Nomu Tamer

“Hup!” Tsuyu’s thick, powerful legs jumped back just in time for the black, shirtless Nomu’s fist to destroy the wall she was just on. The hulking beast’s muscles rippled as they crushed the wall. Turning stone and steel into dust while he threw his long, horsed shaped face back in a snarl in frustration. The evil abomination’s tiger fangs gleamed in the stars of the late night as it missed another attack on the student hero. The towering wall of muscles that dwarfed the frog student, making her look like a child compared to him, lunged at Tsuyu with a mighty slam of both his fist on the ground.

Yet the nimble, curvy, Tsuyu flipped off the ground as the beast created nothing but a massive hole in the stone of the street. With Tsuyu hanging safely from a leaning lamp post with zero wounds on her. Though her opponent is in a similar state.

The fight has been an odd one for the U.A student. With one shot the monster could do take her head clean off. But his speed makes a tortoise look like an Olympic runner; Ironic considering there is a hero called Turtle with the shell of a tortoise but with a blinding speed quirk.

“Ngh!” Another dodge of the Nomu’s fits and the small shop is destroyed in nothing but bricks. Tsuyu has been dodging the beast’s attacks none stop for an hour and neither of them are even remotely tired. Jumping circles around it, Tsuyu can easily outpace the monster at every turn. Bending and flipping just out of the beast’s reach and with the monster’s wide steady swings she can see the attacks coming far ahead of time.

That said she can’t damage it. Her legs not even making the beast’s board chest tingle when they connected. And her fists hit the monster hard, but for the Nomu it felt like being taped with a sheet of paper.

The city street is deserted save for the two of them. The villains' attack decimated it, leaving the streets devoid of people save for a few refugees that refuse to leave and the heroes are all over the place taking care of various disasters to keep as many people as they can safe. This Nomu in particular is one of the few that has escaped capture when the villains broke out. Tsuyu encountered this one while on patrol. With no backup and this thing clearly trying to hound her at every turn, she is pushed into an odd corner.

A stalemate between a raging Nomu and her agility made this seem like an endless battle. Until she noticed the abandoned car a little ahead of her.

‘If get him close to that car, I can get some damage on him. Maybe even by me time to fall back.’ Taking another great leap Tsuyu landed on the hood of the car. Her eyes were on the Nomu who snorted at her in frustration and stomped towards her. Its laboring jog shook the ground as it rushed at her and she readied herself to jump at the last minute of the monster’s mighty swing.

Tsuyu blinked in surprise at the monster merely looming over her for a moment. Breathing heavily but not attacking.

“EH-Wha!?”

However, the monster did make a move like she thought, but it actually grabbed her instead of the car she thought he was going to try and destroy. Lifting her up and turning her upside down with its face glaring between her legs and her eyes glued to his crotch.

In her panic her hands groped the monster’s groin, and while her touch was stronger than the average human’s it still did not make the monster move or try and release her.

“Hrmmm...”

But it did purr.

Like an actual cat.

“...eh?” Tsuyu blinked in surprise at the humming from the monster as it loosen its grip a little. It is clearly not going to let her go, but the death grip it has around her is not there anymore. It suddenly went docile when her hands accidentally started groping his crotch.

‘...This is a very stupid idea...kero.’ Thinking that with a flaring face, Tsuyu let the idea of pleasuring the beast to try and get it to let her go so she could make her escape run through her mind. It is not too unheard of, at least in very small circles, that some heroes use sexual means to get out of a situation. Midnight does it many times to distract her foes and get the jump on them. She even heard that one hero slept with a villainess to capture her, though that was a rumor.

Still, her face is brighter than the broken traffic light above them, and most of her body is screaming at her to come up with some other idea. But in the dangerous grip of the Nomu, her hands are tied. Leaving her to let her long tongue warp roll out of her mouth to wrap around the shaft in the monster’s pants. There was an underknown shiver down the frog girl’s spine as she felt the monster’s cock grow on her tongue.

Tsuyu gulped hard as she is grateful for the small shorts the monster wore as she can take a guess at just how big the monster’s member is as it throbbed against her. The size alone would be impossible to warp her hands around. However, the heat from the shaft still made its way through the cloth. Warming her tongue and her body as she made a heaving tent in the monster’s pants as it reached its full stiffness as her tongue slid along its length.

Tsuyu’s perverted actions did seem to tame the beast as he relaxed a little. His grip was looser but not loose enough for her to escape. His hands were not idle as they groped her body. Fat meaty fingers sunk into her full plush thighs. Marveling at the marshmallow like softness of them, the monster’s breathing got more heated. Tickling Tsuyu’s groin even under the protection of her suit and panties, the monster’s horny snorts of air got started building up lust in the young heroine to the point where she started to gasp for air at every other touch or so.

