It made sense to me.

While travelling here, I ended up in a city with a brand new god.

The city you're from, if Olimpa recalled correctly.

No one knew how he had come to power.

Had he killed the old god? No, if he had, he would have become a demon.

Someone must have done it for him. Talk about devotion!

Okay, that's enough.

What are you gonna do? Fuck up my whole life?

You don't know the first thing about me, Qingmei.

Woah, woah!

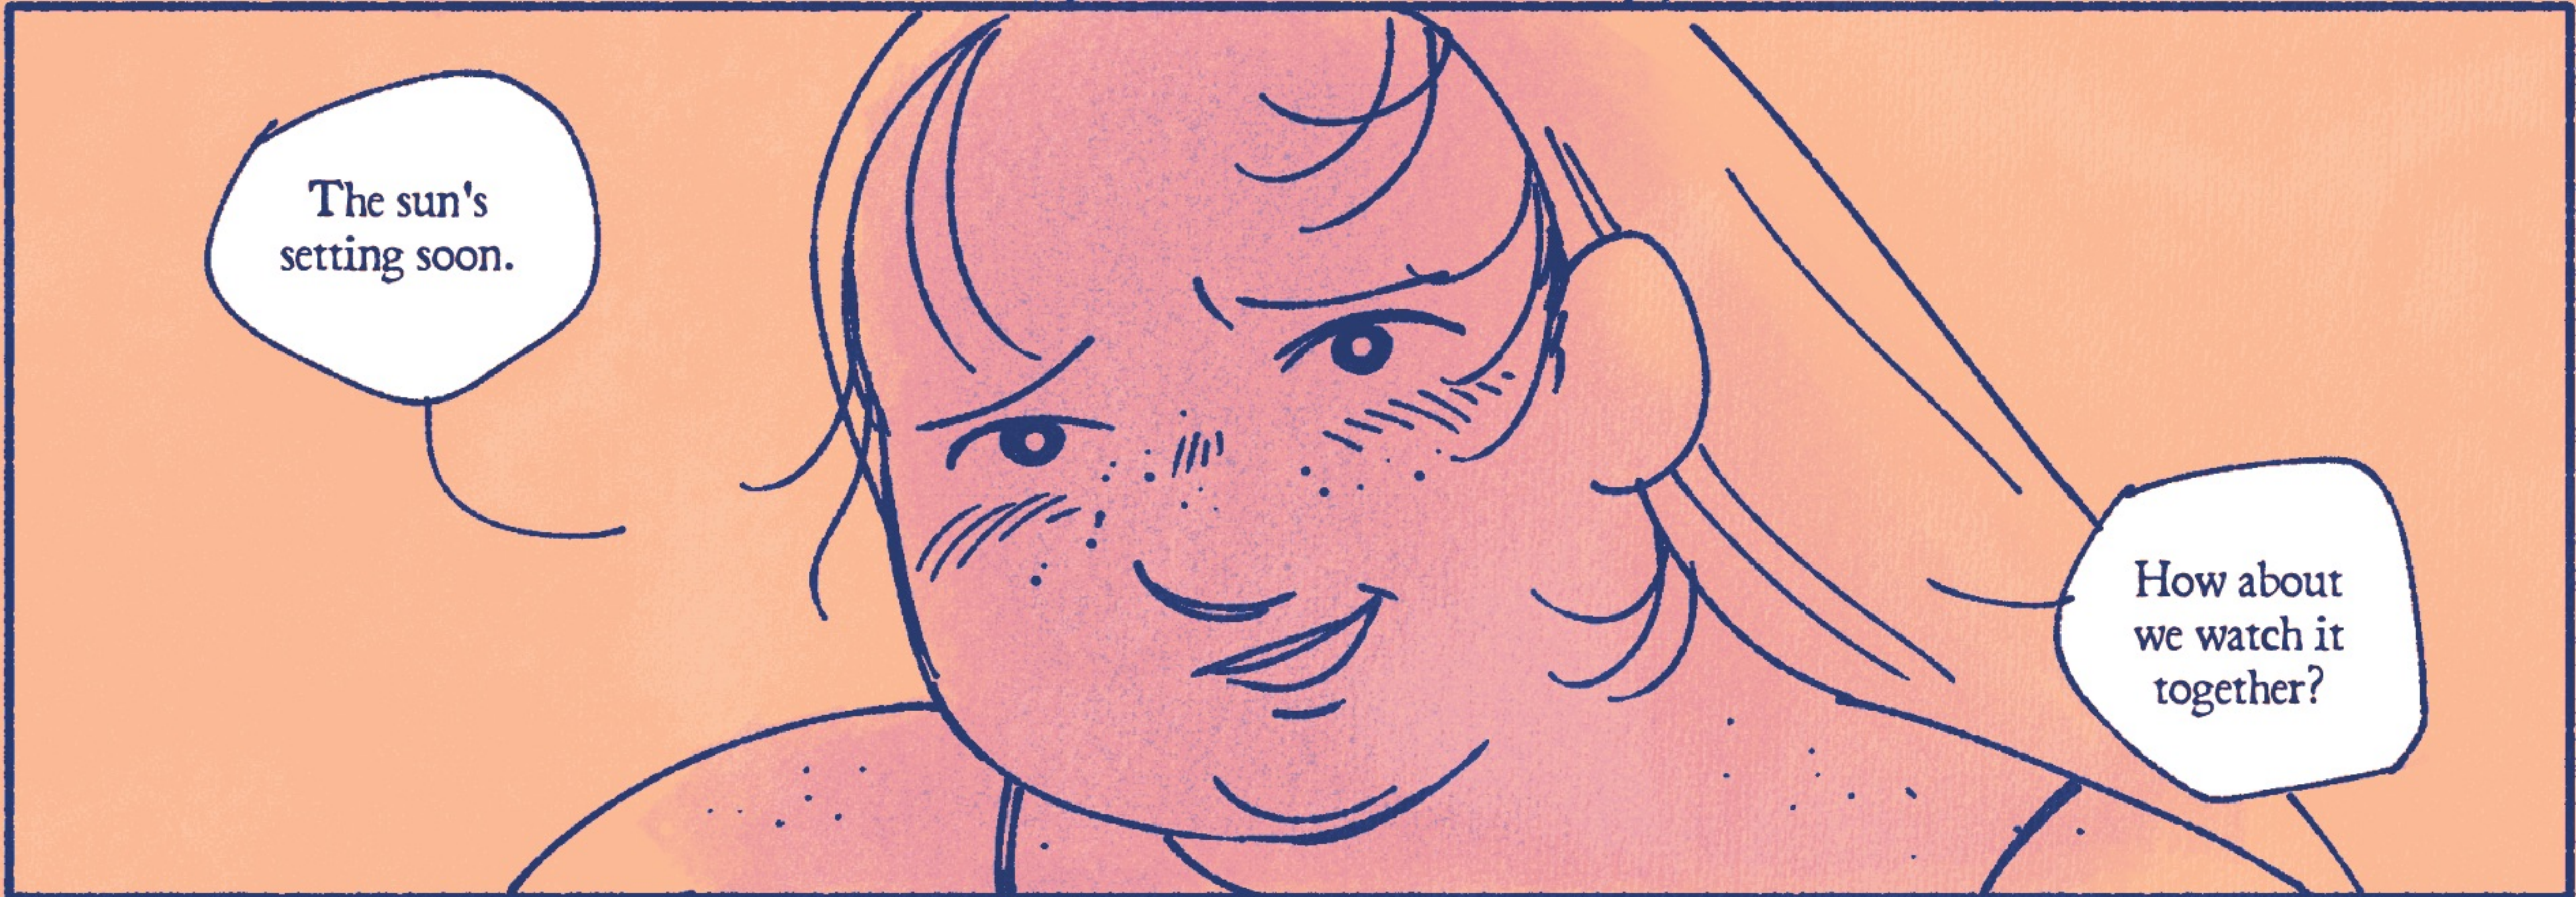

I just wanted some dirt on you so I could make you pull the wagon next time!

You realize that's fucking insane.

I see how it could come across that way, sure.

C'mon. Let's start over, okay?

The sun's setting soon.

How about we watch it together?

It feels good that someone knows.

...He put a spell on me, when he became a god.

I wouldn't become a demon as long as I still loved him.

You went about it in a fucked up way, sure.

But news from the city doesn't make it out here.

Not fast, anyway.

It'll ruin everything if word gets out.

