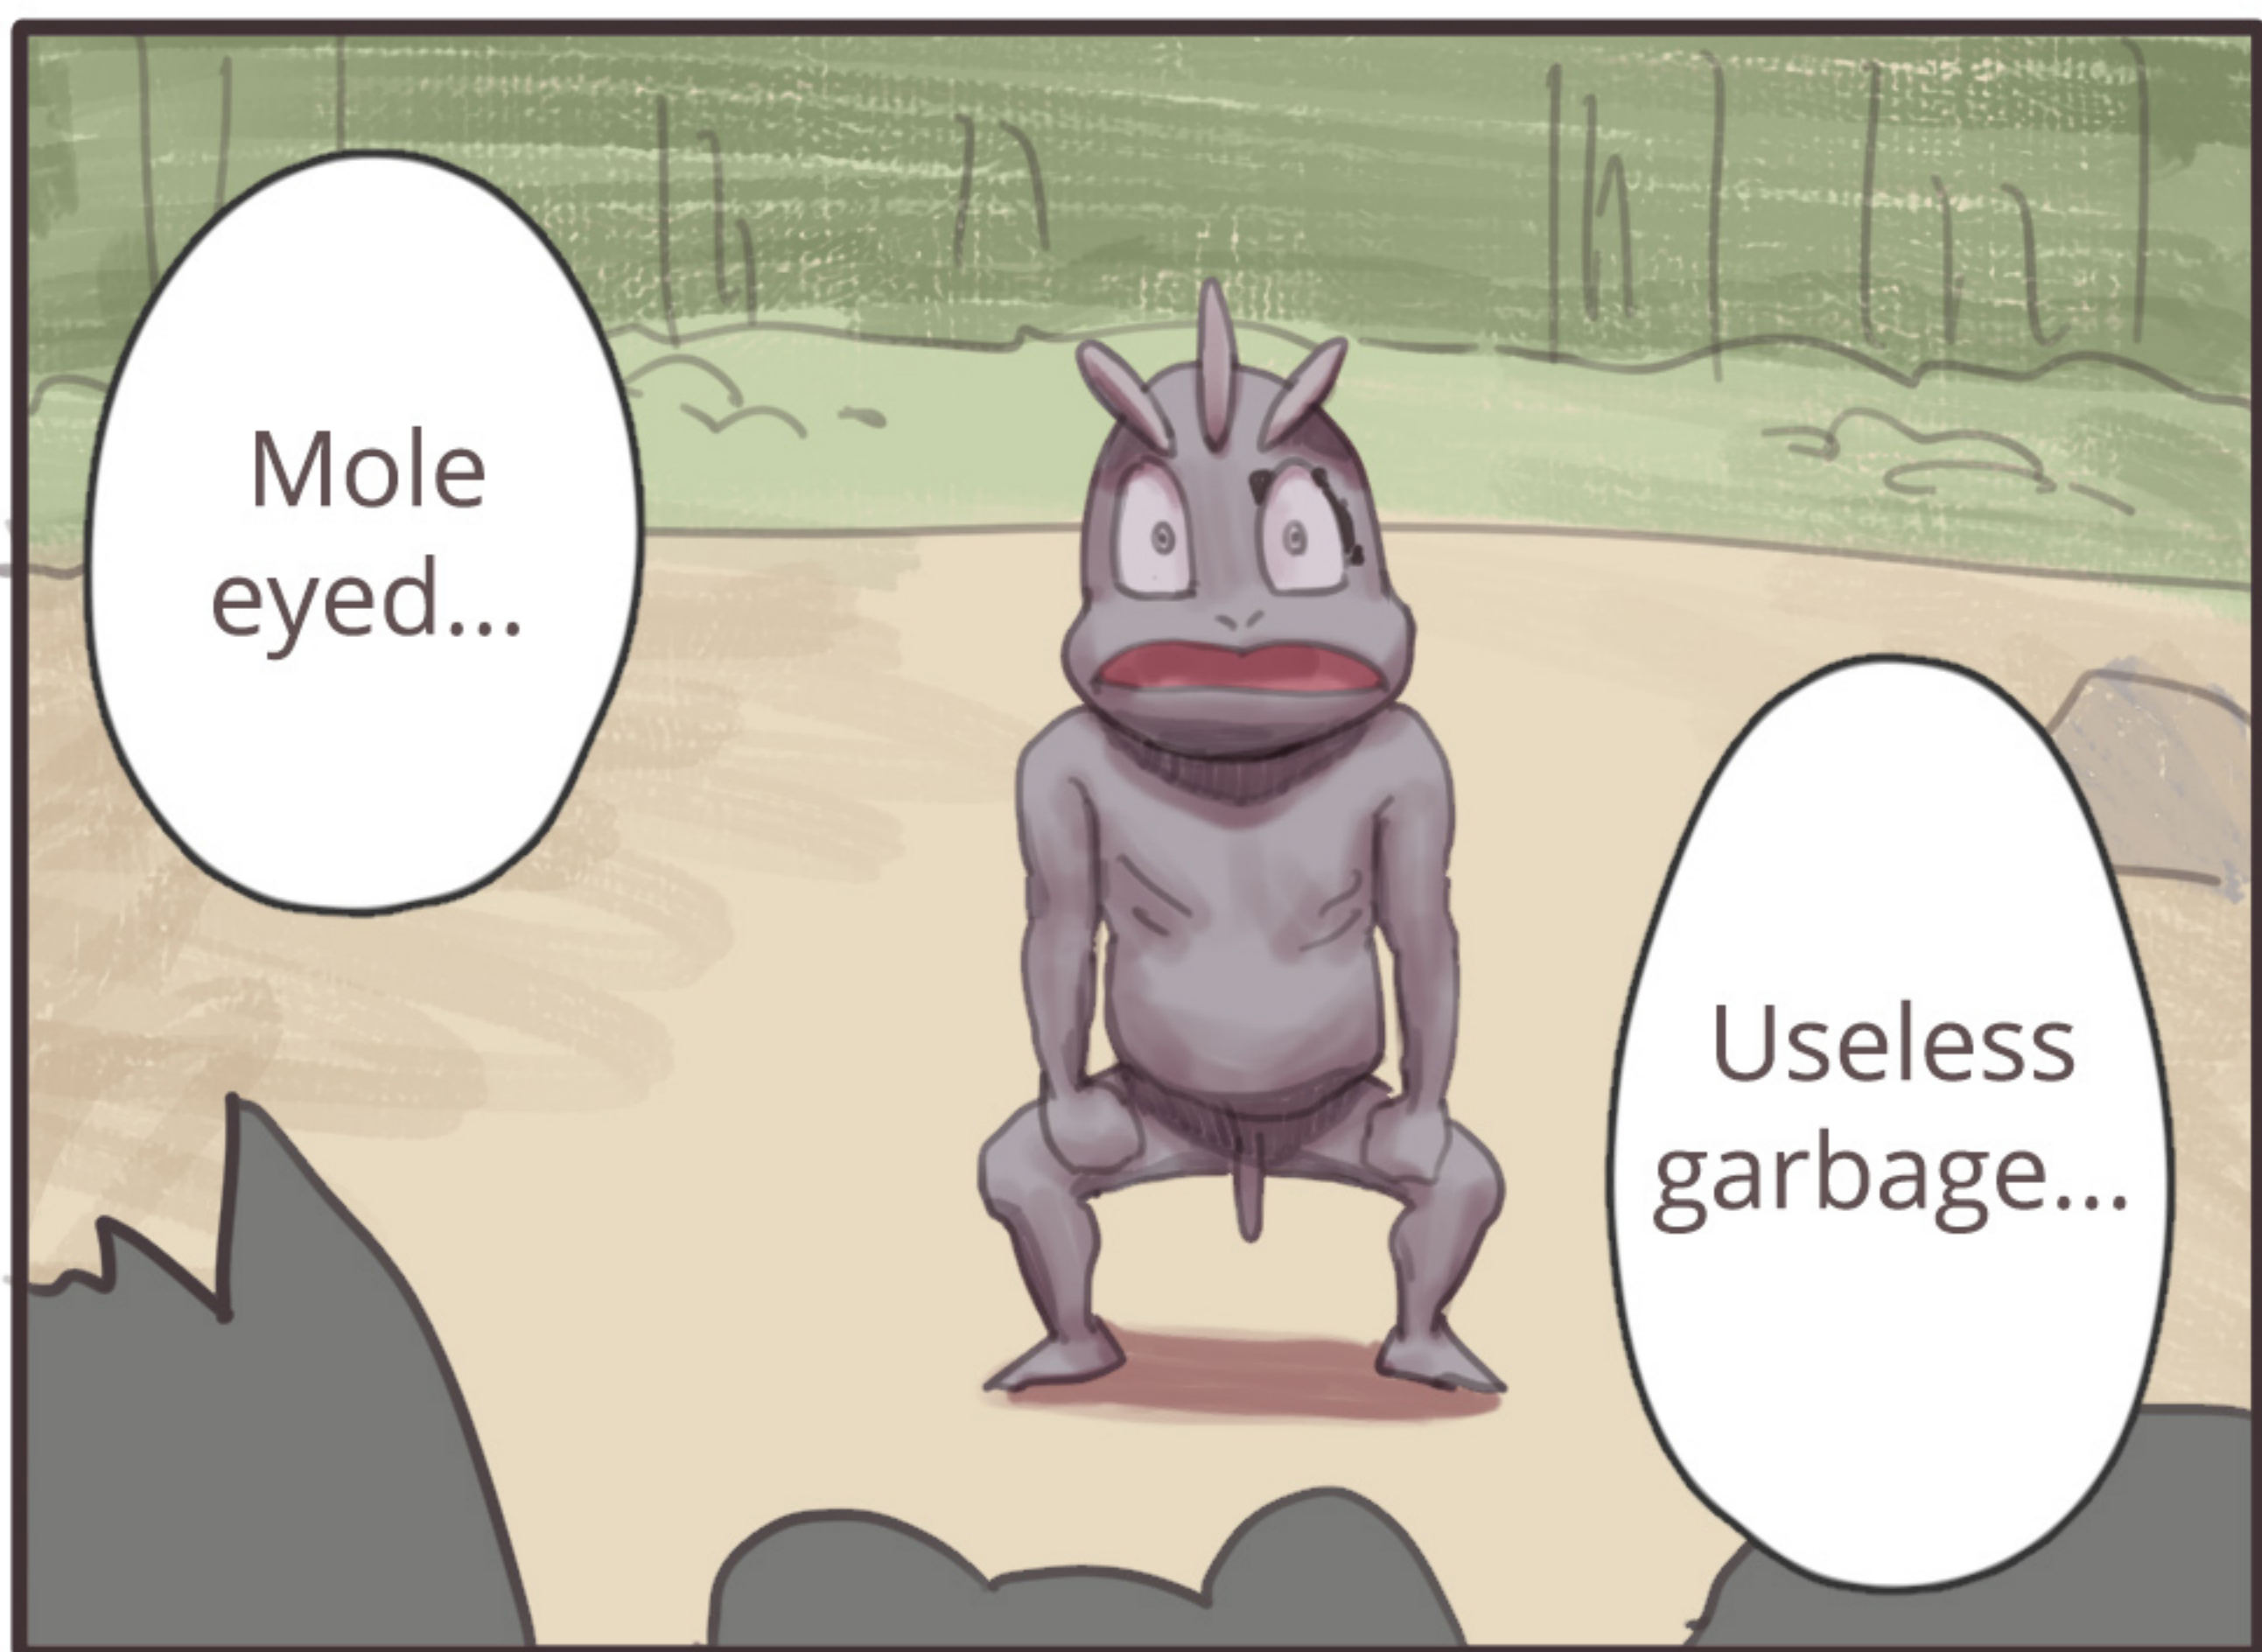

What are you doing!?

