

Julia floated inanimate for a while when a boat went to her.

Day 1072

I hope the fishing will be good.
I promised to Anna a fish for the dinner.

Day 1072

It looks like there is a big catch!

Day 1072

But what is this thing ?

Day 1072

Jim struggled to hoist Julia's heavy body into his boat. But this unexpected catch had to be absolutely brought back.

Day 1072

Jim then examined his catch. Of course he was very surprised by the creature's buttocks and pussy.

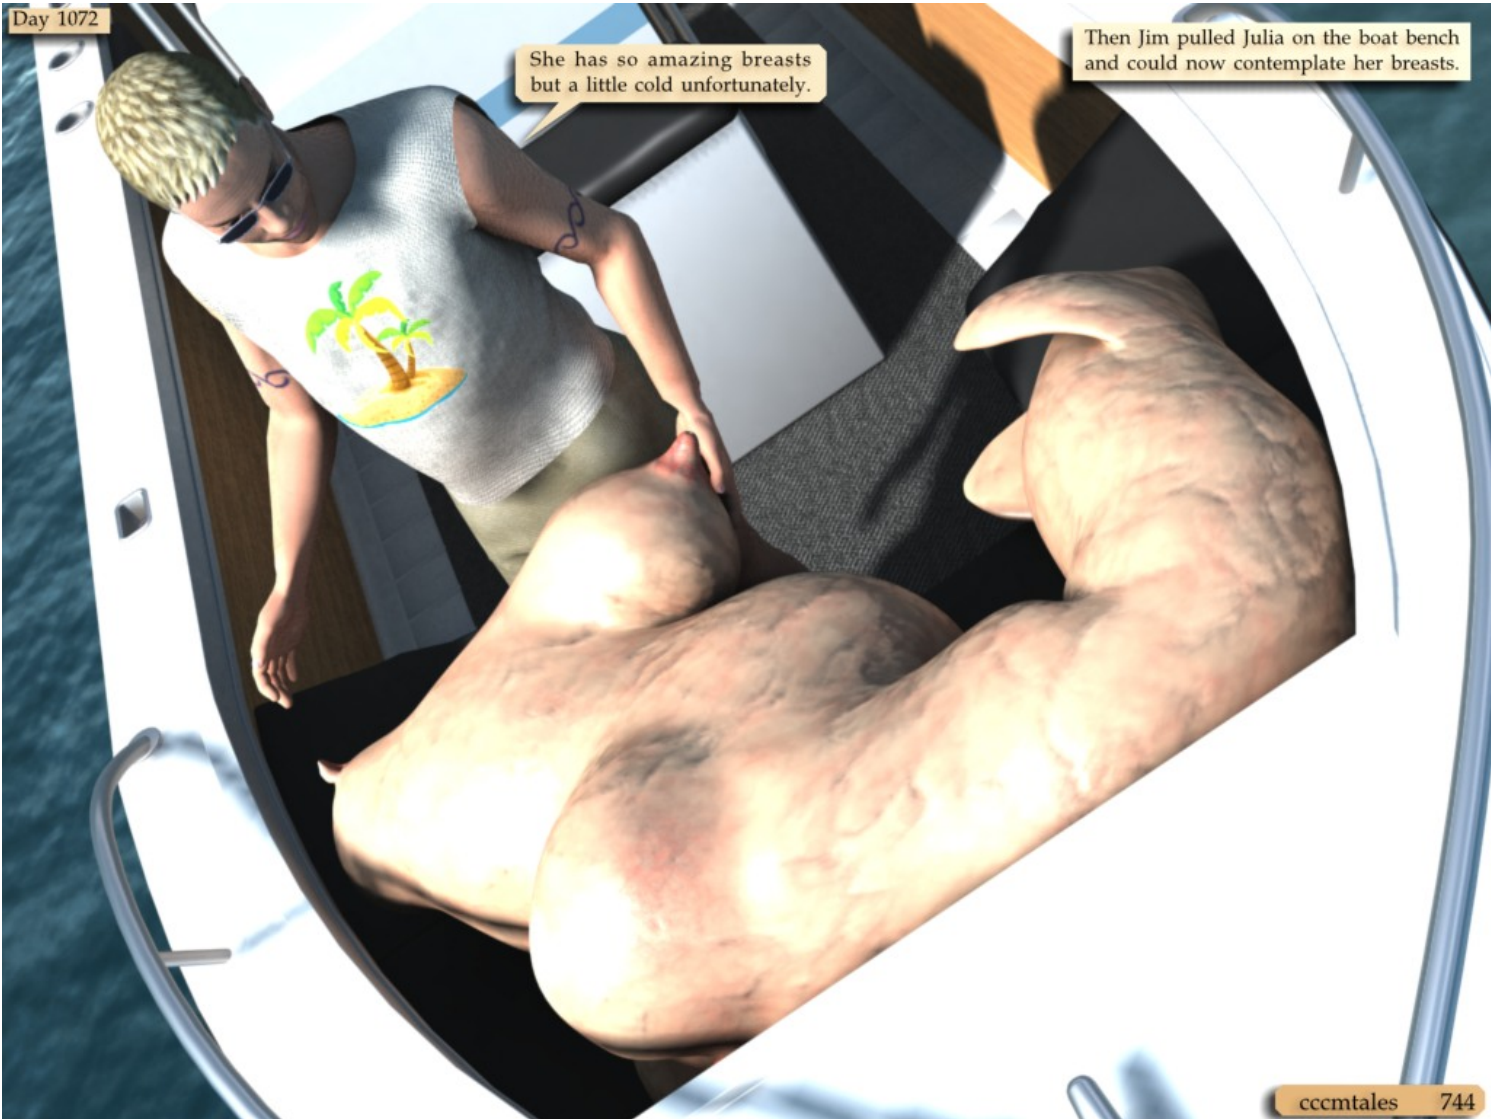

A nice ass!

Day 1072

She has so amazing breasts but a little cold unfortunately.

Then Jim pulled Julia on the boat bench and could now contemplate her breasts.

Day 1072

Jim discovered Julia's face.

What a strange creature. She has such a pretty face.
I did not think the mermaids looked like that!

Day 1072

Jim was really saddened for killing this creature. He wanted to be sure of her condition.

It looks like she is still breathing but it's so weak...

