Let the right one in

Samus nodded to the repair bot blow as her gunship rotated out of the port and flew off into space. The fledgling bounty hunter's destination is a far one, but not important. A rare moment where she can relax in her own ship and not worry about another call coming in for someone who wants someone dead. She was glad that her mission took on this planet. Allowing her to step outside while her ship was being repaired to find some information on her target, a slave trader.

As the orange vessel started to drift off into deep space, Samus powered down her suit to full zero percent. Leaving her in nothing but her tight fitting sports bra and hip hugging shorts. The blacktop squeezing her heavysset breast tightly. showing off a fair amount of cleavage while her shorts kept digging into her bouncy ass. Her long blonde hair is tied in a ponytail.

Standing out of her seat she decided to take stock of her equipment while she waited for her ship to drift through space. The quiet of her ship easing her as she tuned in her cockpit and stood up. Enjoying the quietness of space.

Though the moving shadows on her ship are another story.

Samus ducked under the first swing, but the two other pirates hidden in the dark corner of her ship were able to grab her from behind. Though she struggled, without her varia suit she could not do much against the two pirates.

"Ngh..." Their claws biting into her skin until there was the light crack of bone to silenced her motions. Still, as they locked Samus's arms with reinforced steel, dark matter linked handcuffs, she snarled at them.

Three space pirates all cackled together as they watched Samus struggle in their grip. They had sunk on her ship while the maintenance bot was repairing it aa she was out gathering intel. The bot had left a hatch open and with its back turned, all three pirates sunk into her ship.

The three aliens chittered and chattered as Samus glared at them. Not able to understand them without her suit, Samus could only bits and pieces of their conversation. Though the 'Wo'thata' word was thrown around a lot she did not understand their meaning. Until she felt something slimy glide against her thigh.

The cock of the beaked alien, curved and tapped at the tip, coating her leg in sticky in its slime. It throbbed with heat as the alien gripped her tighter

As all the aliens had gained erection, the reptilian pirate sporting duel bright red covered cocks with knots at the base, and the other bird looking pirate having the same shaft on his sibling but with ridges gliding along the top of the shaft, Samus was starting to understand what they meant.

The blonde is forced onto the ground with her hands tied behind her back. Their cock all shoved in her face, poking at her cheeks as she snarled at them. Turning her face from both their lick, dripping heads of the members as well as the musk that now fills her ship.

The pirates just laughed at Smuas as she gritted her teeth. Jabbing her face with their cocks, even slapping her face with them. Hard enough that they drowned out her snarls and with hard wet smacks of their dicks against her face. Some even rough enough to twist her head, as if she was punched in the face, leaving a red mark. Still throughout all the bounty hunter sill bared her teeth at them as she felt their gentles throbbed in her nose.

One of the avian pirates brutally yanked on her ponytail towards him. Getting an actual gasp of pain from Samus was just enough for him to shove his prick down her mouth just as she opened her mouth. However, Samus slammed her teeth down on the offending appendage with the intent to break it.

But as she glared up at him, she could not bit down on his cock. The monstrous member is too thick for her. However, the alien noticed her feeble attempt and ripped his cock out of her mouth. And gave her another disciplinary smack across her jaw with his cock.

“Ngh FU-AHGH!” The alien repeated this a few times, leaving bright marks on Samus’ face along with strings of pre-cum until he forced her down his cock again. This time roughly thrusting in her mouth, not giving her a chance to use her teeth as his whole cock rammed down her throat. Making her neck blue out obscenely as she gagged and sputtered on the prick raging down her gullet. sliding across every inch of her tongue so the filthy, deep taste of the alien’s musk would be imprinted in her mouth.

“Hluck! Nughlck!” Samus choked on the cock as the ridges bumped along the roof of her mouth. vibrating her throat and sending unwanted tingles down her spine. However, those tingles didn’t last long as her mouth was ripped off his cock.

“Hagluck!” And before she could even take a breath of fresh air, the dual dick lizard man, dragged her on his cock. Grabbing her head in both hands and pushing one of his cocks down her mouth. Not moving his hips, he merely bashed her face against his waist. His cock slapping the top of her forehead as tears started to strain down Samus’s eyes from her mouth strain got fit the knot that popped in and out of her lips. The lizard man then took her mouth his cock. just so he could shove both of his dicks down her mouth.

