Chapter Three? Four?- Enabling Rose Huntresses

*****

Somewhere in Vale....

*Tock Tock....tock!*

"Hmm Hm hmm hmm..." Yang Xiao Long hummed peacefully to herself as she remained seated on the living room couch strumming her guitar using her feminine yet powerful fingers. The blonde stroked them intricately with a peaceful smile on her face, she was relaxed and worry-free after receiving this paid reprieve from Huntsman's duties. 'Huh, I wonder if maybe I should do a more acoustic beat this time around instead of just strumming heavy metal, kinda hard to do the latter with just a six-string guitar and no amp. Ugh, I need to go out and buy a new one already, but eh....it's the weekend. So screw it, time to be lazy.~'

While thinking this to herself she saw her roommates shuffle about the apartment constantly making noises as they hurried themselves to get ready for their respective Dates. Blake and Weiss both were the only ones getting themselves dressed, seeing as how they ran about all over the place tending to different things like clothing choices and applying proper make-up. Ruby, on the other hand, was simply out and about away from this place doing whatever it is she does on her time off, which Yang thinks is simply shopping for lethal Weapon mods. Meanwhile, she was here playing with her guitar on the couch watching the chaos with an amused smile on her face.

Recently Huntsmen activities for students at Beacon Academy had been at a downward slope of inactivity, thus leaving them suspended from active duty for the time being. This gave them a sort of break to enjoy as per the order of Headmaster Ozpin. It was simply a temporary reprieve from the duty since there was hardly any demand for Huntsmen missions with Grimm activity being at an all-time low these past few weeks. Team RWBY, which is on the verge of graduation, decided to move into a suite in the upper town Vale district of Vale with each other living as roommates until it was time to head back to Beacon Academy. Everyone else went home for their siesta away from Huntsman's duties, the four girls to live normally with each other like any group of 'Sisters' would do; occasionally warring over privacy and bathroom rights.

Weiss was sitting at a nearby vanity table fixing herself up the mirror, she was adjusting her hair and touching up her face making sure she looked 'perfect' for the evening she had planned out with her mother at her Winter's request. Misses Schnee had finally been divorced from her husband Jacques and had decided to go out and celebrate with her two daughters with a new lease on life. Blake was making sure she looked nice herself despite a reputation for being a socially reclusive bookworm that preferred a night of reading erotica fanfiction over anything having to do with interacting with people. Yet there she was putting on a dark formal dress over her voluptuous athletic frame while tidying her bow neatly over her feline ears.

After making sure her Nightshade-colored eyeshadow was perfectly in-check Blake viewed herself in the mirror of her bedroom admiring her appearance. Her plan for the evening was to head out into downtown Vale with some Faunus girlfriends of her own, a few of them had bonded with her over the course of the Vytal Festival that had just ended in Beacon's victory a little while back. This group included the likes of Neon Katt, Velvet Scarlatina, and an antlered deer Faunus named 'Deery'

That meant that only Yang and Ruby would be the ones staying indoors once everything was said and done. This news pleased a certain female Asgardian Seductress very much, Amora was watching everything unfold while remaining unseen from behind a dimensional veil somewhere within the apartment. Her emerald eyes roamed all over Blake's lovely figure, admiring her ass showing nicely through the tight dark dress hugging around her body. She looked at Weiss next, shuddering with anticipation over claiming a Prim and Proper Princess, but she put that one on hold for later down the line. Tonight she had special plans for both Yang Xiao Long and her sister Ruby Rose.

"Almost done...I need to look perfect if I'm going to be going to a Schnee-family welcoming party with my mother down at the theater this evening." Weiss said to herself, finishing up her eye shadow and touching up her hair with a few accessories as she finished getting ready.

She was wearing a rather stylish white leather outfit made out of a trendy ladies jacket over her body and fashionable thigh-high boots around her sleek slender legs. Once she was done combing her hair she turned herself to look directly in the direction of a lazy-looking Yang strumming her guitar and resembling an utter slob in Weiss's eyes.

"Ugh, just look at you lying over there like a bum. Are you sure you don't want to come with me, Yang? I have plenty of invites for both you and Ruby, you know. You two will no doubt be bored here just being by yourselves." Weiss pointed out and saw the blonde girl simply shrugging her shoulders with indifference, ironically not caring at all for the nightclub scene for a change.

"I'll be fine, Princess, don't you worry about me. Laziness aside, Rubes and I will be just fine kicking back and watching a movie here. It's what we used to do a lot back home on Patch. Besides, I'd feel totally out of place in a high-society setting that you and your mom are going to anyway. My kind of scenes are more of the wild and raving type if you know what I mean.~" Yang answered with a snicker, making Weiss roll her eyes and shrug accepting her answer with a scoff.

"Whatever, party girl, suit yourself. How are things going on your end, Blake? Looking pretty enough to be social for a change?" Weiss chided in amusement and saw her cat-eared friend step out of her bedroom wearing a flashy outgoing dress that shimmered with colors of dark and violet, much like her dance dress from so long ago.

"I'll be fine, and yeah, I know what you mean, it's a first for me too if I'm being honest. I'm usually never outgoing, but I did promise Velvet, Neon, and Deery that I'd go hang out with them tonight. Are you all set to go? We can take the same Taxi together if you like and save ourselves some Lien." Blake suggested and Weiss shook her head when getting up from the chair.

"No need, I already called up a limousine to drive me to the theater, how about I give you a lift?" Weiss offered and Blake, feeling a tad envious of Weiss's fortune, accepted her agreement as they both started making for the front door. Weiss then looked back at a lazy-looking Yang simply laying along the surface of the couch like a slob.

"Alright, Yang we'll be going now, Yang, try not to destroy the house while we're gone." Weiss joked, making Yang threaten to throw a pillow at her, which would otherwise make a literal hole in the wall given her strength, but suddenly they both heard Blake's voice calling out to them.

"Hey, Yang, you have a package here right at the door and a rather large one at that." She said catching both of them by surprise and causing Yang to get up to walk over and see a pair of large wooden crates placed in front of their doorstep addressed to her at this place.

"Huh, that is weird, I don't remember ordering anything, but maybe with any luck, it'll be an admirer sending me a high-quality guitar or some motorcycle parts.~" Yang rubbed her hands together eagerly while the two other women left the suite and headed for the elevator.

The instant they were gone an astral projection of a certain blonde-haired green-clad woman with depraved-looking eyes of lust materialized out of thin air next to Yang. It was Amora the Enchantress.

"That's right, it's my gift for you, my special presents hand-made by me and delivered to the front of your doorstep. I want to see you enjoy it to its fullest, Yang, but I also want to add your beloved sister Ruby Rose to my ever-growing collection of slaves. Take this and enjoy yourself while we wait for her to make it back, then.....we'll really have some fun with each other. All three of us, together. Fu fu fu.~" Amora cooed seductively into Yang's right ear from behind and traced her tongue along the girl's neck making her shudder pleasantly with a dreamy smile on her face.

"Ooohhh, yes Mistress. Thank you so very much!~" She gushed happily and pulled the box inside of the apartment, ready to open it with glee.

