Chapter 6 Breaking Red

Crowler liked the system Duel Academy employed. He was the head professor and dorm adviser to Obelisk Blue, his students were the strongest and the most elite, and thus better than the others. The only other dorm he respected was Ra Yellow, only because they had skills, that could one day elevate them to Blue. When his students did well, it looked good for him.

What he didn't like was the slackers/trash that was the red dorm. To him they were pests, ants, ruining his perfect duel academy. He assisted in the test wars that helped weaken Red to what it was today. He enjoyed seeing the run down shack they were forced to live in. The best part is it was all under the rules of duel academy set up by Kaiba himself. Through dueling one can claw their way to the top.

That was the premise anyway, but Crowler was proud of how he had used the system to his advantage, no one in red had the skills to turn the tides. It was a game and as far as Crowler was concerned he was holding all the cards. The crappy dorm, and poor food, the Red Dorm's budget was bare minimum was a good way to demoralize them. As far as he concerned the sooner the slackers dropped out the better the school would be. It wasn't like their school's practices were that strange, compared to some of the other schools

So imagine his shock and terror when the red dorm was upgraded. The run down shack was actually fixed up, it was still a shack, but the roof seemed to be fixed, the stairs, and railings were fixed, and the work was impeccable."How is this possible, this is outrageous!" The red students looked positively buzzed and happy. He didn't need to know why they were happy but he assumed nonetheless.

"Oh Crowler." Banner came out. "Impressive work don't you think?"

"That's Doctor Crowler!" he snipped. "Is this your doing Banner?"

"Not at all, a student did this." he says. "It truly is wonderful."

"Its against the rules!" he snapped.

"Is that so? Not any rule I'm aware of."

"No dorm improvements can be approved outside of budget."

"I believe the rule is over budget."

"No excuses, this dorm was upgraded without any approval!"

"It was done by a student, no such rules exist. In fact, there is a rule stating a student may decorate and improve on their dorm room to the best of their means.” Crowler glared around him.

“I will not stand for it, this spits in the face of the academy system!”

“There is a way of settling this, a test war.”

Crowler grinned. “But of course, very well if you want these additions to remain you will have the student who gifted them to you face one from my dorm in a duel.”

“And if they win, not only will the additions stay I think an increase in Slifer’s budget is warranted.” Crowler grit his teeth.

“Very well, it is a duel!” he stomped off, completely forgetting his search for Jaden.

-X-

Jaden and Syrus were having a lovely bath time together. Jaden had washed Syrus’ back, and the bluenette was returning the favor. The brunette believed that manly bonding could be had when washing each other. “You should invite your roommate next time.”

“Chumley? He probably won’t come he doesn’t trust Obelisk Blues.”

“Doesn’t mean you can’t offer, if he turns it down at least you tried, if you give up without even trying then nothing will ever happen.”

“Hmm, you’re right, I’ll try next time.” they finished cleaning up, Jaden returning to human form and went to class.

-X-

The three dorms were a buzz with gossip, talking about the upcoming test war. “A test war already?”

“Who’d be crazy enough to start a test war so early in the school year?”

“I hear it was the red dorm, supposedly they upgraded their dorm somehow.”

“Doctor Crowler and Professor Banner got into it.”

“That’s crazy, the Slifer Slackers are asking for it.”

“I hear if they win they also get a budget increase.”

“Those slackers, they’ll never win they should give up now.”

So they heard. It was a lot more of that, usually with the blue students mocking the reds. Ra Yellows were curious but pretty much just chatting about who was gonna be in it. Jaden and Syrus rushed to Banner. “Professor Banner is it true?”

“I am afraid so children, this happened sooner than I expected. Crowler wants the one who did the work to face off against one of his students.”

“Fine by me,” Jaden punched his palm. “I’ll take them on.”

“Are you sure Jaden, you’ll be fighting against someone from your dorm this probably won’t end well. You could be seen as a traitor.” Banner says.

“I’m not a traitor, once the school dorms are equal I’ll put an end to the test war system, its better for all of us that way if we can grow on equal footing.” he held out his cards. “If they want to act superior they should have to show their skills on the battle field!”

“The war will begin in a few days, Test War’s are held the same day as the promotion exam each month.”

“I’ll be ready.” The two head to their next class. Sadly it was Crowler’s class.

-X-

Jaden took a seat next to Syrus. “Jaden what are you doing, Obelisk Blue students sit over here.” Chazz says. Jaden looked around and saw most of the dorms were sitting in groups around their dorm.

“It’s not a rule is it?” Jaden asked and sat next to Syrus. “We can choose our own seats can’t we?”

Chazz huffed and took his seat. “Ever the maverick aren’t you.”

“Hey Bastion.” Jaden greeted.

“You two seem close this morning. Mind if I join you?”

“Sure!” Syrus says. He was sitting on the right, so Bastion sat on Jaden’s left. “The more the merrier right Jaden?”

“Very right.” The two chuckle.

“So Jaden, do you wear some form of cologne. I’ve been racking my brain to understand how you accomplished that?”

“No it’s just my natural musk. Don’t worry Bastion I’m sure you’ll understand soon enough.”

Before they could discuss it more, Crowler entered the room.

“Ah Mr. Yuki I see you made it to class, why were you not at breakfast today?”

“I went for a walk early morning, and had a project I wanted to get started.”

“Very well, I actually have a job for you Mr. Yuki.”

“Yes sir?”

“There will be an upcoming Test War, with a representative of Slifer Red, with your skills I’m sure you can handle defeating them.”

“Uh sir, I can’t do that.” he rubbed the back of his head.

“And why not, do you think your skills are not good enough to defeat a Slifer Slacker!?” he walks forward. “Lets hear it Mr. Yuki what excuse do you have for not facing and crushing the representative of the Slifer Red?”

“I’m the representative for Slifer Red.”

“Oh yes that does pose a problem...WHAT?!” Crowler shrieked as other Blue students’ jaws dropped. “You mean to tell me you upgraded the red dorm?!”

“Yeah, that was me.”

“Inconceivable, one of my own helping those slackers. I won’t allow it!”