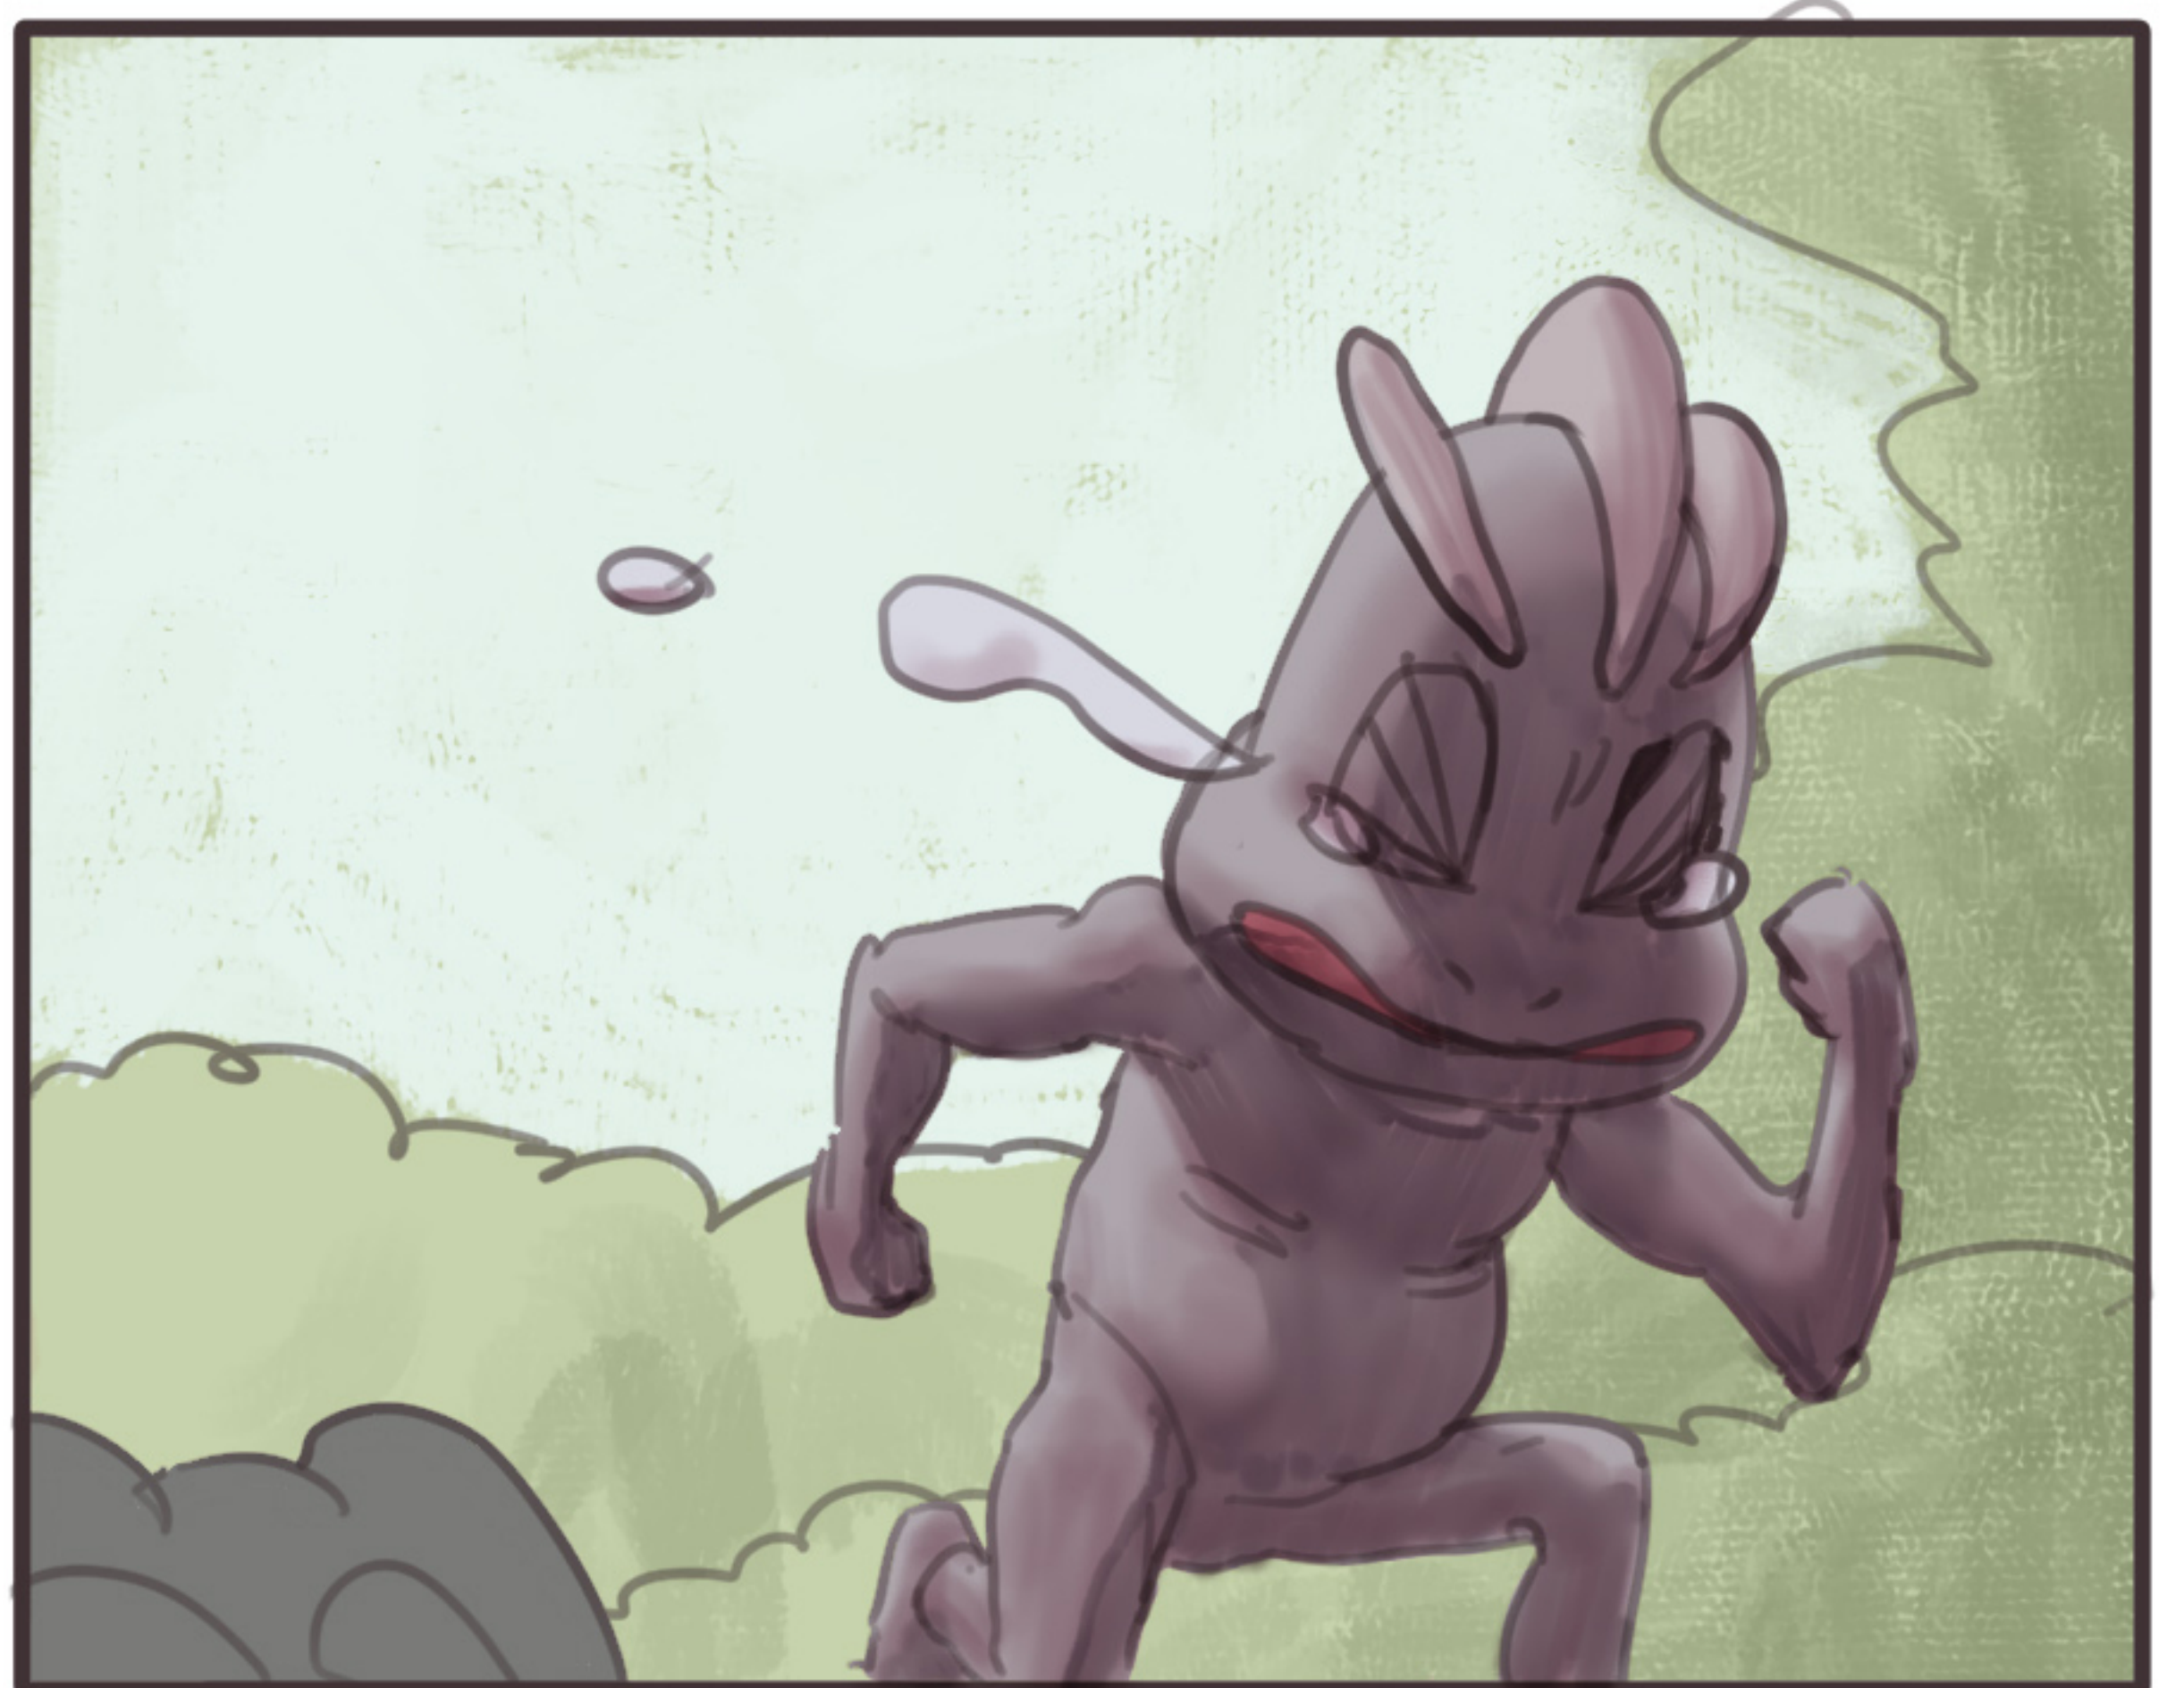

Get that putrid penis outta here!

