

"Pacific Daughter" By Rob Swift

Verse G

I use to ride my El Dorado

Am

Beneath the blazing sun

D7

Now my heart is lead me westbound

G

Daug

Toward a love that's just begun

G

Left my past lives in the valley

Am

Crossed the blood left on the tracks

D7

For the angel that has saved me

G

G7

And I'm never coming back...

Chorus C

Cm

She's an queen pacific daughter

G

Em

Riding waves unto the dawn

Am

D7

My, that smile of pearl and diamonds

G

G7

Won't you sing another siren song?

C

Cm

She's a queen pacific, quite prolific

G

Em

Damn, she must of read my mind

Am

D7

G (stop)

Yes, she's a queen pacific, darling love of mine.

Bridge

D

Am

Em (walk)

I'm never turning away.... I've carried every stone

C

G

Each one a memory that I'm letting go

C

Cm

For a queen pacific daughter

G

Em

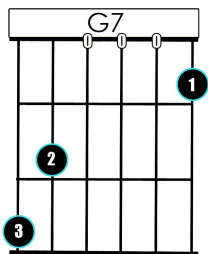

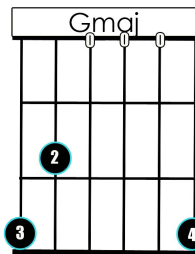

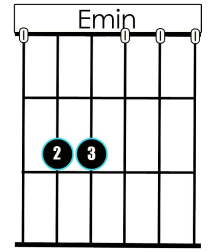

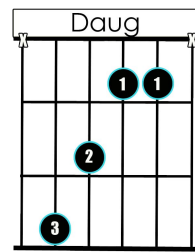

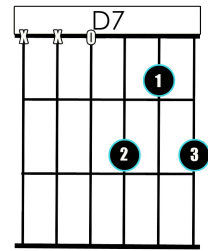

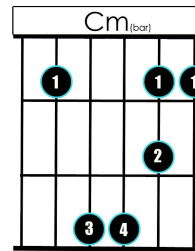

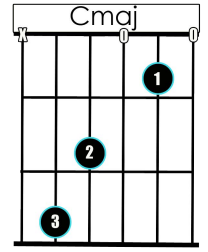

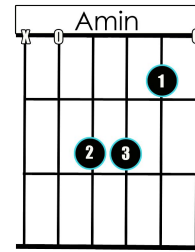

Reminds me that I still got time

Am

D7

G Daug

Oh, my queen pacific, darling love of mine.

The Queen Pacific Daughter By Rob Swift

Verse G

And the silence grew like thunder

Am

still I went about my day

D7

though I had a sense of wonder

G

Daug

I just worked my life away

It was your voice that finally reached me

Leapt right from my dreams

Said, there's still so much to live for

Let me show you what I mean

Chorus C

Cm

She's an queen pacific daughter

G

Em

Riding waves unto the dawn

Am

D7

My, that smile of pearl and diamonds

G

G7

Won't you sing another siren song?

C

Cm

She's a queen pacific, quite prolific

G

Em

damn, she must of read my mind

Am

D7

G

Yes, she's a queen pacific, darling love of mine.

Am

D7

G

Yes, a queen pacific, darling love of mine!

Am

D7

G

Yes, a queen pacific, darling love of mine!

C

Cm

Gmaj7

Oh, yeah, yeah, that love of mine...