“Sensei, there is no rule that says I can’t support the other dorms.” Crowler chewed on his sleeve. He couldn’t demote Jaden, his grades and duel skills were too good. He had to start class, and go over the lesson for today. Crowler would call on Red students, seemingly able to pin point who knew the answers and who didn’t. If someone got the question wrong, he’d humiliate them and degrade them. Making the next person called on more nervous and rattled.

Jaden was doing his best to keep his rage under control. Syrus was called on, and the boy had a bit of stage fright already, add the pressure, he couldn’t think straight. “Well Syrus, can you tell me what a field spell does?”

“I uh um...I think it does the thing with the thing on the thing...”

“Even pre-duelers know the answer to this one Slifer Slacker.” Many of the blues laughed at the insult, making Syrus blush and tremble.

“If you can’t answer the question, sit down!” Crowler says. “Would anyone else like to answer the question, preferably someone not wearing red.”

Jaden had enough, using his charm he was able to focus and release his monster pheromones to help calm Syrus down. Bastion and Syrus got the brunt of it. While the other students weren’t able to answer as the guys in class were popping wood left and right. ‘It’s happening again, oh god!’ Bastion bit his lip as Jaden’s pheromones stroked his arousal, his cock hardened and swelled in his pants, making him shift in his seat. His insides grew hot and tingly, his nipples hardening and getting rubbed by the fabric.

Syrus however didn’t get aroused, he felt calm. Taking a deep breath the classroom faded away and he found himself naked in the forest. He felt safe, and clear headed. “Field Spells, are spell cards that when used alter the field in a duel, some give monsters a power bonus, or allow them to use effects, or support monsters allowing them to battle and use their own unique effects effectively.” he sits down.

“That is...correct...” Crowler moves on. Jaden calms down and pulls back his pheromones. The students that laughed suffered painful erections that refused to go down. Bastion and Syrus got hornier and hornier with each passing minute, just the fabric on their backs rubbing against their special places was enough to drive them wild, they soon lost control and had an orgasm. No cum was released, but their cocks twitched in climax, the intense feeling of an orgasm, and their cocks calmed down.

After class Chazz cornered Jaden alone.

“What do you think you are doing Jaden?”

“What are you talking about?”

“Helping those Slifer losers, they are just scum beneath our shoes that deserve to be crushed.”

“If you want to crush the red dorm, you’ll have to go through me to do it!”

“If you insist, I’ll crush you and the red dorm!” Chazz says.

“Then let the games begin, I hope your prepared Chazz for war!” the two parted.

Chap 7 Test War Jaden versus Chazz

Chapter 7 Test War: Jaden Versus Chazz

Crowler was confident in the skills of his Obelisk Blues, which was a problem. Jaden was an Obelisk Blue, and his skills were quite impressive. ‘Why is he siding with the lowly Red Dorm, maybe they bribed him?’ he laughed at the thought. ‘What could those Slifer’s offer him, that the Blue Dorm can’t?’

He shook his head. It didn’t matter, but a test war so early in the school year was troubling. What had he let loose in his dorm? He couldn’t remove Jaden, he had no cause, it would look bad if he suddenly got demoted, he’d be accused of being sore about losing to him during the exam match. “But if Jaden loses this match I’ll have grounds to demote him from my dorm.” he chuckles at his brilliance.

Syrus overheard this and went to tell Jaden.

-X-

Jaden was working on building furniture and making repairs to the red dorm. “Hmm demoted?” he stops for a moment.

“That’s right Crowler is gonna use the test war as a way to demote you.” Jaden wipes some sweat from his brow.

“So?” Jaden says and gets back to work.

“Ehh?” Syrus blinks at him in surprise.

“Sy, I don’t see a difference between the Red Dorm, Yellow Dorm or Blue, the fact there is such a vast difference between the dorms is a problem.”

“That’s true,” Syrus hangs his head, he didn’t want Jaden to be demoted. A hand patted his head. “Huh?”

“That doesn’t mean I intend to lose, I plan to win and help boost the Red Dorm up,” he says and Syrus blushes.

“Right!”

“I’ll finish up here and we can have some Duel Training,” Jaden says making the bluenette blush. The training took place at Jaden’s room. The centaur saw it as killing two birds with one stone with this specific method.

Once safe in Jaden’s room the door locked and Syrus stripped out of his clothing. He ordered a special item to help train Syrus’ ass to one day take his full centaur cock.

Syrus blushed as he took the 8-inch vibe, he licked every inch to get it ready for his ass. The fact Jaden was watching him do it, only fueled his own arousal. Syrus straddled the toy, shivering as it kisses his hole. In his own anticipation, he’s been practicing, playing with his ass, dreaming of both of Jaden’s monster dicks. He sinks down onto the toy. “Jaden!”

“Easy, go slow Sy, just relax.”

“Yes,” he shivers, feeling his ass tighten around the toy, he breathes slowly calming himself, and his insides relaxed allowing him to sink down. Inch after glorious inch was taken, his insides twitching. ‘And Jaden’s dicks are even bigger than this!’ His penis twitched in delight.

Jaden held a remote to the toy and switched it on, Sy gasping a low buzz began through his insides. “Jaden!” his legs buckled.

This was their training, Syrus would fight Jaden like this, as he lost life points the centaur would increase the vibrations. If Syrus took his life points Jaden would strip, if Syrus could strip him naked Jaden agreed to claim him in his human form.

The nudity was to help Syrus get over his shyness, if he can duel while naked and a vibe up his ass, then dueling fully clothed would be a cake walk. The vibration also helped Sy play while dealing with distractions. He’d lose if he came too soon, or lost all his life points.

“Let’s begin!”

“Yes!” Syrus moaned, standing up and reading his duel disk. The early training didn’t go that well as Sy would cum quickly from the vibrations and anal stimulus, but the card training also remained. Sy was learning about his cards and how they worked together, and to better use his card's effects. So not only did his stamina and confidence grow, so did his card skills.

He did have moments of doubt, especially when Jaden beat him in the duel. Jaden, however, whispered words of praise to him while starting a session of heavy petting. The toy was removed and Jaden hugged him and cuddled with him, caressing the boy here and there. Sy was pretty sensitive after training but Jaden was slow, careful and loving.