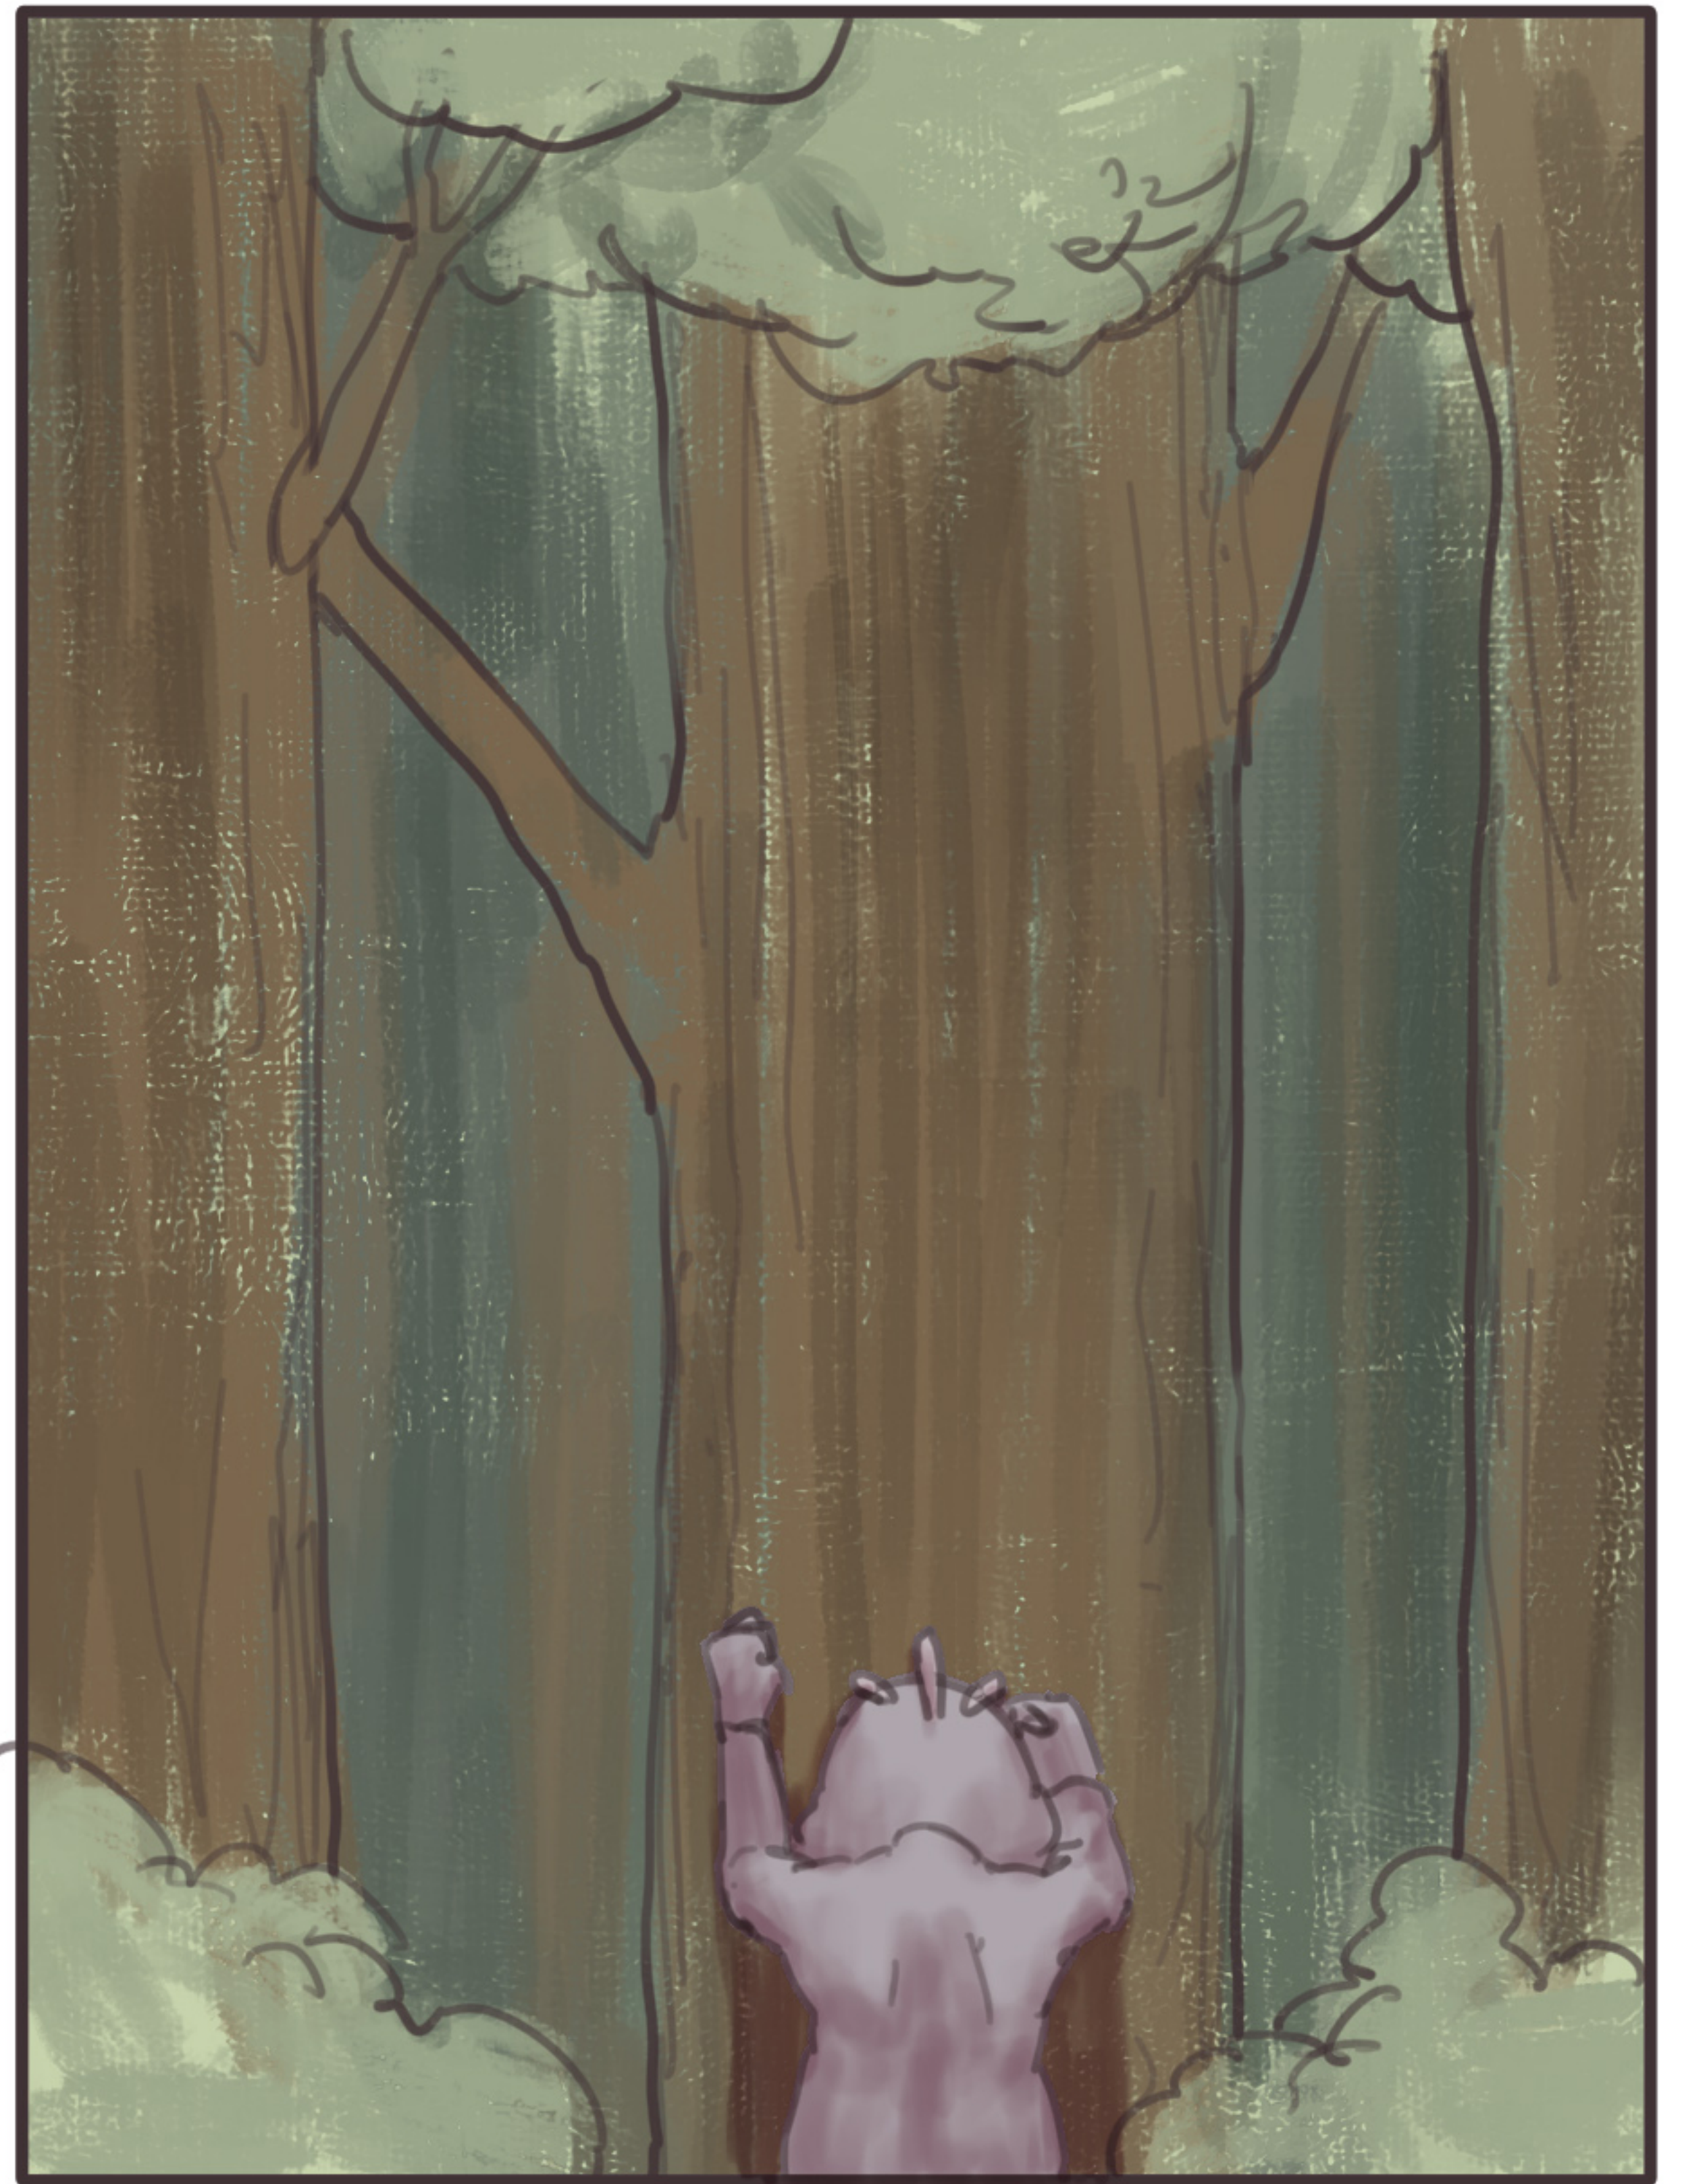

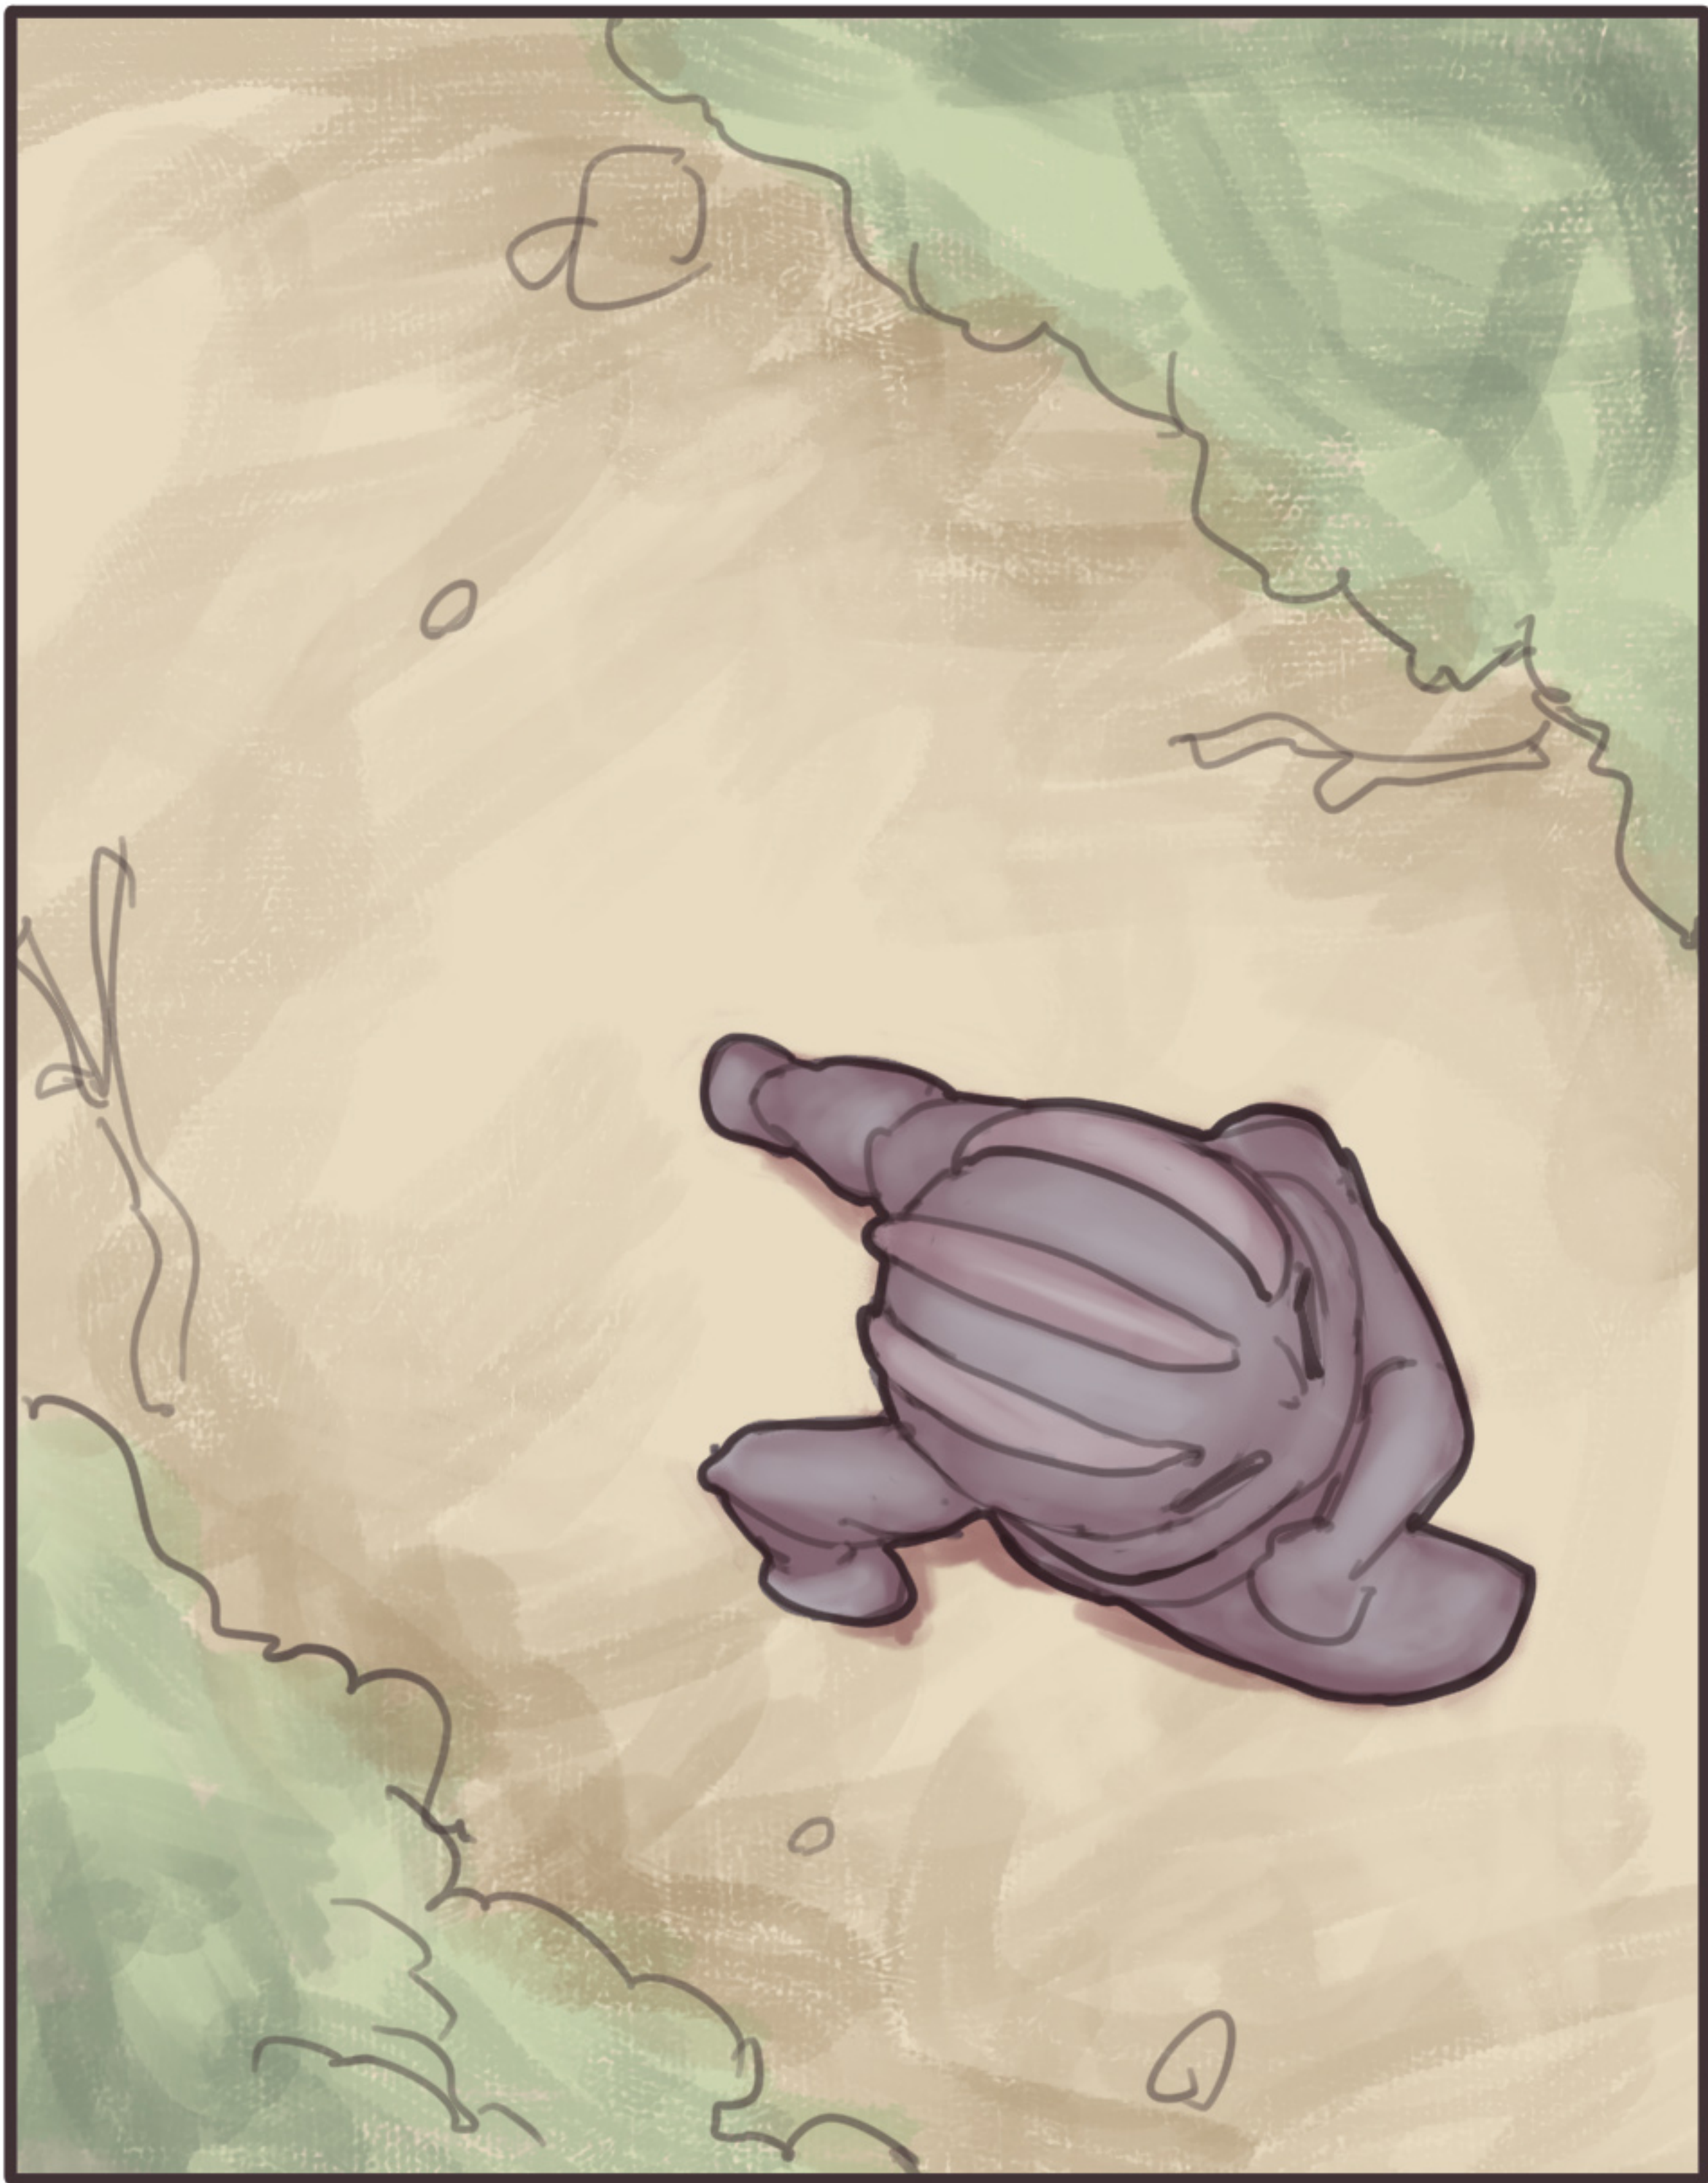

You weren't invited to the party!

Mole eyed...

