
A woman in a white tank top, black leggings, and black boots with buckles is standing in a garage. She is looking down at a black car battery on the floor. The battery has a label that reads "salfords 4 400 45Ah 12V SB013". In the background, there are shelves with various items, a green trash bin, and a brown sofa. A speech bubble is next to her head.

Phew.. Is this all the work for today?

Finally can go home
and have a full rest!

I afraid.. not yet..
we still have work
to do here.

What..? Are you serious?

The Government just gave us these..

It's uranium battery.
A new type of power.

A new source of power? It's look promising.

Yes, most transport can use this.

Car, train, airplane,
tank or even spaceship.

Where are you going, Kyomi?

Toilet. And find Hana.

Have you found
what you need?

The news were telling
the truth after all.
Glad this workshop
has the battery I need.

We will steal it
in secret.

You with me
on this, Haruka?

"Steal"? Like we are doing illigal
thing..

That is if we can't take it the easy way.

We could have planned it before doing though.

At least I taught you how do put a skinsuit on.

Well? Are we going to do it?

I'm all ready.

Take her clothes,
I will go and find
a new shirt.

And we have to do
fast before they woke up.

You look worries.
Are you really..?

No.. I just thinking
what if..

..what if.. things went side way..

..just hope you
won't leave me.

Side story: How
to wear a skinsuit
with Haruka.

I hope everyone enjoy
the story~ Now, I will show you how to wear a skinsuit~

Your legs always come first. And you can hold the arm if you want.

The same goes to other leg and the skin will fit with every size~

Next, put your
arm in the suit.
Also, do it steady.

And next, put
your hip and chest
to fit with it.

"Finally, your head
will be the last.
Remember to check
if there are any wrinkles."

Check your voice and..

..you are done~

If this useful~ Please
do to support me