It made their alone time all the more special. Even if Syrus wanted to be embarrassed when he moaned at a certain touch, Jaden didn't let him. He committed all the boy's erogenous zones to memory and told Syrus how wonderful it is. Even the boy's cock that Syrus felt was small and pathetic, Jaden told him how he was looking forward to having Syrus inside him, to feel this cock as Syrus fucked him in his centaur form. His words painted a beautiful image that made the bluenette shudder in delight, sometimes even achieving orgasm.

To end their alone time, they shared a bath together, washing each other's backs. "Nothing bonds men more than sharing a bath together," he says. Syrus had to admit when Jaden washed his back he did feel closer to him. When he got to do the same he got really into it, Jaden's musk making him hot and tingly.

-X-

The day of the Test War came, Syrus prayed to Slifer, hoping Jaden would be okay. Bastion found Jaden before the match.

“Do you know what you are doing?”

“Yes, I'm about to have a Test War.”

“I've heard about Chazz he uses two decks Darkness and Fire, both decks share some cards between them so he's well versed in both.”

“Good tip, thanks Bastion.”

“I'm not giving you a tip, I'm trying to give you a warning. Something like this will have you ostracized from the other Blue Students.”

“That might be true, but I have my own pride, I couldn't like myself if I turned my back on what I believed in just because it made some people unhappy. I don't like how the Blue Dorm treats the Red Dorm like dirt, this mentality is imbalanced so I'm gonna do my best to restore that balance.”

“It doesn't add up.” he shakes his head.

“I'm not doing this to crush the Blue Dorm from within, I think the dorms should be equal, no more or less.” Bastion sighed.

“Then I wish you luck.” he knew Jaden was good he saw the boy's skills during the exam, but a test war duel would set things in motion.

“Thanks, why don't you join me and Syrus for a victory dinner, or a loser lunch, who knows we'll see what happens.”

“You are an odd one Jaden Yuki.”

“You have no idea,” he chuckles and heads out to his match.

Bastion took a seat in the stands, as did Syrus.

Chazz and Jaden faced off with each other. “Students we have a test war, Representing the Blue Dorm Chazz, and representing the Red Dorm Jaden!” Crowler announced.

“Rewards of this duel have already been discussed let's get on with the duel!” the crowd cheered, the Blue dorm was cheering Chazz and booing Jaden. The Red dorm was cheering for him.

“Last chance to back out, why humiliate yourself for those slackers?”

“Enough talk, even if I told you, you wouldn't understand. Let's duel!”

“Your funeral!” they each draws cards.

Jaden/Chazz: 4000

In a test war, the dorm rep who is challenged gets to go first, so it was Chazz's move. "My move!" he draws a card. "I summon Clown Zombie in attack mode." The zombie clown appeared on the field.

Clown Zombie ATK 1350

"I'll put two cards face down and end my turn."

"Nice move, here's mine." Jaden draws. "I summon Centaur #1 Attonne!" the blue centaur appeared on the field with shield and sword.

Attonne ATK 1600 + 400 = 2000

"Go Attonne, destroy his Clown Zombie!"

"Not so fast, I have a trap. Doomed Attack!" The trap card revealed itself, it allowed Chazz to destroy a monster that declares an attack so long as he discarded a monster from his hand. He sent his Dragon Zombie to the graveyard, and a monstrous claw came up and dragged Attonne to the graveyard. 'Go on take the bait.' Chazz thinks, he has one other face down for Jaden to walk into.

"Well, I can't leave my life points unprotected." He had Double Summon in his hand but he had hoped to save it. "I activate Double Summon, which allows me to summon another monster, so I call out Centaur Priest Fauna!"

Fauna appears with his long golden hair, dark skin, and yellow horse body. Fauna ATK 1500

“Ha, I knew you'd use that, I have a trap!” Chazz revealed his other face down, the Continuous Trap Card Rising Graveyard. “Now whenever you summon a monster I'm allowed to special summon a zombie monster from my graveyard.” It did have its drawbacks if your opponent summons a monster and you don't have a monster in your graveyard to summon this card gets destroyed. If this card is destroyed by card effect other than its own destroy all monsters special summoned by this card.

“Wait that means...”

“Yes, the monster I ditched is coming back, now rise Dragon Zombie!” The rotting dragon rose up and joined the field.

Dragon Zombie ATK 1600

“I'll use his ability to increase my life points by 500.” Fauna spun his staff creating a vortex of flowers.

Jaden: 4500

“I'll play 1 card face down and end my turn.”

Chazz draws. “My turn, here's the next zombie to send you to the grave. Zombie Warrior!” a decaying samurai looking creature appeared on the field.

Zombie Warrior ATK 1500

“Now go, Dragon Zombie, blow his centaur away!” The rotting dragon lets lose a rotten gas stream from his mouth.

“You aren't the only one who can play a trap, Medusa's Mirror.” A gray mirror with stone snakes coiling around it, the breath hit the mirror and got blasted back destroying the Dragon Zombie.

'No matter, my plan is still going strong.' he thinks. “Attack Zombie Warrior!” the two clashed, destroying each other.

“Now Clown Zombie attack!” the creepy zombie kicked the ball he was riding, hitting Jaden.

Jaden: 3150

“My turn,” Jaden draws. “I summon Centaur #5 Elaine.”

A blonde centaur with a white horse body appeared on the field, he carried a shield and dagger with him. Elaine ATK 800

“Thanks, now I can special summon my Dragon Zombie.” the zombie returned. “I can't believe you'd summon such a puny monster, but it seems you love weaklings!”

“It's time you learn the hard way, Elaine attack Chazz directly.” The blonde charged, bypassing his monsters and slashing Chazz.

“Ahh!” he cries out.

Chazz: 3200

After the fight, Elaine switched to defense mode. Elaine DEF 2000

“Tch, my turn!” Chazz draws. “I summon Chthonian Soldier.” he summoned the armored warrior. “Next I'll equip him with the Zombie Sword!” a cursed blade is equipped to the warrior. “For each Zombie monster on the field, he gains 400 ATK.”

