FLUX FANTASY

Backstory: Tamias roots are deep in the heart of Opula, a land renowned for its stunning architectural marvels. Inspired by the grand structures of her homeland, Tamia's dream has always been to become a leading force in karmastry-made buildings. Specializing in Clockwork Karmastry was an obvious choice for her, as it perfectly aligns with her vision of creating intricate, engineering masterpieces.

Tamia is also a passionate foodie, often critical of Fortuna's culinary offerings. Displeased with the popular 888 noodles and other local dishes, she prefers to cook her own meals, maintaining the flavors of Opula. The only restaurant near Wolfgang Academy that serves authentic Opula cuisine doesn't quite meet her high standards, so she generously shared her family's secret recipes with them, significantly boosting their business. Tamia is now negotiating with the restaurant to redesign their storefront, showcasing her architectural prowess once they can afford her services.
