Mako-Chii~ Reads: Sister's Growth Contest Continued - Written by SGA

[Narrator]

Aimee was rearing to grow again, her younger sister having just doubled her height. This contest was far from over, they both knew.

[Aimee]

Here goes!

[Narrator]

Aimee closed her eyes again and focused on growth.

[Narrator]

As before, she pushed her body to grow larger. Her younger yet taller sister watched as she swelled bigger and bigger, Her sister was a head taller than their house, but that only encouraged Aimee even more. What was wrong with being taller than the house if it meant beating her sister?

[April]

Wow sis, you're starting to grow really fast!

[Narrator]

Aimee could feel it too, feel the pulses of growth growing stronger. She was speeding up, pushing herself to grow faster and faster. She was quickly level with the house, then her sister, and then had passed both and was still quickly rising up up up into the sky. A few spurts later, she grew too curious and opened her eyes. Given her sister's exclamation, she'd expected that she'd have grown quite far, but she'd never expected anything like this. Her sister as well as the house was now down level with her thighs, and she could see overtop of the entire neighborhood with ease.

[Aimee]

Oh wow, the view up here is amazing!

[April]

Really? I wanna see!

[Narrator]

April closed her eyes, and prepared to join her sister. As before, she focused her mind on the idea of growth, and then the sensation began.

[Narrator]

Aimee watched as her sister began to spurt larger as she had, and she too was impressed by the speed. April seemed to be growing 5 meters or so with every growth spurt, but they kept getting larger. This one was 6 meters, then the next was 7. She was very quickly up past Aimee's waist and scaling her belly. This was where Aimee noticed something else.

[Aimee]

Oh my, you're still making your breasts bigger?

[Narrator]

April had not only been pushing herself larger, but had begun to grow her breasts bigger as well. Aimee could see them swelling perceptibly with each of her growth spurts. They were already at a pretty ridiculous size, but still April pushed them bigger and bigger as she grew taller. She giggled inwardly, knowing her sister's exclamation had meant she'd recognised the challenge. Soon, she'd passed Aimee again and stopped likely only a little larger than her.

[April]

How's tha~ Whoa!

[Narrator]

But April couldn't see Aimee.

[April]

Aimee? Where'd ya go?

[Aimee]

I'm down here ya big doof!

[Narrator]

April took a thunderous step backwards, and Aimee was revealed from beneath her breasts. April had once again managed to almost double her height, with the house now being down by her knees, and her sister only reaching her waist. Plus, her larger breasts had blocked more of her direct downward viewpoint. Still, April would take any opportunity to tease her sister.

[April]

Aww, how'd you get all the way down there?

[Aimee]

You just grew straight up passed me. How's the view?

[Narrator]

April took a moment to look around. The panorama of seeing where they lived from so high up was pretty incredible, not to mention the number of people who could now see her. Neither sister got embarrassed very easily though, so she wasn't bothered. It did make her think some more though, and she began to formulate a plan for her next growth spurt.

[Aimee]

That's enough, m I'm coming up there! m

[Aimee]

[Narrator]

Aimee now began to sprout taller again. With her eyes closed the only ways she could judge how fast she was growing were the strength of the growth feeling inside her, a strong tingling sensation that did seem to be getting stronger, and the feeling of the air rushing past her as her head rose up and up with each growth spurt. But, she thought back to her sister's massive breasts, and decided she'd had enough of that too. Concentrating all the more, she envisioned not only herself growing taller but her breasts expanding out as well. In response, the pulses shooting her larger seemed to grow stronger in her breasts.

[April]

Yaay, I knew you'd figure it out too sis!

[Narrator]

But Aimee wasn't done. She kept pushing herself larger. Larger. Faster. Bigger Breasts. Larger. Faster. Bigger Breasts. They kept looping inside her mind, this had the effect of speeding her growth up even more as she continued to spurt larger.

[April]

And so fast, oh my! Whoa~~

[Narrator]

April was knocked off balance by Aimee's expanding breasts as a large growth spurt grew them into her. She stepped backwards hurriedly and accidentally stepped on a parked car, causing it's alarm to sound.

[April]

O-oops! Sorry!

[Narrator]

Aimee stopped growing, her concern for the noise outweighing her desire to grow. She opened her eyes. Looking down, she was surprised to see an extremely large pair of breasts hanging out over her chest, and blocking her view of below. They were large enough to rival her sister's, but she quickly pulled them apart. This revealed her younger sister, staring down shamefully at the car she'd just totalled.

[Aimee]

Here, let me.

[Narrator]

And Aimee stepped over, her foot coming down atop what was left of the car with a large crunch, and the alarm stopped.

[April]

T-Thanks sis. Nice work catching up too.

[Narrator]

April was glaring at her huge breasts which had just knocked her over.

[Aimee]

I think it's time we leave our back garden for somewhere a little larger.

[April]

Well, at least let me catch up to you first, so we can walk together. I'll be left behind at this height!

[Aimee]

Okay, sure thing, but you should stand out in the road, or you'll knock into me again.

[April]

Knock into you? It was those huge breasts of yours that knocked into me!

[Narrator]

Pouting quite cutely, April nonetheless maneuvered her over foot over the house so she was standing completely in the road. Then, she closed her eyes and focused. It was time to try out her idea.

[Narrator]

April enjoyed her enormous breasts, but was beginning to find them a bit heavy. She decided she'd counter this by balancing herself out, and this time she began picturing her butt swelling instead. This it began to do, as she pushed herself taller, her butt began to puff up out behind her, but her breasts continued to grow out in-front too. It would seem that they'd gained a taste for swelling larger and weren't about to give up now due to a change in her focus. However, their swelling was less than it had been, and her butt's new swelling behind her would soon catch up, she felt sure.

[April]

m let me know when to stop! m okay, sis?

[Aimee]

You've got a little more to go.

[Narrator]

So April kept growing taller and growing her butt, until she heard her sister call out, which brought her out of her growth trance.

[Aimee]

Stop!

[Narrator]

Both sisters were noticing that once they began growing, it was getting harder and harder to stop. The feeling of the pulses was still growing stronger on them, and it made them feel dangerously pleased and comfortable, such as they would struggle to stop growing, in the same way they'd struggle to get out from beneath a warm duvet.

[Narrator]

Regardless, April did manage to stop and open her eyes. She was just a fraction taller than her sister, with her eyes level with her forehead, but it was close enough.

[April]

Where should we go then, sis?

[Narrator]

Aimee pondered a moment. This obviously wasn't something she'd had much time to think about, so it took her a moment to answer.

[Aimee]

How does the park sound? That field should hold us for a while at least.

[April]

Sure!

[Narrator]

So, both Sister's carefully began to walk along the road, not treading on any more cars or buildings. They didn't see any people about, but they likely had the same fears of not wanting to get stepped on and were staying inside well out of the way. The park snuck up on them surprisingly quickly, as the usual 10 minute walk was reduced to just 60 seconds. Both sisters stood at opposite ends of the playing field.

[April]

Well, time to finish my growth m

[Aimee]

No, it's my turn now m

[April]

I didn't finish my last one m

[Aimee]

Whatever, I'm going now m

[Narrator]

Both sisters once again began to grow, both sprouting taller, both with breasts swelling even larger, and April's butt continued to swell outwards behind her as well. Just how big were they going to get?