Chthonian Soldier ATK 1200 + 800= 2000

“This isn't good, if Jaden summons a monster, Chazz's trap card will revive the Zombie Warrior, making his soldier stronger than his Centaur's high defense, but if he doesn't summon a monster Chazz can bring out a zombie next turn anyway, and once his defense is gone the army of zombies will crush him,” Bastion says, thinking Chazz had Jaden cornered.

“Your move!”

Jaden draws. “I'll play Pot of Greed, and draw 2 cards.” he draws again.

“I summon Centaur #4 Dallim.” A pink haired centaur joins the field, carrying a lance and shield. Dallim ATK 1600

“My trap card activates, Warrior Zombie returns.” his zombie came back, and his soldier's attack increased to 2400.

“My turn isn't over yet Chazz, I switch Elaine to attack mode. Next, I play the Spell Card Block Attack.” Using it he switches Dragon Zombie to defense. His Defense being 0.

'So he's gonna have Elaine destroy my dragon, and Dallim destroys my clown, no matter I got a zombie monster in my hand, even if I can't finish his next turn if he summons a monster I'll get my dragon back.' Chazz smirked.

“Elaine, attack Chazz directly!”

“What?!” the blonde centaur charged and slashed Chazz with his knife. “Gah!”

Chazz: 2400

“Now Dallim, attack his Dragon Zombie!”

“Why did he do that...unless?!” Dallim charged and pierced the rotting zombie with his lance. The zombie was bested but the lance kept going and pierced Chazz.

Chazz: 800

“No way!” Chazz gasped, and his soldier lost ATK points.

“Sorry but Dallim has a piercing effect the difference between my monster's ATK and your monster's DEF comes out of your life points,” Jaden explains.

'This is bad, and he has a monster who can strike me directly, I have to destroy it now!'

“I'll put 1 card face down and end my turn.” Elaine switched into defense mode.

Chazz draws, and summons Revive Zombie, raising his soldier's ATK back to 2400. “Say good-bye to your weak little centaur!” He had his soldier attack Elaine.

“You activated my trap card Chazz.”

“What?!” he was so focused on destroying the threat of the little centaur, he forgot all about his face down.

“Invader's Trap!” His soldier tripped the trap releasing a blast of arrows that destroyed him, and his zombies in one fell swoop.

Chazz lost, he had nothing left. On Jaden's next turn he had Elaine finish him the boy's points dropping to 0. Chazz slumped to the floor in defeat.

The red dorm cheered. The first Test War, a victory for the Red Dorm!

To be continued...Chapter 8 Friends and Foes

Chapter 8 Friends and Foes

“Great game Chazz, it was a fun duel.” he offered his hand to Chazz, who slapped it away.

“Fun? Maybe for you, you may have one this battle but not the war. This isn't over.” he walked off.

The red dorm cheered as victory was decided for them.

Chancellor Shepard came out. “As part of the Test War rules, a party has been prepared for the victors. Red Dorm and their guests may head to the cafeteria and enjoy your victory.” The dorm cheered and began to head out. Shepard came over to Jaden. “Stirring things up a bit early are we?”

“I don't mean to cause trouble, I just think the dorms should be balanced.” Shepard nods.

“Balance is good, in life and in dueling. Many of the school's principles were set in place by Seto Kaiba, and he had very strong beliefs. In some way, it benefits, but in others, it can breed arrogance and contempt.” he gives Jaden a serious look.

“Competition and fun can be part of any game, one will always be trying to one-up the other.”

“I understand sir, but I won't be backing down, I at least have to try.” Shepard chuckles.

“Good, good, I look forward to seeing what you do, I wish you luck Jaden,” he says. As Shepard leaves, Syrus and Bastion race over to him.

“Well, that was quite the impressive show.” Bastion says.

“You did it!” Syrus hugged Jaden.

“It was a fun duel, but Chazz is right, this is just the first battle the war is just beginning.” he smiled. “But for now let's just enjoy the now. What do you say Bastion wanna come to a party?”

“I don't see why not.” Syrus messaged Chumley about the party and the three headed off. As they went Jaden didn't notice the few Obelisk Blue students giving him a dark look, revenge and rage brewing in their hearts.

The party was going well, the Red students were getting the food they could only dream of. Not only was it freshly cooked, but it tasted amazing, the icing on the cake was that it was all you can eat. The red dorm was stuffing themselves on the delicious food.

Chumley arrived and drooled at the sight of the food. He hadn't seen such a collection of deliciousness, he was in awe. He began to pile on some food and dug in. "Glad to see you could make it Chumley," Syrus says.

"I'm only here for the food, I don't wanna celebrate winning the war." he'd seen it before, this was his second year, he'd seen some brave fools try and change things and get knocked down in more ways than one.

"It may just be one battle, but I'm not turning my back on you guys," Jaden tells him.

"I've heard that before, sorry if I don't believe you." he looked from Jaden to Bastion.

"Chum..." Syrus whimpered. Chumley sat down and began to eat.

"He'll come around." Jaden rubs his back. They each got a plate and sat down to their meal. He was concerned as to why Chumley was so down, he thought he understood the issue, but perhaps it was more personal.

Even Bastion was impressed with the spread, though he was more used to it, with the quality of the food in the yellow dorm. “Certainly a step up. I must admit I am impressed, both in your skill and...” he stopped talking, a blush spreading across his cheeks.

“That time in the locker room?” Jaden asked with a smirk, making Bastion choke, and his whole face going red.

“Of course not, I'm just impressed with your dueling skills,” he says, wiping his mouth.

Jaden and Syrus share a look. “Then you wouldn't be interested in joining us for an after party?” Bastion raised a brow.

'After the party?' he was legit confused, and it showed on his face

“Yeah, I'd like to invite you to my room, after the victory party, for some fun.” Jaden winks. Bastion's jaw drops.

“To your room?” he stutters, he felt his heart race. He'd be lying if he hadn't thought about what he saw in the locker room, or of Jaden's offer.

Again Jaden and Syrus share a look, then a smile. Jaden cups his cheek and the two kiss right in front of Bastion. The male blushes, feeling his blood rush south. “Are you mocking me?” he asked.

