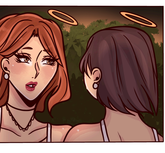
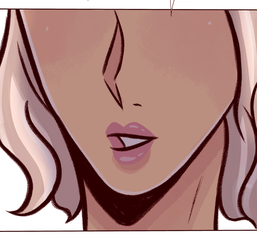
Blah blah



Girl chat

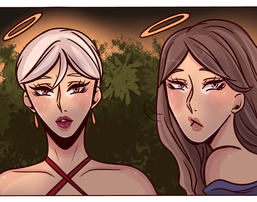
Hum hum...

Everybody can hear me?



Hello everyone and thank you for coming tonight!

Everybody is looking good wow!



As you know, I wanted to organize a party to celebrate the return of the exploration group!

After 3 months, they finally returned from their journey to the gates of hell.

I thought it would be nice if they had their loved ones and families with them.

Please enjoy the night and the food!

And in the meantime, have fun!

"Have fun" ?

Grab

I hate parties like that.

Gulp, gulp

Haaa!

Anthéia? Do you feel better?

Wait...

Your sister told me that you were sick.

Professor Cybèle!

Haha! You can call me Cybèle, I'm not your professor anymore.

Oh sorry, I'm used to it.

Yeah I'm better! It was... a cold.

Then I'm glad!

Did you come to greet Gabriel?

Yes.

That's right.

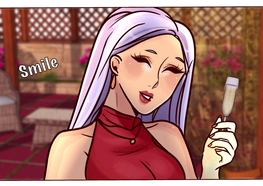
I'm sure he'll be happy to see you!

Ahah... you know how is he, I'm not sure.

I'm happy to see you it's been a while!

You've grown into a beautiful woman.

Red lipstick really suits you!



Thank you professor!

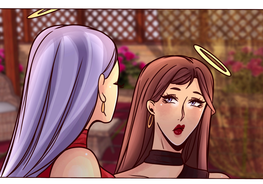
I know someone

Who wears this color like a goddess.

Wow, like a goddess? She must be a beauty.

Oh and I wanted to ask you.

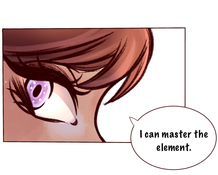
Did you find in which field you will specialize?



The others all seem to have ideas, do you?

Yes.

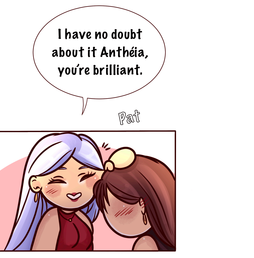
I think I'll study water's magic.



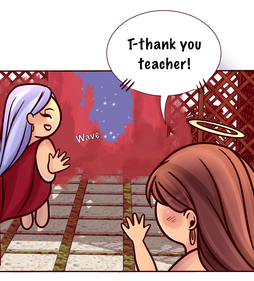
I can master the element.

Did you find a mentor?
The only one who masters water's magic is Lady Rosemary.
If I were you I...
I know. I'm looking for something else to study.
Archangels.. I doubt that they will take someone as their disciple.

I'll find something else, don't worry.



I have no doubt about it Anthéia, you're brilliant.
Pat

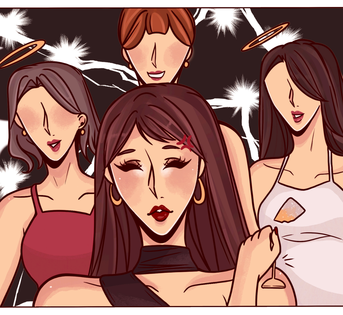


T-thank you teacher!
Wave

Ah- it feels nice to talk to professor Cybèle!
Everything seems so calm -
Oh? Look who it is! Wouldn't it be...

Ah.

Yeah, the calm before the storm.



Here they comes, the 3 witches.

Thank you Patrons!