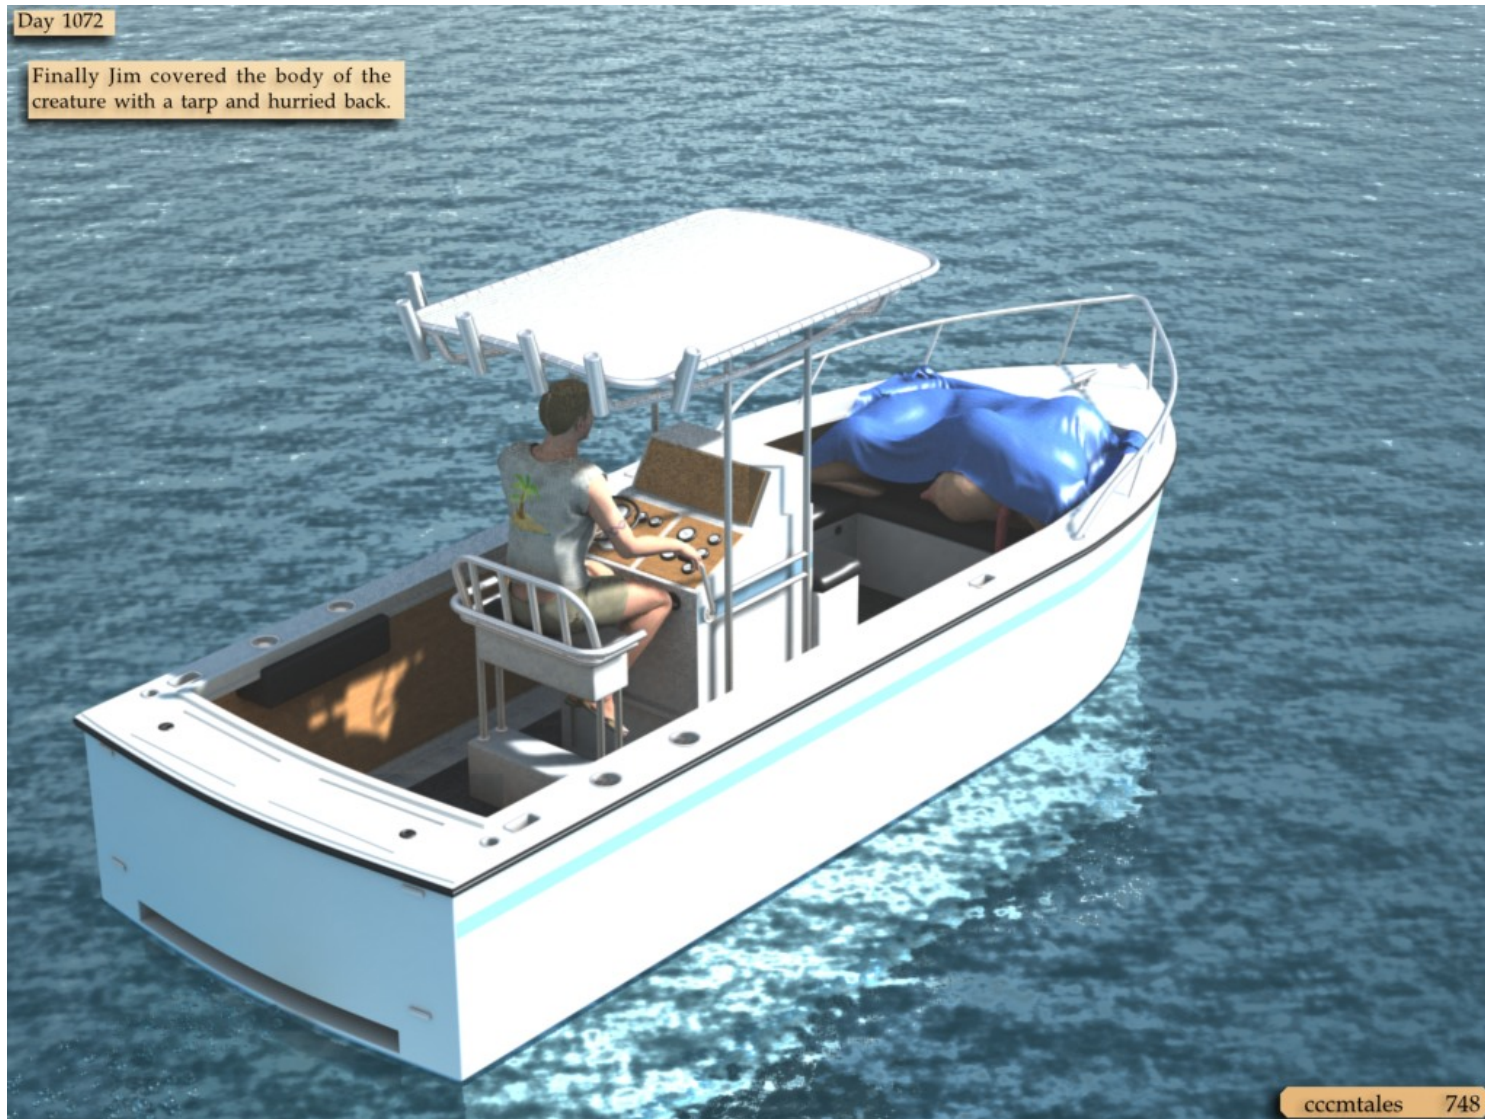

Day 1072

Maybe I should do her a mouth to mouth? But if she wakes up here...