“Not at all it’s a bonafide offer, I do want to celebrate, and my people have a special way of celebrating.” Bastion could only imagine, while Syrus had a more clear idea, knowing Jaden’s true form.

There was nothing more glorious than the victory parties centaurs throw, food, drink, and of course sex. Jaden had been too young to celebrate beyond food and drink in the past but now he was old enough. He had fond memories falling asleep to the sounds of passion. Centaurs might seem stiff but they knew how to party.

Jaden looked over his shoulder. “The offer goes to you too,” he looked at Chumley. The hefty male blushed and shielded his crotch.

“What...who...me...?” he blushed and stuttered.

“Sure it’ll be a great bonding experience.” For Jaden much like washing each other’s back sex was a great bonding experience, men tended to open up more when pleasure broke down the walls. “Do you wanna come?”

“Uh...sure...when I’m done eating...” he began stuffing his face.

“How about you?” Jaden asked Bastion.

“Ahem, I don’t see why not,” he says.

They all ate and drank some school-sanctioned beverages. As the other red students took turns thanking Jaden as they headed back to their dorm. The four headed towards Jaden’s room.

“Sy we shouldn’t be here this is the Blue Dorm.”

“Relax Chum, we are Jaden’s guests.”

“Right, you guys can even spend the night if you like.” They reached Jaden’s door, and before he could unlock the door it opened slightly. ‘Unlocked, I’m sure I locked it...oh no...’ The door opened with a heavy creak as if to warn for the horror that was inside.

“Jaden...” Syrus gasped.

“My word...” Bastion gasped.

Jaden’s tv was busted, his bed and pillow ripped to shreds, the floor was littered with trash, his window was shattered, and on his walls covered in insults and over his bed in big letters was spray painted the word TRAITOR!

Chumley saw the damage and looked to Jaden. “You see, this is what you will face if you help us.”

“Jaden, you should tell Doctor Crowler, or go to Chancellor Shepard!” Bastion says.

“He’s right Jaden, this dorm has security cameras, you can catch the ones who...”

“Oh man, looks like there were some guys with too much time on their hands,” he was smiling. “Looks like I’ll need a rain check on the after party.” He sighed, and rolled up his sleeves and started picking up the trash. “You guys should head home I’ll be up all night cleaning up.”

Bastion couldn’t believe it, maybe the school system was wrong if the Blue Students would lash out like this. ‘To think joining Obelisk Blue was my goal.’

“I’m staying, I wanna help,” Syrus says and goes to help pick up some of the trash.

“I’ll go get some paint, I’ll help to with the three of us, it should go by faster.” Bastion says.

“Well I’m out of here, I warned you this would happen, and it’ll keep happening if you keep trying to help us Red’s.”

“And I will keep cleaning up the mess. No matter how many times it takes until things are put right.”

“You are crazy...” he turns to leave.

“Chumley, it might seem odd to you, but from where I am from we fight for what we want, if you give up before you even try, you don’t have any chance of victory. I want to help the Red Dorm that won’t change over one little mess.”

Chumley ran off.

‘He used to say things like that too.’ Chumley got teary eyed. Jaden, Syrus, and Bastion worked through the night and got the room cleaned up, to the best of their abilities. Jaden got the think blanket stitched up and laid it out onto the now clean floor. They couldn’t fix the TV or the window, but the glass got picked up.

The trio crashed on the blanket, taking off their uniforms, to bathe in the warmth of each other, and Jaden was so warm and smelled so good. The two had the best sleep of their lives.

Jaden knew this was just the beginning. Jaden found tacks in his shoes after gym class, someone smeared glue on his seat before class, tear his clothing during gym, even after he got a stronger lock on his door there were those who would vandalize his door. Some would throw things at him from the shadows, like erasers, pencils, spit wads, others were even throwing water on him at times. Some fools were bold enough to challenge him in a group, attacking him four on one.

He got out his duel disk. “Bring it on!” the group was wiped out.

“He’s a monster!”

“He’s so strong!”

“Come and challenge me any time, I will take you on!” Jaden says as they run off. He was taking everything with a centaur stride. Even in class when people would fire things at him, he’d use a pencil and deflect them. When his clothes were ruined he’d walk around shirtless, and shoeless. Taking the high road didn’t cover it.

Crowler wasn't stupid, he knew and even saw some of his precious Obelisk Blues take action against Jaden, but he did nothing to stop it, which only allowed it to further continue. 'Hopefully, a little hazing will help him come to his senses.'

He was surprised he expected Jaden to complain, but he never said a word to him or Shepard. 'What could he be up to.'

"Doctor Crowler, would you please come to Chancellor Shepard's office." he heard over the intercom.

He did so quickly. "Sit down Crowler." again he did so.

"Crowler, you are aware of the school's rules correct?"

"But of course, the rules are very important."

"For everyone?" he asked, not even looking at him.

"Eh...of course..." he began to sweat.

"You are aware that after the Test War there is a rule against an immediate challenge."

"Of course it gives the winners time to bask in the rewards, and the losers time to prepare."

"Then you must be aware, that any retaliation against the winners in a test war is grounds for EXPULSION!" he banged his fist on his desk.

“Did Jaden Yuki say there was a problem?” Crowler flinched and began sweating.

“No he hasn’t funny how you assume he did.” he glared at Crowler.

“We do have security cameras Crowler, not many to protect student’s privacy, they are activated mostly at night, and during class to make sure there’s no funny business and to help aid security. By chance the security cameras were turned on during the Red Dorm’s party, and caught several students breaking into the Jaden’s room!” he laced his fingers looking serious. “And there were other strange accounts Jaden walking around school shirtless, or without shoes, or soaking wet from head to toe!”

“Well, I um...” he was sweating heavily.

“Surely as one of your students, you noticed, and would ask if something was wrong? Banner noticed, but Jaden said nothing that he was fine.”

“Me well I...Of course, the student’s safety is my concern as a teacher and Dorm Adviser.”

“Then I trust you will make it clear, that any more retaliation will not only lead to expulsion, complaint or no complaint, and the dorm responsible will face consequences.”

