TYPE: HEADWEAR
RARITY: VERY RARE (REQUIRES ATTUNEMENT)

Pulled from the remains of a dream stalking spirit, this mask is constructed from an almost otherworldly white glass. A horrific visage has been carved from it to mimic a screaming face. An ornately constructed dreamcatcher sits atop the wig of tangled gray hair, resembling a halo of sorts, but looking far more sinister. Donning it briefly fills your head with disturbing images that quickly subside.

While you are attuned to this item, you can sleep normally, but cannot dream. The horrific stylings of this mask gives you a +2 bonus to intimidation checks while you wear it.

Once per day while you are attuned to this mask and wearing it, you can choose a creature that you can see within 120 feet of you to supernaturally stalk. That creature must succeed on a DC 18 Charisma saving throw or become stalked by you. The next time a stalked creature attempts to sleep, you become aware of it and can choose to manipulate their dreams, causing them to become terrifying to the creature and preventing them from gaining the benefits of a long rest. Creatures who have their dreams manipulated become immune to the effects of this mask for 24 hours.
