

Mark has always wanted to be a famous streamer, but he can never seem to get his view count higher than 100. That is until one day when he found a strange looking lamp tucked away in his attic. He stared at the lamp unsure of what it was or why it was in his attic. He decided to do what any person would do if they were presented with a mysterious lamp... rub it. As he ran his hand across the lamp smoke began to fill the air. A voice from within the smoke said: "If you want to live out your dream come see me on cam."

Mark looked around for someplace to sit. The only seat available was on top of a small pile of clothes that was sitting near the lamp. It wasn't very comfortable, but he didn't have much of a choice, so he sat down and waited for the genie to appear. When she finally did, Mark couldn't believe his eyes. His genie was a sexy young redhead with huge tits. She had a gorgeous face and beautiful long flowing locks of red hair. She looked just like someone off the cover of Cosmo magazine. He couldn't resist staring at her breasts as she spoke to him. He could feel himself getting horny, staring at this truly beautiful woman who was now just in his apartment. "I am the genie of the lamp. I can make all of your wildest dreams come true." She said. "How may I help you?"

"Well," he said rubbing his chin, "I've always dreamed of being a successful streamer with thousands of followers and fans."

"That's no problem. What are your other two wishes?" she said with a devilish smile.

He thought for a moment then said: "Oh yeah! I also want to have a big house and a nice car!"

She smiled even bigger and nodded. "You have one more wish, what do you desire more than anything else in the world?" she asked, teasingly.

Mark couldn't help but stare at the genie's voluptuous body. The way her big boobs jiggled in front of him made it hard to concentrate on anything else. She had huge breasts, perfectly round and firm. "I want to constantly have sex and be surrounded by huge tits like yours."

The genie smiled and said, "Your wishes are granted. Enjoy." Then she disappeared.

"Well I guess it's time to see if the wishes worked." Mark went to his computer and started up his stream. He booted up a game at random and began playing. Much to his dismay however the number of watchers was still really low. After an hour he was barely over 50 viewers. "It looks like the genie's not going to grant my last wish after all." He muttered under his breath as he began to feel a heat rising in his body. Something felt different about him though. He noticed that as this feeling grew, so did the number of people watching the stream. So, Mark just kept playing. As he continues, his hair starts to change. It begins growing longer and darker. His face starts to change shape, becoming softer and cuter as his jawline softens and his cheeks puff out. Mark would've been more concerned if his stream wasn't blowing up with new viewers. Next, his skin tone became pale, probably from sitting inside all day. His muscles began to soften and altogether disappear.

As Mark was continuing to play the video game and transform a chat text to speech came across the screen. "You're starting to look really hot!"

"Am I?" Mark's voice came out very high pitched and feminine, "Like thank you! UWU!" Mark's brain was starting to alter itself. He was starting to forget his old life and his memories were being replaced by new ones. All the while, Mark's thighs and ass were getting bigger and bigger. Soon, he was wearing tight short shorts, showing off his large, round butt and smooth legs. He saw he was receiving many comments and messages from his viewers. Things like; "Wow! You're so pretty!" and "Your boobs are amazing, how do you keep them so big?"

Mark was totally oblivious to what was happening to him. He continued playing with the same intensity, but he noticed that his viewers were becoming more and more vocal and excited. Soon, Mark's breasts also started growing larger and fuller. They pushed against the fabric of his shirt. Mark, distracted by the strange sensation, dies in the game. "Oh no! I died! I guess that's another layer off." Mark then pulls off his shirt to reveal a pink bra just barely containing his large breasts. He notices that his nipples are incredibly sensitive and erect. Mark was quickly becoming Mary, a young e-girl who relied on her body for views.

Mary continued to change, her lips swelled and a massive amount of makeup appeared on her face. Little cat ears appeared on top of her head. And Finally, Mary heard a knock on the door. "Like UWU that must be my sexy boyfriend" She bit her lip and ran to the door so she could see her rich boyfriend and get filled up by him.