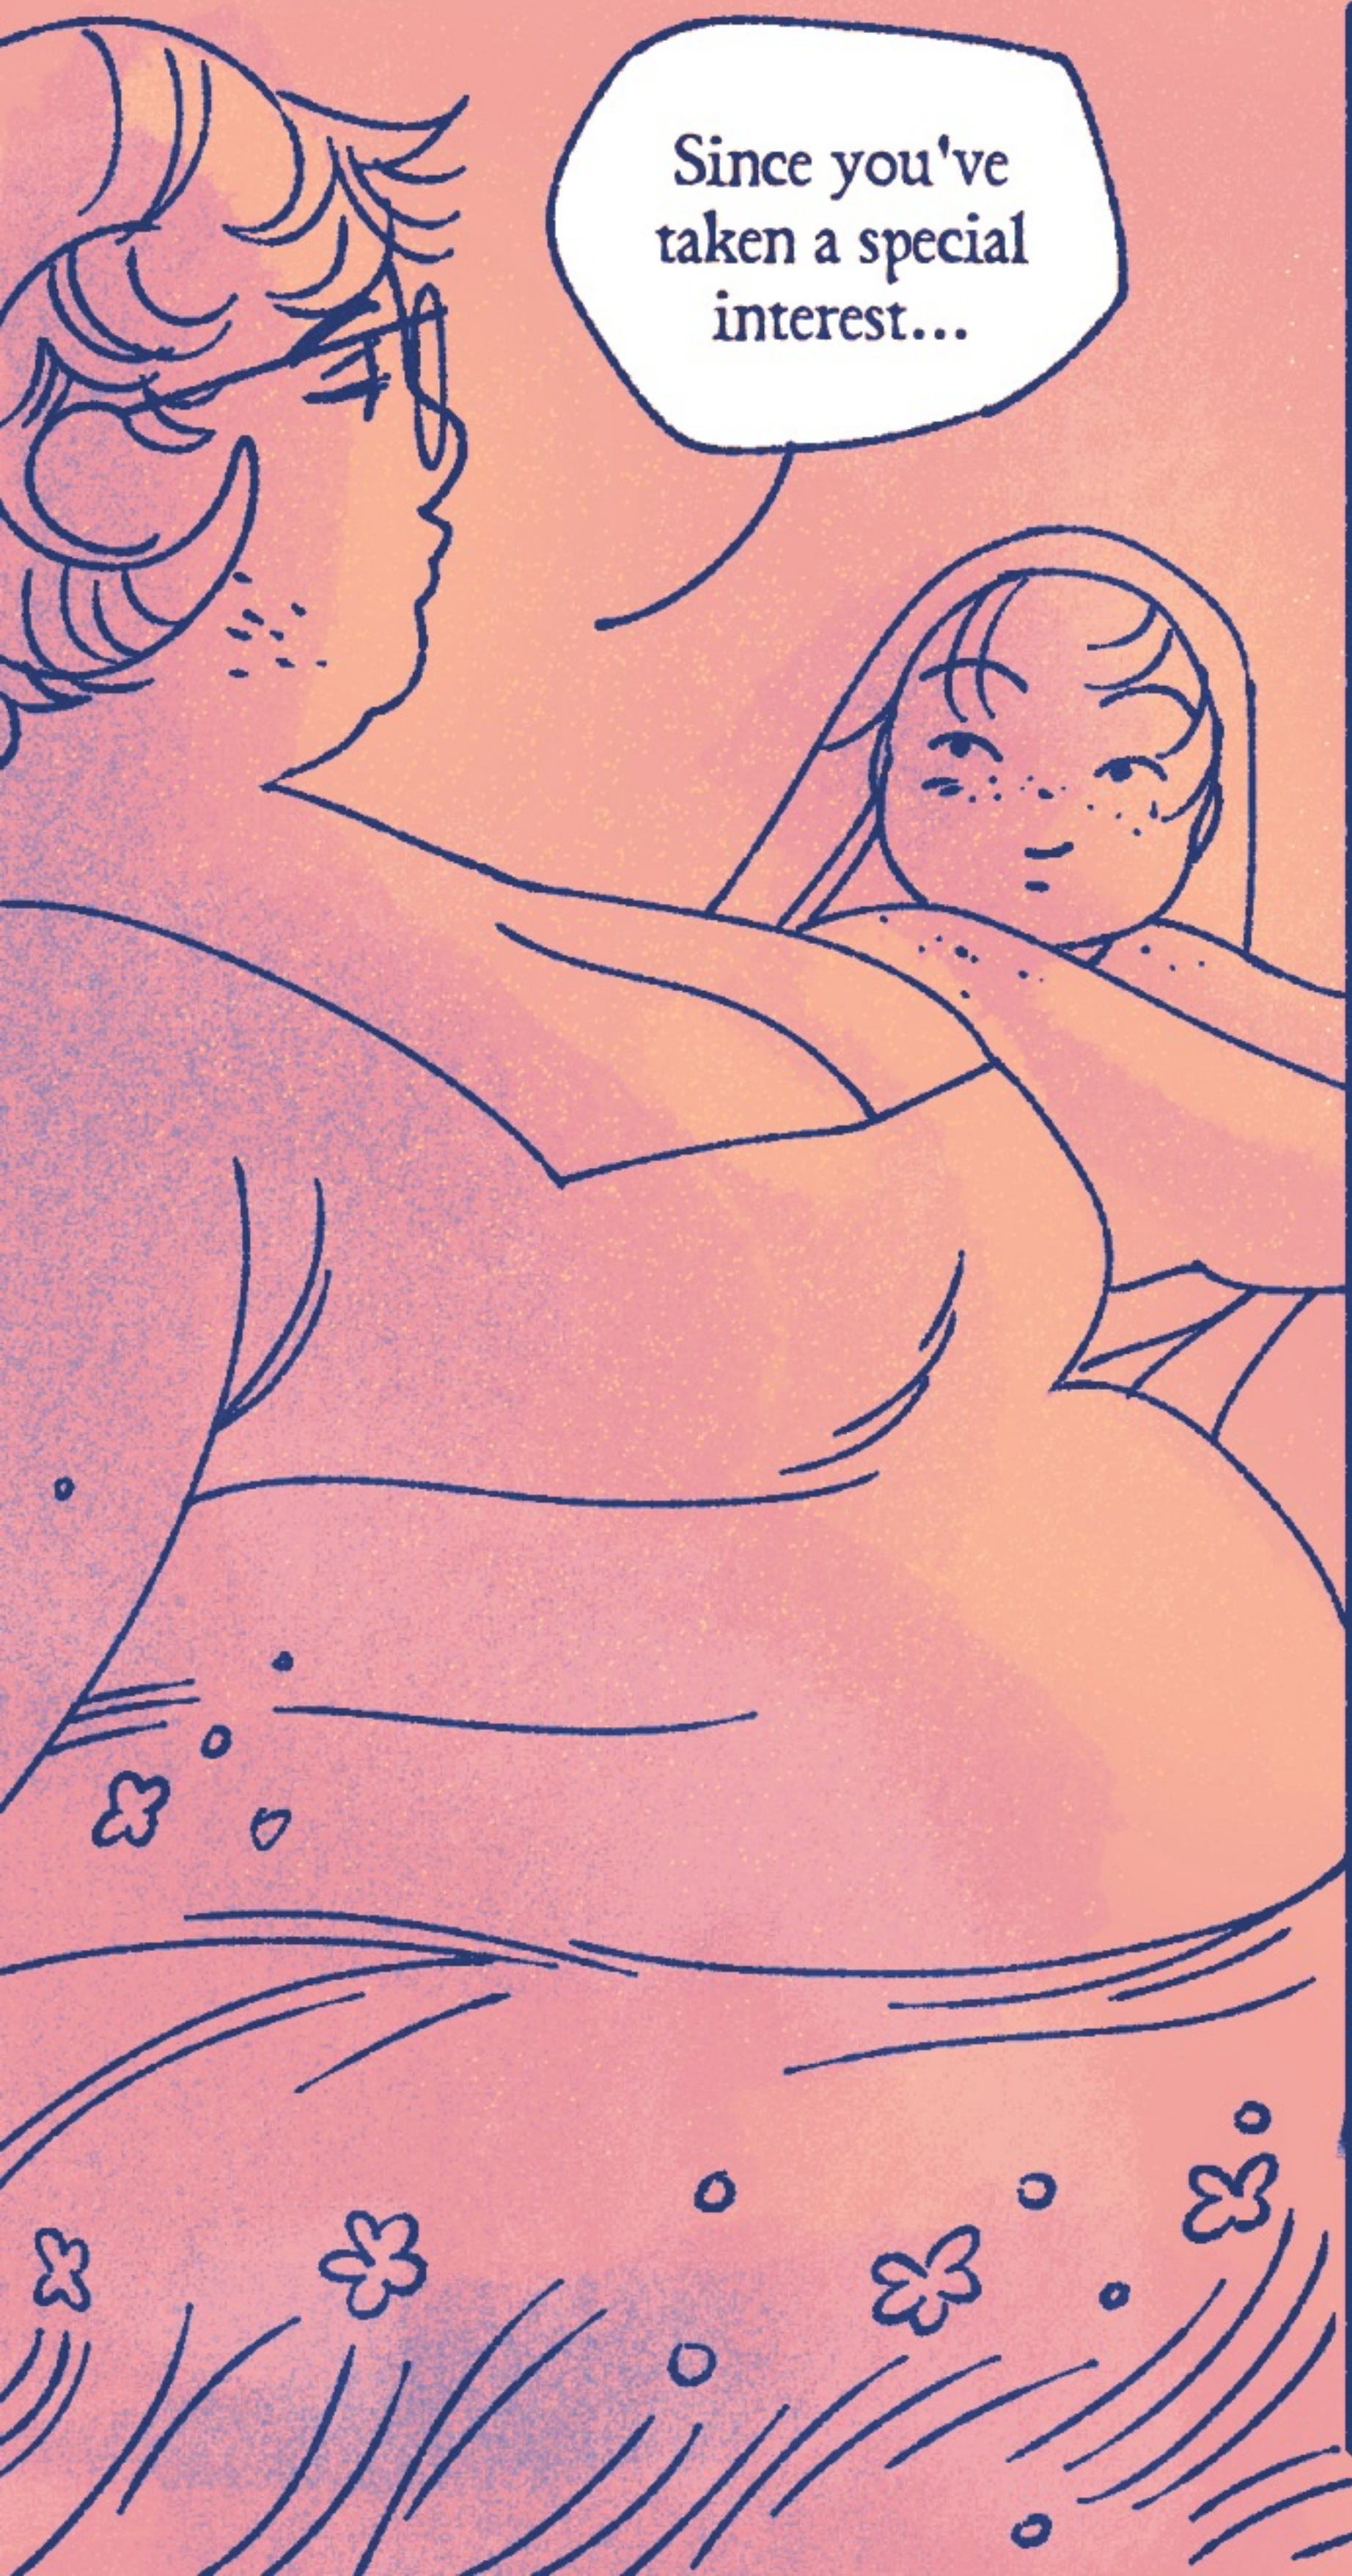

If Agatha finally sees me for who I am.

But I think I like how my body's changing.

It feels right.

Since you've taken a special interest...

Do you want to touch them?

What are they? A goat's?

I thought so at first... But I think they're ram horns.

They're so warm...

