

2 Preds, 1 pool...

Summer it's the time for fun in the sun and cooling off in the waters of the pool. Our story begins with 4 Friends exiting the car they just parked. Aang, Alli, Ayako, and Carmesi. They're on a little trip to the pool to get that summer fun. Aang and Carmesi bring out two bags that were colored differently. He closed the trunk putting one bag on his arm.

"Well Girls here we are here." Aang said, taking off his shirt and putting it in the clothing bag.

They walked inside the building as the pool was surrounded by a wall, but the inside was very open and with a lot of space to play and relax.

"This is gonna be fun, at least the pool seems secured enough" Ayako says, taking off her clothing showing off her bikini. Putting it in the other clothing bag as Carmesi followed up on it.

"I'm sure it'll be great" Allissei was all set to have fun.

Both of the Girls were showing off their sexy bodies to get some "WOO's" from the boys.

"Love this bikini, thanks Carmesi for helping me!" Ayako was happy "It's always hard to find clothes that fit me, especially small ones!"

"Your welcome Ayako, I have experience with another tall woman with massive boobies and cute glasses, but mine is blonde!" Carmesi Giggles

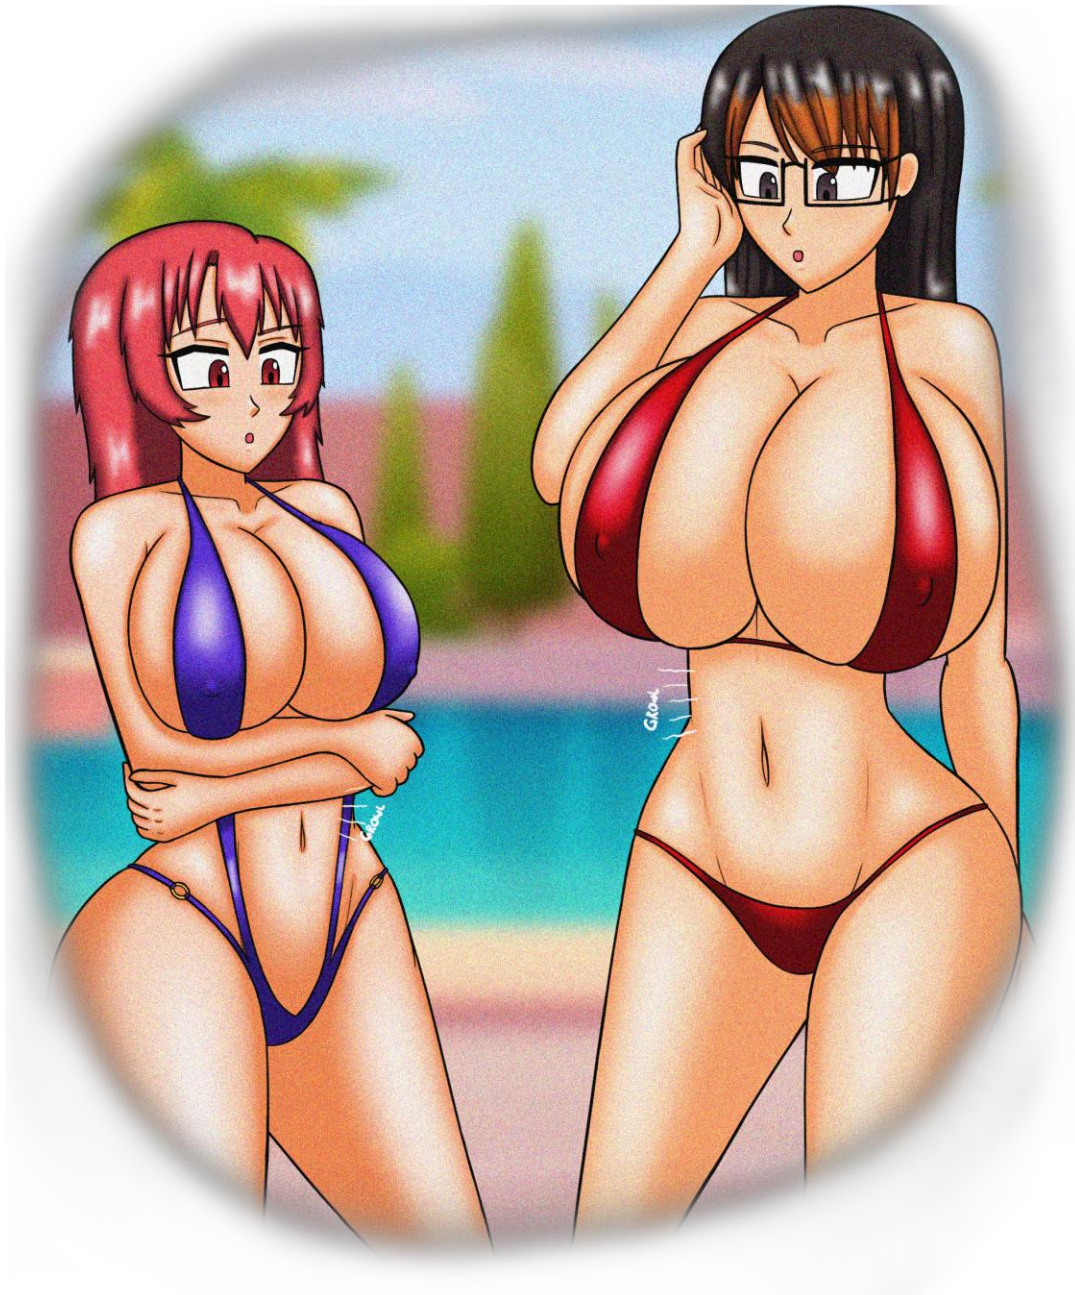

The boy's look in awe as they love how sexy the girls are.

“Well you girls look lovely as always, let's have some fun!” Alli was excited

“Yeah it's a good time for it as well” Aang stretches.

All 4 of them started their time in the place.

Time passed, they would be relaxing and chilling, Ayako and Carmesi were enjoying themselves inside the pool as they played around, Aang was laying back on a chair looking around, and Allissei was sitting on the side of the pool enjoying the water. Ayako came out and stretched out her body. Suddenly at a bad moment, her stomach rumbles, she looks down as she feels it is starting up. Carmesi had that same feeling as well as her stomach rumbled too, she comes out and walks with Ayako to Allissei.

“Hey guys, would you get us some food? We're kinda hungry.” Carmesi asked as she pokes her fingers together.

Alli and Aang nodded to each other as they got up and headed outside the pool to get some snacks.

They left the girls alone, they decided to go and sit on the edge of the pool, soon their stomach growl loudly, and couldn't wait anymore, so Carmesi got an idea.