Still as good as it felt for the beast to caress her, Tsuyu still has a job to do and started testing the waters. Wiggling around a little to see how tight the monster’s grip is so she could try and escape. Shaking her large tush in the monsters’ face, the beast gave a sudden hum as he too shook a little with his grip loosening around Tsuyu.

However, it’s clear the monster has other plans as he suddenly pined her on top of the car. Her head dangled off the hood before it pushed its hearty erection in her face. Still nothing more than a bulge in the pants that threaten to tear away from the strain of the throbbing shaft. He grinned it in her face as he kept her pinned to the steel hood of the car with his hands on her legs, keeping them spread as he pushed his cock in her face like a needy hound.

“Mmphflguh.” Tsuyu grunted as the massive lump rubbed her face. She kept her lips as closed as possible and tied her best not to move. Though she did not know that the monster is not acting in anger as her wiggling to him was nothing more than a sign for him to make the next move. It kept Tsuyu still as he rubbed his trapped length on her face. The full weight of his cock pressed against her visage, mashing her face against the hood of the car as the smell of the shaft started to get to her.

The deep musky scent pierce through both the monster’s pants and through her as her back arched a little. The full force of the inhumanly powerful musk and the monster using her face to jerk off made her moan outright. Her tongue just tickled the lump in the cloth. And the faintest taste of the cock got another needy groan out of her she tried to keep her lust under control.

But much to her horror, the cloth was torn off and a massive lump of meat slapped her in the nose. The member cast a long shadow that went to the end of her throat. With an equine look to it with its molted black and magenta spots and flathead. However, at the base is a small knot, and there are bumps all over the girthy member.

The deadly fuck pole gave a hard, deep jump in delight as it rested on the heroine’s face. Warm and heavy, Tsuyu’s face is flushed bright red in a range of emotions that stunned her. One of them being natural arousal at the sight of such a woman taming cock resting on her. The primal need between her legs made her thoughts fuzzy as the heated phallus twitched on her nose.

And the other feeling is pure disgust at the feeling of lusting after such a thing.

Though the monster is far less hostile than before it is a different sort of hostility in its mind as it started to rub its cock on her face. Urging her to open her mouth to slide his prick down her expansive gullet. This time she panted openly even though she wanted to refuse. Her body wiggled under the monster’s grip though she cannot tell if it was lust or frustration from herself as her pussy tingled between her legs. Dampening her suit as her beast, actually quite content to merely rub his sticky cock on her face, quickening his pace.

“Ngh-Mmpm!?” Finally, the monster’s insistent rubbing gain purchased as he pushed the heroine’s mouth open when one gasp was big enough for the tip to poke through. The cock stretched even Tsuyu’s flexible jaw to its limit as her nose is pushed up using the waist of the beast. it’s thick, curly crotch hairs flaring her nostrils. Bulging out her throat as the knot ballooned her cheeks and the monster’s weighty nut sack tapping her forehead as they jumped and twitched in excitement.

The monster only gave a brief pause in Tsuyu’s gasping gullet to get used to the tightness of her neck. Her tongue slid along his whole length as she coughed a little from the impact in her lungs. Taking a firm grip around the choking heroine’s throat, the monster was giving hard thrusts that shook the van. He slammed his hips forward with long drawn out humps that seemed to make the whole ground quake. Shockingly Tsuyu only coughed from the mammoth cock slamming in the back of her throat. Her impressive throat is pushed but not too hard for her to get used to.

But her eyes twisted upward as her body shook and hummed from the feeling of the monster’s heavy, weighty ball sack smacking her face with every deep thrust. the already powerful scent of the monster’s musk made her back bend in pleasure with every leathery hit to her face. Drool spilled out the sides of her mouth, lubricating the cock and balls hurtling into her maw.

The monster is in a better state of mind as it rumbled in bliss at the tight feeling of the heroine's slick throat. How easily he slides in and out of her soft full lips, while her long tongue wrapped around his whole cock. Her throat felt bottomless as his whole meaty shaft vanished in the blue in her neck. He pulled out slowly, savoring the warmth of her lips before slamming in hard with enough force to shake the abandoned car.

The Nomu tilted his head back in a long sigh while Tsuyu wriggled in pleasurable agony below it. Her thoughts fought one another as the feeling of the monster shaft tickling her throat sent her through waves of lust. Her pussy soaking her clothes and only getting wetter with every plunge of the cock in her mouth.

