

Beard & Barrel Brewhouse Ruins by Tom Cartos

Background

The Beard & Barrel Brewhouse is a little way out of town set back in the woods, so it may have avoided whatever fate befell the rest of the town. Plus the four dwarf sisters who run it have a reputation as people not to mess with.

Sadly, it became quickly apparent as you get closer that the Brewhouse has also been partially destroyed. Even worse, it seems to have been infested by giant spiders. There may be valuable information inside about what happened, but to have a chance at finding it, you are probably going to need to clear out the new occupants.

Design Notes

Beard & Barrels Ruins - Cellar

- 01 – Stairs – Leads up to 10
- 02 – Spider Nest – This room was previously the main barrel store. Although the spiders have spread throughout the building, this seems to be where they are most concentrated.
- 03 – Large Vats – Large barrels full of ale ready to be decanted stood here. Now the drink is on the floor and the barrels serve their new masters.
- 04 – Cooper – The dwarven sisters made their own fine barrels on site in this room.
- 05 – Storage Room

Beard & Barrels Ruins - Brewery

- 06 – Brewing Room Floor – The western chimney stack has collapsed inwards and taken out most of the brewing equipment on its way down. Stairs lead up to 14. The broken stairs and hatch led down to 03
- 07 – Delivery Access – Pickups of ale and drop offs of ingredients happened here before the attack.
- 08 – Chimney Stack – The fireplace has not gone out in years, but now stands cold. The brew kettles have above have finally stopped bubbling.
- 09 – Outside Stairs - Leads up to 17
- 10 – Stairs – Leads down to 01
- 11 – Toilets

- 12 – Inn – This small inn was more of a tasting room for the sisters experimental Ales, but they threw some epic parties over the years.
- 13 – Terrace

Beard & Barrels Ruins - Mezzanine

- 14 – Crane – Stairs lead down to 06
- 15 – Brewing Kettles – This was where the magic happened, turning the raw ingredients into the base for the ale and mead.
- 16 – Brewery Mezzanine
- 17 – Outside Stairs – Lead down to 09
- 18 - Break Room – This was the main staff area. Any information about what happened is likely to be here

- 21 – Private Stash – The best ale was reserved for the sisters, hidden in this small alcove. That seems to have been taken along with any other valuables