After pulling the boxes inside and dragging them to her bedroom, Yang suddenly noticed one of the boxes opening on its own, leaving her to wonder what was inside until she heard her Mistress speak up.

"That's right, the second one is for your sister Ruby, do not worry though, Yang. You both will be having the night of your lives thanks to my twin pair of Lamia Droids. They are synthetically-skinned automatons appearing as real as actual flesh and blood women, modeled after a certain creature of both beauty and beast-like elegance I once discovered in another world. The person or rather creature they're based on is called 'Medusa.'" Amora spoke with a slithering chill in her voice as she magically made the first box crate open up revealing the huddled form of a very strange half-snake half-human woman with long purple hair and large breasts.

Both of its eyes peeled open and it arose out of the case appearing as tall as six-feet when raising itself high using his serpentine lower body, both halves were synthetic yet organic in appearance aptly resembling its namesake of being 'Snake-like'. It was still overall 'human' from the top-half with a large pair of head-sized breasts measuring at about G-cup size proportions. The face was beautifully eerie yet at the same time fierce with a pair of purple eyes gazing at a now starstruck Yang. Its lower half was half as large as a King Taijitu's tube-like body, but it was elegant, sleek and feminine in curvature with a human waist appearing as slim as possible giving her an hourglass figure. She had no top covering up her large breasts leaving them hanging out firmly with pink nipples and some snake-like scales decorating its overall limbs. Regardless of its appearance, it looked gorgeous and had vexed Yang completely.

*Hhhzzzzzz!~* It hissed quietly at her and leaned in close to the girl's face, gently taking it into her clawed hands making Yang stare into its mesmerizing violet-colored eyes even more fiercely for a brief moment.

"W-wow...your eyes really look...um...hypnotic, hehehe. Well? Are you just going to stare at me and turn me into a statue or are you going to kiss me, beautiful?" Yang cooed seductively, feeling it's right talon-like hand creep underneath her orange top cupping her right breast right away and groping it fondly causing the girl to shudder.

The Lamia, known otherwise as 'Medusa', answered her question by leaning in closely and wrapping her adult-sized lips around the teenager's soft youthful ones in a fierce lesbian embrace. Yang was surprised at first but soon melted into it completely, making the Lami taste the insides of her mouth as she started swallowing her lips into her and making out with her.

"Mm-hmm.~" Yang mewled happily into the lip-lock, feeling Lamia's mouth pry apart her lips and then slither her long serpentine tongue around inside of her throat. This action prompted the two of them to get right down to it with Lamia pulling up Yang's top revealing her luscious full-sized D cups to the world.

Enchantress watched while remaining unseen, enjoying the sight of Yang's bountiful breasts jiggling free from its confines as Lamia took them both into her talon-like hands fondling them at the same time. This caused Yang to squeal even louder inside of the android's face, feeling its long synthetic tongue curling around all over her regular one in a highly erotic tongue-sucking lesbian fashion.

"Mmmhhh! *Sllrrpp...sllpptt...sllrrpp!*" Yang howled into the monster's throat as Lami held the lower half of her long thick tail around the girl's legs, gently guiding her to lay down along the surface of her bed from behind.

Their tongues wriggled about openly in erotic lesbian splendor with the Lamia making Yang turn into a melted puddle sighing constantly with bliss. The mystical green glow of magical energies from Amora's charms now started to manifest around them and swirl around each of their bodies making Yang's more sensitive to stimulation. While still tonguing out the girl's esophagus with a hunger-ridden hiss, Lamia started undressing Yang entirely beginning with tearing off her top, ripping it to shreds so that she was completely naked from the waist up. It then hooked a clawed finger around the hem of her spats, pulling on it then letting that thin piece of black fabric slide down her thighs until it was off of her legs leaving her only in a thin orange-colored thong.

"Mmmhhhh!...*Sllrrpp..sllrrppr...sllrrppr!* Haaahhh...!~" Yang breathed out with her head tilting backward breathing loudly in elation.

The lamia drew herself back from Yang's face leaving a trail of saliva bridging between their lips as she then hooked the pointed end of her tail underneath the hem of her panties next. With one hard tug, Lamia yanked it down off her legs completely exposing the girl's pussy and anus with the former moistening up like crazy.

*Hhzzzzzz!* The Lamia hissed in delight once it saw the girl's glistening folds appear right before her eyes, making Enchantress shudder pleasantly through the connection they mystically shared.

"Uuhhhhh! That's it, yes, now then.....take the girl against the bed, whip 'Them' out to do it, my creature.~" Amora shuddered as she saw the Lamia pull her tail around Yang's thighs making her turn around to where she was on her kneecaps with ass sticking out high into the air.

Yang didn't bother planting herself on her hands just yet, she just rested her head down on the surface of the bed, staring longingly at her new Lamia friend as she made a couple of compartments open up below her synthetic body. Just below the waist, and along her snake-like half, a pair of compartments opened up revealing to her delight a dual pair of long pink curved dildoes reaching out. This sent a shudder down Yang's spine, for she awaited having her Mistress or rather some creation from her take her all over again like before.

"Y-eyes! p-please! Take me all over again, Mistress! I need it badly!" Yang begged, all composure went and a mind-broken depraved smile on her face basically begging the humanoid sex toy to have its way with her. Enchantress chuckled darkly from behind the scenes as she rested back onto whatever throne chair made of stone she was sitting on, the woman had her green leggings down around her ankles with one hand diving between her legs ready to begin stroking herself off to the sight that was to come.

"Take her." She commanded and the Lamia hissed yet again as she closed in on Yang's upturned body, wrapping its tail around the soft thighs of her legs, keeping her pinned down against the bed. It guided both dual-pistoned cocks directly over to her waiting holes, needless to say, it pushed the bottom one into Yang's sensitive waiting pussy spreading out her mushy pink folds with gusto making the girl clutch the blankets as she screamed out in ecstasy right after.

"Aaaagggghhhh!~ Yeesssss! Oh hell yes!" She cried out in ecstasy and felt the second one prodding her cherry pink buttock a bit before pushing on into that hole as well.

*Squelch!*

"Gggghhhh!" Yang growled loudly behind clenched teeth, feeling her body quake completely at the sensation of feeling two long dildos burrowing into her sex and her anus at the same time. For her, it had been too long since the metallic serpent toy her Mistress first used on her, and now she was having the enhanced version of that.

Yang was really feeling the sensation of two hard l long plastic phalluses burrowing into her pussy and her anus like so, each muscular inside wrapped tightly around both extensions while her body quivered about constantly along the bed in order to adjust to it. Thankfully the Lamia was patient enough to allow Yang to adjust, for at least a moment anyway. Then, it started bodying her with pelvic rhythmic movements making her cheeks jiggle with every push of the Lamia's waist slamming directly into her ass from above.

Quiet slapping noises soon began filling the air with Yang's occasional ear-splitting cries of euphoria coinciding with each one. The Lamia drove each cock it had directly into both of the girl's waiting holes, feeling it squeeze and condense around each one as she fucked Yang hard into the bed surface with Enchantress fingering out her twat to the scene. The ever-horny witch had started driving her fingers in and out of her waiting g snatch, watching with enjoyment as her latest creation rolled into Yang's frame like a beast dominating weaker prey. Seeing it's snake-like torso roll about grinding itself into Yang's body was like an animal rutting into weaker prey, except that Yang was loving every second of it.