“HUNZGH!?” The choking sound Samus made was inhuman. The size of the dual dick in her mouth would have broken a normal woman’s jaw. It only pushed Samus’s to nearly that limit. Her whole body shaking. Her eyes starting to vanish in the back of her head as she was starting to lose consciousness from the massive members clogging her airway.

It was not until the other bird looking alien gave out a screeching laugh that his partner let her go. and he shoved his cock down her mouth. Samus was almost grateful for the breakneck speed the bird pirate was slamming her face down his shaft. His testicles slapping her chin nearly as hard as his cock was on her face. It gave her the slightest chance to take in some air, but her thoughts only grew more and more jumbled. He rammed her mouth with such speed that her breast popped out her top. Her large fat pale tits jiggled and shook as her mouth is plunder without remorse.

The aliens took turns with her mouth and groping her jiggled, head sized breast. With one alien dragging her mouth on their dick by her hair, not caring about her turning blue in the face and teetering on the edge of consciousness as they held her face down on their cocks. Nor about her cries of pain when they yanked her hair or gave rude smacks on her face with now spit covered cocks. While the other two would grab her tits roughly and groped them. Creasing and marveling at the tender flesh and pulling at her large nipples. Getting gasp from her as her body jumped in delight of the spark of lust running up her back.

“Hack!” Samus could not keep up with the pace they would force their cocks down her mouth. Randomly she would have one cock forced down her gullet. or two or even all four at once before her face would be rocked back and forth on the long length of a shaft at the painful speed. Her lush full lips roughly kissing a furry waist of one of the bird pirates or the smooth stomach of the reptilian one.

Oh, the pirate would go slow at times. When she would feel their cocks throb on her tongue, or they just wanted to prolong their pleasure and her suffering, they would slowly drag her mouth back on their dicks; her tongue gliding under their shaft, until the tip hung in her mouth. And then slam their hips forward in her face to make her throat burn and her drool over their cocks even more.

They also forced her face down on their testicles. Samus being too cock smacked to doing anything but give gasping sneers at them as the deep, pungent musk of her virile cum punches shuddered on her face. Jerking their cocks on her vicious but slutty visage as they rubbed her face in their testicles. Jittering at her pathetic state as they stained her with their scent. They degraded her in their language, calling her obscene names she could not understand as they treated her far worse than a cum toilet with their dicks plowing her mouth so thoroughly, she will forever distantly remember their individual tastes.

Though perhaps they should have as they would have noticed they are resistant cries of pleasure as Samus’s lust, much to her dismay started to grow. Between all the drool that has been dripping down Samus’s chin and in between her breast, there is a distant trail of her lust dripping between her legs. Samus has been ignoring it for a long time now, but her own moans are starting to leak out and betray her as the thugs abused her like and her body kept screaming out for more as her nipples seemed to keep growing stiffer with every plunge down her mouth.

The dual dick alien gave a snarl as he suddenly grabbed Samus’s head with both his claws and started driving both of his cocks deep into Samus’s mouth with great ruthless fever. Knock her on her back and leaving the other two aliens to happily jerk their cocks.

“Hungh!” Samus gagged and sputtered painfully as she kicked her legs from under the alien. Only making him laugh and shoving his fingers right into Samus’s pussy.

“Mmmph!” Getting Samus to nearly blackout as she climaxed hard. Staining the floor of her own ship with her lust from either the thug’s finger slamming right into her cunt or his cum, that is so thick she could not even swallow it, bursting down her mouth. It gushed out of the sides of her mouth, spilling down her cheeks and out of her nose. Her legs flailing about as her brain short, circuited from the alien filling her mouth and her pussy spasming out in a long orgasm.

The lizard like alien pulled his cock back, shooting a single goopy blast of cum on her face, before letting her go. And Samus still did not get a moment’s reprieve as the other bird pirate grabbed her and pinned her, to the wall before they hilted both his cocks in Samus’s gullet. Unleashing a tsunami of semen from their cocks in rapid, randomly firing rope of cum. Cum worth two cocks flooded the blondes’ mouth in decent lengths and sizes of semen. Long ropes and balls of spunk roared in her mouth and gushing out of her nose and slipping out of the side of her mouth as she suffocated on cum.

