

BEACH DAY

A Comic By TGAmelia

Ever since I started college I had felt like I hadn't got any time to myself. Or anytime to really enjoy the beach.

And that's a problem for because they're both my favourite thing to do...

PRIVATE LAND

That's why I've come to this private beach. It's the last weekend of summer break and I figured this would be a nice spot to get some me time.

I knew that it was private land, that it belonged to a pharmaceutical company or something.

I heard that it was used to store waste before it was properly disposed of.

I noticed a few barrels on my way in but I really had no idea what I was getting myself into...

The whole beach was full of them...

And unbeknownst to me a flash storm the night before had caused a few of the barrels to leak.

A scenic view of a beach with golden sand and a clear blue sky. The ocean is a deep blue, but a large, irregular area of the water is stained a bright pink, indicating an oil spill. The spill extends from the shore into the sea. In the background, there are green hills or mountains.

The company has daily check ups to make sure nothing like this happens...

But I got to the beach way before the checkup was carried out.

*And by the time I had got there
the substance from the barrels had already leaked into the sea.*

Being the oblivious idiot that I was I walked straight past it all and had begun an afternoon of relaxation...

Yes!
This is exactly what I needed!

It took me exactly three beers and hour in the sun before I decided I wanted to take a deep in the water.

Yes, I went in the nude.

There was nobody else around and it's not like the opportunity to dive into the sea naked in the middle of day comes around often.

Oh, Yes!

The water felt absolutely perfect on my skin.

I felt like I was floating.