"Uuhh..uh..uh..uhh..uh..aaaaahhh!~ Mistress!" She cried out in exhilaration as she felt each of her sensitive waiting holes get plundered by the Lamia's dual dicks bottoming out of her in unison. The repeated sensation of having each one drill her insides made Yang writhe and thrash about in nonstop ecstasy, so much so that she failed to hear the front door of the apartment open up.

Nearby, the door peered open revealing an eighteen-year-old Ruby Rose stepping in with a chipper smile on her face. She was wearing her casual gear of a red sleeveless hoodie and dark pleated skirt around her petite womanly body. Having grown up from a shrimp fifteen-year-old back in the first year of Beacon, Ruby had blossomed into a beautiful young woman with slender curves, thick thighs, and an ample-sized chest measuring out at a basic C-cup variety.

She quickly checked the sides to see if anybody was there and once the coast was clear decided on indulging a favored habit of her own; being naked inside her own place.

"Yay! Everyone's gone for the day, that means I get to strip naked and get comfortable at my own leisure! Hehehe!" She squeaked excitedly and kicked off her tennis shoes into the air and started to remove all her clothing beginning with her favored red-hooded girl's jacket.

"Aaahh, there is nothing like being in your underwear when inside your own home with no one else around, it feels so comfy. Hee hee hee." She giggled to herself once she finished stripping off the last of her clothing leaving her only in her red lace undergarments such as a frilly elegant red thong and an equally elegant matching brasserie. Being that of an eighteen-year-old young woman in her prime meant having a slender yet stunning figure that Ruby held pride in, furthermore, she loved that she now had bigger boobs when growing up.

Her hair had grown out just a bit longer reaching around her slender neck in its own wily style that symbolized her fiery energy. Leaving her clothes behind in the living room, Ruby was about to head into her bedroom and relax with a comic book in hand and a bowl of cookies in the other after grabbing them from the kitchen. That is until she heard something...eerie that grabbed her attention.

"Uuuuaagghh!~ Ohhh...yess! Uuunngghh!~" Another young woman's voice cried out in ecstasy making Ruby pause in mid-step with a blush now creeping up on her face.

'Um...what was that? Wait, was that...Yang?' Ruby pondered and gulped down a piece of a cookie that she had in her mouth.

Turning in the direction of her sister's bedroom, Ruby focused her eyes on the slightly opened door hearing varying noises and moans coming directly out of it. Living together with her as standby Huntresses stationed just outside of Beacon, Ruby didn't mind Yang setting down ground rules so the team could better get along. She didn't bother Yang when she had dates over, nor did Yang restrict her late-night comic-eating room parties in return. That was the one rule they actually had, but the girl couldn't avoid being curious as to what was going on inside her sister's private quarters. Without thinking, she started making her way quietly over to the door of Yang's bedroom, noticing that it was left open allowing her to peek inside.

What she saw made her jaw fall making her mouth go wide open in shock and her face turn as red as her lingerie. She saw her sister Yang naked and face down on her bed with her ass sticking out high into the air, with something vaguely human-shaped with a serpent-like lower body frenziedly....fucking her.

"What the...?" Ruby trailed off and heard Yang cry out in ecstasy once again, reeling her head back as she felt Lamia's dual-dildoes plunge effortlessly into her body at the same time once more. Her frame quivered sensationally as she felt her quim tighten around its respective phallus with buttocks jiggling right after. Whatever was rutting against her was going at it like an actual animal.

"Uhh! Ahh..aaahh...haahhh...yesss! Hnggghhh! Harder! Fuck me harder!" She cried out while clutching her hands along with the bed blankets tightly.

Yang's sweaty naked body rolled leisurely back into Lamia's snake-like frame, pounding herself on it at the same time it bucked into her body with dildoes burrowing into her holes. Her pussy was constantly gushing around its chosen phallus, squeezing tightly as it pounded against her cervix over and over again in repetition. Her buttocks continuously slapped against the Lamia's abdominal snake-like frame, feeling it sheathe the thicker of the two phalluses directly into her rectum, vibrating like a drill when pushing back inside after pulling out. It had detected where her weak spots were located beforehand judging by her reactions and getting a feel for her more sensitive areas. Lamia was drilling nonstop into the blonde girl, enjoying the way she moved against her body while it was pounding its dual dildoes into such a fine youthful beauty. Yang could feel her toes curling up, whimpering loudly with blind ecstasy while clutching her fingers across the blankets of her bed.

Ruby stared gobsmacked at the sight of a seemingly human-like android with faint light-colored skin and violet hair ramming her sister from the back like a wild animal in heat. She was still perplexed as to what exactly she saw doing it, the seemingly robotic monster had long purple hair trailing down its sides with a face that was both beautiful and frightening at the same time. It resembled that of a lovely woman with piercing violet eyes and rectangular irises, not to mention breasts as large as Yang's head likely measuring at a full E cup or maybe even G. She had reptilian features such as scales along her body, which were synthetic, covering up her forearms and dark purple clawed hands carefully holding onto Yang's waist as he pumped the serpentine half of its body into her butt from behind. Ruby watched it roll itself along with her sister's upturned frame, grinding its serpentine pelvis into her ass and thighs, making sure the twin dildoes, which stuck out of its more mechanical compartments, plunged effortlessly into her quivering ass and sopping pussy. A literal sexbot was fucking Yang and making her scream to high heaven with blind ecstasy, this was slowly turning Ruby on even more as she failed to notice the faint green portal of dark magic materialize behind her.

*Hhhhhzzzz!* A second Lamia, exactly the same in appearance as the first one in terms of design and function, appeared out of the portal and quietly made its way up to the distracted Ruby Rose, opening up its compartments to reveal a pair of lengthy dildoes pushing out, ready and well-lubricated.

Meanwhile, the young Rose watched her sister's body slamming back and forth into the snake lady's frame, over and over again in blind sexual ecstasy. The way Yang's butt rampantly pushed against the surface of the Lamia's body was almost hypnotic, her cheeks jiggled voraciously with every slap of skin meshing into it, making her quiver constantly in the process. Her asshole plunged around the dildo sliding into her ass at a near blurry speed while her pussy simply quivered noticeably around the one pumping into her sex. Yang had a look of pure unadulterated euphoria written on her face, one that Ruby had never seen before in her life. Her sister's mouth had dropped open with her tongue spilling out onto the bed surface, her eyes drifted up into her sockets while her body touseled about to the Lamia's frenzied fucking.

"Ughh...ughh...ughh...ahhhhhhhh!~" She cried out loudly and shuddered once again, cumming all over the Snake-lady's dildoes with sex gushing all over the bottom one, her butt clutched the topmost one tightly. They were still plunging into her body in tandem like some kind of an oil drilling machine.