“Yes!” Crowler stood straight as a board.

“And Crowler, the items damaged that belonged to Jaden, as dorm adviser will be coming out of your paycheck.”

“Of course sir...” he left visibly deflated.

-X-

Shepard wasn't the only one who noticed the odd goings-on.

“Oi Jaden!” the brunette was approached.

“Chazz? What's up?” the raven-haired student met him outside.

“I just want you to know, I didn't tell anyone to mess with you like this. I thought some of the guys were acting strange but I had no idea they were...anyway I had nothing to do with it.”

“I know.”

“Eh?”

“You aren't that kind of person Chazz, and you can't control what some people with too much time on their hands do.”

“Hey what do you mean I’m not that kind of person what do you know about me?” he grabbed Jaden by the jacket and glared at him.

“If you were gonna get payback, you’d do it in a duel, once the rest period is over, am I right?” he smiled, making Chazz blush. “I can tell, deep down you have the pride of a warrior.” Jaden left and went to class leaving Chazz stunned.

Chapter 9 Royal Blue

Crowler's decree did stop a lot of the bullying against Jaden, none of them willing to be expelled. However, this didn't stop the rage from building, and there was already a plan of attack ready, they just had to wait another 3 weeks then they could attack the red dorm.

“Alexis, you should take part in the next test war.” One of the blue dorm girls told her.

“And why would I do that?” Alexis was reading a book. She didn't bother looking up from it either.

“Come on Alexis, you are the strongest girl in the blue dorm, one of the Royal Blue!” she closed her book with a snap.

“I didn't ask to be one,” she stated firmly.

“Yeah but your skills made you one.” some of the girls looked over in class and saw Jaden hanging with Syrus and Bastion.

“To think one of our own would betray us, what could he be thinking.”

“He doesn't know who he's messing with if he goes too far the royal blue would take him down.” Alexis got up and left.

“Alexis...”

“The Royal Blue are dead.” The Royal Blue referred to the number 1 duelist in each year of the blue dorm, they were given the title of Royal Blue. In the past, the trio had crushed both the red and yellow dorm in test wars and helped raise the Blue dorm to the position it was today. However, the second seat has remained empty after one of them mysteriously disappeared.

While it was true Zane was the number 1 third year, and Alexis was the strongest in year 1, the titles of Royal Blue died with him.

-X-

Alexis had a lot on her plate, but she wasn't blind. She was there when Jaden defeated Doctor Crowler. She took note of his grades taking the top spot in the new applicants. When he stood up for the red dorm and declared a Test War she thought he was crazy but interesting.

The girls were always gossiping about him, calling him crazy, or a slacker who just got lucky. The fact he was defending red students here and there, not letting them be bullied or pushed around. To think he would start a test war, disturbing the balance of Duel Academy.

She wasn't dumb, she knew how elitist many of the Obelisk Blue students were. Threatening their easy lifestyle like this, the retaliation was quirk and wicked. She had seen some of it herself, she found it disgraceful, but in her mind, she wasn't a snitch and it wasn't any of her business anyway.

After a week Jaden never said a word, and he was the one who took the brunt of the abuse. Yet, he continued to smile and walk forward, and he was even countering some of the pranks. She had a feeling Crowler wouldn't listen anyway if Jaden was one of the Red students he'd have tried to expel him already. It must be driving him mad that one of his precious Blue students was supporting the slackers, what's more, he can't punish Jaden for siding with the Red Dorm either, all he can do is wait, and if Jaden loses he can be demoted.

Alexis didn't believe it would be so easy, from the way he dueled, though she wouldn't know how strong he was until she dueled him herself. She had a feeling once the month was up she'd be called upon to do it. While she had no interest in the war she would like to duel Jaden.

She had her own worries, dueling was her passion, but she was at Duel Academy for another reason. 'Big brother...what happened to you?' she scoured the archive trying to find an answer.

Alexis even went to the gate of the abandoned dorm, it was forbidden to step inside. As far as she could find, her brother and other students went missing from this dorm. The purpose of this dorm was shrouded in mystery, the files on it were all redacted, it seems the only thing she could find out, it was built during a test war, but those involved in the war were unknown.

‘I won’t give up, I will find you.’ she left a rose at the gate, but too her shock it wasn’t the only rose there. ‘Maybe someone on this island knows what happened to him.’

-X-

Some of the blue duelists had turned to Zane, but he knew the rules. Third years can’t get involved in the wars so early, especially since the red dorm had no third-year students, most drop out by the second year. Most third years had no interest in the wars, focused more on graduating.

Zane had a lot of pride in his skills, he truly was the best student of the third year class, his record was flawless. He'd seen Jaden duel as well, and he could see something was different. The boy had fun dueling, but behind those eyes were ones that had seen battle.

In samurai terms, Zane could see he had yet to use his true blade, in dueling terms, its as if he's dueling with his left hand, but he's really right-handed. He also didn't approve of the hazing, but no one in his group had done any such thing it was the juniors.

-X-

Despite the bullying, it didn't stop Jaden from spending time with Syrus. All week they found time to be together, Syrus was finding it easier and easier to function with fewer hours of sleep. What's more, his oral skills were steadily improving. He was able to take more of Jaden's cock at a time, he was learning to breathe through his nose, which allowed him to swim in the manly and heavenly musk Jaden emitted.

Syrus was enjoying sucking Jaden's dick so much he actually came from it. He was embarrassed at first, but Jaden never scolded him or made him feel less. Jaden was so proud of Syrus, he let him have a go at his centaur cock. The monstrous 24 inch one between his horse legs.

He got to feel the weight and heat of it, even with both hands he couldn't hold all of his girth. It was hard to believe it was gonna be inside him one day. He didn't think it was possible at first, but he trusted Jaden.

It wasn't like he wasn't noticing any changes, he did feel different just couldn't really explain it. He crawled under Jaden and began to make out with Jaden's massive beast dick. The taste was so powerful, coaxing Syrus to lap more. Then the pre-cum started to pour out, and Syrus began to make out with the piss slit, drinking down the essence like a man in the desert who just found water.