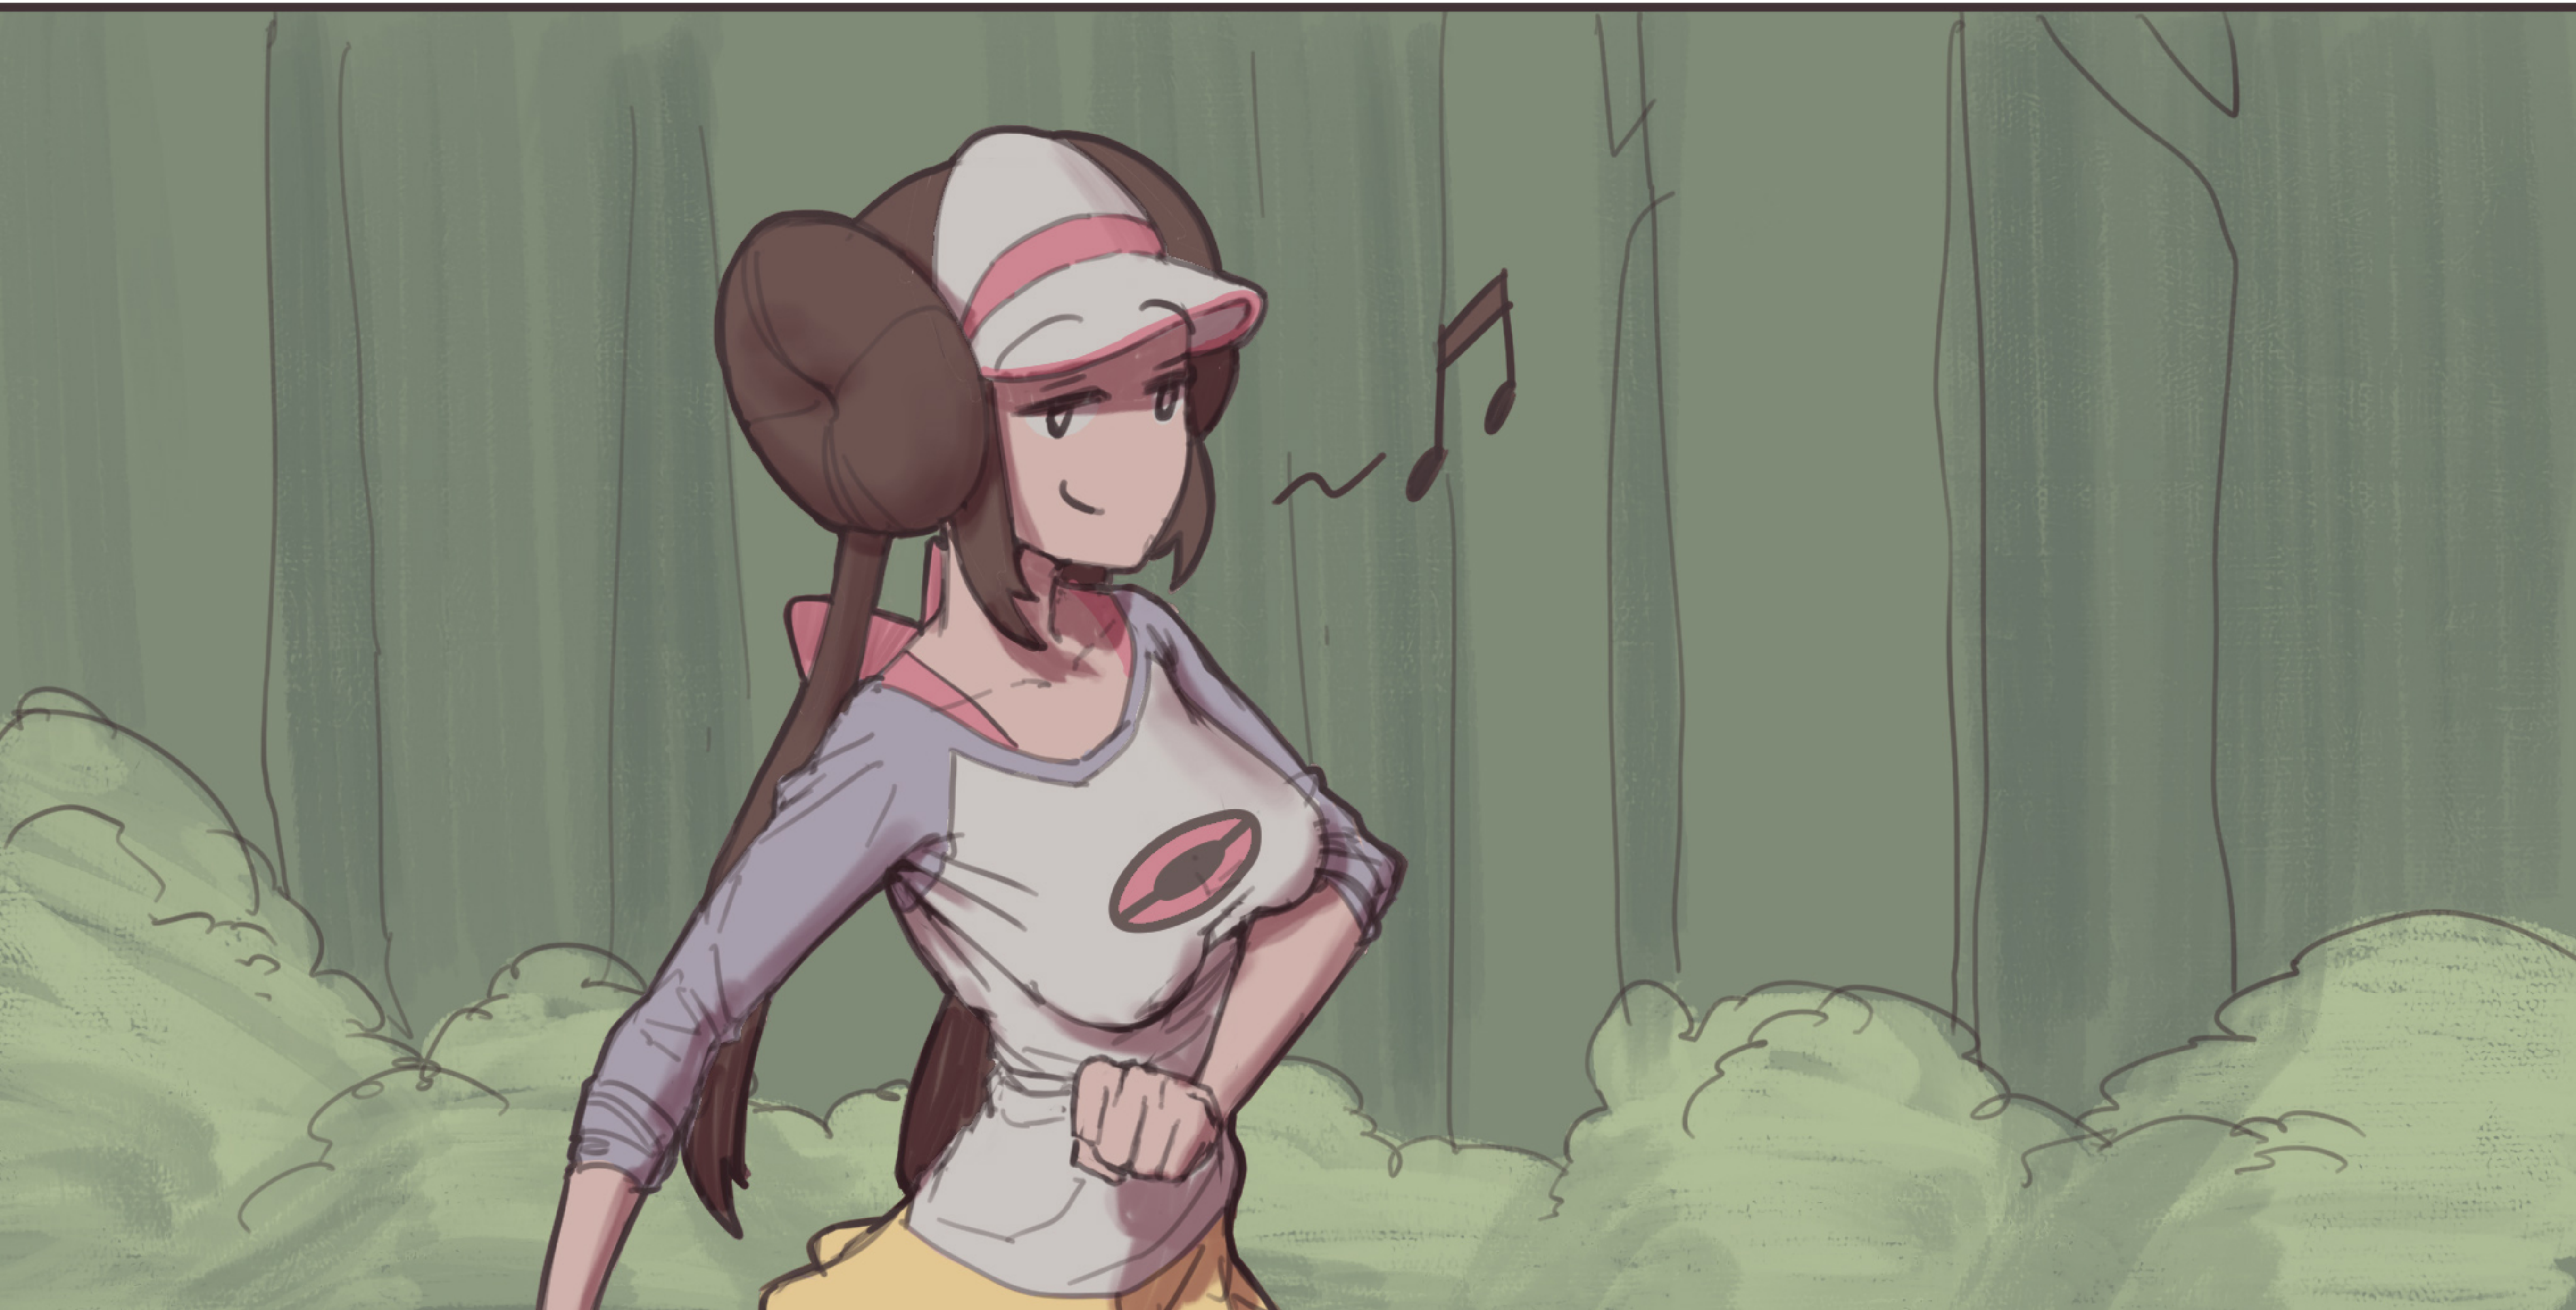

Useless garbage...

Few months
later...

hah...?

A wild Pokemon!

Come out...

A wild Pokemon appeared!

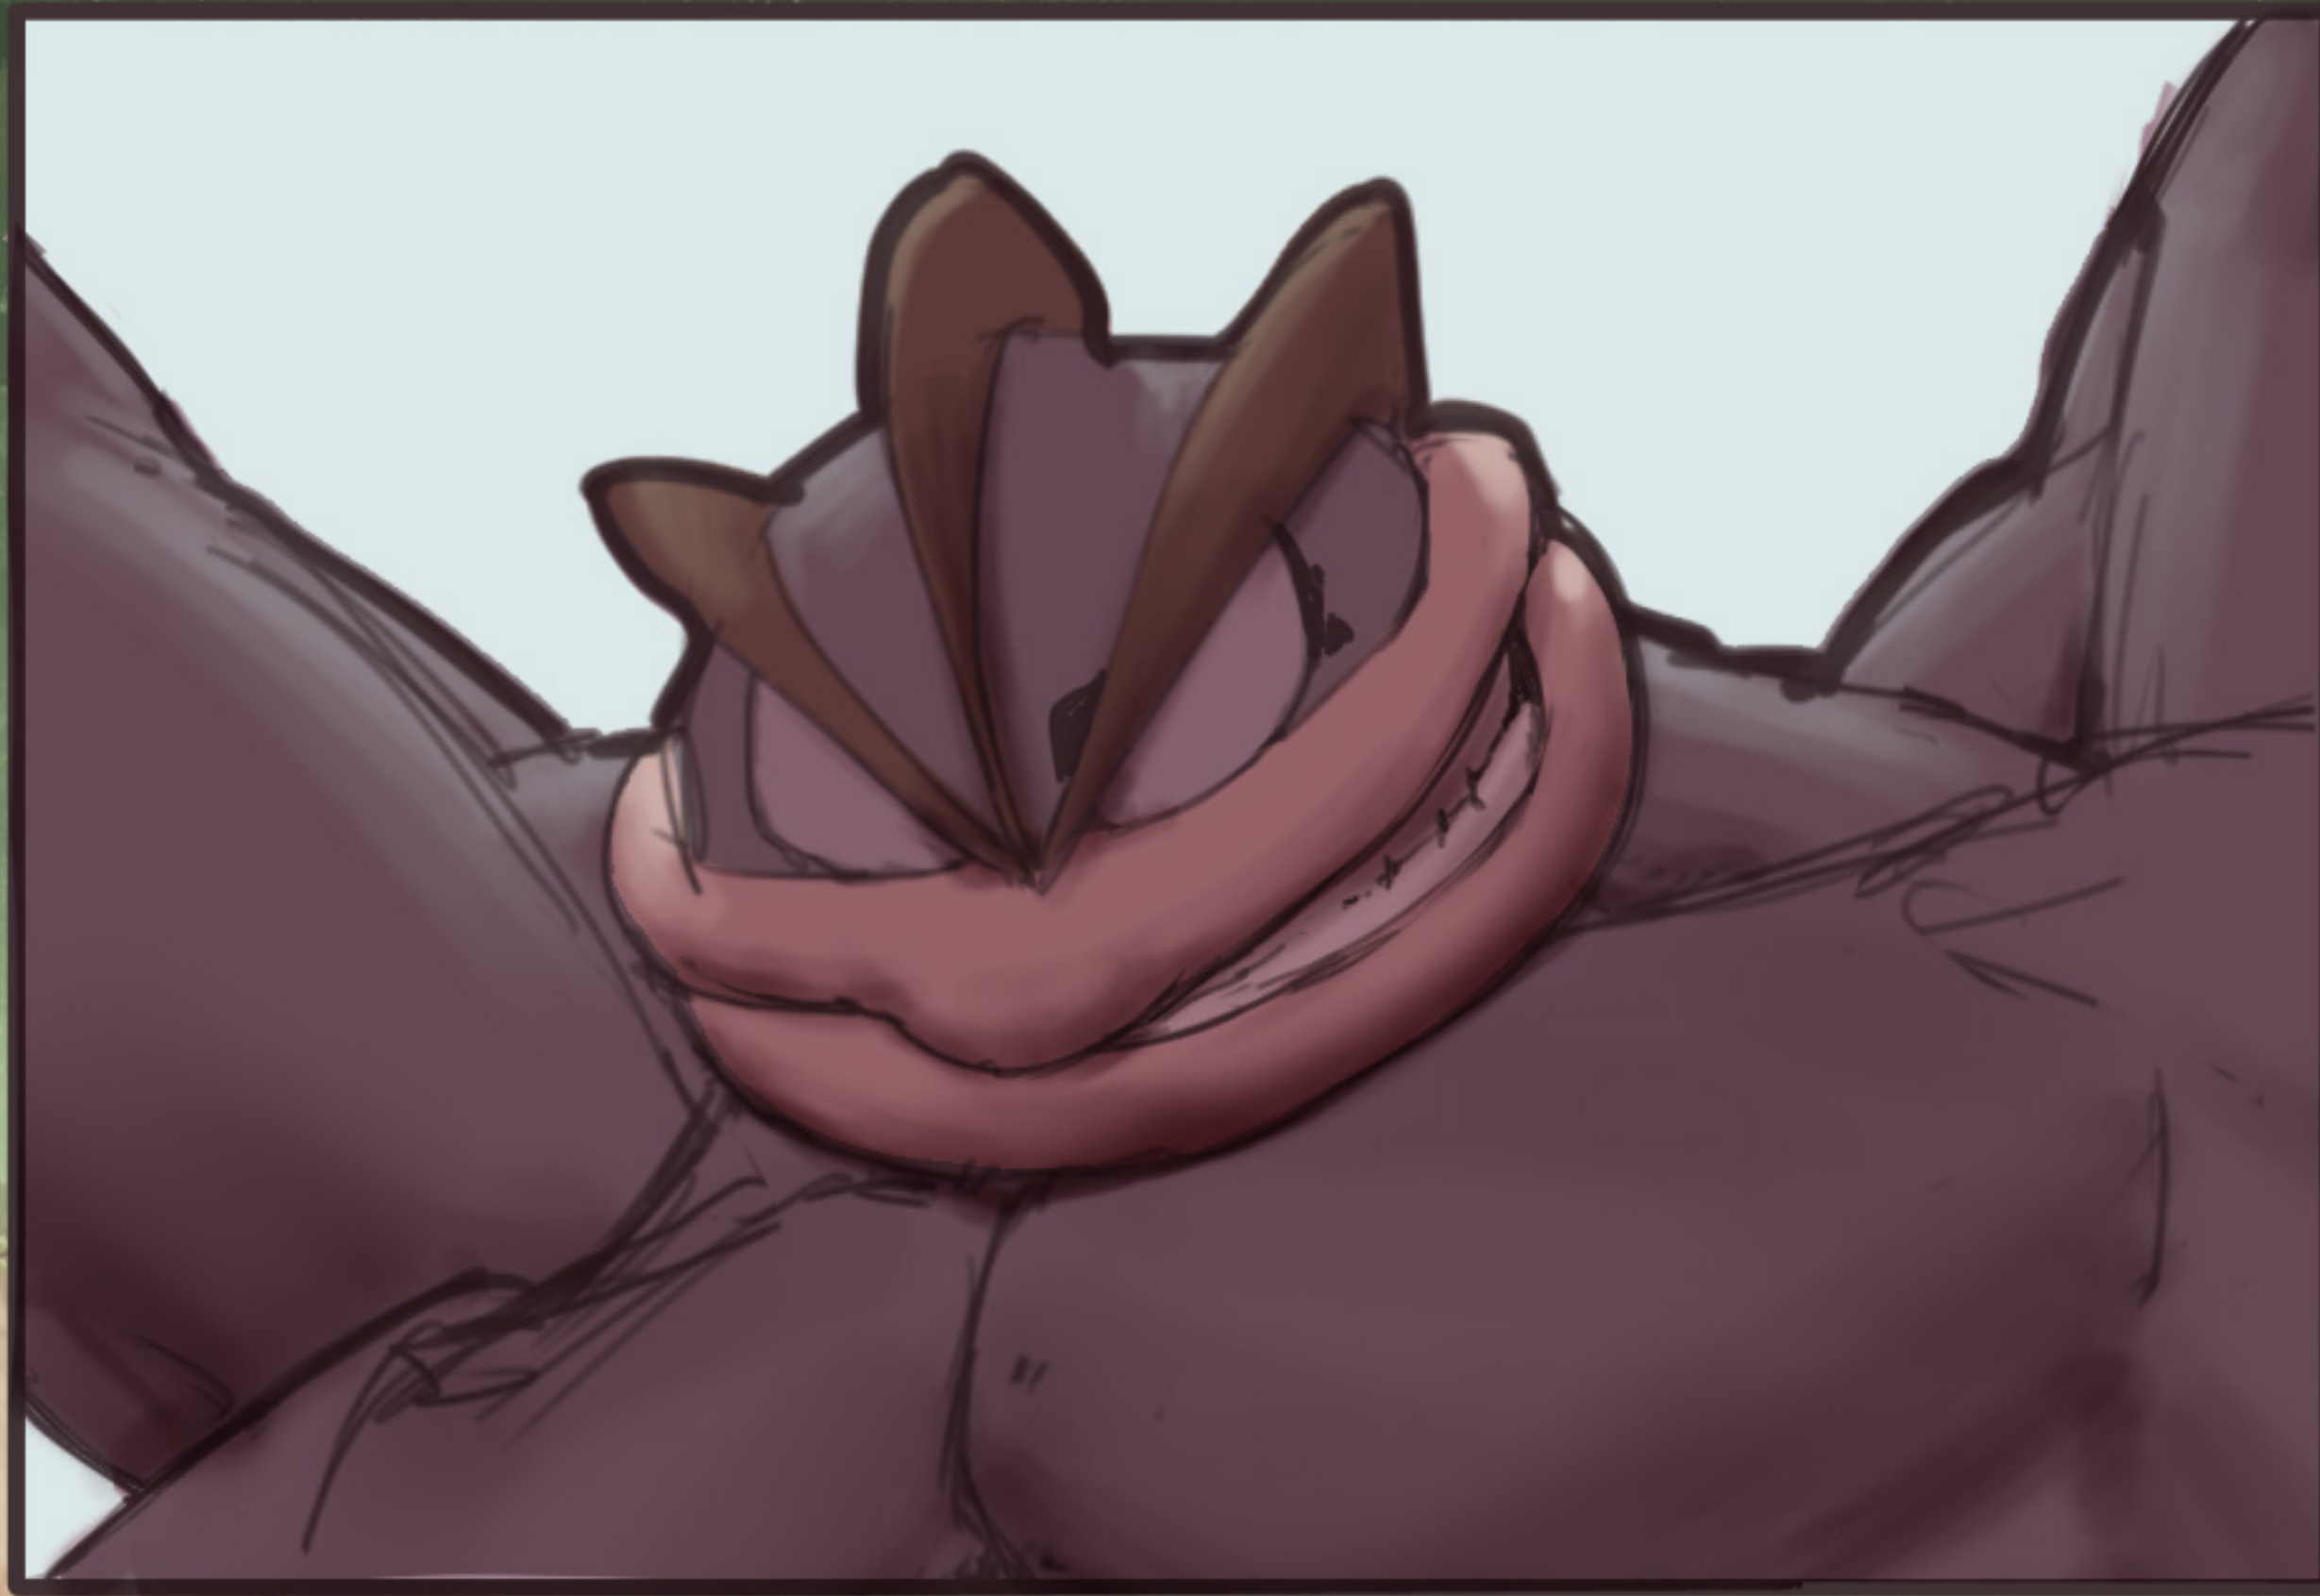

huh?