*Hhhhhzzzzzz!* The Lamia that was fucking Yang hissed quietly as he hovered close to her face. When its mouth opened up it started moving its hands down along her arms, sensually sliding her soft skin-like fingers along her arms until she reached Yang's wrists. From there it pulled her back making her breasts stick out and bob around while feeling her buttocks mesh into her waist. Yang was now held in an arms-back fucking position, feeling the Lamia intensify its fucking of her by slamming her 'hips' feverishly into her from behind with renewed lust and vigor. This made both of its phalluses plunge deeply into her body, making Yang squirm wildly as she wriggled about in pleasure, feeling the Lamia's appendages give her mind-blowing ecstasy.

"Uuuuaagghhhh...oohh...ahhh...aahh...aaaagghhhh!~" Yang hollered out letting her eyes roll up in their sockets while her tongue spilled out of her mouth.

Ruby nervously gulped and quietly started backing away entirely, wondering just what in the world she was seeing outside of her sister pleasuring herself to a highly advanced sex toy.

"I..saw.....nothing. I saw nothing, I'll just walk back to my room and pretend I never-oh my gosh, is that thing making out with her now?" Ruby cut herself off and became flustered at the sight of her sister turning her head to the side, swapping spit with the robotic snake-woman that had crept up behind her face while still fucking her.

Yang's face was affectionately held into Lamia's right hand, her head was turned so that she could open up her mouth with tongue sticking out practically begging her 'Partner' to make out with her. The Lamia obeyed and leaned over her body more snugly, spooning her from above with large pendulous breasts pushing into Yang's back. It curled its serpentine tail-end around her thighs and ankles keeping her spread out along the bed and unable to go anywhere without her permission while it kept plunging both of its cocks directly into each waiting hole she has. The Lamia caressed the side of Yang's face lovingly and placed itself upon her lips, swallowing down her tongue into the recesses of its mouth while sticking out her own synthetic lubricated one directly down Yang's throat. The two made out like starving lesbian lovers right now, both of them rolling each other's tongue over the other in mutually erotic bliss. It was such a flooring sight to Ruby that she couldn't help but be turned on by watching the lewd display take place before her. She was still unaware of the second Lamia quietly creeping up on her from behind, ready to prey on the unsuspecting girl and turn her into a craven slut just like her sister, at the behest of Amora the Enchantress.

"Mmmmmhmmmm! *Ssllrlp..sllprl...sllpp...!* Aaahmm....~" Yang hummed wetly as she felt the long serpentine tongue swirl around into her throat, making her head feel dizzy with pleasure while the Lamia simply kept on slamming itself down onto her from above. Ruby watched, feeling mesmerized still, as she slowly started feeling up her own body become sensitive with arousal. She reached down between her thighs caressing the soft skin of her legs as well as her stomach with her fingertips until she reached the hem of her red lace panties and promptly dipped her left hand down underneath the surface.

Biting down on her lower lip, Ruby started feeling around her own warm moistening sex with her hand, running her fingers around the warmer more sensitive area of her pussy while watching Yang hungrily tongue out her Lamia friend. It was such a raunchy sight for her to see them exchanging saliva with passion, tongues rolled against each other in a sensual, impassioned embrace while the odd creature took to gripping both of Yang's tits into each of her hands. She watched as they squeezed each breast, making the blonde moan and whimper even more inside of her throat while that serpentine monster's lower body continued frenziedly bucking into her ass, fucking her with nonstop energy and lust. Soft squelching noises played out whenever one dildo plunged into each of Yang's orifices in tandem, making her writhe even more in rising pleasure.

"Hhngghhmm! Aaaaahh....*Ssllrrp...ggghllp...sggllp!*" Yang could barely open out her mouth to scream out in pleasure when the Lamia would just hungrily shove its snake-like tongue right back down her throat. The Serpentine Automaton continued rolling it around inside of the blonde's esophagus, tasting her while squeezing her doughy orbs of flesh tightly into each hand with glee, occasionally squeezing them and making Yang whimper loudly nearing climax. It watched Yang tilt her head back and moan very loudly while writhing about underneath her body, feeling her insides quake with impending orgasm. This caused Lamia to utter out a 'moan' of her own with an eerie metallic hiss.

*Hhhzzzzzzhh...!~* She hissed softly next to Yang's face then continued to work her tongue down around the inside of her mouth, tasting her even more and absorbing whatever saliva she could acquire. Meanwhile, Ruby sat back on her ass watching the sight with a fixated stare and with panties down her ankles as her left set of fingers took to stroking her folds to the scene repeatedly. She rolled her digits along her moistened sex, watching as her sister became a slave to the strange sex toy.

'Ahhh..ahhh...ahhh! Why...am...I doing this?' She questioned herself, now panting hotly as she continued to stroke her sensitive pussy to the scene of Yang and her 'Girlfriend' making out some more. She failed to notice the second identical Lamia coming up directly behind her, ready to have her way with the unsuspecting girl, but first, she watched as Ruby masturbated, even more, becoming furious with sexual arousal the longer she watched.

She breathed loudly while fingering her own tight pussy with a pair of digits that plunged directly inside of her innermost space, timing each dive to every thrust the Lamia-bot made when shoving a dildo into her sister's body. Ruby leaned back, propped on one hand while keeping the other between her legs, enjoying the sight of her sister's buttocks quivering constantly as it slapped against Lamia's body in nonstop coitus. It was enough of a hypnotic display of sexual intimacy, the likes of which the young Rose had never seen in her life. She started grinding her pelvis along with her hand even more strongly, feeling up her own fingers as her insides squeezed tightly around them with rising euphoria. Ruby dit down on her bottom lip more tightly, drawing a bit of blood, as she feverishly worked her waist into her hand, completely oblivious to the second Lamia slithering closer to her, hissing silently to itself as he rose above Ruby's head, ready to 'Attack' her the same way the other Lamia attacked Yang.

While the bed was creaking, Yang started howling loudly once she broke off from Lamia's face, gazing into the visage of a lovely adult woman as her tongue pulled out of her mouth, saliva trail in tow. Her insides started churning more tightly around Lamia's double-dildoes, reaching critical mass in terms of orgasmic bliss with Yang about to breach her threshold for the session.

"Haahh..aahh.aahhh..aahh..aahh! Nngghh!!'m getting close!~" Yang howled loudly with eyes closed tightly as her body began shuddering explosively with an impending climax. Her toes curled up against her feet, her knuckles clutched the blankets of the bed below as she strained her face, feeling the tidal wave of ecstasy begin to overwhelm her body.

Sensing this, the Lamia drew itself back from Yang's upturned frame, leading its well-lubricated Dildoes on the fringe of her both holes before hissing silently with a sinister smile and plunging itself right back in! With a loud 'Plop' of a body pressing into doughy youthful female flesh, the Lamia drove both of its 'Cocks' directly into Yang's anus and pussy at the same time in a very rough manner. This triggered the girl's meltdown causing her head to jerk up into the sky and making her body quiver explosively with a monumental climax!

"Uuuuuaaaaagggghhhh!~" Yang cried out with eyes glowing faintly in emerald green, sealing the 'Claim' the Lamia made on her through the magic of a certain Asgardian woman. Her mind became a mess of pleasure and submission while her body thrashed about underneath the Lamia's coiling form, shaking and twitching wildly in orgasmic expulsion with her pussy gushing all over the bottom-most dildo.