‘I-I am going to drown...’ Samus thought as she felt herself start to blackout, but her body suddenly arched forward as her pussy sprayed her lust through her own shorts again. Shamefully orgasming from the alien’s abuse on her body while they clawed at her form once again.

One of the bird aliens took their cock out of her mouth and aiming it at the blondes' filthy face. Waiting until their partner pulled out, spraying a few shots of his hot sticky jizz on Samus' coughing face, and fired another one of his loads onto her face.

"N-Nghhaaa~!" Samus moaned as every shot sent shivers up her spine. Seemingly extending her orgasm as she shuddering, covered in the semen of her abusers. Her face is a mess of spit and semen that while it varied in thickness, all of it is powerfully masculine and pungent. Heave on her face and her breast as she coughed up some that drooled and bubbled out of her mouth. With her arms pinned above her, Samus panted, covered in spit and cum that hangs off of her. Thicker than soup it pooled around her along with her lust between her spasming legs.

The lizard pirate suddenly grabbed Samus by her ponytail. Waking her from her stupor and shoved her on top of her command console. Her large pillow breasts mashed against her navigation desk with her face pushed against the window of her ship. Staring out to the starry empty space as the alien behind her groped her big supple ass.

"P-Piece of -ack-shit... Samus tried to cough out a weak at him. But her body has already given up on resisting as it shivered in delight from his groping. But the alien clearly didn't like her talking back to him and snapped back at Samus with a painful slap of her ass that should have got a gasp of stingy pain and bliss out of her.

That got another laugh out of her tormentors and finally, the alien said something that Samus could understand much to her dismay as it laughed at her.

"Bos'tah!" Slut it said. Before it slapped her ass again. Though this time it was joined by something poking at her dripping slit. Her puffy muff, topped with a clean blonde patch of pubic hair, greeted the two other pirates behind them briefly before it is covered up by the lizard pirate. His cock poking at her entrance as he buried his hands in the flesh of Samus's ass.

"N-No. it won't ngh!" the alien slapped her ass again, stinging it red, before shoving both of his cocks in her cunt. Pulling at her hair while he pushed her face into her ship's computer, the beast slammed his hips into Samus with greater force than he was fucking her face. Her breast sliding and grazing along the many buttons on her console. Smearing them with her spit and the thugs' cum while her nipples as slapped and teased by them.

"Rack'cu gon'i fukazi!" Though Samus could not translate with her eyes twisting inwards from the shock of her pussy pushed to its breaking point, even a fool could guess it is something along the lines of 'I am going to fuck your pussy into oblivion' as it felt to Samus he is doing just that. Her whole body rattling against the computer consoles as she drooling and moaning in restrained delight. Her mind vacillating on her sanity as the desire to be defiled started to take hold.

"Sho...b-big..." The pirate rammed its cocks into Samus with cruel determination to ruin her. Laughing wildly as he slapped her ass none stop even as it is bright red. Cursing and demeaning her in his own tongue with the only word 'slut' being the only thing Samus could hear. Not hearing his comments on how much of a whore she is for squeezing on his dick. How he finds her pathetic and weak for moaning every time he wailed on her ass.

The only thing Samus could listen to is the alien calling her a slut. Bos'tah Bos'tah. It is the only coherent word that Samus can retain. While she could only hear her moans and the sound of two cocks claiming her ass at once echoing off the walls of her ship.

“My pussy is... going to-haa breakkkk...” The alien seemed to understand her and start thrusting even harder. pushed her face up against the glass of her ship, showing her lust crazed face to the desolate cold face of space. Her moans growing loud enough that she is sure someone would have heard her out there as the alien’s slamming into her felt like he was working the whole ship with every thrust.

The pirate called Samus a slut one last time as he climaxed. Sending Samus reeling as she felt a torrent of cum rush into her cunt in thick fat globs of white. Pumping thrice the amount of semen in her cunt then how much he forced her to swallow. The small lump in her belly growing with each sharp thrust and deluge of goopy spunk gushed into the cock dazed bounty hunter.

“Ah ah!” The alien kept smacking the blonde big, wiggling butt with every spurt of his seed. Each one either making her pussy lock up around his shaft and orgasm or bringing her close to one. Her moans are now open and loud without restraint with only a sliver of her stable mind left. One that is soon to overtaken by a cock with the amount of cum being deposited in her.