“Hey Ayako!” She whispers to Ayako, and she nods and hears everything she has to say.

“Sounds like a plan, I go down, and you stay up” Ayako smiled

Carmesi stayed outside as she saw Ayako going inside the pool, she sat down on the stairs, and took a look around. There were a good amount of people. She smiled, took a deep breath and went underwater.

Ayako comes out of the water to see that a lot of people were in the pool. She then started to warm up. Spotting one from a close distance, it was a male swimmer that caught the eyes of Ayako's huge breast. She gestures to the male swimmer to come a bit closer to her, the swimmer falls for it as he gets closer to her. She quickly went underwater before him. Ayako opens wide for the swimmer, the swimmer takes a deep breath and goes down underwater, but what he sees was an open mouth as Ayako goes in and swallows him down gulping him quickly down enjoying the taste of him. Her belly expands largely. She burps out bubbles giving some giggles. Looking around to see if anyone could become her meal. She noticed one swimmer, he was gonna take a dive. Ayako gently crawls across underwater. Doesn't wanna be seen from the surface. Looking through the water as she notices the swimmer was ready. It was another chance to take another one in, the swimmer then takes a dive into the water but ends up in Ayako mouth when he enters 3 feet deep. Ayako takes it and swallows the swimmer down into her stomach as she was enjoying the feeling of them squirming around. She felt heavier as she had to move close to the stairs, she moved slowly to the nearest stairs to set up her ability. She was getting closer till someone took her sitting spot on the stairs. She had no time to wait so she just grabbed the person's leg and swallowed her down quickly, her belly was bigger and heavier due to additional water inside of her. She turns slowly and relaxes for a moment.

Meanwhile, Carmesi was walking around, she saw how Ayako was swallowing some people, she realizes that one woman was getting concerned since they were looking for the swimmer that did the dive, it was probably her girlfriend, she quickly grabbed the woman from behind, cover her mouth so she didn't shout, and swallowed her quickly! Carmesi quickly got a big bloated belly, she sat on the woman's chair as this meal calmed her belly for a bit.