"Fghhaaa~!! Hiii~!" Tsuyu's eyes crossed as the feeling of the shaft erupting in her mouth sent her pussy in sprawling climax that nearly made her blackout. Her pussy spraying her lust through her suit, her body going on autopilot as her back arched like a bow as the Nomu poured his release in her belly. Not even sane, the cock drunk hero drank the jello thick, weighty seed that the monster pumped down her gullet. It rocked out of her sealed mouth, gushing out her nose while the Nomu hummed like a cheery kitten.

His body shook as his cock gave, distended heavy jerks with the thick pulse of goeey white spunk that roared from the tip of his cock in wrist thick ropes. Steaming warm, the heavy thick spunk gushed out of her mouth and nose. The pungent, virile smell of the semen punctured the air and drowned all of Tsuyu's senses as her eyes roll back in desire.

With the monster starting to pull his cock out, the fractured mind of Tsuyu held on to it with her tongue. Force him to pull a little hard and let the last few jets of cum string along in the air and land on her face and body.

"Guuh...haaa...nnh~..." Tsuyu panted with her eyes spinning. The cum laying heavy on her face, with its musk sending waves of tingling pleasure down her body. She could not keep her mind steady as she coughed up cum in a fog of desire.

The monster intended to aid her as he turned her over to get a better look at her large round ass. Befitting of her tiny frame, her ass is large and firm. Tight from the use of her strong legs, but with a nice bounce to it that makes it hard not to grab and grope.

Tsuyu's fat ass wobbled as the lust crazed Nomu pinned her on top of the car. He tore at her skin tight suit to reveal her soaked pussy. Bare, with no hair, the puffy pink flesh glistened in the cool summer night as it shuddered in the open.

With a sharp pull on the heroine's hair, the horny Nomu slammed his cock inside her and did not pause for enough a breath and start thrusting inside her. His knot popped in and out of her wildly. Blurring in and out of her with enough force to rock the car she is on.

"Uuuhhhnnnn..." Tsuyu could only moan with little coherent thought as her mind is ruined with pleasure. Nothing besides the Nomu's cock stretching her belly and breaking her pussy, reshaping it as the monster's personal fuck hole, for the beast behind her.

The monster grunted as well from the incredible feeling of his shaft being hugged by the viper grip of an embracing from the young lust cunt. Far tighter than her mouth the monster's thrust was even slower but they near knocked the car over with how hard he rammed forward.

In his frustration, he gave a sharp slap on Tsuyu's ass but that only served to make her cum. Her pussy spasming out of control, spraying her lust as she let out a slutty, pleasurable wail that echoed out into the street, as her cunt only tighten up even more.

Decided to pick up the pace, the Nomu lifted her up, bending her flexible legs up to her head and letting gravity do more of the work. Dropping her onto his cock while he gave lightning fast, thunderous slams up into the cock dazed slut. Causing her pussy to give a squirting orgasm at each loud crash up her ass. The bulge in her belly ripped her suit as she did not wail out in a mind bending orgasm. But a submissive broken mewls of delight as the pleasure shattered her mind.

“Gphh~!” This time Tsuyu did blackout from the orgasm that ripped through her as the Nomu’s hearty shaft, knot and all filled her pussy. Pleasure also woke her as the monster’s cock slammed up in her with enough force to jostle her out lust crazed state to only have her toes curl in pleasure.

“Haaah~! Co-cockish! Nuughh~! G-Good~!!!!” Tsuyu babbled like nonsense as her mind only saw white lust. Her pussy spasming none stop as each orgasm was more powerful than the last. Her asshole locked down on the monster’s beefy cock as he used her as a fleshlight. Bouncing her up and down his dick, she could only let out low whines as she is beaten by the lowly cock of a beast in the middle of the street. Like a common whore she mewled and begged for more as she felt the monster’s shaft shudder with its impending orgasm.

The Nomu gave one last roar and let a furious amount of his seed surge forth. the gooey heavy discharge bloated the frog girl’s belly as the monster gave sharp thrusts up with every thick deluge he released from his member. Soon it got too much for her stomach to handle and a river of white spunk gushed out of Tsuyu’s mouth. Her belly is bloated and full of cum oozing out of her mouth as she burped jizz. Bubbles popped from her nose and mouth as the monster finished unloading his semen in her after seemingly endless thrusting.

“Uuhhh...” Covered in cum, Tsuyu’s shuddered and writhed in pleasure. A cock happy grin on her face as her long tongue hanging out of her mouth. Nearly touching the gourd as she twitched happily in the monster’s arms. The Nomu temper cooled and without his rage, slung his prize on his shoulder. Heading back to his safe house as it had no fight in him and now something to release his pent up aggressions.

Whether Tsuyu was found or not is a tale for another day.