Machop used knock off!

ahaha...

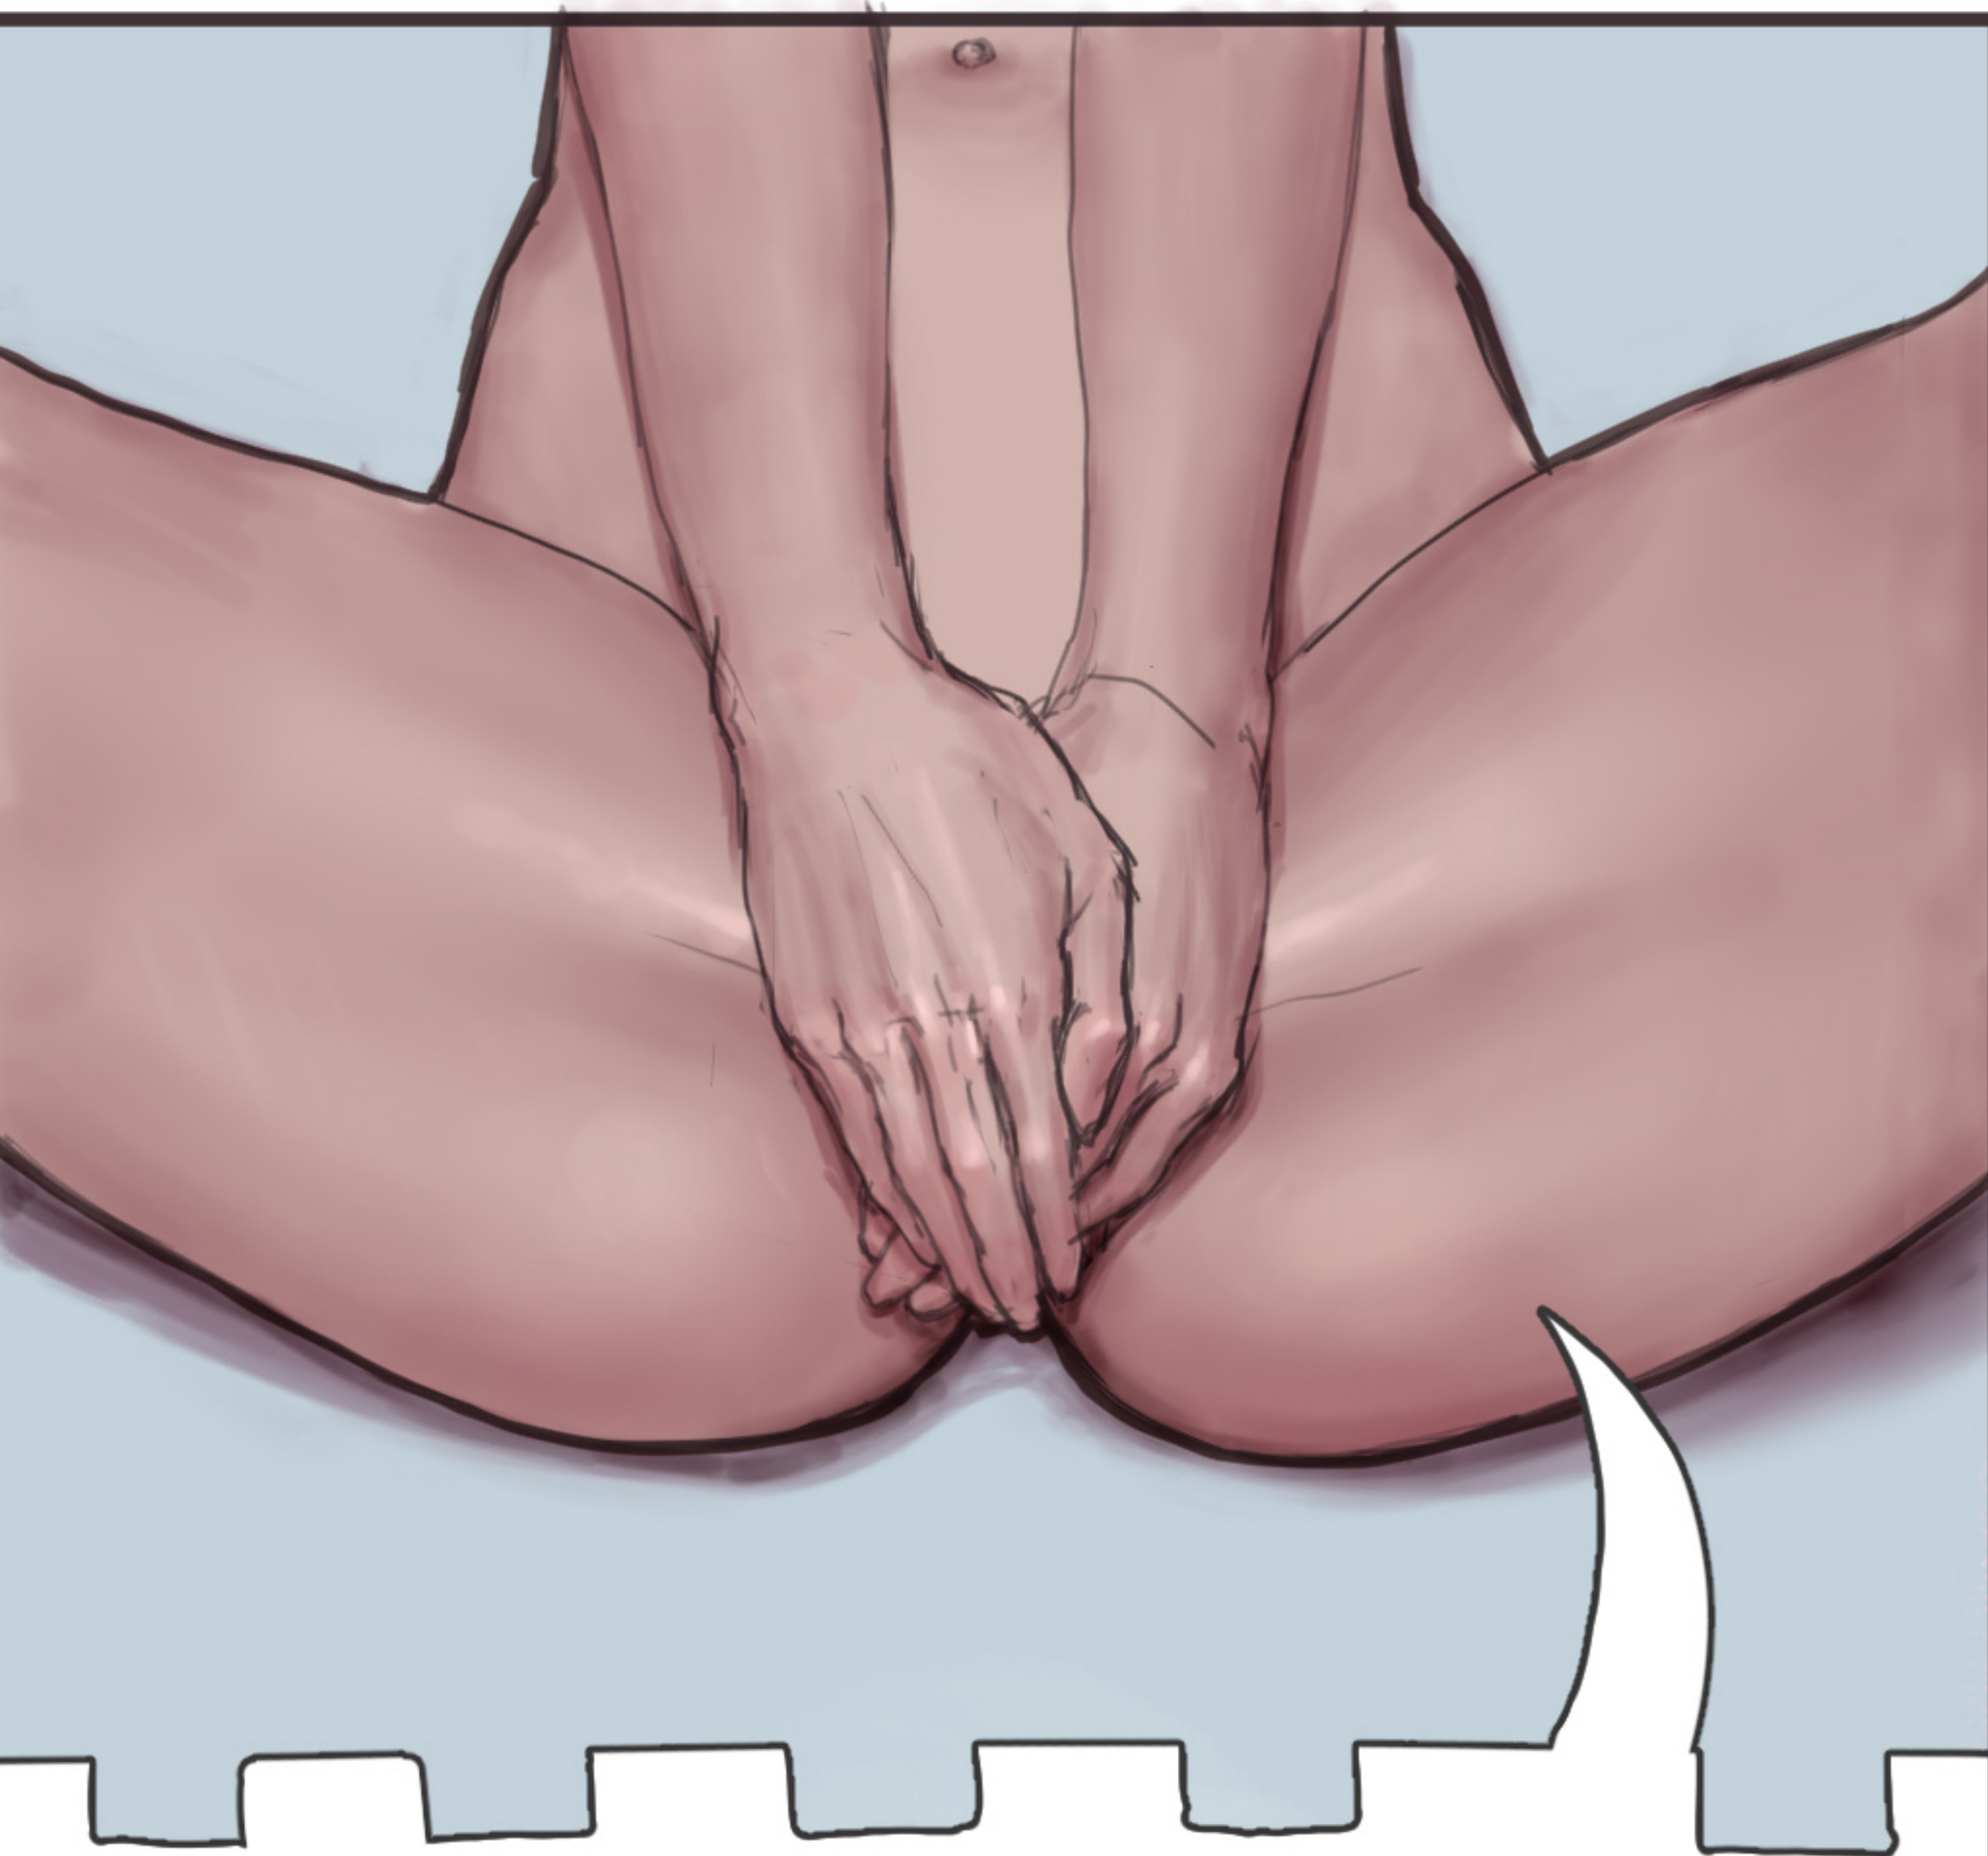

Seconds later...

W,wait wait!
What are you doing!?

That's
way too big!

Please
Stop!

"Get that putrid penis outta here!"

...!!

P, please!
I'm so Sorryyyy
I'm sorry I said those things♥

I'll do anything!
Please
Please
Stop♥

Wait! I need time to rest!

Your dick is too big for me to catch up! let me rest for a second I know what you're saying but sheesh is this a little bit too much you're having your way with me and you can't even let me rest for a second that's a bit too selfish I say don't you agree? so could you let me rest for a second please? I would be so grateful if you would then that's all I needophilia like you

blah
blah

mmp!

Machamp used knock up!
It was super effective!

