Knock, Knock, Knock. Knock, Knock, Knock. I heard someone at our room door as I awoke from my nap. Teresa was still out like a light and her long hair covered my bare face and shoulders as I laid naked beneath and to the side of her. I tried to wiggle out slowly as to not disturb her, but as I tried to move, she tightened her herculean right arm, actually squeezing me tightly and bringing me even closer to her. Here I was, once a good-looking guy but now a smoke-show, Anja Langer looking female bodybuilder, dwarfed in the clutches of my muscle-laden wife who was now larger than most male bodybuilders who ever existed. Completely enveloped in her warm, muscular grip, I whispered, "Honey, someone's at the door." She just made a satisfied, quiet hummm and put her athletic face on mine. Feeling loved and totally content beneath her, I decided to ignore the door knock and enjoy the heat of her firm, bulky body next to mine.

Knock, Knock, Knock. "C'mon you two...let us in." I heard my sister say through the closed door. "Ugggg." I moaned, "I guess I should get that." I said to my wife. She hugged me powerfully again, kissed me on the forehead and said, "I'lllllll get it babe." With that, she threw the sheets off of her, totally covering me with all of them now and she slipped out of bed. Completely naked, she was an absolute muscular beast to look at. As she waddled towards the door, her seemingly 40" quads bulged insanely, full of power with each muscle-bound stride. Her rounded, buff, beautiful bare ass seemed larger than two of mine and the massively wide lats and muscle covered protrusions in her back made her seem five feet wide! Her thick, 10" cock swayed back and forth, damn near to her knees as she opened the door. Her long hair was draped over her right shoulder and towering trap and she turned her body slightly towards me to grab the door handle.

Without a care or concern, she thrust open the door, her gorgeous cock again swinging wildly beneath her as she did. "WOW!" Sarah shouted as she was instantly exposed to the sheer mass of muscle and beauty of my wife as she stood confidently, naked in front of her and Audrey.

Shocked at the sight of my gorgeous, hunk of a wife, Sarah exclaimed "Wow!" and put her hand up on her tan, wide, massive, exposed pecs. She then reached out and took Teresa in her muscle-bound grasp. As the two herculean mounds of muscle hugged tightly, it was a sight of pure elation for me. 500 plus pounds of mostly exposed, powerful, bulking, mass were on display in front of me. Their protruding pecs bounced into each other and as the gorgeous slabs of beef made contact, there was a slap sound the resonated throughout the room. Their asses both projected outward greatly and it was like a table for two for me and Audrey's drinks. That would have been awesome, lol. The thighs also shot out so far, it almost kept their packages from making contact with each other...but it didn't and Teresa's exposed love muscle bumped firmly into the large bulge coming from my sister's male bodybuilder style, shiny silk bikini.

Sarah and Teresa decided to share a warm, long, passion filled kiss and as they made out, I could see my sister's cock growing massively and eventually popping out of her tiny bikini bottoms. Teresa's started to fill with blood as well and within a few seconds, their two massive, thick, bulging-vein covered erections were banging into the other. They felt what was going on and kind of moved their muscle-bound hips to their respective right, then thrust back the other way, making their magical rods hit each other playfully. It was one of the most amazing sights I had ever laid eyes on! As they continued their cock play, Audrey dropped to her knees, grabbed the two, beautiful, full, rosy colored shafts and began her own playful sword fight between them. She couldn't help herself though, and she began licking and kissing the two long pieces of meat. Jealous, I couldn't take it any more and I jumped out of bed, rushed over and dropped to my knees on the other side of Audrey, my shoulders and face just inches from these, gigantic, full, huge, muscle-bound quads belonging to my wife and sister.

I reached out, grabbed Sarah's luscious cock and wrapped my lips and mouth around it. It took its warmth deep into my throat and enjoyed being gagged by her girth. I immediately started bobbing my head up and down on its shaft and enjoyed the feeling of my sister's thick, rounded tip popping past my lips over and over again. She was now a muscle-bound, dick wielding goddess and she deserved my devoted attention to her beautiful appendage. I knew she licked it firm and fast so I was sure to keep my lips tight and my head movement rapid as I tried to bring her to satisfaction. I was eagerly awaiting feeling her trembling muscular body movement as I satisfied her. And was also super eager to taste the spurts of her glorious cum in my mouth.

The licking, and deep throating of Sarah's monster continued and I peered up to notice Audrey thrusting her head continually on my wife's gorgeous cock as well. Teresa's was slightly longer and Audrey could get both of her hands massaging the shaft while her wet, moist mouth licked and bobbed upon her pinkish tip. I looked up further to see Sarah's tongue extended as she passionately licked my wife's muscle-laden pecs. The wetness from her saliva glistened upon my wife's chest as she caressed her nipple and the rock-hard lower curvature of the muscle. Teresa looked up to the sky in erotic satisfaction as my sister kissed and licked her upper trunk while Audrey's moist mouth took in her enormous shaft and I massaged her gargantuan, muscle filled ass!

Focusing back on my sister. I tried to create as much wetness in my mouth as possible for an adequate and satisfying blow job. Luckily, I was aided by a few small spurts of her warm, milky love juice, which gave me the needed lubrication. My hand worked feverishly on her shaft while my lips and tongue worked their magic on her stunning tip. My thrusts became more rapid and firm and I loved the feeling of her cock hitting the back of my throat over and over again. Sarah loved it too and I could feel her start to move her muscular thighs in exact unison with my downward thrusts. Before long, she was bumping her huge, hard quads into my shoulder and banging me into Teresa's massive ones. It was gratifying to be sending my sister into such a satisfied, muscle gyrating state and I pressed on even further. Sarah got closer and closer and closer to orgasm and with a final, head sucking motion, I tickled the underside of her rod and sent her into orbit.