“So full...” It was so much semen that Samus belly grew a little firm the sheer amount of it all. Looking nearly pregnant with a child as the duel dicked pirate ripped his cocks from her. Leaving her greedy pussy gaping for a moment before it slowly started to close. With only a few beads of cum dripping from it while Samus shook on her console now covered in her drool. The pirate’s cum leaked out of her tightening pussy and into her shorts as she balanced on her toes.

One of the bird looking pirates spun Samus around and pulled off her shorts. Spreading her legs wide as he licked his beak in anticipation.

“Wha-mmph!?” Whatever words she was going to say were silenced by the alien pulling off her cum stained shorts and shoving them in her mouth. Feeling her tongue with the taste of her lust and the cum from her pussy. As the pirate started rubbing the tip of his cock at Samus’s untouched pucker.

“Mmmgahph~!” Samus roared in her gag as the alien speared her asshole. Showing even more fury than his comrade as he forced her legs high in the air as he plundered her fuckhole with grand fever. Shaking the console as he rammed down hard on her. Leaning over her, hiding her form as only her legs shuddering high in the air and his balls slapping at her ass could be seen. Her semen caked breast bouncing and swaying while she cried in ecstasy and madness. The ridges along the top of his cock striking her core as he thrust the deepest out of all the pirates.

Samus’s moans, even though held back by her filthy shorts, are still loud enough to drown out the whole ship. Much to the alien’s aggravation as his tail came around and wrapped around Samus’s neck and began to choke her. Not planning to kill his toy, far from it as Samus eyes rolled back in her head.

“Hung!” The abuse and lack of oxygen finally made the bounty hunter snap as her pussy showed it’s greatest betrayal and climaxed hard. A torrent of her lust gushed out over the alien as her back bent further than a bow as she saw white. Her asshole locked down with a death grip on the pirate’s cock as she gave out an orgasm that actually shook the ship.

Though she came a bit too hard as the alien came too fast. the pleasure of her tight asshole locking down on him made his cock fire his own discharge that went above and beyond filling the dumbfucked bounty hunter. His cum, the thickest out of the three of them, bloated her belly to make her look filled with two children. His cock filling her with an innumerable amount of his seed that it started to gush out from their joining as the pirate leaned over and gave short injections with his hips with every last spurt of cum.

Though pulling out was easier said than done. Samus's asshole acted like a vacuum around his cock as, when he tried to pull out, her sphincter would fallow. With a grunt, he ripped his shaft out of her and a flood of cum came rushing out of the slut's gaping asshole. Stain her ship with his seed as her rear started to close up. Even though most of the jizz is still sloshing around in her belly.

Finished with her, the pirate let Samus slide to the ground. Leaving her shuddering and panting, covered in spit and slime as she convulsed on the floor. A bright red ring, like a collar around her neck from the grip of his tail around her throat. Her shorts falling out of her mouth as she drooled stupidly with her eyes unfocused. Blurring in and out of consciousness as some thoughts started to return to her.

Though they would be temporary as the pirates still have stiff cocks and a vicious goal in mind as the red beaked bird pirate raised his foot and pushed on Samus's bloated stomach.

"Ohhhh~!" Samus cried as the alien firmly pushed down on her swollen stomach with his foot. Forcing the cum from her tight pucker and her pussy. It was like a dam bursting as a lake of the bounty hunter's attackers pooled under her.

The other aliens guffawed once more, nearly bending over in laughter, as Samus climaxes again from having the cum pushed from her belly. Her inner whore having no limits as it took any and all pleasure it could form the sadistic space pirates.

Not done with her, the red beaked pirate pushed her on her shoulders, her legs in the air, and then pushed down so her toes tickled her ears and touched the bottom of the ship. It gave all of them access to both of her holes that leaked her lust and their semen.

The reptilian pirate poked his dual cocks at Samus's asshole as he wanted a taste as well while the dark avian pirate pushed at her gaping pussy.

"N-No more...p-please! if you-" Samus shouldn't have bothered asking, as her pleas are just what they wanted to hear. As they ignored them and crammed their dicks completely in her at the same time.