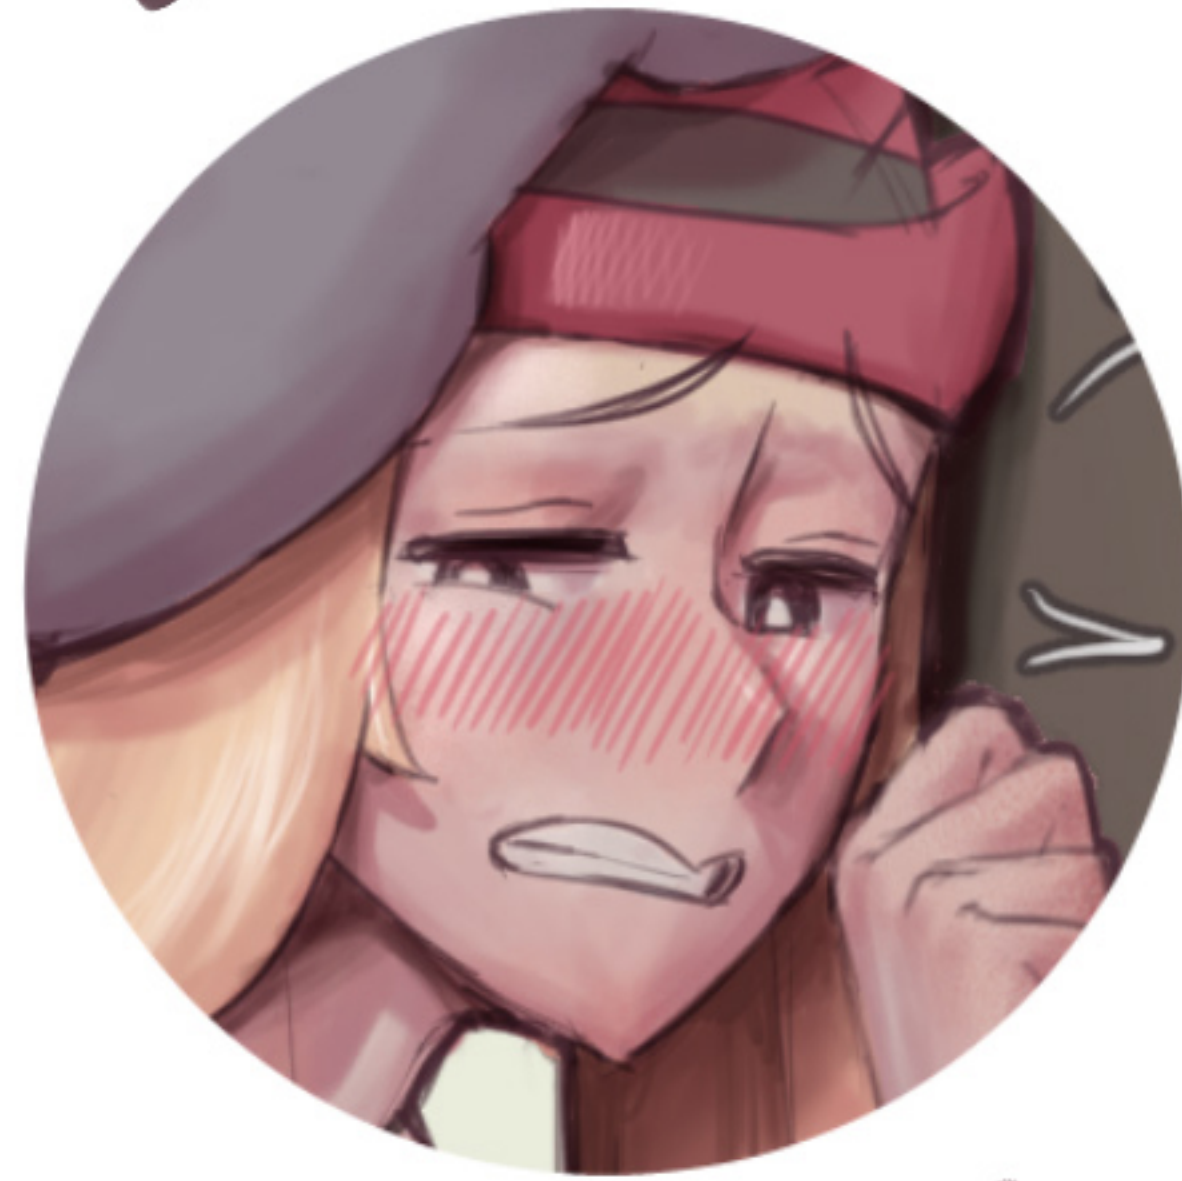

Few months
later...

Rosa is in love with Machop!
Rosa is happy

After that 'incident' Machop
keeps following me...

Hey look!
A wild Pokemon!

What?
Where?

Let me go catch it!

w..wait!

Don't leave me...

Seconds later...