Sarah blasted a throat full of her wet, sticky, salty juice into my mouth and as the spurts kept erupting into me, I was gulping down the massive flow. I continued stroking her shaft with vigor to help her keep the cum river streaming. The warm liquid was filling me greatly but her satisfaction could not be contained and at one point, she accidentally pulled her throbbing rod out of my mouth and discharged a large amount straight into my face. The gooey nectar was dripping off my cheeks and I stuck my tongue out as far as possible to lick up the juice. She thought I was done, but I quickly reached out, grabbed her cock and shoved it back in my warm, wanting, mouth. I gave her a few more strokes and gripped my mouth half way down her shaft, squeezing it in my lips as hard as I could to force out the last remaining gob of milky load.

I gradually opened my eyes to see Audrey taking my wife to orgasm and watched as Teresa began to thrust her hips wildly and begin pumping Audrey with her liquid warmth. Audrey was having trouble keeping up with the massive amounts of jiz my wife was exploding into her and when she finally started to gag, I ripped Teresa's giant cock out of her and thrust my head and mouth upon it to take in her lovely cream. As I did, a small blast shot into Audrey's face and she was now covered in it. Ohhh, I enjoyed my wife's thick, hard dick in my throat and I tried to thrust it in as deep as possible. It was too large though, noticeably larger than my sister's I knew, as I had just taken Sarah's out of my mouth moments earlier. Teresa loved having my perky lips around her member and gave her muscle-bound quads and hips a nice thrust into me, my body almost bouncing off their hard, rounded surface. I held tightly to her huge glutes and dug in harder. Again, I pulsed every last ounce of her love load into me and swallowed it pleasurably. Feeling her slow her thrusts, I quit pulsing, held my breath and slowly moved my head down her shaft as far as possible, letting her drip the last bits of liquid, deep inside of me.

After deep throating her gargantuan cock for another minute, I slowly slipped it's thick rod out of me and looked up at the girls lovingly. I raised to my feet, and as Audrey began kissing Sarah passionately, I enjoyed another loving kiss from my wife. "God you're good at that honey." Teresa whispered to me endearingly. "I know." I whispered back fondly. Sarah heard and laughed but then said, "Ya sis....you're REALLLLLLLY Good at that!" We all kind of laughed and shared a warm, naked, body melding hug. It was a thing of beauty, our four, perfected bodies merging as one and being squeezed by the massive muscle bound beauties, I loved most was exhilarating. I was beyond moist inside and began leaking a bit, just excited by the physically satisfying moment.

The impromptu love fest was an unrivaled experience and I was so glad to be spending it with my wife, sister and friend. It was almost like we could roam around together from place to place and always enjoy the sexual satisfaction our DNA enhanced bodies seemed to constantly crave. It was like our sex drives had become malnourished and needed constant feeding. We could spend a couple hours having sex, take a nap, and then go right back into a couple more hours of sex. Our hormones were definitely at full speed ahead mode at all times. I looked over at a still dizzy Audrey and noticed some of the white, sticky cum still dangling from her cheek. I leaned in, took a nice lick and scooped it into my awaiting mouth, enjoying the last bit of love juice from my wife's earlier explosion.

As my wife stood naked, her huge dong waving in the wind, Sarah looked at her and asked, "What now?" In one of the most insane shows of strength, my wife grabbed my sister's 200 plus pound, muscle bound body and threw her over her shoulder. Sarah was now hoist over my wife's mammoth right shoulder, her gorgeous, perky, muscular ass pointing up into the air. She spanked her on the butt a couple times while me and Audrey looked on in awe. "Ok" my wife said, "You girls over here." and she had us gather in front of the other arm. With Audrey behind me, Teresa had us squeeze our naked, fit bodies together like sardines. Teresa then put her huge left arm in front of my ripped abs, pushed forward and thrust me and Audrey up and over her other shoulder.

I peered down and watched my wife's quads and calved bulge insanely large with each step as she slowly walked us around the room. She easily lifted us three girls and I put my hand down on her gorgeous, muscle-laden glute to feel her power as she stepped. We were all laughing, including my wife, just realizing the unbelievable strength she now possessed. She walked us over in front of the mirror and began doing squats. Sarah, me, and Audrey were facing the mirror, while my wife was obviously facing the other way. We made eye contact with each other and shook our heads in admiration and almost disbelief at the ease with which my powerful wife was manhandling us all at once. We counted out loud as Teresa lowered down, almost to the floor and then shot back up again. I still held my hand on her rounded, hard ass and also looked at our reflections, ogling and the massive, protruding muscles that covered every inch of my wife's calves, huge hamstrings, back, lats and shoulders. The muscles this woman, my wife, carried put most, if not all male bodybuilders to shame, and I was sure she could win the Mr. Olympia if she tried.

My wife eventually put us all down and I turned to face her herculean body. Glorious, muscles protruding massively everywhere and naked in front of me. She grabbed my ripped torso with both strong hands and lifted me up towards her. I quickly wrapped my muscular legs around her thick body and gave her huge, rounded, full, pecs a quick kiss and lick as I moved my face up to hers and shared a long, passion-filled kiss. We made out for a few more moments and Teresa kind of moved her head back slightly. I had become addicted to her strong, powerful jawline and face and felt in awe just staring at it. She gave me a quick peck on the nose, put me down and said, "OK Girls." Let's gather up mom and Cam and head back to town.