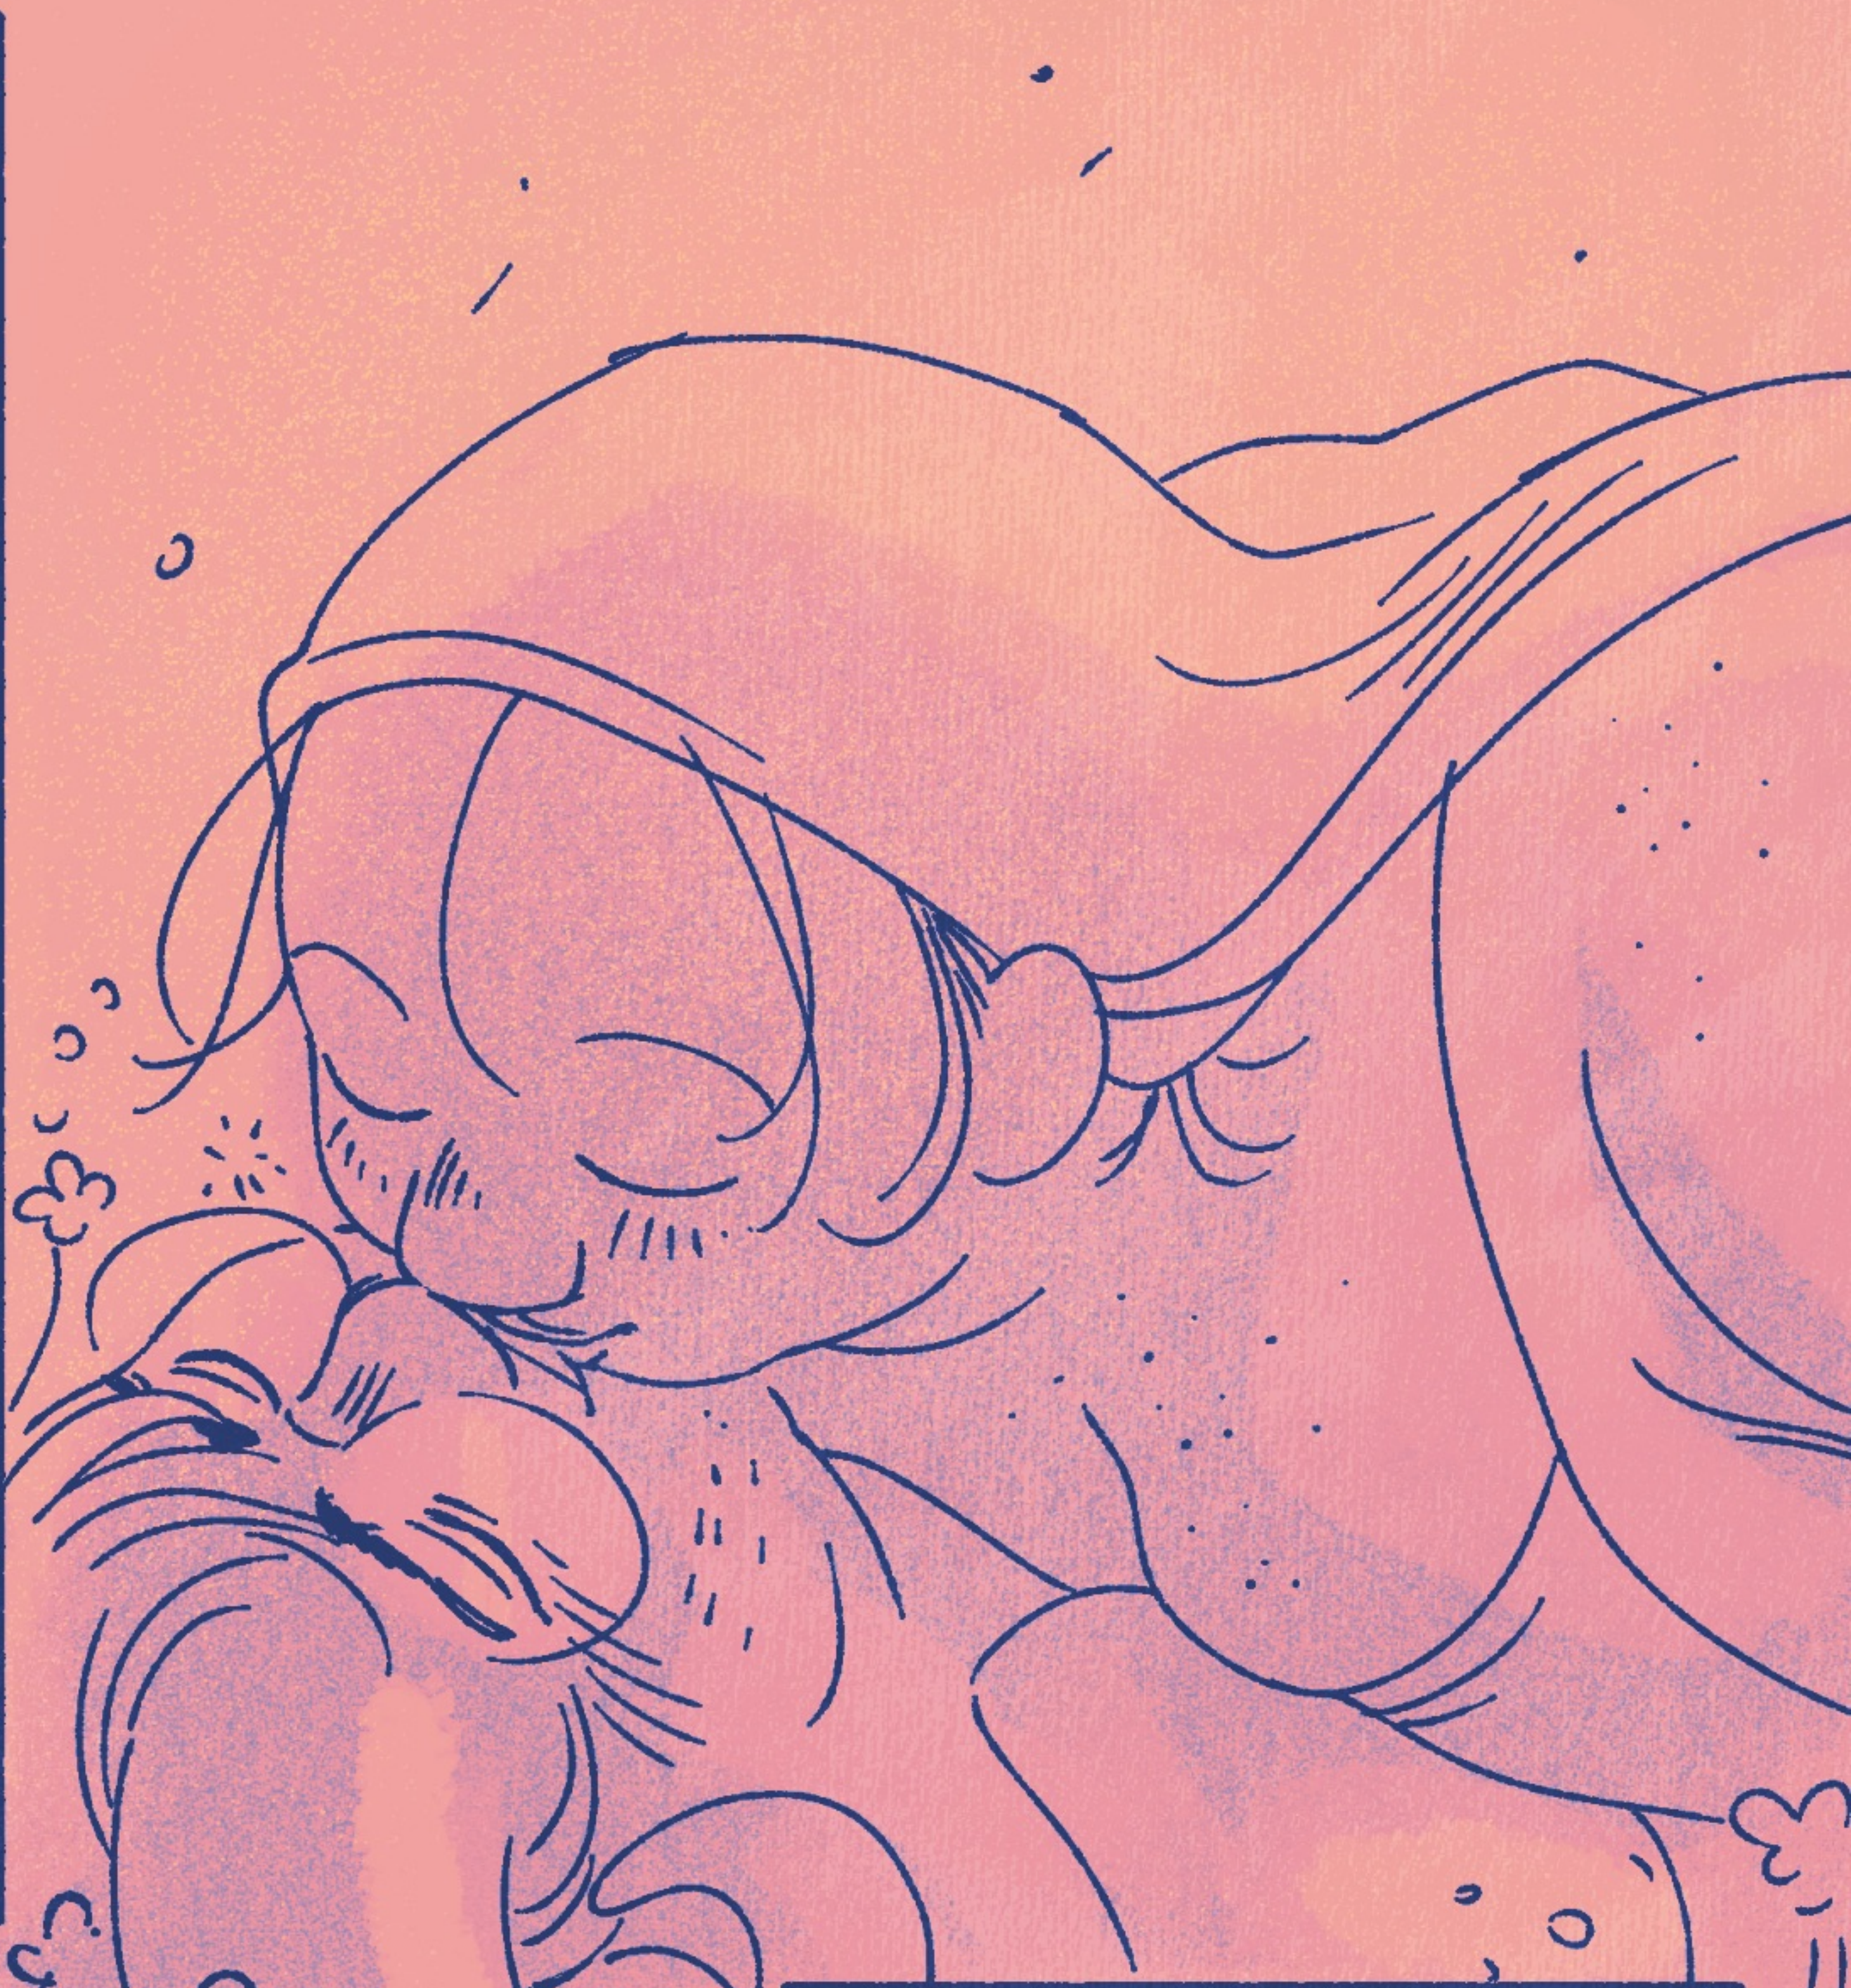