Soon Ayako was under water as she swam around, a few people were going around next to her but didn't see her huge bloating belly. She looks up, getting her head out of the water for a moment to get an understanding. There were twin sisters about to enter the pool. Ayako was ready for the two twins. As they go in Ayako quickly grabs the twins and pulls them down into her mouth, she swallows both girls down so her stomach grows bigger and more bloated as usual. She was a bit concerned if Carmesi started yet. Her belly was so huge that it may have become more noticeable from the people so she goes underwater for a moment. She rubs her belly as it squirms. Some plead for help can be heard from her stomach, Ayako just smiles and rubs. A foot suddenly stepped on her belly, slipping down in front of Ayako, she stops as she panics and pulls the random person down in her mouth and swallows quickly and gulps them down. Makes another burping bubble. Her belly was getting massive as her belly gravitated down. She sits on the steps and layed back on them to be in relief.

Meanwhile, Carmesi was noticed by a couple, they looked at her belly and rub it. “You’re so cute with that pregnant tummy, you should be in your last months and carrying triplets!”- The woman said... soon Carmesi would actually burp a bit loud and a piece of the woman’s bikini came out of her mouth! It was the top of the bikini, and as they saw the piece of clothing, they soon noticed that there was a woman squirming inside her belly!

Carmesi panicked a bit and grabbed the couple quickly, she first shoved the man inside her mouth and swallowed him quickly, bloating her stomach! The woman was next so she lifted her in the air, opened her mouth and made her slide into her stomach. Soon her belly was huge as it rumbled and moved because of the preys! Unfortunately, she made herself too noticeable to all the people around the pool, so they tried to flee, but Carmesi was smart, she was standing near the entrance, so Carmesi was blocking the only exit from the pool building, so some people panicked and jumped inside the pool so Carmesi won't be catching them!

It was time. Ayako sees more people in the pool. It looks crowded. Ayako takes her chance and starts to channel her power within as she opens up her mouth. Used her ability Whirlpool Vacuum. It slowly starts to swirl around her mouth as the water goes in and starts to slowly fill first. The current of the whirlpool starts to pick up. It pulls harder as one has fallen into the current and into the mouth of Ayako as the prey panics and tries to call out for help but goes in her mouth and into her stomach. As one goes it goes faster and stronger to pull more people in. The Whirlpool grows larger and stronger.

A few more people went under water but they got caught in Ayako Ability as they tried to go back up, but it was too strong the people went down and swirled into Ayako mouth and into her stomach. Ayako was pleased as it got stronger and faster reaching to the surface. More people on the surface of the water under Ayako started to get pulled in from the whirlpool. They got sucked in and swallowed down by Ayako. It was at a rapid speed, the whirlpool spread farther on the pool as it captured half of the people in the pool as they swirled around and around. Some people were holding on but it was too strong to hang on.

It got worse for the prey as the whirlpool started to capture everyone in the pool as the water started to go up due to Ayako powers. People were crying out and struggling to even escape but it was no use. More people go into the Ayako stomach as it grows out more and more. The whirlpool started to grow smaller as it started to get tighter as the last of the people in the pool went fully. As it fully went all the way, arms, feet and faces inside Ayako's mouth were sticking out. Ayako then takes one last gulp as she relaxes in peace. Her belly was huge, full of 15 to 20 people inside of her stomach and Thirty percent of water inside and secured.