It filled his belly and made his body tingle. His own cock weeping like a waterfall between his legs. He used his hands to pump half of Jaden's shaft as he continued to make out with the massive dick. His tongue wiggled and wiggled against the slit and before he knew it his tongue slipped inside Jaden's pipe.

Jaden's heavy balls lurched and unloaded a heaping helping of thick centaur cum, some got in his mouth, but the rest covered Syrus in his seed. The poor boy was drenched from head to toe, you couldn't even tell that he had cum, his seed vanished in the sea of white. He crawled out and without missing a beat, started sucking Jaden's second cock. "You are beautiful Syrus!" he looked so damn cute with his mouth around his cock.

By the end of the second week, Syrus had gained a tiny bit of muscle, and his cock had physically grown an inch, but best yet Syrus could suck 12 inches of Jaden's human cock now.

It was very good progress, Jaden believed by the end of the month, Syrus could be ready. Maybe not for his centaur dick but his human one certainly. He also believed it was time to bring Bastion into the fold.

-X-

Bastion had been called to the Blue Dorm by Jaden. The boy had been on his mind for some time, there was no denying his strength. Jaden's dueling skills certainly excited him, among other things. The events of the locker room had not left his mind, try as he might.

He was such a serious young man, so he didn't partake in self-pleasure, not that he would turn down a bona fide offer. As studious as he was, he wasn't opposed to a party. The more he denied his body, the more Jaden haunted his dreams, things getting wet.

Bastion reached Jaden's dorm room and found the door unlocked. "Alright, I'm here what did you...my word!" Bastion's jaw dropped, his heart skipped a beat, and his blood rushed south.

Jaden and Syrus were both naked in Jaden's bed, the boy was sucking Jaden's massive dick with gusto, what he couldn't fit in his mouth was caressed with his hand. A large vibe buzzing away at Syrus' ass, and his free hand was pumping his twitching cock.

Bastion gulped and licked his suddenly dry lips. Jaden was basking in the pleasure, hands behind his head as he let Syrus work. "Hey Bastion," Jaden waved. "Thanks for coming."

To be continued...Bastion Joins the Fold

Chapter 10 Bastion Joins the Fold

The smell of sex weighed heavily in the air, Jaden's own musk having been increased due to his arousal. Even as Bastion clutched the door handle, he didn't feel like he was in Duel Academy anymore, it was like he was standing on the edge of a large forest.

It called to him as much as the sexy sight on the bed called to him. Seeing each other naked in the shower was one thing, but seeing each other naked and aroused was an entirely different experience. Bastion was certainly not one for self-pleasure it was why the incident in the locker room was all the more perplexing, he'd never succumbed to such desires before. As for right now, all he wanted to do was get naked and fap to the erotic sight before him.

Jaden invited him in, and he walked inside without a second thought. The door seemed to vanish around him, he barely remembered shutting it. "He's doing great isn't he?" Bastion looked and watched as Syrus bobbed his head back and forth. He could hardly believe it, Jaden was so big and yet... Syrus was sucking 12-inches of his massive 16-inch man meat. 'How is he taking all that into his mouth?' What he couldn't fit in his mouth he caressed with his hand. Bastion couldn't tell which was louder, the buzz of the vibe inside him or his loud lustful sucks.

Syrus looked so damn pleased with himself, slurping and hollowing his cheeks as he worked every inch that he could. Jaden's dick made his throat bulge. The boy was breathing through his nose, taking in Jaden's rich arousal-spiked musk with each breath. Bastion felt it too, the brunette's musk was spiced with something raw, manly, hot!

His cock was so hard it hurt, bulging against his boxers and tight pants. He was weeping like a flood, making his underwear so wet it clung to his crotch, some of his pre-cum having started running down his legs. Bastion licked his lips, feeling his hole throb.

He came to his senses and looked away from Syrus going to town on Jaden's cock to the man himself. "Why don't you get comfortable?"

"I uh...um...okay..." he gulped. He undid his jacket and stashed away his deck holsters. 'Is this really happening?' his heart was racing. He pulled off his shirt exposing his toned upper body, for a math nerd Bastion was ripped. He started lowering his zipper when he hears a muffled moan behind him.

Syrus...had cum from sucking Jaden's dick. The boy was trembling as his cock spat spurt after spurt of cum. 'Does sucking his dick feel that good?’ Bastion thought it didn’t seem to bother Jaden, the brunette was smiling lovingly at Syrus.

After a moment of basking in the glow of his climax, Syrus got back to work sucking Jaden’s dick, and Bastion got back to work stripping. The Ra Yellow student's crotch was positively soaked in his pre-cum as he tugged both pants and underwear down and stepped out of them. He removed his shoes and socks and stood in all his naked glory.

Bastion felt a sudden surge of embarrassment, his cock and balls were drenched. He turned around shielding his crotch. “Ah ah, none of that, no need to be shy.” Bastion was hesitant but he drops his hands and showed his stiff dick and soaked crotch. “See, you look great. Come here,” he motioned him forward.

He obeyed, Jaden’s musk beckoning him. Without thinking, he got into the bed and buried his face in Jaden’s pit, and took a whiff. “Ohhh,” He blushed and began to shamelessly sniff the boy’s pit. “Mmm!”

Bastion smiled as the smell filled him with joy. He hummed happily, and without thinking, he started jerking off to Jaden’s musk. ‘Why does this feel so right, so good?’ he pumped himself faster, his pre-cum allowing him to move swiftly, making his balls bounce from the strong strokes. The smell and fapping caused Bastion to lose control and he came, blowing his load all over Jaden's sheets and his pumping hand.

For a moment, Bastion's life became sudden sunshine and rainbows, he felt like he was basking in the sun buck naked, a gentle breeze caressing every inch of him carrying the scent of the grass. It didn't smell like normal grass, it smelled like Jaden, the grass caressed his skin. The orgasm pulled Bastion to his senses, his whole face went red. "I'm so sorry!" he began to babble, he spoke so fast it was hard to understand, so Jaden silenced him with a kiss. He licked the boy's lips, and Bastion parted them in response, allowing Jaden's tongue to slip inside. His tongue played with Misawa's teasing it and coaxing it to dance.