Yang howled and panted some more, all while clutching the bedsheets underneath her fingers wearing a widening smile of mind-breaking euphoria. A deeper part of her thought process resolved how much she loved this act of submission and pleasure, making her become more susceptible to being claimed by the 'Mistress', back over with Ruby however....

"Aaahh...w-what are yo-?!" Ruby shrieked out when she saw the shadow of another Lamia, one that looks the exact same as the one Yang was having sex with, looming over her body readily. Her large F-cup sized breasts jiggled readily with dark pink nipples hanging out and hands reaching over for Ruby as it prowled closer to her.

The young Rose was about to scurry away and consider fighting back, but the Lamia's dark purple eyes with strange rectangle-shaped irises started glowing brightly in an aura of Magenta shade, making Ruby....reluctant to escape. The girl gradually became more relaxed the longer she stared into those hypnotizing violet orbs of the Lamia. Seeing this, surprisingly, made the Lamia smile as it crept in closer.

*Hhhzzzzzz!* It hissed soothingly at Ruby Rose and brought its face up close to her while coiling the lower end of its tail around her legs, keeping them apart while a pair of compartments opened up beneath its navel. A pair of long, slightly curved, pink dildoes came out, both well-lubricated and ready for fucking as the Lamia hovered directly above Ruby.

"Wha...what's happening to me? Why am I feeling...so...dizzy?" She mouthed quietly and stared into Lamia's face, feeling enraptured by its magenta orbs glowing faintly while its face hovered directly above her.

Yang and her partner were still entangled together nearby in the bedroom, but since the former was knocked out, for the time being, the current Lamia watched its duplicate begin to seduce her sister. All of this was being viewed through the eyes of one particular blonde seductress, seated on her stone chair somewhere in another dimension, with fingers running down her own waist.

'Yes, that's it, claim that sister next, then together...you will break them both in, only for me to come and have a taste myself. Oooh my, it is quite splendid how the Midgard of this reality is so ripe with youthful beauties for me to collect. Fu fu fu.~' Amora cooed quietly to herself while peeling down the top of her corset revealing her large E-cup sized titties to the world. She began fondling them into both of her hands, pleasuring herself with anticipation of the scene that was about to take place.

Back over in Ruby's dimension, the young Rose looked up into Lamia's face, somehow feeling drawn to it with a faint blush showing across her cheeks. Her heart was beating rapidly, her chest heaving up and down with hot breaths of excitement as she felt one of its talon-like hands tear off her brasserie without her realizing it. Ruby let out a cute squeak when feeling her ample pair of C-cup sized breasts bounce free from her ruined bra jiggling slightly when the Lamia then lowered its own face closer to her own. The womanly beauty in the form of a strange automaton crept closely and was a breath's hair away from Ruby's red face. It then brought her lips onto her own, locking the girl's lips in a sweet and tender lesbian embrace, taking her by surprise then prompting her to pry open her mouth, allowing it's long serpentine tongue to slither inside.

"Mmmph! Hhmmhhh!" Ruby mewled quietly, still utterly surprised by this, but was distracted when she felt the long serpentine tongue of her respective Lamia wriggle and swirl around inside of her slimy throat, caressing her own tongue as she pulled it into her own mouth. She shuddered blissfully with newfound excitement, as though being made out with thoroughly by a French-kissing expert. Their lips languidly curdled against each other in a messy yet passionate embrace, woman to woman, Lamia to a human girl with the former now pinning Ruby's wrists down to the ground. She failed to find the energy or will to fight it and submitted entirely to the strange humanoid-like machine pressing itself down on top of her with its large fake plastic phalluses prodding her sex from above.

"Mmmhhn....hnhh....*Ssllrpp...ssllppr...ssllppp...!* hmmm...~" Ruby purred quietly as they continued to swab tongues around with each other, together they swirled in an erotic open-mouthed lesbian embrace. She wriggled a bit underneath the Lamia's surprisingly firm body and felt her breasts getting pushed into by her larger ones, feeling her synthetic nipples pressing directly against her real ones, causing her to shudder blissfully at the sensation. 'Hnhh! Haaaahhh.....! It feels s-so good! Mmm! I can't take it anymore! I want it! Please have sex with me already!'

Ruby's mind, now becoming utterly stimulated in arousal as well as influenced by Amora's magic, begged Lamia to make out with her some more as she held her left leg along its side, rubbing it along her long snake-like body in an affectionate manner. They continued to make out languidly with tongues rolling about and into each other, and as she heard her prayer, Lamia lifted up the girl's bottom forcing both her rear and pelvis to leave the surface of the ground so that both of her asshole and her pussy were exposed. She made sure Ruby was positioned perfectly for it to mount and be ready for action. It slowly pulled itself back from the girl's lips, leaving an oozing trail of saliva in her wake and a flustered yet euphoric expression on Ruby's face. The Lamia hissed silently once more in a low metallic-sounding slither and drew itself up so that both of her slick-looking pink phalluses aligned themselves perfectly with each hole. Ruby was now breathing raggedly with excitement, her vision was a bit hazy and she could barely be able to think for herself. She had never felt this way about anything before and was suddenly submitting her body to the strange human-shaped android the shape of a mythological monster. The Lamia-bot certainly had a way of making her feel funny, yet all the while excited and eager to try everything out as she looked down at herself and saw it pushing both of its twin-cocks directly into both her asshole and her pussy. As the lubed ends began pushing directly into each hole, Ruby started wincing a bit and raked her fingers across the carpet. She then tilted back her head letting her mouth fall open as she felt both of the thick plastic cocks push into her body at the same time!

*Schlupp!*

"Oooooohhhh...aaaaahhhhhh!" She cried out in ecstasy as she felt the folds of her pussy getting peeled open, spreading wide apart as it welcomed the swift plunge the top dildo now plunging relentlessly into her sensitive pink depths.

Ruby's toes wound up wriggling excitedly in response as she began thrashing about in venerable ecstasy, making her new Lamia friend hiss even more with excitement as it bore down on her with pelvis meshing completely into her waist. The girl could feel her folds beginning to gush out all over the monster droid's bottom followed by her thrashing about underneath its body. Ruby quivered even more once she felt the second one burrowing deeply into her anus, causing her cheeks to spread out and squish into the Lamia's snake-like torso from underneath as it took her to the hilt. Letting another loud scream of elation, Ruby's breathing became faster and while she ached with mild pain she was also feeling great pleasure with her senses becoming foggy slowly becoming delirious with lust. Her eyes shot wide-open once she felt the anal phallus plunging so far into her rectal cavity she could nearly taste it, her body quivered in spasm some more as came hard all over the Lamia's underbody, willing loudly in ecstasy until it silenced her screams with a full-on lesbian kiss.

"Hmmm...*Slpr...slpr...sllpr*...hmm." Ruby moaned into its mouth, feeling her tongue getting gingerly tugged on by the Lamia coiling her own around it in a sensual and very graphic manner.

It turned her on very much and it made her body more sensitive the longer this went on. Ruby was very heavily under the hypnotic effects from earlier and very steadily becoming drunk on pleasure at this moment. Her body wriggled a bit more, gently grinding her groin underneath the Lamia's curvy well-proportioned body until it pushed itself into the hilt inside of each of her holes, filling her out entirely and making her scream out with unbridled pleasure.

