The captain's dick

Ch. 9

And I'll take them both to go

“So, what do you think Gran?”

“H-Hm?” The young captain blinked when Meg had addressed him.

The sun on the beach is as bright as ever, yet Gran, Meg, and Mari are stuck inside a hotel room figure out how to help the renovations and rebuilding of Auguste after its last harrowing misadventure. This one being a zombie attack but not really a zombie attack.

“Mari was asking about what other additions we could add to attract new people to the island.” The shark armed girl said.

“S-Sorry. The heat's been uh rather rough...” Gran grunted as his face grew a little red even though it is rather cool inside their hotel room.

“Oh, tell me about it.” Mari sighed as she went off rambling about how it felt like it was getting hotter by the day. Meg listened to her intensely while Gran was oddly stiff and shivering. Biting his lip for some reason.

Normally Gran would be very attentive to his friends, however.

“Ooh. He's still hasn't cum yet~.”

“Hm. His stamina is impressive.”

Under the table, Gran is dealing with Metera and Helel 'teasing' him.

Which consists of sucking his dick so hard that he feels his soul leave him a little each time.

His cock, covered in Helel's spit and Matera's lipstick, throbbing freely under the table. Long enough that it nearly touched the underside of the wooden desk. With a wide girth, it made Metera choke and gag loudly. Much to her delight and Gran's frustration as he had to occasionally stomp his feet to cover up the flirty woman's slutty choking.

“Muu~. But they still haven't found out yet.” Metera pouted as she kissed his balls. Playfully nipping them to get Gran to jump a little in his seat. “How boring~.”

The flying seductress had started this as just some fun to bully her lovely captain. However, Helel, a voice for the god Bahamut, had swiftly caught them. And instead of doing the right thing and saving Gran from his torture, Helel found the act interesting and decided to join in.

“Hmmm.” The dusky skinned beauty hummed in thought as she twirled her tongue around the fat head of the cock. Immediately deep throating the cock, making Gran nearly jump out of his seat. Glad that Mari is so deep into flirting with Meg to notice Gran cursing every god in the sky as he felt his dick dive into a Helel’s throat. Stretching out her throat, her choker broken from the first time she deep throat his cock, as she sloppily slurped and sucked on the prick before her.

“It’s impressive that he has not ejaculated either.” Helel said with her rows of fangs glinting in the dark of the table. “We must try harder then.”

“Oh, girl I love the way you think~.” Metera winked as she took a side of Gran’s cock in her lips. Roughly licking and sucking at it while Helel rapidly bobbed her head back and forth on the length.

Up on the table,

“Ngh!?” Gran had snapped a fork in half from the force of his grip. Metera and Helel relentlessly deep throating his cock at random intervals. When Metera would switch to licking and sucking his testicles, Helel would blur her mouth down his dick like a lightning blot. She would do it for maybe three, five, or sixty times before switching off to Metera.

“Mmm~. Come one Gan~ Cum for big sis~.” Metera while slowly teasing is far too much. Circling his head before diving down and swallowing his prick whole.

“You ok their Gran? Your face is very red.” Mari asked. Not knowing that Metera had just swallowed his cock again. The only one noticing Gran’s state being Vyrn hovering next to him and seeping his drink. Knowing how ravenous the girls on the ship are to his best friend, he is regrettably used to this.

‘At least this time it isn’t Arulumaya and Lyria. The poor guy nearly died with those too...’ Vyrn thought as he saw Gran’s hand nearly break the whole table in two.

F-Fi-FINE! S-So...U-um about the fu-ATTRACTIONS!” The young captain is trying his best not to lash out and cry in delight from the two women tending his cock. Trying to get him to fire his seed under the table while talking to his friends. The conversation going on for about two hours, with the two vixens under the table seemingly sucking on him for about ten.

When Helel suddenly swallowed both his testicles and Metera his whole cock, the bold captain of the Grancypher snapped.

“EXSCUEME!” Gran moved so fast that he could not even be considered a blur as he picked up Metera and Helel and dashed away.

“Wa-was that Metera and Helel?” Meg blinked,

“...” Vyrn just took a long sip of his drink as he tried to avoid eye contact.

-OOO-

“Damn it you two!” Gran roared in frustration as he slammed his hips hard into Metera. The lustful woman a drooling messes his cock. Her sex crazed smile, delighted at the fifth orgasm running through her, matched Helel's listless panting visage. Gran's fingers pumping at an ungodly speed inside her squelching pussy.

"Ngh!" Her orgasm squirting out in a gush of lust as she came again. Her black bikini under her see through dark dress is disheveled as her perky breast popped out of the top. Metera however beat her in the number of orgasms with eyes glazed over in a fuck happy lust. Begging for more and 'apologizing' while the captain railed her pert ass in annoyance.

The captain did not even give Metera a warning before he leaned over, pinning her to his bed, and firing a thick load of his seed inside her.

Not that Helel got any rest as he picked her up, locking her legs above her head, and slammed his cock deep into her pussy. Barely giving her time to moan as he slammed her up and down his shaft with brutal force. Her shaft making her stomach bulge out as he spread her pussy wide and crashed into her womb. Doing well to make her 'punishment very memorable as she climaxed twice in suspension. Her eyes glazed over in fuck happy lust until they grew wide when she felt Gran's prick expand and fire off another furious load of his semen inside her.

The captain snarling as her grunted and gave shallow thrust with each thick spurt of cum that erupted from his cock.

When he is done, he placed her on the bed next to Matora's listless panting. Resting his still ridge cock on their faces.

"We've got a whole week off and guess what you two are going to be doing for the whole week..."

Though it was a dangerous threat, both women moaned at the idea. With Helel make a commitment to teasing the captain more often.
