

One would think it was a just a regular sleep.

And just another regular day dawning...

...but this actually not the case, because...

...today was a very special day for me!

*YAWN*

Because this was my 18th birthday!

What a wonderful day!

Time to get ready!

That tiny hallway.
Oh well!

Looking fabulous
today, hihi!

Time to get ready!

If only that tub would be bigger...

But then Mom and Dad and everyone else would have a hard time, haha!

Hair is done.
Taking my bath is done.
Time to get dressed!

I love these new clothes.
They fit just perfectly!

Morning everyone!
Huh?

Where...is everyone?

Breakfast is ready.
Huh...what's that sheet of paper?

There has to be reason for it to be there...

Let's see...

Oh Dad.
Are you serious?
A riddle to find out where MY party will take place?
Hahaha, never change!

But before thinking about it
Time to EAT! I am super hungry!

Man, that filled a hole.
Mom is the best cook out there!

Now back to the riddle!

Hmm...no message from Christian?
How...unusual!

Oh no, he is part of the riddle.
Are you serious?

Why do you have to be so cryptic?
How long did you guys plan this?

How sweet.
The place we met for the first time.
Isn't that adorable?

Technically we met online at first.
Hmm...can it be, that...
they put a clue in the game?
Really?

Back to my room it is!

Wasn't expecting to play today. Oh well.

I hope this is no waste of time though.

Being back in this game sure brings memories.

This is where we first met.
Me and my little hero.
It all started so innocently.

Wait. There is one of those personal items.
Can it be...?

Would you look at that.
They actually placed something for me to find here...

Found the clue!
Next stop: Tiffy's medical office!

One...more...time...

I sure have outgrown this hallway, haha!

And this girl only will get even taller!

On the way to Tiffy's office was another important place I have many great memories within me...

So strange to no longer go there every day!

Look at this little fence.
As if it could stop a big girl like me, haha!

Just be careful with those spikes, Dorothea.

My old classroom up there.
I...kinda miss it already!

And standing out here is not enough...

I wonder...if the door is closed or not.

I am a little bit surprised, they leave the school open during the summer break.

Hope, I will not get into trouble for this.

It feels so strange.
Nobody is here.
This silence.
Somewhat eerie.

One more place I need to see...

Room 2-1. My old classroom!

Another door way too small for big girl Dorothea.

So empty...

Still hard to fully realize,
that I am no longer a student.

The next student sitting here most likely will be able to use this chair for their entire time here, hehe.

Time to go again, but before that...

I want to this at least once!

That's it for today, class!

Don't forget to study for the test on monday!

Class dismissed.
Have a great weekend!

*SIGH****
This just felt so...right.

Again, be careful, big girl!

I hope, nobody notice me entering the school, haha!

THURMONT HIGH

**Why was Dorothea inside the school?**

This took way longer than expected.
Off to Tiffy's office. For real this time!

Almost there!

The next clue is waiting for me!

Dr. Tiffany
Lockhart

Tiffy's office.
How many tests did she run with me?

All those tests and yet she never found the real reason for my constant growing.

So, where are you, Mr. Clue?

Shouldn't be too hard.

Not here are least.

Inside there? No.

I...should have seen that.

And yet I missed the most obvious place for it!

I am such a big dummy, hihi.

Let's see what you are holding for me.

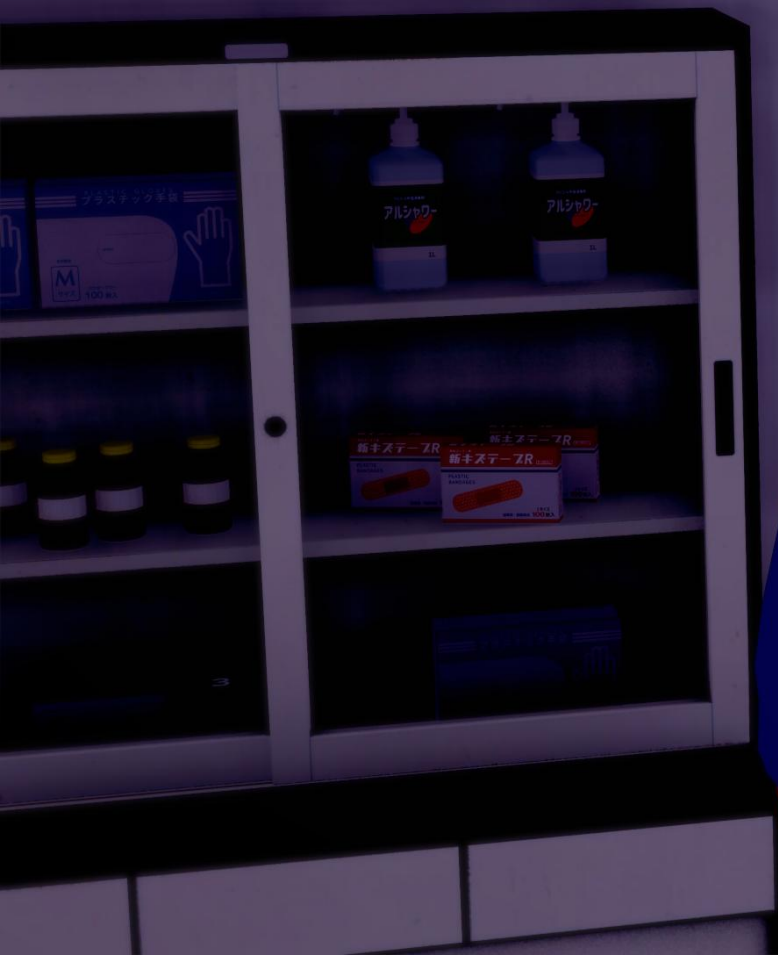

Huh!?

I hope, you will not let us wait for so long, that one of us has to FAINT.

What is the meaning behind it?

I got it!
The Park! The place where little hero saw me for the first time... and fainted because of it!

And the other part of that note...

*PS: Do you need any extra motivation?
Some of us have travelled A LOT to see you today!*

**Wow, this girl is so big but also so...pretty!**

Travelled a lot...oh, I know who that could be!

It has been so long...

I wonder how they are!

Tom and Carina, of course!
It has been way too long.
Too bad they life in Europe!

Or maybe Laurie and Nattie coming down from Montréal!

Or even better: All four of them!

Oh, how will they react...

...when they see, just how much I have grown!

Here we are, the Park!

I cannot wait to see all of them!

Just one more corner...

Let's go!

Deep breath, Dorothea.

Oh...my...god...

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

You guys...

...really know how to make a big girl happy!