"Hnnngggghhhh! *Pop*...aaaaahhh...s-s-soooooo goooooo!~" She screamed out with face contorting into one of pure mind-broken ecstasy as she felt both phalluses begin vibrating inside of her body. The Lamia slithered a bit more, keeping her tongue curling gently along Ruby's face in an affectionate manner.

The girl started curling about, grinding herself along its torso feeling her pussy beginning to tug greedily on its respective phallus with her asshole doing the same by clenching tightly around its own. The Lamia wasted no more time and started fucking her more roughly into the carpeted ground, rolling the serpent half of its body into Ruby's waist feeling it push back into her as she drove both lube-covered vibrating phalluses into the carpeted ground, rutting its half-serpent body into Ruby's waist, feeling her push back and forth against her as she drove each vibrating lube-covered phallus directly into depths. A gentle chorus of tapping noises followed with the Lamia feverishly rutting into her frame from above, feeling each of her orifice clamp tightly around her cocks on reflex.

*Hhhzzzz...!~" It purred with another metallic hiss and let its tongue wriggle out of its mouth, slowly sliding in past Ruby's waiting lips.

She started wiggling it around the inside of the girl's mouth with glee, making her shudder and whimper as she started tonguing her out like so. Through Lamia's eyes, Enchantress watched the dazzling redheaded girl moan constantly as her body began writhing about, shifting around in ecstasy and feeling uncontrollably sensitive as she ground herself underneath Lamia's serpentine frame. Through her mystical connection to the human-like android, she could feel the girl's soft young body rolling her waist along Lamia's, making Amora feel the softness of her body and the warmth of her pussy gushing around the plastic Dildo appendage. This caused her to shiver with perverse delight and watch as her Sex toy began bucking its waist into Ruby's petite frame from above, rolling itself along the surface of her womanly curves with the girl bucking constantly against her body.

"Mmhh...mmhh..mmngghh...mgghhh! Haaaaahhh!~" Ruby howled out yet again with eyes shut tight and chest pushing upward making her breasts jiggle about in rising pleasure being felt from underneath her very own body.

One cock was steadily drilling into her pussy, vibrating as it repeatedly reached the girl's cervix and began pumping back and forth into it in steady repetition. Ruby was honestly feeling frenzied with bliss right about now, she wanted to wrap her legs around the Lamia's backside and lock them tight while it began pounding her sex even taste. Hard loud slaps of its waist rolling into her pelvis could be heard from all around. The tapping noises of their bodies increased in volume and frequency as the smaller girl continued grinding herself on Lamia's body, she was feeling her asshole getting plugged out by the surprisingly warm bottom cock pumping out of her. Her filling both holes entirely.

'Aaagggghh! They're inside me! Everything is inside me!' Ruby screamed out in thought as she felt the plunging violations repeat intensely making her come with legs wriggling about and sex gushing onto the Lamia's torso! "Mmmnnggghhh!"

Meanwhile, back in Enchantress's dimensional hiding spot, the Asgardian had successfully brought herself off to the sight of Ruby Rose writhing about in orgasm underneath her creation. She had dug three of her elegant fingers into her sopping sex, squeezing her insides around them as she shuddered in orgasm to the scene playing before her.

"Hngggghh! Aaahh....I must...I must taste their bodies for myself now...! Hngggghh...I'm am quite riled up.~" She breathed out once she stopped cumming all over her fingers and turned her face to see the Lamias together hypnotizing both Ruby and Yang at the same time, the intensity of their purple eyes gazing hypnotically into their irises made Enchantress yearn domination.

She watched as Ruby came down from her climax, twitching here and there while the Lamia who had been grinding itself against her waist pulled the girl up onto her lap and wrapped her arms around her waist. It took to kissing her romantically again, this time with eyes piercing into her very soul with glowing magenta orbs reflecting into her silver ones while its long tongue wormed into her mouth and swirled itself around inside.

*Hhhzzzzz!* It hissed again in between tongue-invading kisses, sucking off Ruby's saliva from her lips in th most graphic of lesbian exchanges, making the girl moan quietly through her synthetic lips.

"Mmmhmm.~" Ruby whimpered pleasantly while writhing along Lamia's body as she accepted her fate in being submitted to it as it's proverbial 'Slave'.

Meanwhile, back over in Yang's direction, the girl had begun to wriggle about wildly underneath her own Lamia lover, succumbing to orgasm once again while slamming her buttocks frenziedly into its waist from behind. She growled and wailed loudly with teeth biting down on a part of her bed blanket, quivering tirelessly in mind-numbing euphoria. Her Lamia partner held onto her waist, grinding itself left to right into her rump, literally feeling her insides churning around both cocks as she rode out her orgasm entirely.

Amora could see both girls whimpering like crazy while the green Asgardian Runes around their bodies started glowing faintly from all over, indicating that they were now as good as hers. Enchantress shuddered with glee and resumed caressing the folds of her sex at the thought of owning two more new pets to her collection. She loved exotic young beauties such as them, they would fit perfectly with the others making this a form of hobby for her to truly enjoy outside of the usual 'Mischief' she'd conduct on Midgard. She was still very ready to get up and indulge in the real deal such as fucking them on her own and making them hers in a more personal manner.

Getting up from her stone throne chair somewhere between dimensions Amora got up and magically undid the rest of her clothing becoming naked in everything except her thigh-thigh leggings, arm warmers, headdress, and magically-imbued strap-on measuring at about footlong curved shape. She made a circle with her right hand creating a mystical rift portal opening her way to the other side appearing within RWBY's apartment.

"Here I come, my precious little darlings, it's time for the 'Mistress' to take her turn on you now." She cooed darkly while licking her lips, she had a seductive smile on her face and walked into the rift portal appearing on the other end of their apartment.

Back over at the apartment...

Both Lamia took to slithering the tail-ends of their serpentine tails over to the lips of their respective partners, egging them to indulge in more provocative action. Ruby and Yang both obviously took to the idea by wrapping their lips around each tail-end of their Lamia-bot lovers, Yang being the most passionate with a hand wrapping around hers stroking it like it was a penis to suck on.

"Mmhhmm....*Schlupp...schlupp..sclhuppp...ssllrrppp!*...hnhh!" She moaned loudly with eyes peacefully closed tight, bobbing her head back and forth on it while the Lamia simply enjoyed spooning her naked body from above, enjoying the warmth of her flesh.

Ruby had both of her dainty soft-looking hands grabbing the tail-end of her Lamia's tail, pumping it tirelessly as she swallowed its length down her throat and sucked on it in a frenzied manner.

"Mmmm! *Schupp..schupp..schupp..schupp!*" She was more passionate yet quick about slurping the synthetic tail-nub into her mouth, running her tongue along its surface further pleasuring the Lamia above her body as well as Enchantress through their mystical connection.

Hers hissed silently to itself, squeezing her large pendulous breasts into each hand until she saw the Rift portal opening up nearby. A gentle eerie glow now cascaded the room and through it stepped out Amora, nearly completely naked with a long rune-covered strap-on sticking out of her pelvis with a face that said she was ready for action.

