

Walking down a stony path high grass, and reeds grazing her elbows. The smell of water in the air. Elwinne makes her way down to the lake, totally missing the warning sign covered with overgrowth.

She stepped off the stone path, and placed her travel pack, and weapons under a tree, and started to take off her boot. She stops to enjoy the feeling of sand between her toes.

She takes off her leather jerkin exposing her ample bosom to fresh cool air. Her nipples harden immediately. She starts unbuckling her belt, and unties her tight leather pants wiggling them down her round ass, and steps out of them. She then unravels her hair out of her tight bun, then places her clothes under the tree beside her other things.

She slowly steps into the water, and shivers run through her body. "Fuck this water is cold". She wades in up to mid thigh, and takes a break to get used to the cold water. She looks down at the pristine water. She can see every pebble around her toes, and cute little school of Minnows swim pass her. She smile to herself thinking how cute they are.

She looks up at the small waterfall glistening in the sun light. The sun feels nice, and warm on her body. She walks deeper into the water, and grits her teeth when cold water touching her pussy and asshole.

"Fuck it" she says as she holds her breath and jumps in.

She dives down, and pops back up to the surface. Gasping for huge breath of air she continued swimming until she reaches the waterfall.

She notices the rocks are slimy at the base of the waterfall. Thinking to herself it's just algae she carefully crawls up the rocks making sure not to slip. She gets herself up, but she's full of some odd turquoise slime. No matter she will just rinse it off at the falls, and avoid it when she makes her way back.

At the top of the stream, below falls she notices an odd smell, and it seems to make her wet and horny. She begins to rinse off the gooey algae, and feels strongly aroused by the sent in the air she looks around, but sees nothing dangerous. She can't get the feeling of being watched out of her head, but figures she will finish up her shower, and head down the stream, then back to the lake.

She washes her hair, and cleans herself top to bottom, but the smell is making her wild with lust. She can't help, but to tease her nipples, and grope at her own tits. She slowly drags her hand down her tight tummy, and slowly rubs the outside of her cunt rubbing the slit of her lips, making her way down to her opening. Her finger feels the warm wetness that has been pooling their since she first smelled the sweet intoxicating scent. She bites her lip thinks to herself

"I can't believe how wet I am, it's dripping down to my asshole. To bad Lynx isn't here to help me out XD"

She drags the wetness up to her clit, and glides her finger up, and down her clit. Warmth and tingling washing over her naughty bits as she rub her most sensitive spot. Thinking of Lynx's hard member she slides her fingers back down to the opening, and moans as she inserts 2 finger. Disappointed that it doesn't give her the fullness of her mans member. She closes her eyes and continues to play.

She so into her naughty daydream about a threesome between Lynx and Amalzar. She opens her eyes as she feels something crawl up her leg. The smells is stronger, and she's too succumb with lust to care about being scared. She looks down to see a tentacle covered in slime slithering up her leg, and notices there are more. Freaked out she lets out a moan as her fingers continue probing in, and out of her cunt.

"That fucking smell"as she begs for more.

The first tentacle makes its way between her legs, gently the tentacles remove her hand, and not scared, but more curious she give in. It begins wrapping various appendages around her body gathering at all her sexual bits, but it's gentle with her.

It suspends her in the air wrapping itself around her wrists, and ankles spreading her legs so she's fully exposed. It tilts her forward so her breast are now dangling, and two tentacles make their way to caressing her Breast. They tentacles begin to teasing both nipples at the same time groping, and squeezing the entire breast making her feel like she's going to cum.

Breaking the surface of the water she sees a face looking up at her. it slithers up to her, and looks her in the eyes. It touches her face grasping her chin, and it kisses her deeply. She is so consumed by the overwhelming feeling every touch she accepts his kiss, and kisses him ferociously back. Swirling her tongue around his, tasting that sweet aroma from his mouth.

As the tit play continues he licks down her chin. He inserts one of his tentacles in her mouth the tentacle imitates his tongue, and taste sweet. He makes his way to her breast, and roughly inserts one of her nipples into his mouth, and desperately teases, and sucks driving her crazy as she moans loudly.

Tentacles start caressing her thighs, more smaller tentacles spread her cunt lips, and ass cheeks preparing for two bigger ones. These tentacles are shaped differently from the rest more like a bumpy cock, and the tips glows a soft green.

The face makes his way back up, and said” I read your thoughts, and know what you were thinking while pleasuring yourself”.

The bigger tentacles now rubbed themselves up, and down her her cunt and asshole. Her wetness dripping down his members “mmmm even your ass is wet. You are by far the wettest little elf I have ever come across”.

She looks down, and notices he is quite handsome. His upper half is rippling with muscles he's actually kinda hot. The thought of that, and the kiss still tingling her lips she leans her head forward to kiss him. As her lips meet his his large tentacles enter her ass and cunt at the same time slowly not to hurt her.

She cries in ecstasy. He mimics everything she was daydreaming about to her body the whole threesome, as a little tentacle circles her clit.

Her body automatically convulses and comes, it does things it never did before. She orgasms from every inch of her body. She comes, and comes, over, and over until her pussy can't take it squirts all over him. Her body is quaking, and shivering with joy she's never squirted before.

She's tired now, but he clearly isn't done. Slowly he inserts another tentacle in her cunt. Her pussy has never been this stretched. It's uncomfortable at first, and he really struggled trying to insert it, but does get it in. He stops moving to let her get accustomed to the fullness. He kisses her, she's starting to feel good. The sweet taste, and smell come from his mouth, and her cunt begins dripping like the waterfall behind them.

He slowly starts pumping his members in, and out of her her holes. She is milking his appendages with the waves of orgasms. Her pussy keeps gripping on not wanting him to stop. he begins to pick up the pace, her body just convulses with every thrust, and flick of her nipples.

The last big tentacle makes its way to her face he leans back, and watches his prey enjoy herself more than she's ever has in her whole life. he brings his last tentacle to her lips, and lets her make the choice if she wants it or not.

Her mouth glides over his last member, and now it's his turn. She licks, sucks and deepthroats it with every thrust to her bottom half. She starts to feel him get harder, and warmer in every hole, and now he's thrusting faster, and deeper in every hole. She is dripping, and spit is leaking from her mouth. He comes deep, deeper than any before him. He fills her, and gushes turquoise cum overflowing every hole. A waterfall of semen gushes from her pussy. The warmth, and gushing feeling making her spasms harder. Dripping from every hole, He slowly pulls out, and reaches to kiss her not caring about the cum covering her face, and mouth.

He holds her tenderly, and swims her back to shore. He lays her down by her things, and drifts back into the depths of the lake. She falls asleep, and wakes up hours later...

"It's pitch black, moon must be clouded over.."

Thinking to herself "what a dream" the clouds part, and she notices the dried up blue semen covering her, "fucking hell". She gets dressed slowly since her poor body is still sore, and pulls a map out of her pack, and notes the location as tentacle falls for future adventures.

She gets packed up, and wobbly legged walks her way through the path, and bumps into the sign. "DANGER lake monster breeding season you have been warned"
