

Losing me makes you want to kill yourself?
Don't EVER say that to me again!!
You big dumb idiot!

Wha-
Ha.. Look, you worry about me, that's fine. But let's revisit that later..
You didn't even let me finish telling you the plan!

Huh?
There's more?

Of course there's more, stupid..
I'm not in a hurry to leave you behind, either.

You just need to trust me.

Do you trust me?

My loyal subjects..
Cough
Today, I stand before you with a heavy heart

But a brimming gratitude as I'm happy to announce a momentous decision!

Huh?
What?

As everyone knows, my health.. has been deteriorating for a couple of months now.
And after much consideration, I believe it's time for me to step down from the throne.
Your Majesty..
Aw...

Understandable..
Her illness really struck out of nowhere..
However, let not worry cloud our hearts.
For I have chosen a successor worthy of leading our kingdom.
He possesses the wisdom and capabilities needed to guide us into a brighter future.

A successor?
In light of my retirement, there will be a coronation held in front of everyone.
May his reign bring prosperity, unity, and peace to our kingdom for years to come.

The Queen had a successor this entire time?
Wow..

I'm curious..!

You can come out now, Cherie.
Thank you, your Majesty.

I understand that this news is shocking to many of you
Since this is the first time that you've ever heard of me

Rest assured that I am fully capable and committed to continuing the legacy of excellence and compassion that our kingdom embodies.
I have been trained for this role, and I welcome any challenges that comes with the responsibility of being ruler.
Wow..
He speaks so eloquently..!

Precisely, Cherie here has been mentored by me personally, I now trust him to make all the right decisions for our kingdom.

Thank you, your Majesty.

Well, if the Queen mentored him herself..
Cough
He must be the real deal!
Wow..!

It has been the.. greatest privilege of my life to serve you, and I am eternally grateful for the love and kindness you have shown me
