FIRST DAY AT SEA. Part2

.... I then stayed with my tit out and noticed that shortly afterwards, the man headed towards the beach, I did the same after taking off my bra completely.

I decided to be daring and walked past him so he could see my bouncing boobs close up. As I passed he introduced himself and asked if he could place his towel next to mine.

I agreed, we started talking about past holidays and where we had been his name was Claudio and he was a man in his fifties.

After taking the sunscreen he offered to spread it on my back.

I liked Claudio, and although I had only known him for a very short time I felt only positivity about him, and he did have a contagious smile.

I decided, I wanted to fuck him. After finishing Claudio proposed another bathe, in contact with the water and with a little wind my nipples hardened and then he showered my breasts with compliments, my answer was to kiss him.

I clung to his body and felt his penis erect and my pussy all wet, I don't know if it was right or wrong but I was enjoying it like never before.

It gave me great pleasure that he sucked my nipples greedily while he was fucking me. It was a long and intense relationship, after we finished we lay down in the sun and Claudio suggested that we have dinner together; I was about to say yes when my husband called me to invite me to dinner to celebrate a contract he had signed.

I kissed Claudio goodbye while he reciprocated with a last touch of my tits. ...

FIRST DAY AT SEA. Part2

As she thought of some boy swimming near her, she felt a touch again, he was very close, she looked at him and could not help but notice that probably due to the show she had given him, the swimmer's costume had also moved , letting out part of his cock, now at the height of arousal.

They both dipped their heads, with the excuse of seeing the fish he was beside her, staring at her.

At this point she was also very upset by what she saw not knowing what to do

The boy took off his mask, and came closer and closer without saying a word, caressed her and started to kiss her, an intense kiss, one of those that leaves you breathless.

With his hand he stroked her thighs and whispered in her ear: "let's go to my cabin".

All the adrenaline she had accumulated did not allow her to resist, they recomposed themselves, he took her by the hand and walked towards the bathhouse where the cabins are located.

When they entered everything happened in a sweet and natural way ... they undressed and she found herself in front of his athletic body and his turgid cock, she stroked it feeling it pulsing in her hand;

She continued for a few minutes, until the boy's hand on her head made her understand that he wanted to be kissed right there and she knelt in front of him and opened her mouth filling it with that warm, throbbing member.

He pulled it out she remained on her knees, she did not expect what followed; the swimmer, turning her around, raised her pelvis, she found herself on all fours and felt the head of his member press on her little hole, first brushing it then pressing with an increasingly stronger pressure until it penetrated her and entered her completely, he pushed hard, with all his excitement until he exploded with all his hot liquid inside her ..

After the intercourse he whispered softly in her ear you are a wonderful creature