As though receiving an unheard command, the Lamias both started peeling themselves off of their partners leaving both Yang and Ruby whimpering pathetically for them to stay as they looked upon the surprise appearance of the mysterious blonde-haired woman who now appeared in their room.

"Nngh..is that Mistress? Hey...! Come back here and fuck me already.....!" Yang cried out to her Lamia, who had fully slid off of her naked body leaving both her ass and pussy gaping needily to be filled up again.

Ruby wore a similar expression on her face as she crawled onto her hands and knees while looking ahead at the woman wondering what she could be doing here. She then saw her look her way with a seductively depraved smile on her face before bringing her hands up high and magical a glow of green surging aura filled the room....causing both Ruby and Yang to suddenly convulse in profound pleasure.

"Uuuggghhh! Ooohhh what is this....! Aaaaahhh!" Yan cried out as she turned over onto her sides clutching her tits into each hand and fondling them obsessively as a wave of sensitive euphoria now flooded her senses. It felt as if her pleasure receptors were dialed up to eleven now, her legs thrashed about over the edge of the bed with toes wiggling and breasts heaving tirelessly as a result.

Amora chuckled early to herself enjoying the effect she was having on these girls while watching Ruby clutch her sex from underneath with hands furiously stroking her mound.

"Uluaaagghh....! Ooohhh.kyeahhh....! P-please take me first....! I need it so badly right now....!" Ruby cried out with a hard blush coloring the cheeks of her face red. She turned over onto the ground with ass pressing into the floor and pelvis rising up and down off the surface with fingers diddling her sensitive sex.

"Fufu fufu, oh yes, I do love playing with my food before I devour it.~" Amora said to herself enjoying the sight of her new slaves writhing about in agonizing pleasure all over the room floor.

The Lamia pair remained on standby with jawlines disconnecting showing visible automatic lines around their cheeks, indicating they would be ready to 'Devour' once given the order. Enchantress slowly lowered her hands down and dispelled her magic, ending the torture session for today ss he looked over at Ruby Rose first, to take as her plaything before moving onto Yang.

"Now, it's time for fresh meat, come here, young Rose. I've got a splendid treat for you." She cooed darkly before walking over to Ruby's crumbled form with hips swaying left and right.

Ruby was panting hotly, keeping her fingers wedged inside of her drooling sex while lying face-up on the floor, that is until she saw the woman creeping over to her and standing above her until lowering herself to her kneecaps with long stone-like phallus hovering above her sex. Amora licked her lips salaciously and nudged the opening of her pussy with the head of its prick, making Ruby whimper as she pushed herself inside entirely, feeling the slimy velvet space of her twat clamping around her.

"Uuuggghhh! Oohohh...uungghhh....!" Ruby howled out loudly with head tossing back and chest pushing upward, tits jiggling as she felt the woman's hard magically-imbued cock drive up to her cervix in one row. She felt the soft skin of her pelvis hoisting her up a bit allowing her legs to dangle just beyond her sides wriggling helplessly as she held her body up with her hands.

Yang, feeling excited all over again, watched the affair of her Mistress and Master begin taking Ruby Rose as her new claim. Seeing the taller more filled-out woman from behind hoisting her younger sister on her pelvis turned her on greatly.

Ruby whimpered, even more, feeling the folds of her sex squeeze tightly around the length and wrapped her legs around Amora's hips as she began bucking into her from the front, taking her in a lifted-up missionary position making her body wriggle in back-forth up-down movements. Slapping noises could now be heard as Amora started fucking Ruby intensely with pelvis rowing back and forth into the girl's body, wearing a gleeful smile on her lovely face.

"Uugnhh..nngghh...aahh..aaahhh....! Oohh my Yesss! This is amazing...nngghh!~ Such young tight flesh squeezing around me is wondrously superb!" Amora howled out, keeping her hands held tight around Ruby's waist while she rutted feverishly into the girl's sex, making sure to reach in as deeply as possible with each stroke.

Ruby held onto her shoulders leaving her head hanging back with mouth agape in euphoria. Her lower body rolled elegantly along Amora's waist, feeling her pussy gush and throb tightly around the phallus as she felt it hollowing out her snatch over and over again. The woman was as gentle as she was intense in rolling her body into her own, her breasts, being larger than Ruby's smothered the girl's chest nipple-to-nipple making her shiver even more intensely as their lesbian rutting continued becoming more passionate.

"Hnggghhh.....! S-s-soooooo...good! Mn Hh!" Ruby moaned as she then held hands around Amora's shoulder blades keeping her self grinding and rolling along with the woman's frame, succumbing to her magical and falling madly in love with her as a result. The Young Silver-eyed huntress would now be Amora's slave for eternity just like how her sister was. She brought her face up high to stare into Amora's eyes, feeling the lust creeping into her system and compelling her to lunge forward in an attempt to wrap her lips around her luscious green ones.

"Mmmhmm!~" Ruby howled into Amora's face, feeling her lips pry her own apart and allowing her tongue to dive on into her mouth tasting her tongue. Amora brought her hands around the back of Ruby's neck, feeling her wriggle into her body affectionately with breasts pushing up against each other in tantric lesbian fashion.

"Hhngghnn....*Ssllprpr..ssllpprr...ssplltt!* Mmmhhh....delicious.~" She sighed in between kisses, her lips expertly pulled Ruby's apart with tongue swirling around inside of the younger girl's mouth.

Together the pair of them fucked and rutted like longtime lovers for a few more minutes until one of them reached their fever pitch and started grinding themselves on the other's body in a frenzied passion. Ruby was feeling so horny and in lust right now that she couldn't help herself and frenzied pushed her body onto Amora the Enchantress, feeling her magically-charged cock continue churning her insides like so. She was humping and bucking herself onto her waist, enjoying the sensation of being filled out and surrendering her body entirely to the mysterious older woman, Amora held cupped the girl's butt tightly and continued rolling herself onto her length sensing that Ruby was fast-approaching climax yet again.

"Uuuh..uhh..uh..uhgghhh! Aaaahhh....M-mistress!~" She cried out in ecstasy when feeling her insides squeeze tightly around Amora's strap-on phallus, tossing her head back in pleasurable agony as she came hard a moment later all over Amora's body.

Ruby flung her head back, shivering wildly in ecstasy as she felt her insides gush nectar all over Amora's waist, soaking her phallus in her juices as she held onto the mystery woman for dear life.

"Ohhh...nngghhhh....oohh...yeah...!~" Ruby shuddered a bit more, feeling her body quiver as she steadily came down from her climax with her snatch gushing around Amora's phallus some more before tiring out completely. Her body and limbs went slack and spilled off of her Amora's body until she was gently let down onto the ground tiredly breathing with the gentle glow of green cascading her petite body.

"Ahh, another one to the collection. Fu fu fufu.~" Amora giggled to herself and pulled her 'cock' out of sopping snatch with a 'splotch' and got up to turn over to Yang next with a smile. "You're next now, darling, get on your hands and knees like a good doggy and wriggle that delightfully plump rear in my direction, hmm?"

Yang, was all too happy to hear that request and obediently let go of herself and quickly got up on all fours shaking her ass at her Mistress with an eager smile on her face.

