Afterword:

Chapter 5.5, lots of people were asking for when it was going to come out, almost too often lol. Regardless, it is out now haha. Too a bit longer cause of all of the things we had going on, not on Raiha's end but rather some of the other artists. It was pretty hectic to say the least.

So anyway, with chapter 5.5 done, we'll probably be doing a chapter 6 with Erza, assuming that the sales allow for it. It's always a dice roll on how these things will go, sometimes we manage to earn a bit of profit, other times we barely reach half of the sales we need to break even lol. That said, I really do appreciate all the support that you guys guve!

As usual, do give me any feedback you guys have and I'll try to improve based off the feedback you guys give!