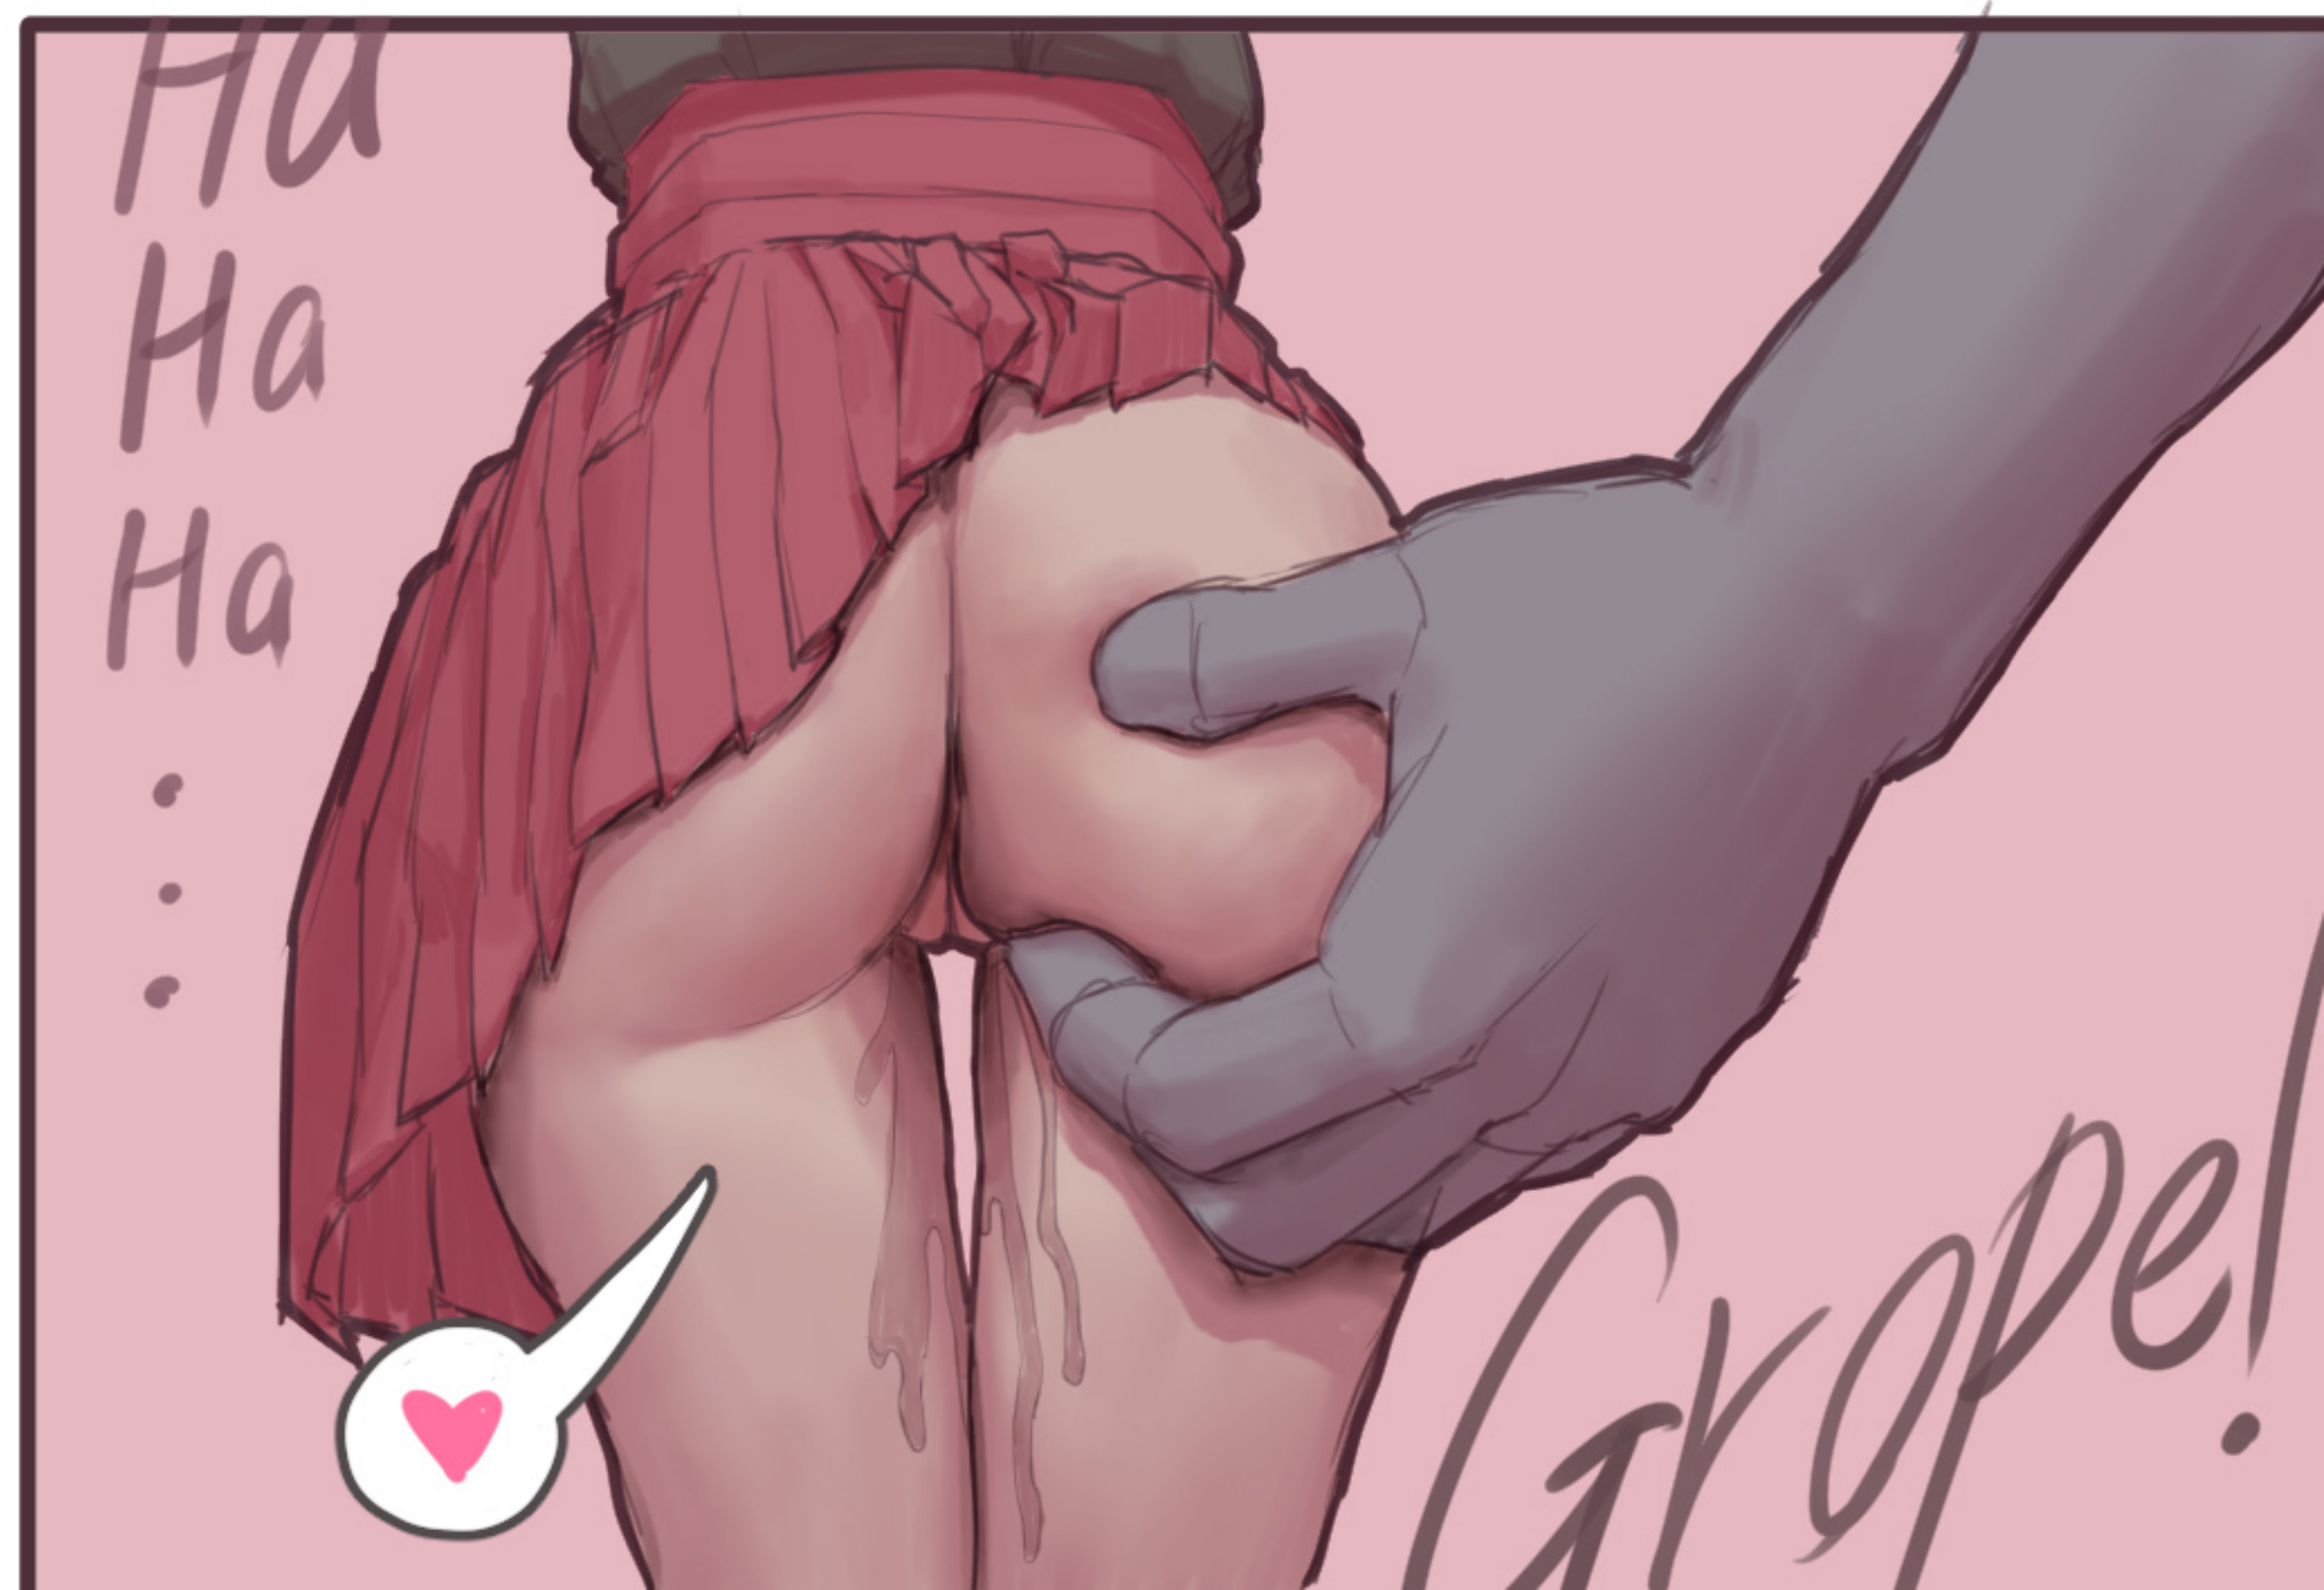

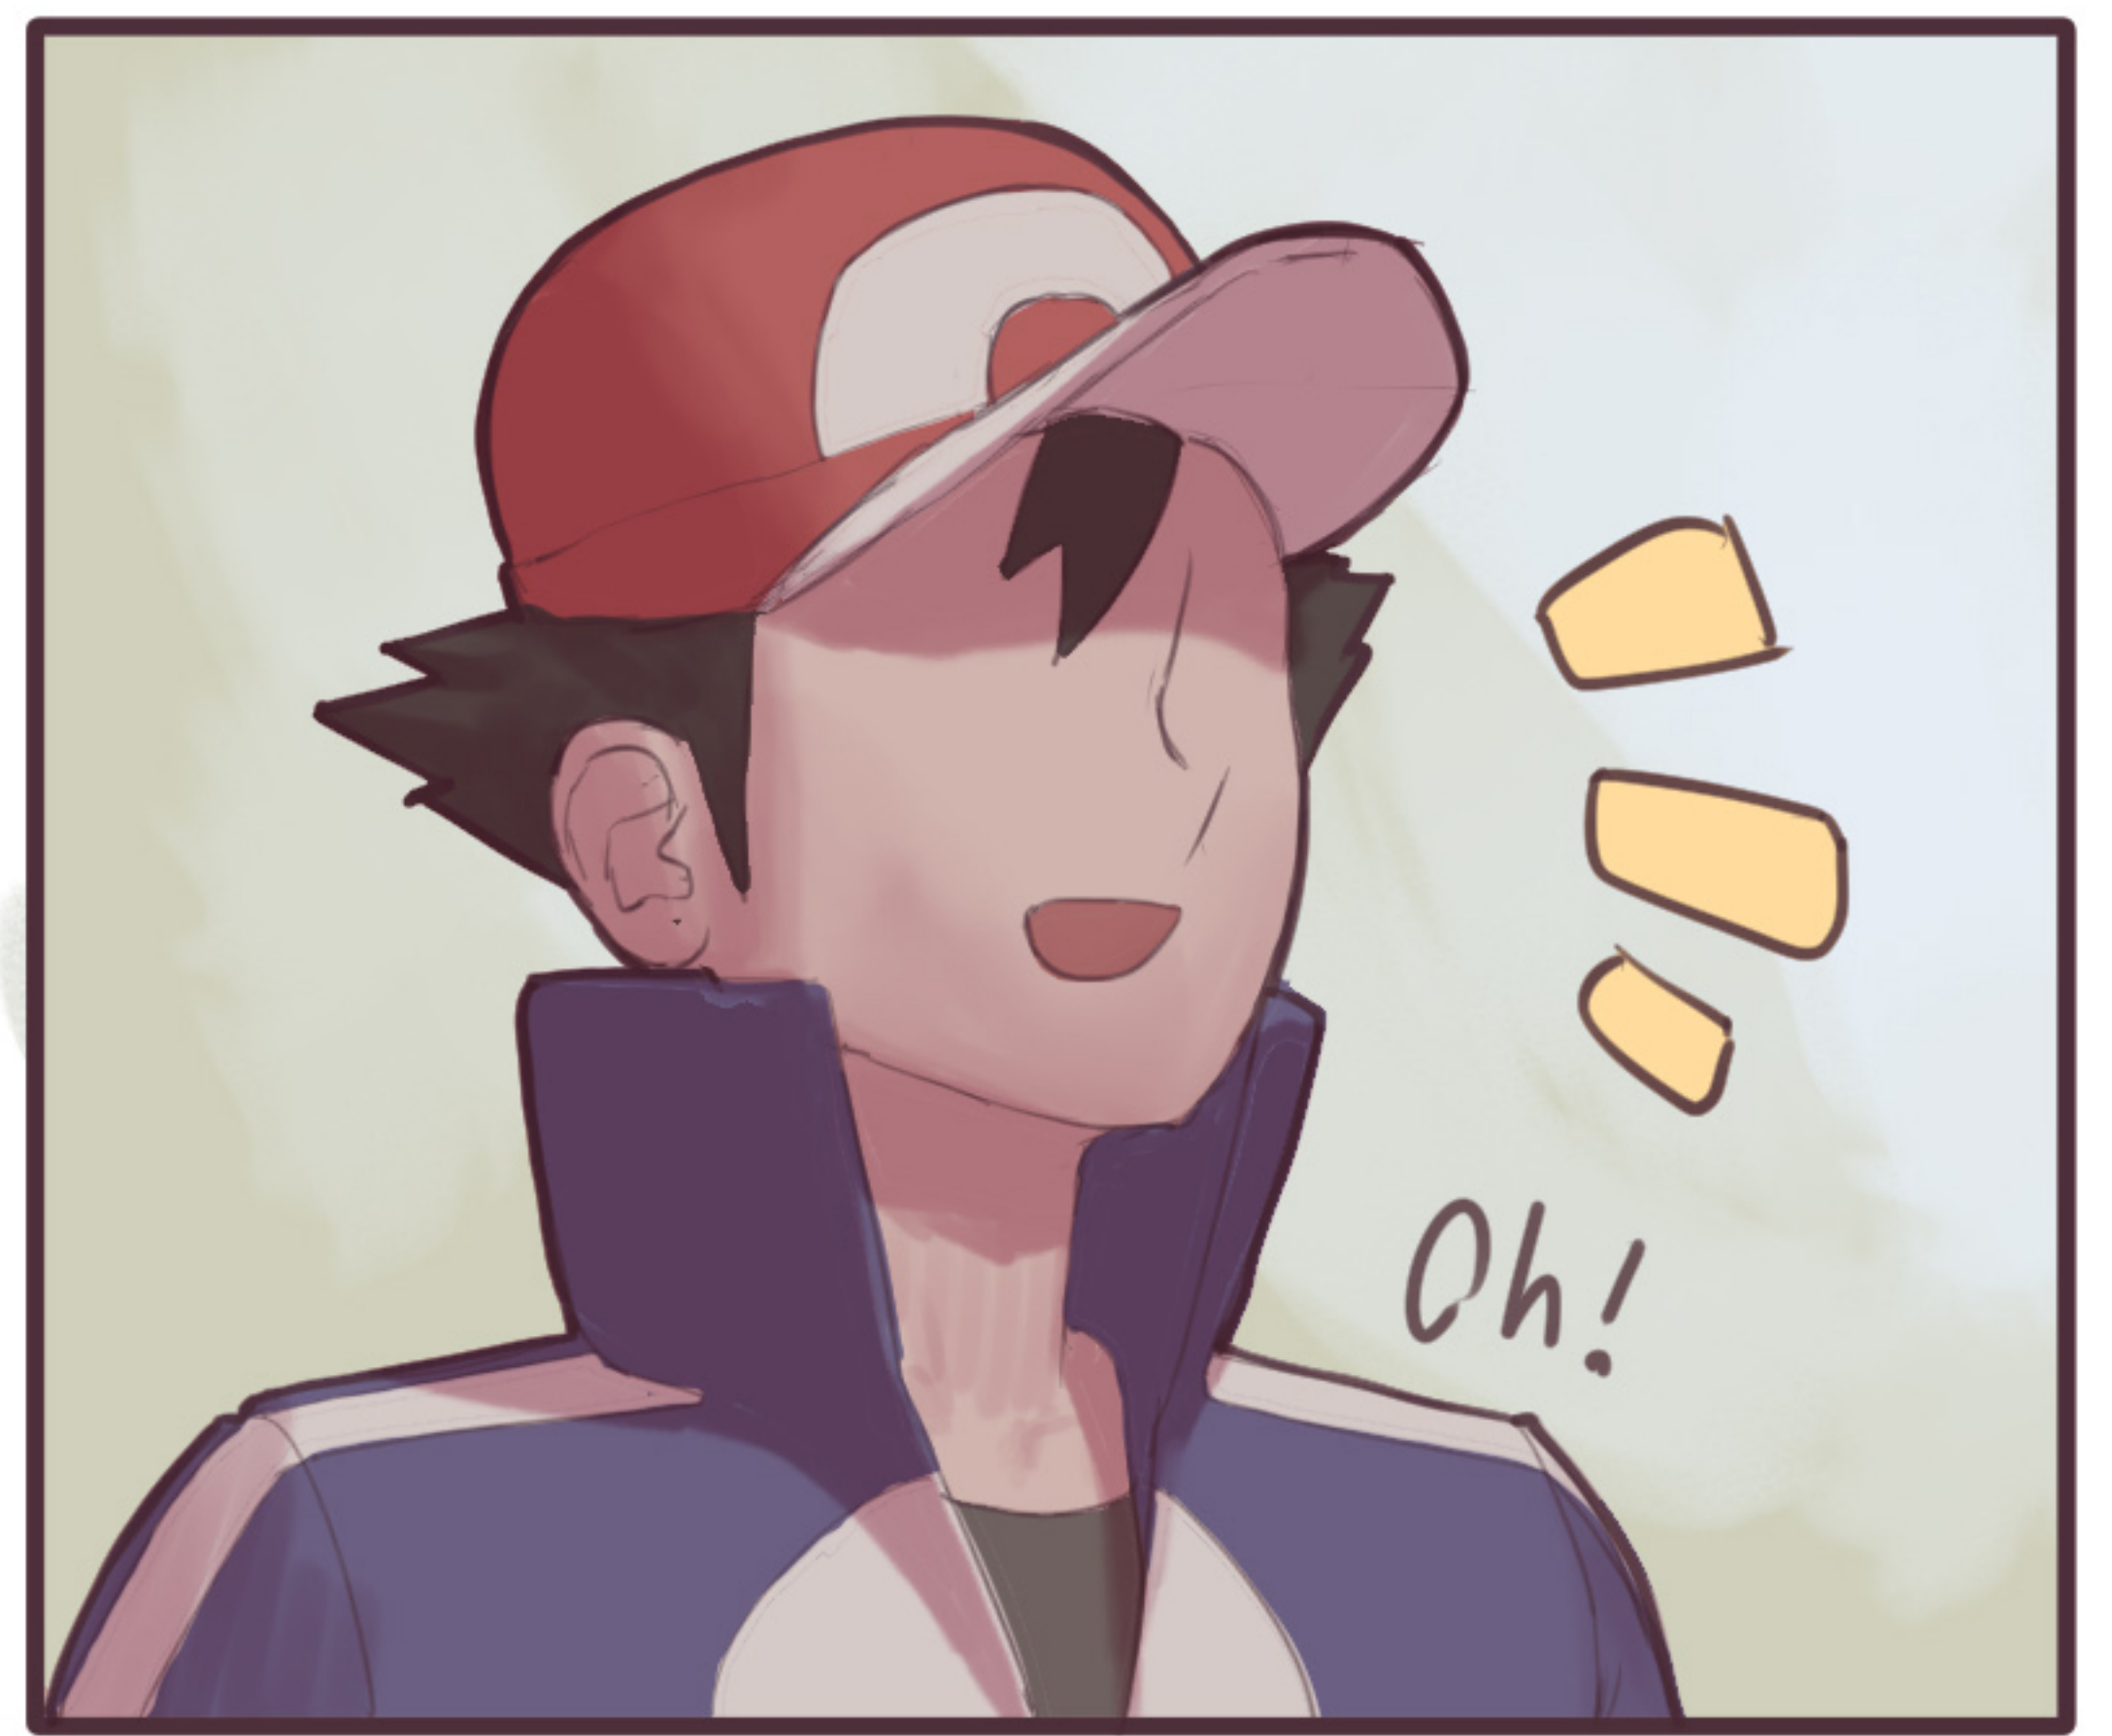

Hey Stop!

or else..

I'll tell Ash about this!
