

DRACADS

“Magic is the key to unlocking the secrets of the world. It’s the path to untold knowledge and limitless power. The dracads were born to master it.”
- Dracoriel, Eldermage

The Dracads are a unique and intriguing race, known for their mastery of magic and intelligence. They are both respected and feared among the other races for their formidable abilities and their elusive nature.

PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS

Dracads are small creatures, standing only a few inches tall, but don’t let their size fool you. They have a dragon-like appearance, with scales, claws, and a tail, which grants them an advantage on Stealth checks.

PERSONALITY

Dracads have a confident and proud demeanor, often appearing aloof to those they see as lesser beings. They highly value their independence and freedom, but also hold strong bonds with their own kind. Dracads are fiercely protective of their own and will defend them fiercely from any harm.

CULTURE

Dracads have a complex and hierarchical society, each individual having a defined role within the community. They are led by a council of their most powerful and wise members, making decisions that affect the entire race. They have a rich cultural history, filled with stories of legendary heroes and great battles. They place a high value on intelligence, strategy, and cunning, which they see as the keys to their success and survival.

ABILITIES AND SKILLS

Dracads have a natural affinity for magic, making them skilled in the manipulation of elements such as fire and ice. They have a keen sense of strategy and a talent for problem-solving, making them formidable warriors in battle.

DRACADS NAMES

Dracads value their cultural heritage and place great importance on their family lineage. They believe that the name they give their offspring holds great power and helps to shape their destiny.

Examples of Dracads names:

Draldarion, Drakdandhar, Deladreya, Drakdornidh, Dendradora
