

Chapter 150 - The system is back!

After more thought, God decided not to help his "friend." He knew he would regret it if he helped; he was almost sure he would be tricked again. And even if he is not being deceived, he believes his "friend" could work it out alone.

He is strong. Even if his strength had greatly diminished, he was still strong.

"And since I handed that sword to him, I'm sure he'll be fine." God was already getting ready to return. But before it, he had to check if Luan's system had returned.

So he sent a message to his assistant.

"I need your help."

[Hm? Is everything okay? Did you find that guy?] His assistant looked scared. She was pretty distracted.

"I found him. He did all this to get my attention."

[Didn't I tell you that? I was sure he just wanted to get your attention. But why?]

"There's a world about to be destroyed, and he's asking for my help."

[And you?]

"Of course, I refused. I already told you what happened in the past, right? How that guy deceived me."

[I remember you telling me about that before. But I don't know the details.]

"He deceived me and put me in the middle of a war. He put me in the middle of a war and on the wrong side. In other words, I helped those bastards win that war." God clenched his fists.

Just remembering all those innocent lives being taken by his hand made his blood boil.

[And in the end, what happened?]

"I killed everyone. Ultimately, both sides lost, so the world fell into complete chaos. I've never revisited it, but I'm sure life in that place is almost extinct."

[Wow... That's pretty serious]

"You don't seem to care much."

[I didn't know those people, and you didn't know them either. Besides, it's a distant world that you will never visit again, so why care so much about it?]

Hearing his assistant's words, God realized something. He didn't care about the lives of those people, but he did care about the fact that his friend had deceived him.

In the past, when he found out that he had been deceived, it was as if someone had stabbed his heart. And so he went into a rage and ended up destroying everything. That's what happened.

But he pretends to care about the lives he took to mask his frustration for having lost his best friend.

Even God has feelings.

"It may be that I don't care much about those people's lives, but still, I did something unforgivable. They weren't just artificial characters like the ones who are living in the world Luan is in; they were real people. There's no way I can pretend I didn't do something outrageous."

[But please, forget about it. It has been how many years since this happened? 50? Maybe 100? Forget it.]

"..."

[Now I have to go; I'm finishing packing for my trip. See you later.]

"Don't even think about it."

"I called you because I need help, remember?"

[I thought you just wanted to talk and ask for advice.]

"No, I need you to go to Luan and check if his system is available."

[Ah, so in the end, you solved the problem.]

"..."

[Right, I'll go there quickly. I'm going on a vacation trip as soon as I finish this job.]

"Ok, ok..."

####

"Damn, why do I have to do that?" God's assistant was irritated by his sudden request since she had already prepared her bags. However, she could not ignore an order from God.

She left her things on her bed and then disappeared.

Her vision changed, and she was now in an alley. This time she was not surprised by a strange man. Her appearance changed, and she headed toward Luan's house. She wanted to get out of this world as fast as possible.

Knock~~ Knock~~ Knock~~

She knocked on the door desperately. Then the door was opened by a beautiful woman.

'If I'm not mistaken, her name is Jessica. The girl who was a prostitute.'

"Is Luan there?"

"Luan? Yes. But who are you?"

"I'm a friend of his." She gave a smile but was quite impatient. Jessica realized the woman was in a hurry, so she closed the door and went upstairs to call Luan. He was in the room with Lili.

From Jessica's description, Luan didn't know who it was, but he felt it was important, so he went downstairs.

And when he saw the woman standing in front of the door.

"Oh, it's you! I remember you!" Luan recognized her. She had the same appearance as when she met him inside the tower.

"Yes, it's me. I'm here to check something." The woman cleared her throat and looked at Jessica. Then Luan closed the door, and the two walked to a slightly more secluded place.

"So, what do you want to check? Do you want to know if someone attacked us or something?"

"I'm here to check your system. God said the system should be online again."

"Really?" Luan tilted his head and opened the system. Then a window appeared in front of his eyes.

The system is online again; as he expected, all his basic abilities have been reset. He had leveled up, so that's to be expected. But what surprised him was not only that.

Not only were his basic skills reset, but so was everything else.

The only things that remained were his points, harem, and skills. The masturbation counter, the orgasm counter, everything was gone.

And in addition, it had a new feature.

[Heir]

"That's funny."

"Is the system back?"

"Yes, it's back. Tell God I appreciate it." God said the system would be available again only tomorrow, so he was more than happy.

"Okay, I'm going back now. Enjoy the system."

"See you later."

Luan went home humming happily.