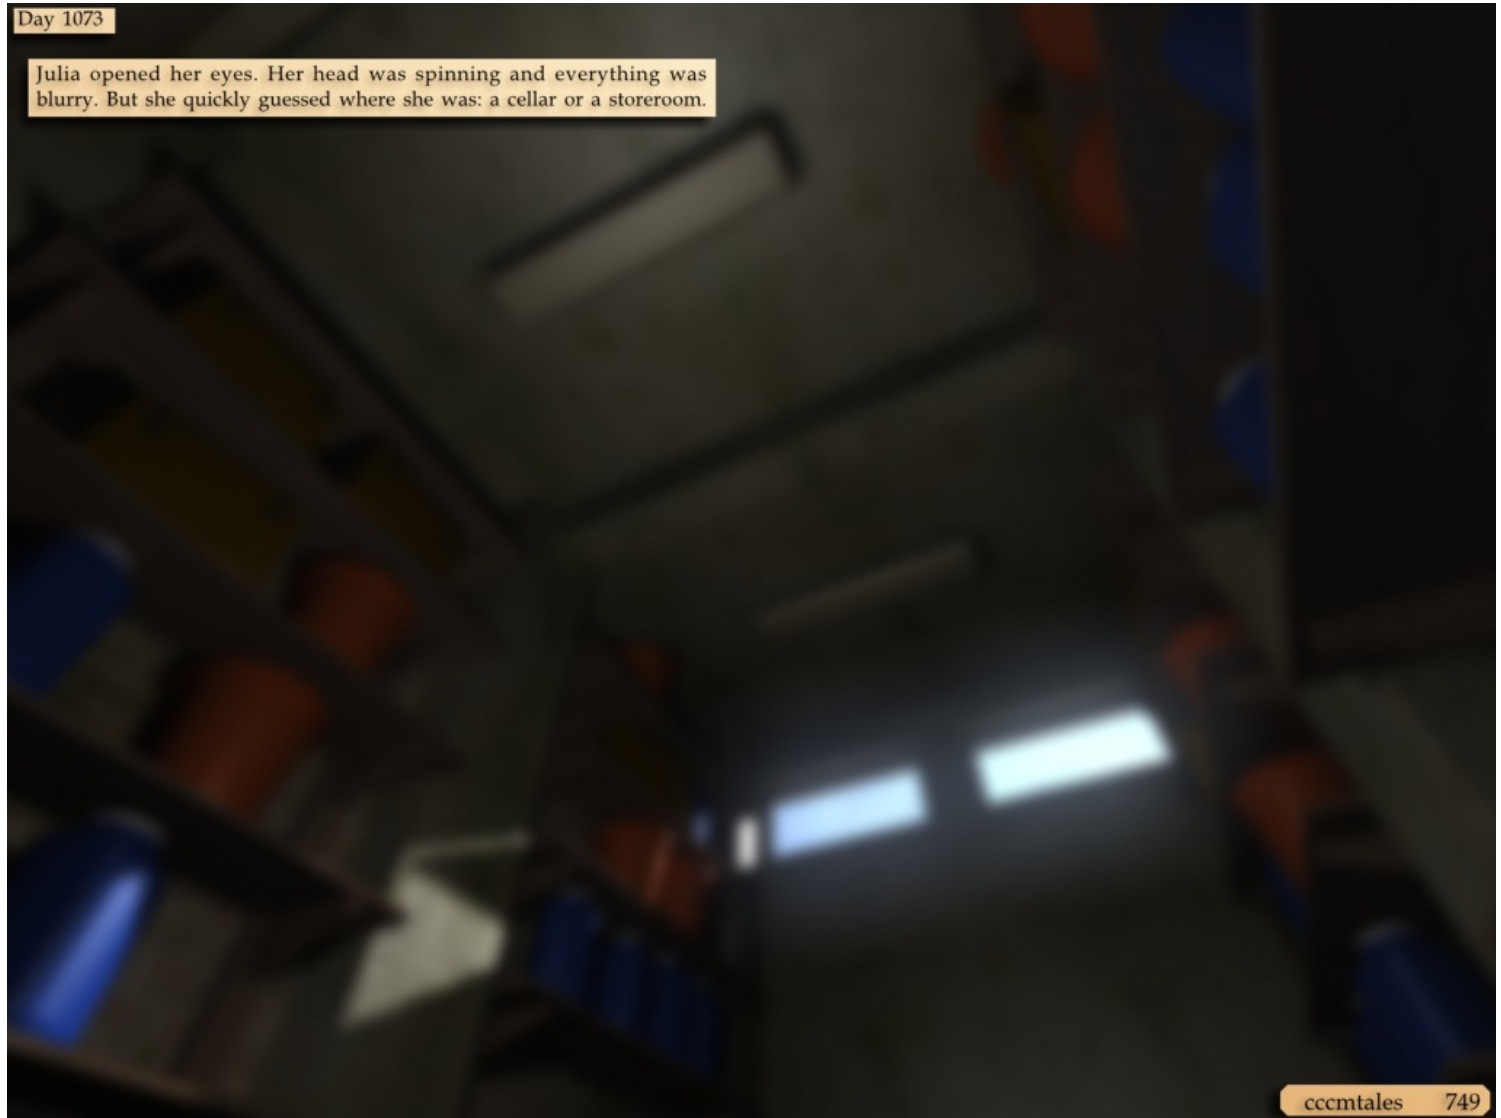

Day 1072

Finally Jim covered the body of the creature with a tarp and hurried back.

Day 1073

Julia opened her eyes. Her head was spinning and everything was blurry. But she quickly guessed where she was: a cellar or a storeroom.

Day 1073

Julia ended up recovering completely. She felt beneath her the hard cement floor. But most of her body was on a carpet.

Day 1073

Julia finally realized that she was thirsty.
Someone had put a bowl next to her.

It was with difficulty that Julia moved her body. She was still numb and out of the water her movements were much slower.

But she does not have a long way to go. She spread her tentacle to reach the bowl and suck a good fresh water.

Day 1073

Julia had scarcely time to start the bowl of fish kibble that had been left to her, that footsteps were heard.

They advanced to the door that soon opened.

Julia was terrified but she could not do much. Was she going to meet a jailer or savior?

Day 1073

Jim entered the room. And found that his mermaid had woken up.

Julia turned her face away and did not dare to look at him.

Oh!

Day 1073

Jim stepped towards the curious creature and took off his glasses.

As Julia remained silent...

I see you have survived. I found you caught in a net. I thought you were dead. But luckily you have resurrected.

You understand what I say ?

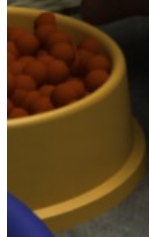

Day 1073

Julia looked up and tried to sketch a smile.

Then she answered as she could.

Hooooonnnn.

Day 1073

Then Julia thought she had to use her power of seduction.

She tidied her tentacle tongue and turned to the side revealing her beautiful round shapes. She saw immediately that her beautiful breasts attracted the eye of her visitor.

Day 1073

As irresistibly attracted, Jim began to gently touch the mermaid's skin.

You are so beautifull !

Day 1073

Julia let herself be caressed, which gave her a sweet and delicious pleasure.

The boy was fascinated.

Your skin is so soft! I would not have imagined that mermaids are like that.

Day 1073

Under the insistence of these tender caresses, Julia felt her body warm up. She felt the tips of her breasts rise in pressure.

When the boy's hand touched them, a short squirt of milk came out under a groan of pleasure from the mermaid.

Hoooooouuuuuuu....

Day 1073

For Jim the invitation was obvious.

Hon Hon

I guess that's your way of thanking me.

Day 1073

And Jim tasted the forbidden fruit ...