"Come and get it.~" She teased with a mystical glow of green surrounding her body allowing two glowing little heart-shaped symbols to appear within her Lilac irises. The Lamia waited on standby on the side of the room, watching as their Master walked up to the foot of the bed, got on it, and got behind Yang ready to fuck her with a phallus coated in her sister's juices.

Amora trailed a finger along the curvature of Yang's ass, marveling at the smooth voluptuous shape of it until she brought her hands up to her waist and slid her phallus on into her snatch!

*Scquillechh!*

"Eeeeeaagaahhhh!~ Ohhhhh Mistress...nngghhh!" Yang hollered out with eyes rolling to the back of her sockets, her tongue spilled out of her open mouth as she grabbed the sheets of the blanket when feeling the thickness of her Mistress's cock peel into her very womb. Her entire body quivered intensely with buttocks squishing into her waist as she felt Amora's pelvis squishing into her thighs.

Enchantress, feeling the mystical connection between her strap-on and the insides of Yang's velvety folds, brought her to a new height of absolute pleasure. She howled quietly behind sealed lips and began rutting her body into Yang's rear, fucking her diligently from behind making her the girl's entire body rock back and forth in a steady tempo. The bed they were on started creaking and with it came the frequent noises of Yang's buttocks slapping gently into Amora's waist as her 'cock' drove continuously all the way into her depths.

"Uuuuaaghhhh...uuuh..uhh...aaaahhh...aaaaagghhh!~" Yang cried out in ecstasy feeling her body begin to pick up speed, slamming furiously into her master's waist as she began to feel her walls clenching tightly around the phallus.

'She certainly is getting into it early, but then again this girl is a natural born nymphomaniac. Fu fu fufu, I will have plenty of fun between her and her sister alright, I wonder if her friends would be interested in being claimed next. Or should I return to my misdeeds over in the other world regarding that woman named 'Tsunade'? Aah, choices.~' She mused as she began to drive herself into Yang's body at an even faster rate, making the girl's mane of golden hair tousle about more widely as she fucked her at an intense pace.

The slapping noises became louder and Yang had to bite down on her bottom lip as she felt her mistress hammering away into her pussy like a woman possessed. The Strap-on phallus surged with pleasure-inducing energies that made everything feel twice as sensitive as they would normally be, driving Yang crazy with delirious pleasure. Both feminine bodies rolled into each other with Enchantress dominating Yang completely, rowing herself into that quivering ass with all the depraved lust she was filled with. Each convulsion of the girl's sex and cervix could be felt, making her fuck her even harder while their large breasts jiggled about.

Enchantress herself was begging to feel closer to climax the harder she fucked the blonde teenage girl, she relished the sensation of her pussy contracting tirelessly around her magical phallus, making every push of it into her sex all the better. Still taking her in Doggystyle position she eventually decided to switch things up and briefly pull out of her, only to command Yang to lay on her side with a leg sticking out. The blonde airhead did so with glee, keeping her left leg high into the air as she straddled her right thigh and buried herself into her snatch yet again.

A quiet squelching sound erupted once Amora slid everything inside of Yang's pussy once more, feeling her insides clamp it tighter than earlier. The blonde reeled her head back, huffing constantly in ecstasy as she felt her Mistress begin fucking her anew, only this time she had more space and a better angle to do it, meaning AMora was magically thrusting all the way into her G-spot driving Yang crazy.

Uuaa Gghh ahhh..ahhh..ahhhhhh! Ooohhh Misteress I'm...I'm...cumming!~" Yang cried out in veritable ecstasy, reeling her head back with hands grabbing her head and breasts bouncing constantly in front of her face. This was a sight Amora enjoyed above all else; seeing her chosen prey become meek docile pets submissive under her thumb, in a sexual way obviously.

"Yes...ugh..hnngh...I'm am approaching climax myself, slave...be ready for the 'fun' part right after I finish!" She breathed out and drove into Yang's sex a few more times before slamming all the way into her womb, relating her own orgasm at the same time Yang felt hers!

Both blonde women screamed out in sexual ecstasy, leading to Amora feeling Yang's sex clamping lightly around the strap-on phallus, magically transmitting the sensation into her very own body. Amora came hard, gushing juices all over the hilt of her toy and feeling Yang thrash about in sexual relief while keeping their pubic bones grinding against each other. The two of them rolled about grinding each other's bodies against each other, feeling the flow of sexual relief go through them as they ride out their orgasms together in unison.

Eventually, they finished up with Amora slowly pulling herself out of Yang's twat, causing her sex to quiver once the strap-on was released from her pussy. Yang immediately went slack with all four limbs collapsing right on the bed, huffing hotly with a depraved smile on her face.

Amora pulled back from Yang's body with a sigh of satisfied relief, she briefly stroked the phallic extension of her magically-laced plastic cock making her shudder in pleasure a little more when gesturing to the Lamia to do their thing. Both of them removed themselves from standby and crawled along the floor towards their respective partners, each one had the hinges of their synthetic jaws open up revealing the spaciousness of their mouths expanding in a manner similar to the metallic snakes from before.

*Hhzzzzz...!

*Hhhzzzzz!*

Both hissed as one started with Yang from the head downward, pulling the girl into its human-sized maw to 'swallow' her up as per kink fetish tradition of Enchantress. Yang shivered sharply and chuckled happily as she was pulled into the slime-filled depths of the strange robot's body, feeling like it was a living sleeping bag of pure comfort and moistness curling against her skin.

"Mmnnnggghhh....! Ohhh...yesss...!" She breathed out and faintly heard Ruby cry out in soft ecstasy from across the floor.

Ruby shuddered blissfully as the sensation of seeing her Lamia girlfriend begin swallowing her body up starting from the top. At first, she was a little afraid at seeing it's large human-sized maw open up from its robotic mouth, but the more she was being swallowed up headfirst into its depths the more comfortable she felt. Especially when it came to the slimy entrails of its insides cushion her delicate skin.

"Uuhhhh.....nnnnngghhh....! More....please take me inside of you....!" Rubu breathed out, wearing the same delirious ahegao expression her face as her sister did.

Together, the twin Lamia swallowed up their respective partners, inch by inch while Enchantress sat back on Yang's bed watching it all with a sly smile on her lips. Once each of them was done they both hauled their 'food' upward allowing their feet to dangle out just beyond their mouths, hearing both girls whimper pleasantly from the inside.

"Mmhhm, another satisfied customer, or should I say two? Fu fu fufu." She giggled to herself and got up, ready to search for the thongs of the two girls, when she did she picked up the frilled red thong of Ruby Rose and Yang's discarded yellow one off the floor and brought them to her face, whiffing both strongly then shivering with a smile across her face. "Uuuuhhhh....! So perfectly rich in scent and....taste."

She licked up the surface of the crotch region of each panty mewling to herself because of it while the Lamia rested on standby with bloated bellies containing both Yang and Ruby sleeping comfortably inside of their artificial sacs they called stomachs.

"Well then, girls, what shall we do next?" Amora asked her Lamia in a playful tone while stretching Ruby's thong between her fingers with an eager smile on her face.