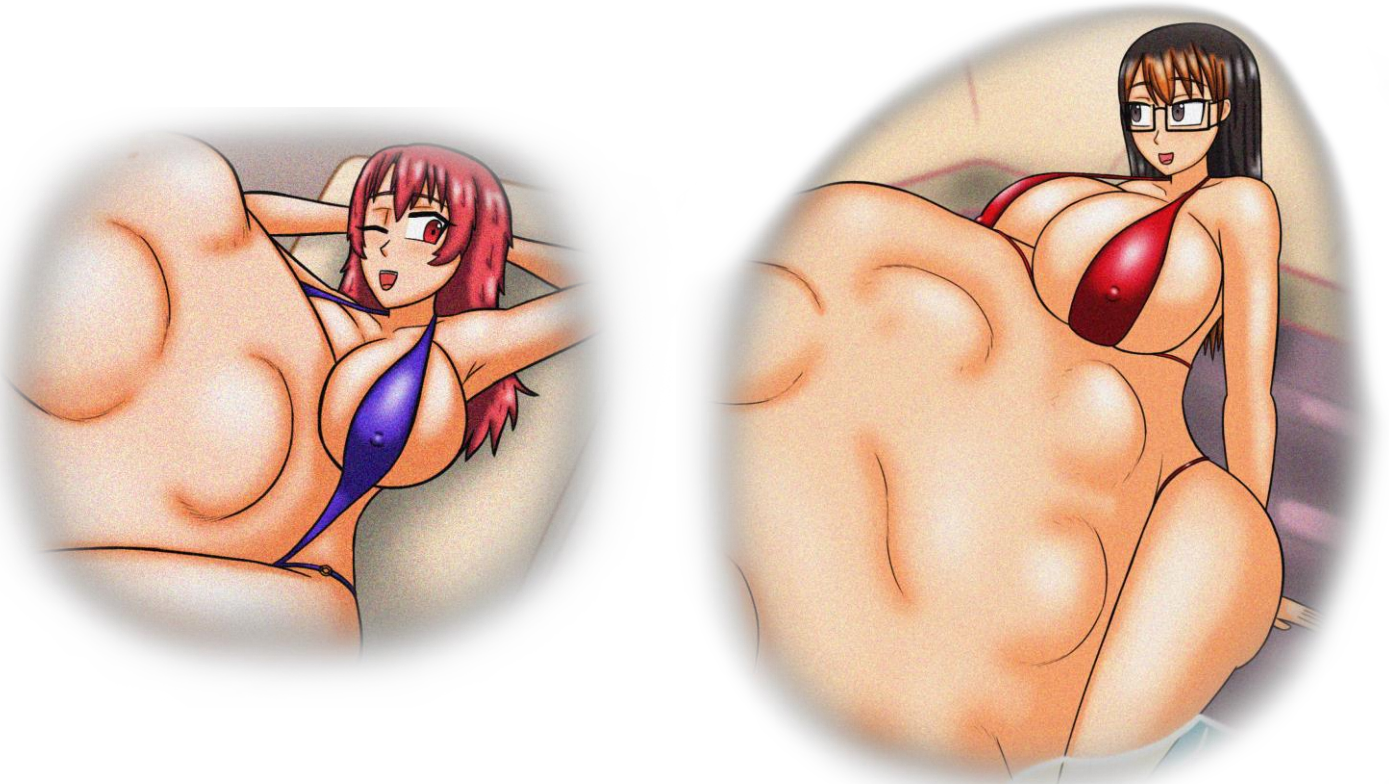

“AHHHHHHH” Ayako cries out

“I’m ready to Burp like crazy Carmesi” Her belly squirms loudly and makes tons of movement inside of her.

Finally Carmesi caught 3 more people that tried to take their chances and to overcome her. They tried to sprint to the exit and dodge Carmesi, but she only blocked the exit with her huge belly, and a bit of her magic powers. Since it was hard for her to carry them, she used her magic to lift them up. She opens her mouth wide, and one by one they slide through Carmesi's throat and into her huge stomach. She burped loud as she rubbed her new massive tummy.

Soon there were no more people in the pool, only 2 gals with huge bellies. Carmesi had a massive belly with 6 people inside. And Ayako had a gigantic belly with probably 20 people inside! Carmesi walked at her, she used a bit of her magic to carry her huge tummy as it moved and squirmed a lot. She got near Ayako since she couldn't move because of the size and weight of her heavy tummy.

Carmesi pulled a wooden bed chair to lay on it and relax near Ayako.

“I can believe we actually did this, it was an incredible meal!” said Carmesi

“Well, for me it's just another Saturday!, but this time I did it with a good friend!” Ayako replied.

Alli and Aang would return and find out what the girls were doing. As they entered they dropped the food in shock. The girls were talking as their belly squirmed and churned around in peace.

“Okay I guess it’s time to close the pool” Alli says

“Damn it girls, we can't leave you for one moment without devouring every single person?!” Aang said, a bit annoyed.

They would have to go back to the entrance and close it. They put up a sign labeled “POOL CLOSED” so no more people would fall inside the guts of these hungry gals. They returned to the pool as it was secured that anybody else would get in.

“I bet it’s gonna take the whole day to get fully digested from Ayako” Aang mention to Alli

“Well maybe for Carmesi as well, her belly is huge” Allissei looks at Carmesi

“When you’re done, we're going home... again...” He facepalms

“Let’s just go back at my place and play games since the AC works much better there” Alli suggested to Aang

“Yes, let’s do that”

They wait for the girls to digest their meals. It was done when the girls could walk properly, but their huge breasts grew out a lot. The nips were free as the two laughed and covered themselves with towels as they exited the pool. The boys didn’t say anything to them as they packed up before they finished digesting, head back to the car and drove back to Allissei apartment. In the end Allissei and Aang were playing video games in the living room while the girls were having some sex in the other room enjoying each other's bodies.

“Are you sure that I couldn’t just-” Alli asked Aang, but he gave him a stern look to not talk about it as Alli sighs in disappointment.

“Here, let’s use headphones so you don’t hear their moans” Aang said as they tried to continue playing video games for the rest of the night.