Jaden grabbed his still hard cock and started pumping him as he made out with him. He swallowed Bastion's moans, teasing his hard length, fast strokes, slow strokes, rubbing the tip with his thumb, teasing his length with a firm grip, soft grip with gentle caresses. He felt his release build up again, and Jaden pushed him over the edge.

He pulled his hand back and caught the release as Bastion exploded, coating Jaden's hand in his thick cum. "Do you want to play with us, Bastion?"

‘Us?’ he blushed as he realized he forgot Syrus was even there. The boy was in his own world, sucking Jaden’s cock like he was born for it. “Is this okay, I don’t know, I...”

“Bastion, you don’t have to overthink this. Syrus is okay with you here, I want you here, you can stay or go, with no hard feelings.” Jaden informed him.

The Ra Yellow duelist twiddled his fingers. This was a bona fide offer, and Jaden was handsome, sexy, and hung. This was a no brainer. “I’ll stay!” he said.

“Good, Syrus get in position,” Syrus pulled off his cock, licking his lips to savor the flavor. He turned around and got on his hands and knees, his cock and balls tucked back between his legs, so his stuffed ass, cock, and balls were on full display. “Now Bastion, get next to Syrus.”

Bastion obeyed and tried to take the same pose as Syrus. The bluenette was panting heatedly, the vibe still buzzing away at his ass. Misawa had a bit of trouble holding his hard cock and massive balls between his toned thighs. He shivered he was fully exposed to Jaden.

The brunette approached them, and he started with Syrus, playing with the boy’s balls, giving them a squeeze. “Ahh!” Syrus moaned, arching his back. His hole visibly tightened around the vibe. One finger dragged along Sy’s twitching cock, before riding up along his length and seem, across his taint, and circled his stuffed hole.

“You are so beautiful Syrus,” the boy shivered, despite the warmth of his words. His tone was like melted chocolate that was tenderly drizzled across his body. Bastion was next, Jaden’s cum soaked hand, caressing his slicked manhood and his heavy balls.

Bastion’s body shuddered, Jaden teased his tip and balls, before leaving a trail of his cum along his taint to his twitching hole. Slick fingers circled the tight pucker before the middle finger added pressure. “Ahhh!”

“Bastion, you are so hot,” he rubbed the boy’s hole and the raven-haired male shuddered. “I knew you were special.” he wiggled against his pucker before the slick digit pushed in.

“Jaden!” The middle finger sank deep.

“So tight,” he rocked the finger in and out, spreading Bastion’s cum inside him. Jaden lined up behind Syrus, his cock aimed at the boy’s dick and balls and pushed. Syrus moaned, the result being his cock and balls getting pushed between his thighs.

Jaden’s cock slid between his thighs, running along his taint, balls, and cock! Bastion looked and saw Jaden’s massive dick overwhelm his crotch. At this moment, the brunette slipped in a second finger into Bastion's ass. The Ra Yellow student fisted the sheets but pushed back onto Jaden's fingers.

His ass was scissored open, working his hole wider and wider, the digits twisted and thrust inside him. Bastion's blush spread ear to ear, his cock weeping beneath him. He started to pant like Syrus next to him.

Syrus started to hump against Jaden's cock, rubbing his cock and balls against his massive shaft. Jaden was keeping still as he stretched Bastion's hole open. Once his hole was nice and stretched he added a third finger.

Bastion had three fingers in his tight ass, it stung a bit, but he was so high on pleasure, the pain melted away and Bastion pushed back onto the digits. Jaden began to move, sliding his cock between Sy's thighs, and against his crotch. Intercrural plus frot, the combination was highly pleasurable and drove Syrus wild. The boy moaned loudly.

At the same time, he started finger fucking Bastion, essentially fucking them both at the same time just different ways. The bed creaked as he moved the boys shuddering and shaking in pleasure. Jaden's fingers continually brushed Bastion's sweet spot, melting his mind and making him drool.

Syrus was the first to cum, blowing his load all over Jaden's dick. Bastion didn't last much longer, cumming just a few seconds after him, Bastion's erupting all over his legs and feet in kind.

Jaden let out a moan of his own and came, his cum making a huge mess. He pulled his cock back and showered Syrus in thick man milk. The boy let out a moan and came again, his seed vanishing in the sea of cum. Bastion gulped, smelling the fresh baby batter, he looked and marveled at the sheer amount of cum Syrus was drenched with.

Jaden pulled his fingers out of Bastion's ass, the boy whining at the loss. He soon felt Jaden's still hard dick press against his cock and balls. Yuki pushed through, forcing his cock and balls through Bastion's thick thighs. "Ahh!" Like Syrus, Bastion soon had his cock and balls trapped against Jaden's dick. His thighs hugged his thick manhood, and his hole twitched in want.

He began to move, showing Bastion the joys of the intercrural sex. At the same kind, Jaden grabbed the vibe inside Syrus and began to work it in and out of his tight ass. The vibe was quite long, which only added to the friction as Jaden worked it back and forth.

So began another pace, Jaden fucking them in unique ways. "Jaden, please my ass, play with my ass!" His hole was throbbing. Jaden smirked and thrust four fingers inside.

Bastion howled and came, and Syrus joined him seconds after. Jaden continued fucking Bastion's thighs and against his taint, balls, and cock! His own release built up and he came.

Like with Syrus, Jaden bathed Bastion in his thick seed. Bastion shuddered in delight, each powerful spurt hit his skin and covered him in white. "Jaden, your stamina is amazing, how do you do this?" Bastion panted.

Jaden looked to Syrus, who was still a bit out of it, so he simply nodded. He sighed. "I wasn't sure about revealing my secret to you, but if we gonna go forward you should know what I truly am." Jaden got off the bed and stood before the two. He clutched his shadow charm, and in a flash, Jaden transformed into his true form. "I'm not human Bastion, I come from a world where monsters and magic are real. This is my true form."

Bastion fainted from shock, and probably the few orgasms he had. Jaden was so focused on helping Bastion, he didn't notice that his door hadn't been fully shut or locked, and someone had been peeking through the door the whole time.