*I decided to see how far down
I could get.*

*But the tingling sensation grew stronger.
It quickly went from pleasure -*

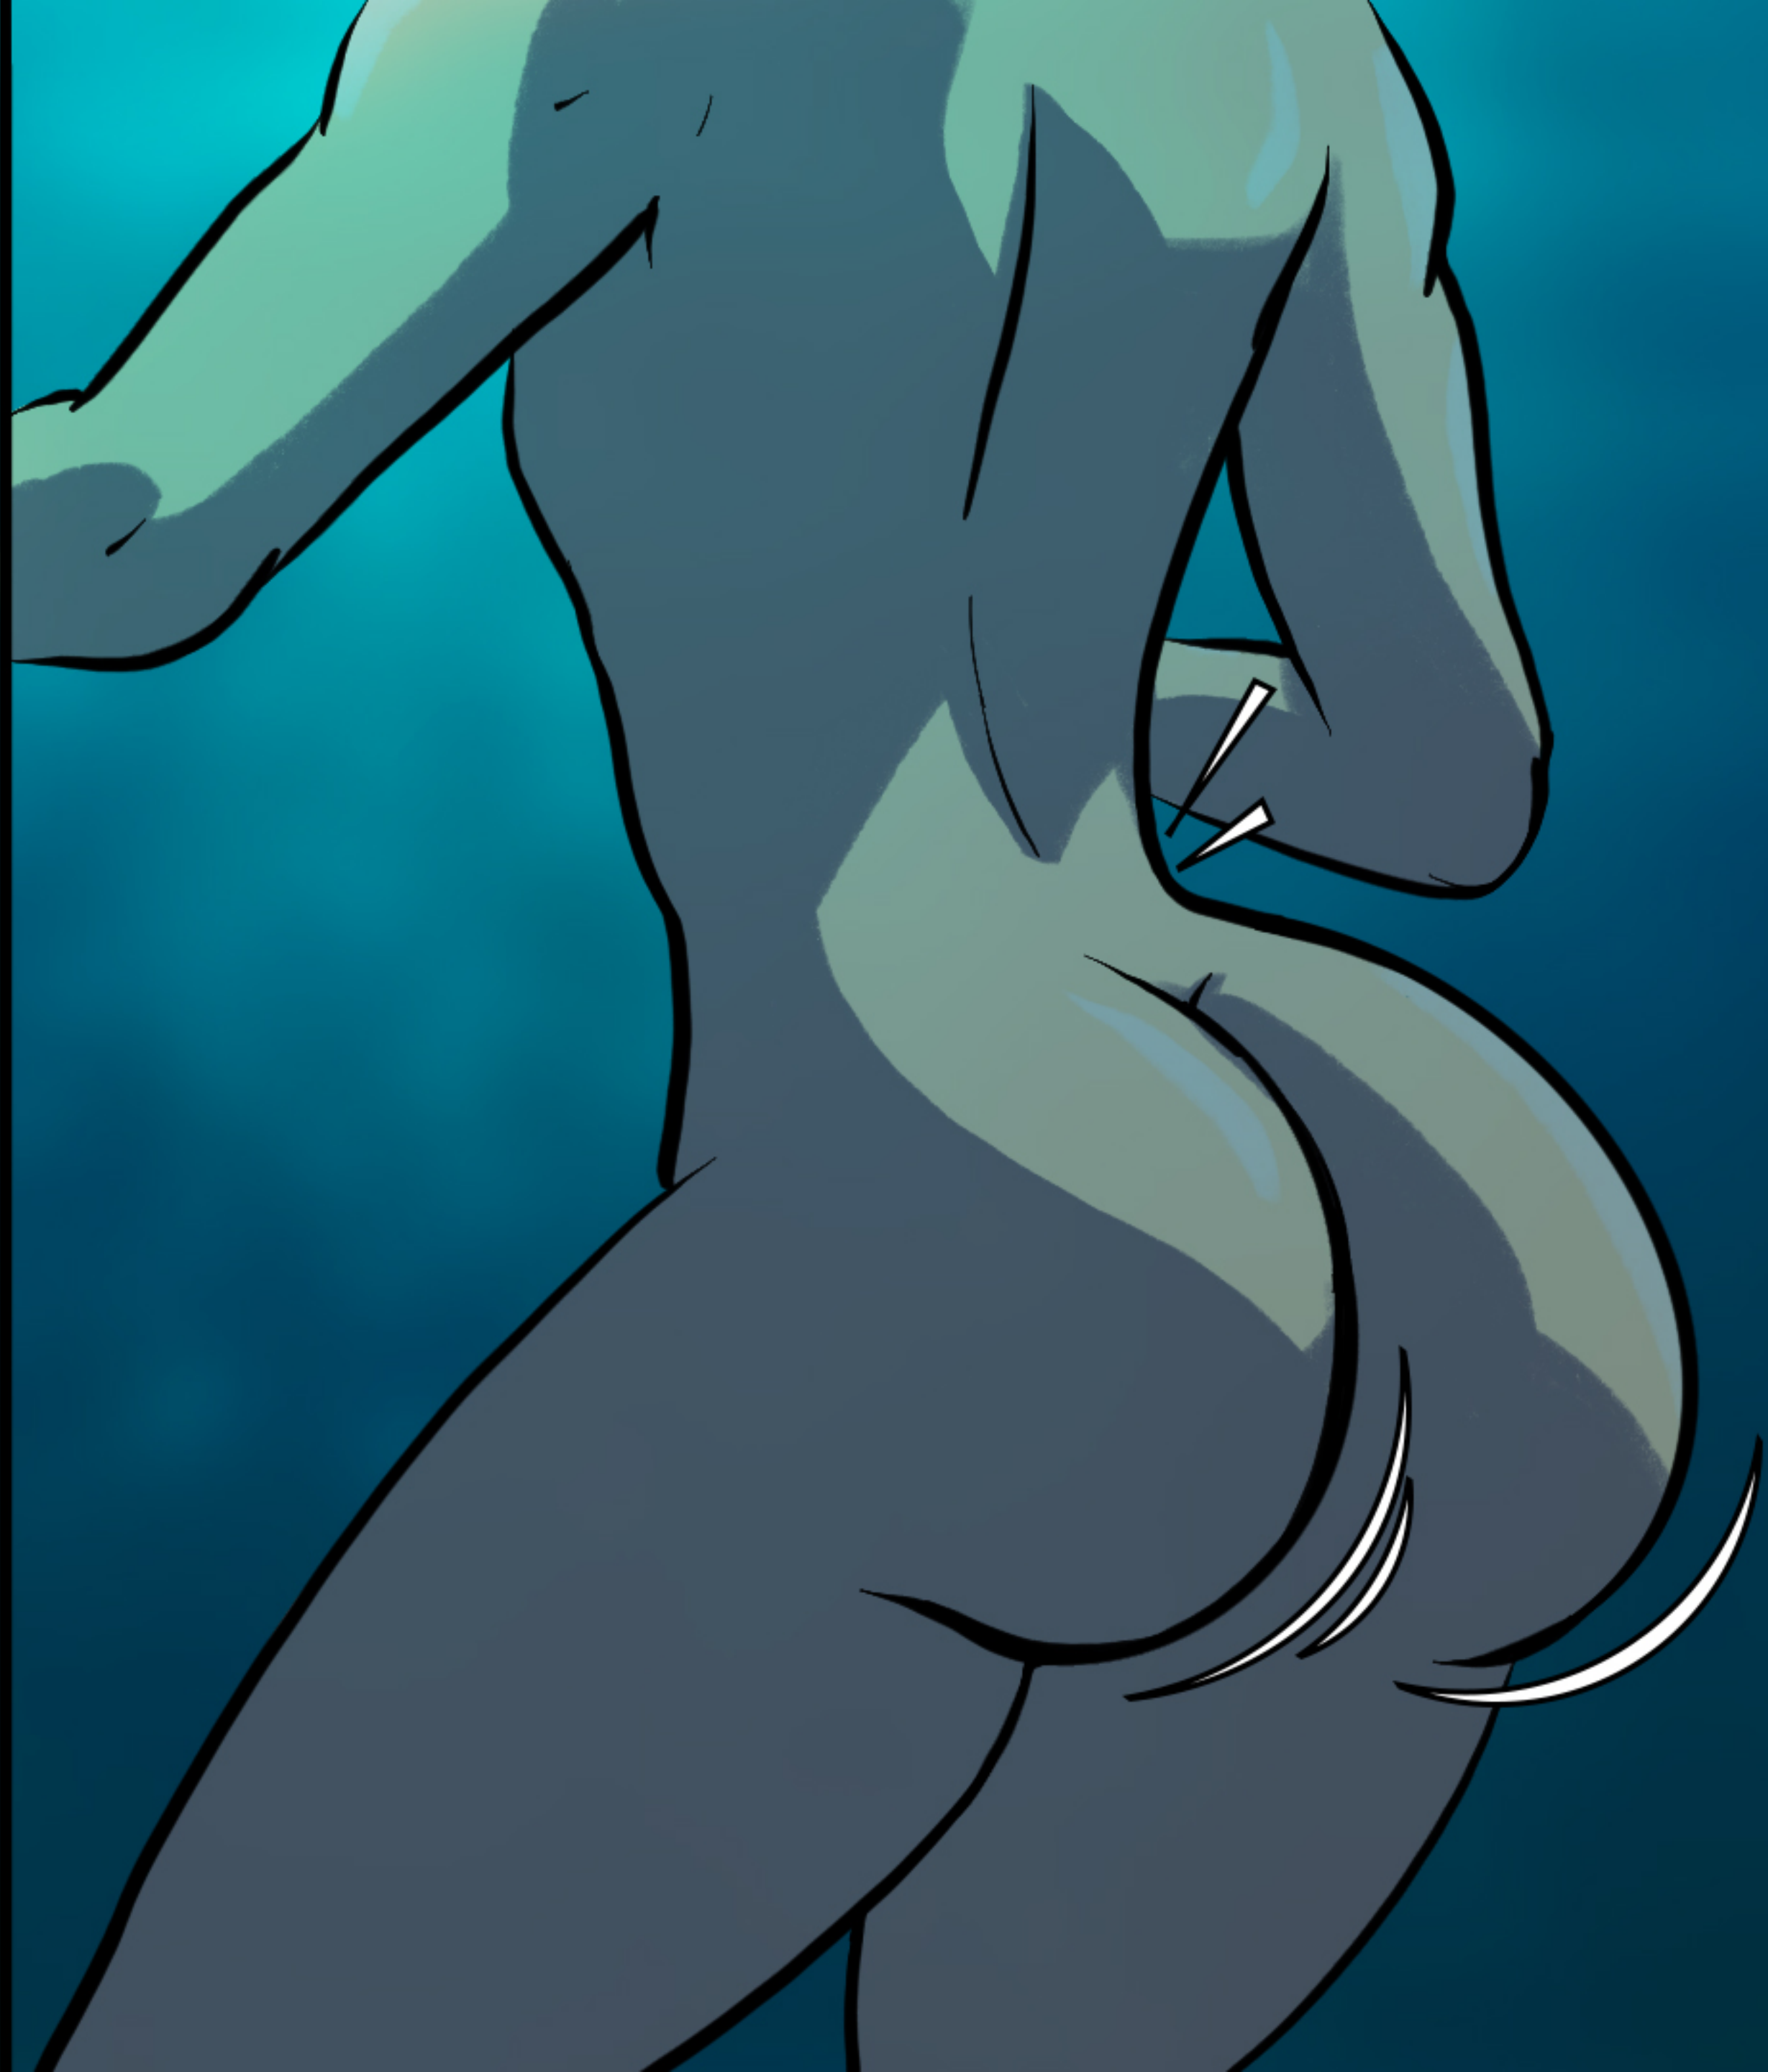