"~!!!!!!~" Samus's silent orgasming maw spoke volumes throughout the ship as all the cocks pushed deep inside her as her formerly flat toned stomach took a rounded shape of three cocks lodged inside of her. The bounty hunter going limp for as her climax knocked her unconscious as she finally broke into their dumb fuck happy little cock hole. Her eyes are vacant of anything. Dull blues filled with nothing but debauchery and desire. Her tongue hanging out of her mouth like a greedy bitch begging for a bone.

The pirates slammed hard into her none stop and without rest as their cocks ruined the young bounty hunter. Though at this point it is overkill as Samus has become a meat toilet for the pirates. Shortening her career as a killer and fitting her for her new role as a dick sleeve for any creature willing. Moaning humbly as her bright blue eyes are clouded with lust in her cock induced sleep. It was not until another climax for her boisterous nymphomaniac pussy that she came back to the land of the living.

"Oohh-ngh!" But the cock broken blonde's crazed howls of exuberance are silenced as the red beaked pirate, tired of her moaning and wanting to humiliate her as much as he can, rested his large testicles on Samus's face. The final nail in the coffin for her loyalty to their cocks as the powerful, dominating musk from the pirates unwashed, spit covered jewels made her eyes cross in bliss.

Samus did not need a cock slap to the face to start happily licking and tickling the weighty cum pouch on her face; though the pirate did so anyway at out the sheer joy of hearing the sow cry out for more. Her tongue, Samus drag a long trail of worship along the cum filled sack as the alien smothered her face.

Jerking his cock as Samus pleased him while he flung dirty words and pre cum on her. Sometimes whacking her face with his dick and groping her breasts.

The two aliens inside Samus called her another derogatory name as they released their loads inside their new cock hole. Flooding them once more as the red beaked thug pulled his sack from her lips and jerk his cock on her face. Flooding her open, huffing mouth and her formerly prideful face with his seed. Making sure to coat the rest of her body with his semen as another climaxed ripped through Samus.

“C-cocks...Mo-more....” Not that it mattered to her as Samus cared about is the cum on her body and the dicks hanging over her. Even though her body is nearly broken from the numeral orgasms. Her will and mind shattered like a glass window, in her own ship that is stained with her desire and failure, all she wanted is for a dick, of any sort, to beat her further and give her his seed wherever he pleased.

“Bos'tah.” The reptilian pirate gave a snort as he lifted Samus up by her ponytail and slapped her face again with his cocks soaked in her lust. Rubbing them on her dicked stupid visage and smacking them as he mocked her. Gliding both his members across her lips as he taunted her to open her slutty mouth and clean up the mess, she made on him.

To which Samus easily accepted and, this time, she did not bite back.

-OOO-

Samus's gunship floated into a new system, with her face was starting to turn blue around the cock in her mouth that flexed in her bulging throat. Her face is buried in her breast as the shaft rested between them with her nipples pierced with barbells. Matching the black studded collar around her neck with a leash that pooled between her legs, and a tramp stamp tattoo of cock on just above the crack of her ass. On her stomach, the words for whore in an alien language danced across her abdomen as she sat bare under her own cockpit. Being choked out by the cock of the red beaked space pirate.

The owner of the curved shaft reclined in her cockpit with his leg crossed behind her head. Keeping her locked in place down on his alien prick as it throbbed in her neck. Pulsating as his orgasm was nearly but Samus was about to lose consciousness.

All the while his partners slept around the ship. Tired from the long trip and hours of fucking their tight little slut that did not even seem to tire herself. Their limp cocks hanging out, dirty with Samus's lips and lust, but will rise when their owners wake to deposit their cum sow's daily dose of spunk.

The avian pirate let Samus breathe as he pulled his leg back a little. Letting the blonde slowly, as she was trained to, pulled back in the cock. Coughing all the way until she was back at the head and her owner repeated himself. Locking his leg around Samus's neck again and pushing her down on his cock.

Samus eyes, once bright with fury now bright with broken lust, kept her lustful gaze at her master just like she was trained to do. Her pussy, topped with a golden ring piercing her clit, quivering in gleeful expectation of how her master will humiliate her today.

While the bird feathered space pirate enjoyed the relaxing ride to the next station, he wondered how much Samus will go for on the slave market.