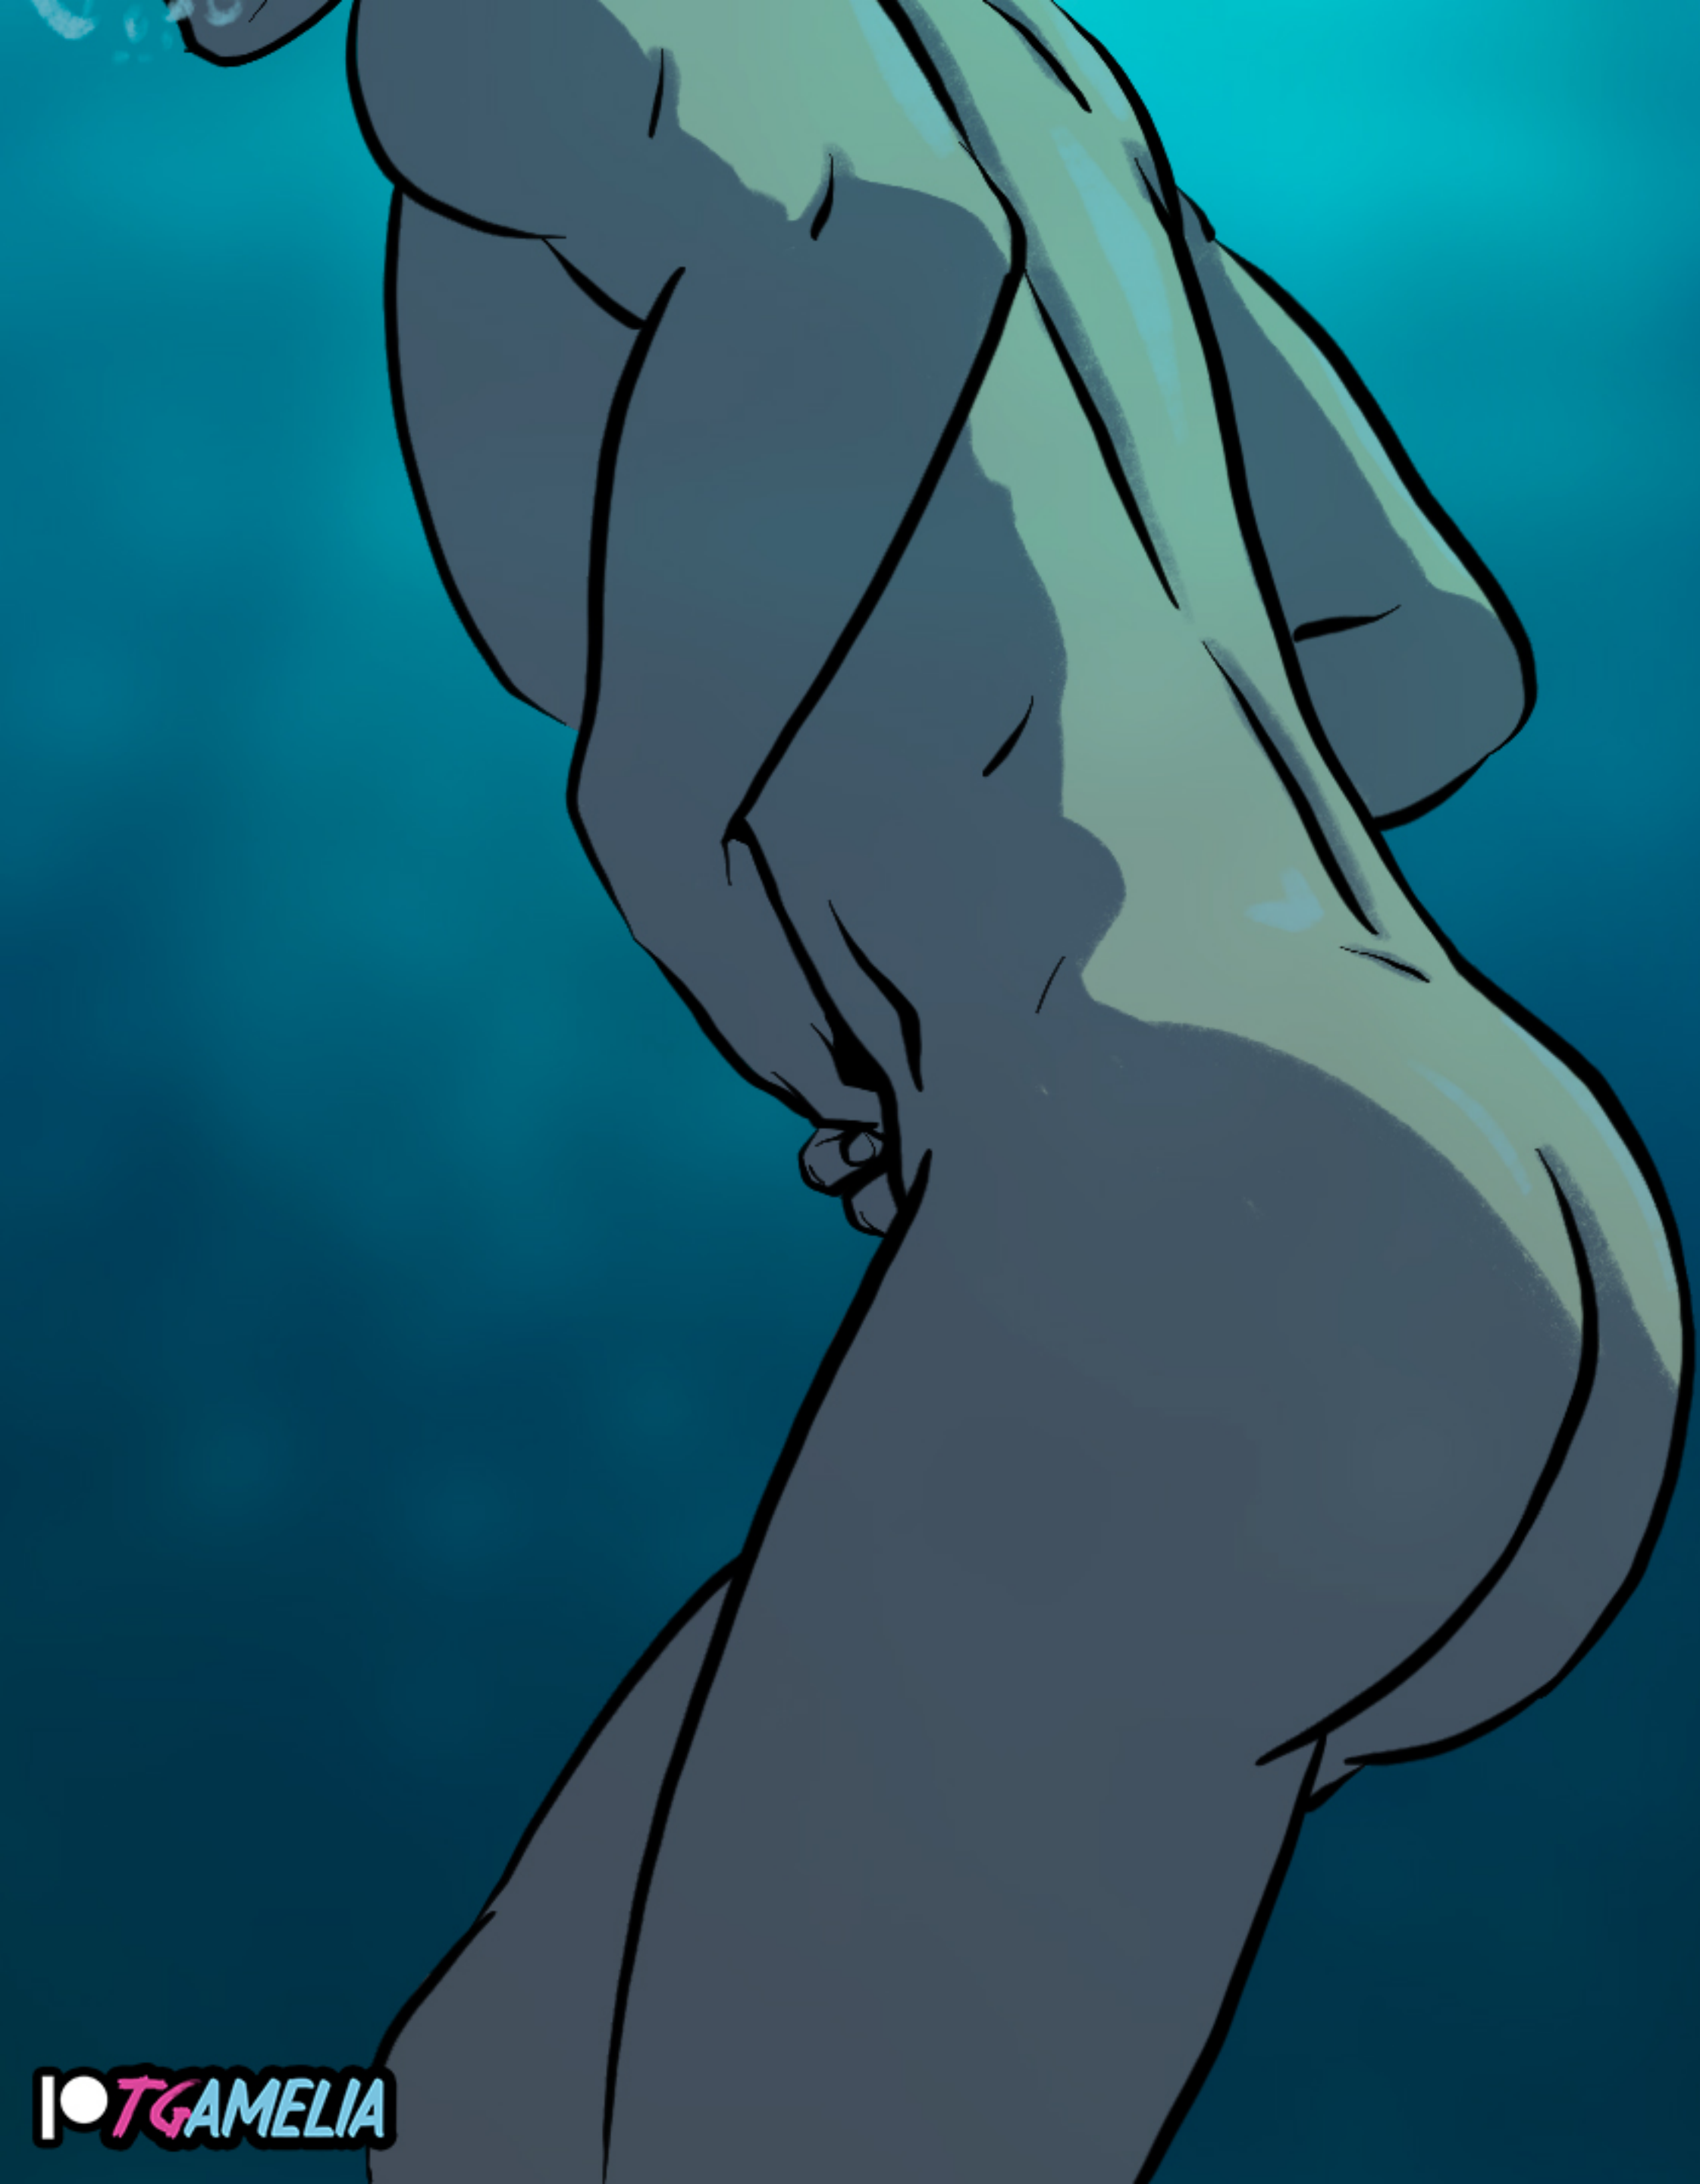

Mmpf!

To pain!

Argh!

My mind went blank as I slipped out of consciousness, leaving my body to contort itself into a new more feminine shape.

I suppose I have to consider myself lucky to have washed up ashore without drowning.

Even luckier to have been found by two workers from the pharmecitcual company who I wish I could blame for this whole incident.

Holy shit, I think she's still breathing...

Truthly it's my own fault for ignoring the fences and warning signs and stepping on to this god forsaken beach in the first place!

We have to get her into a quarantine.

Who knows what those chemicals might have done to her!

END?