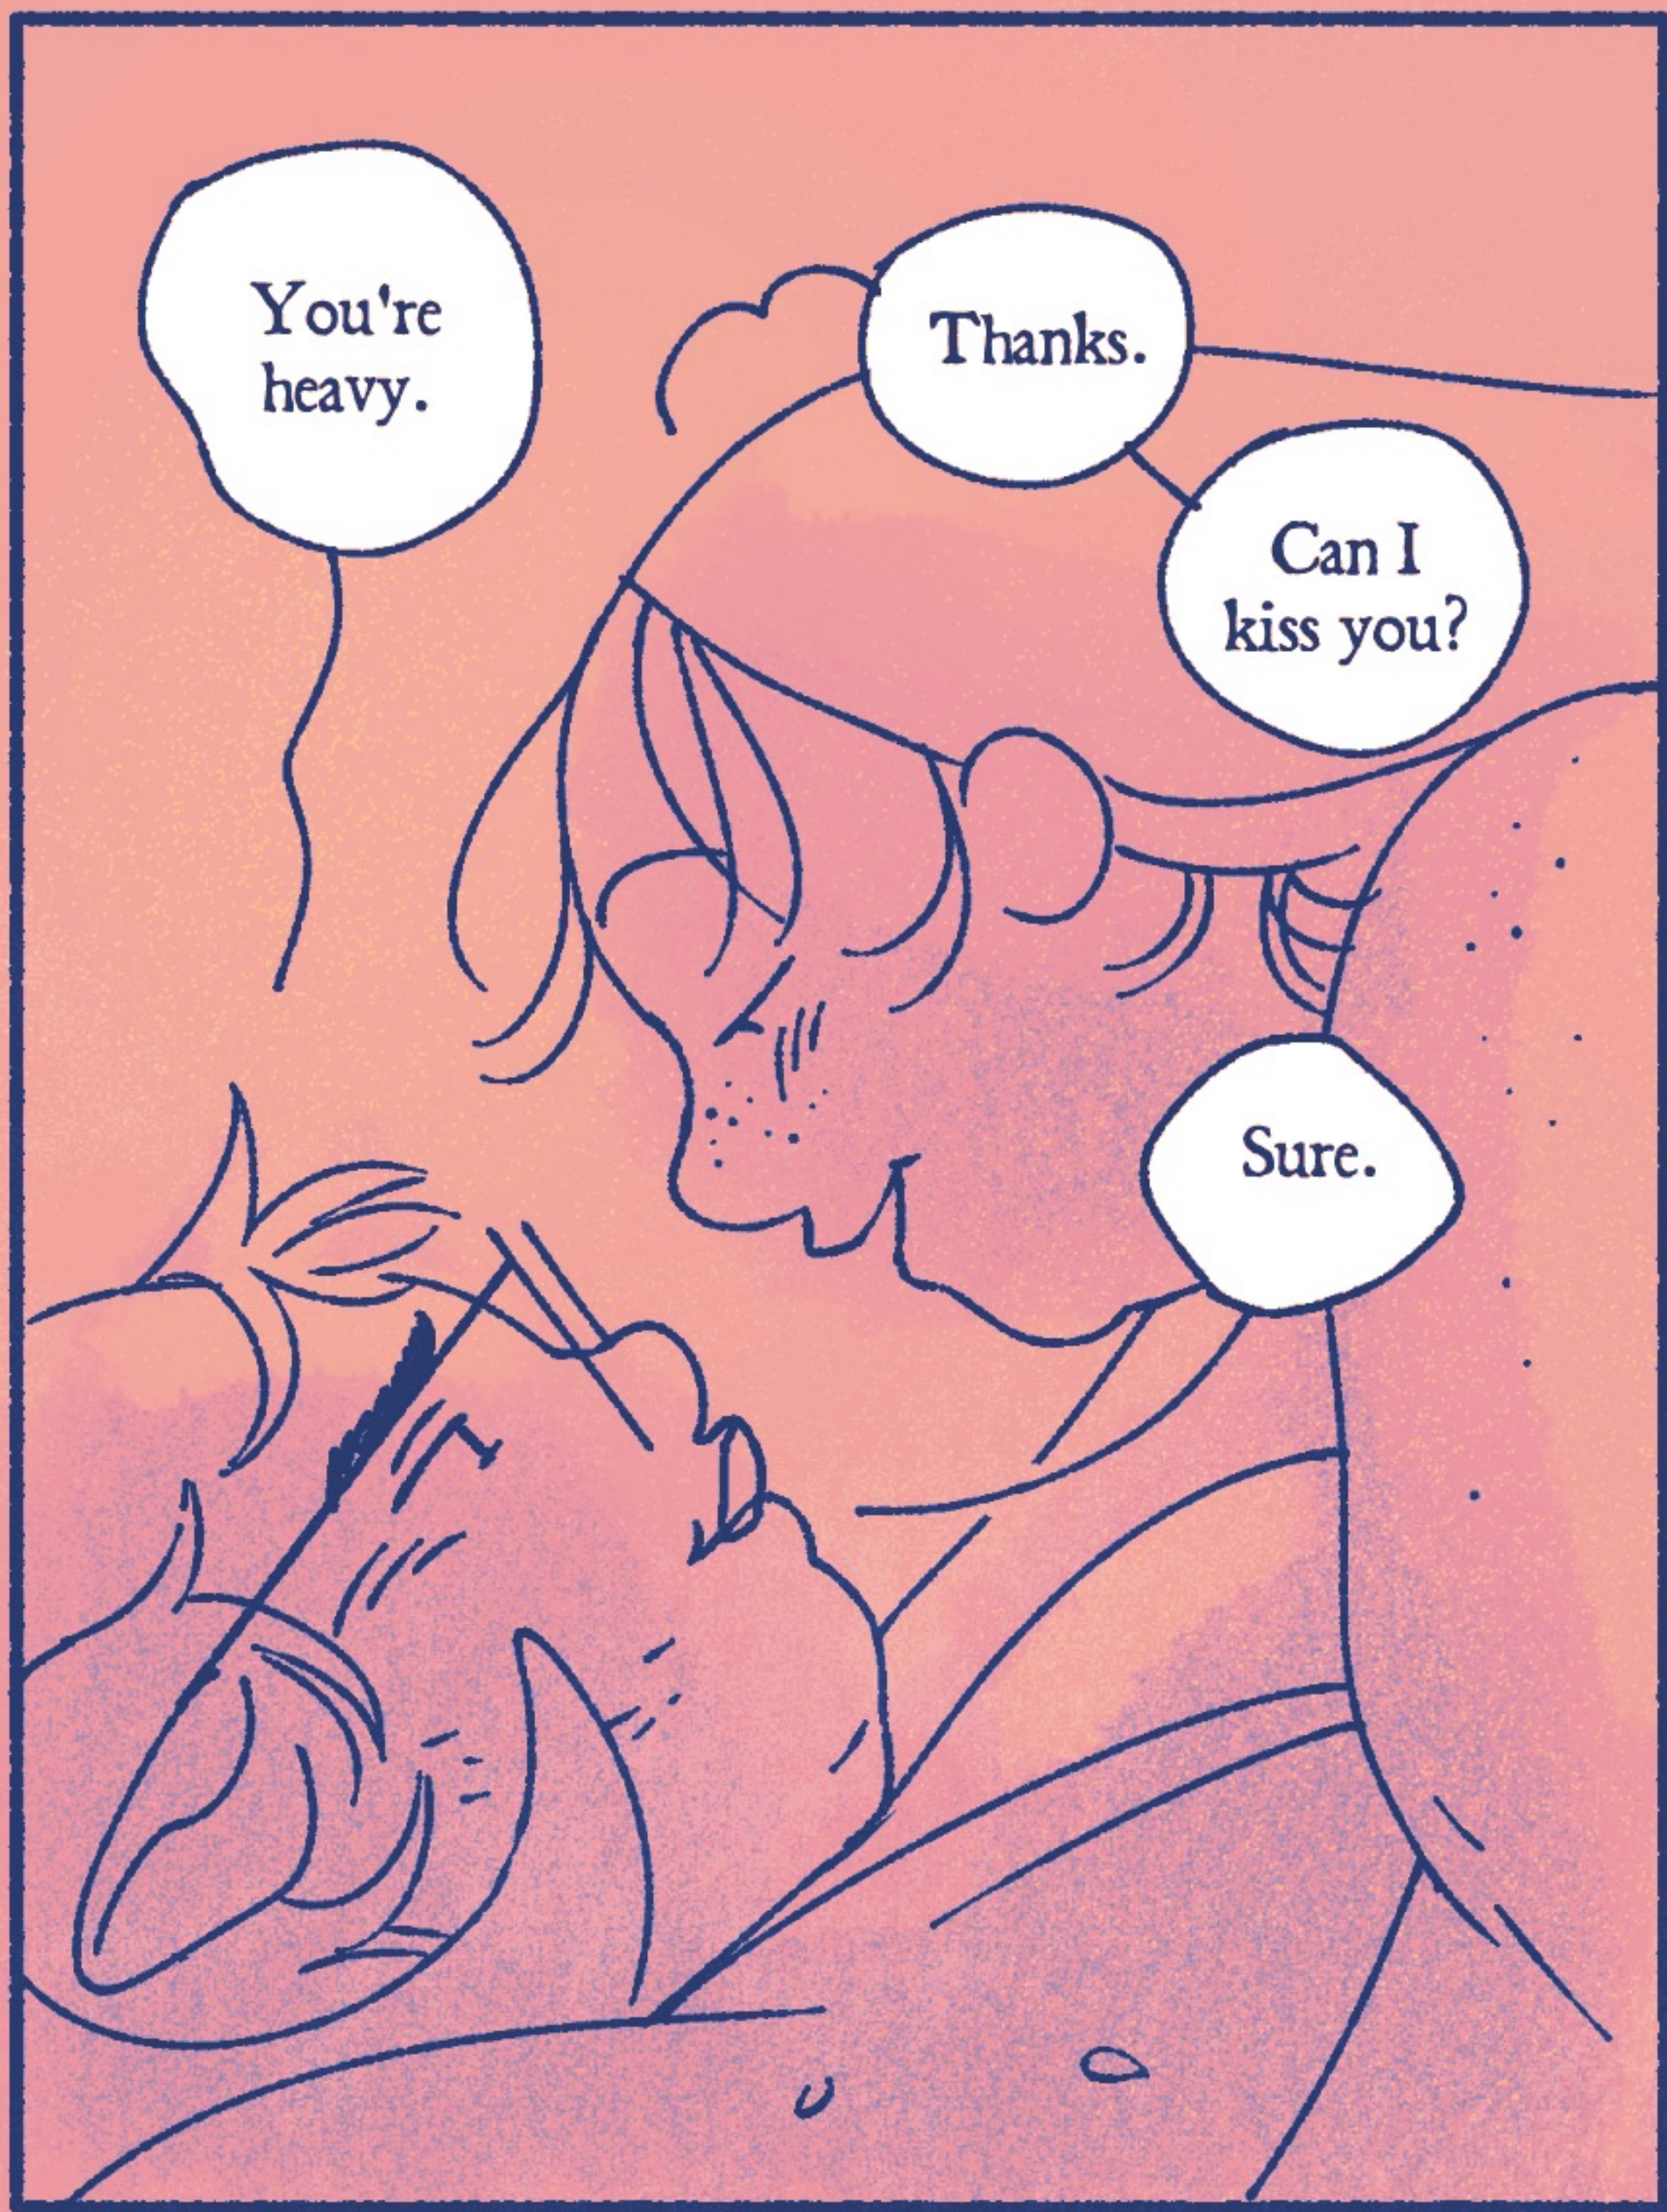

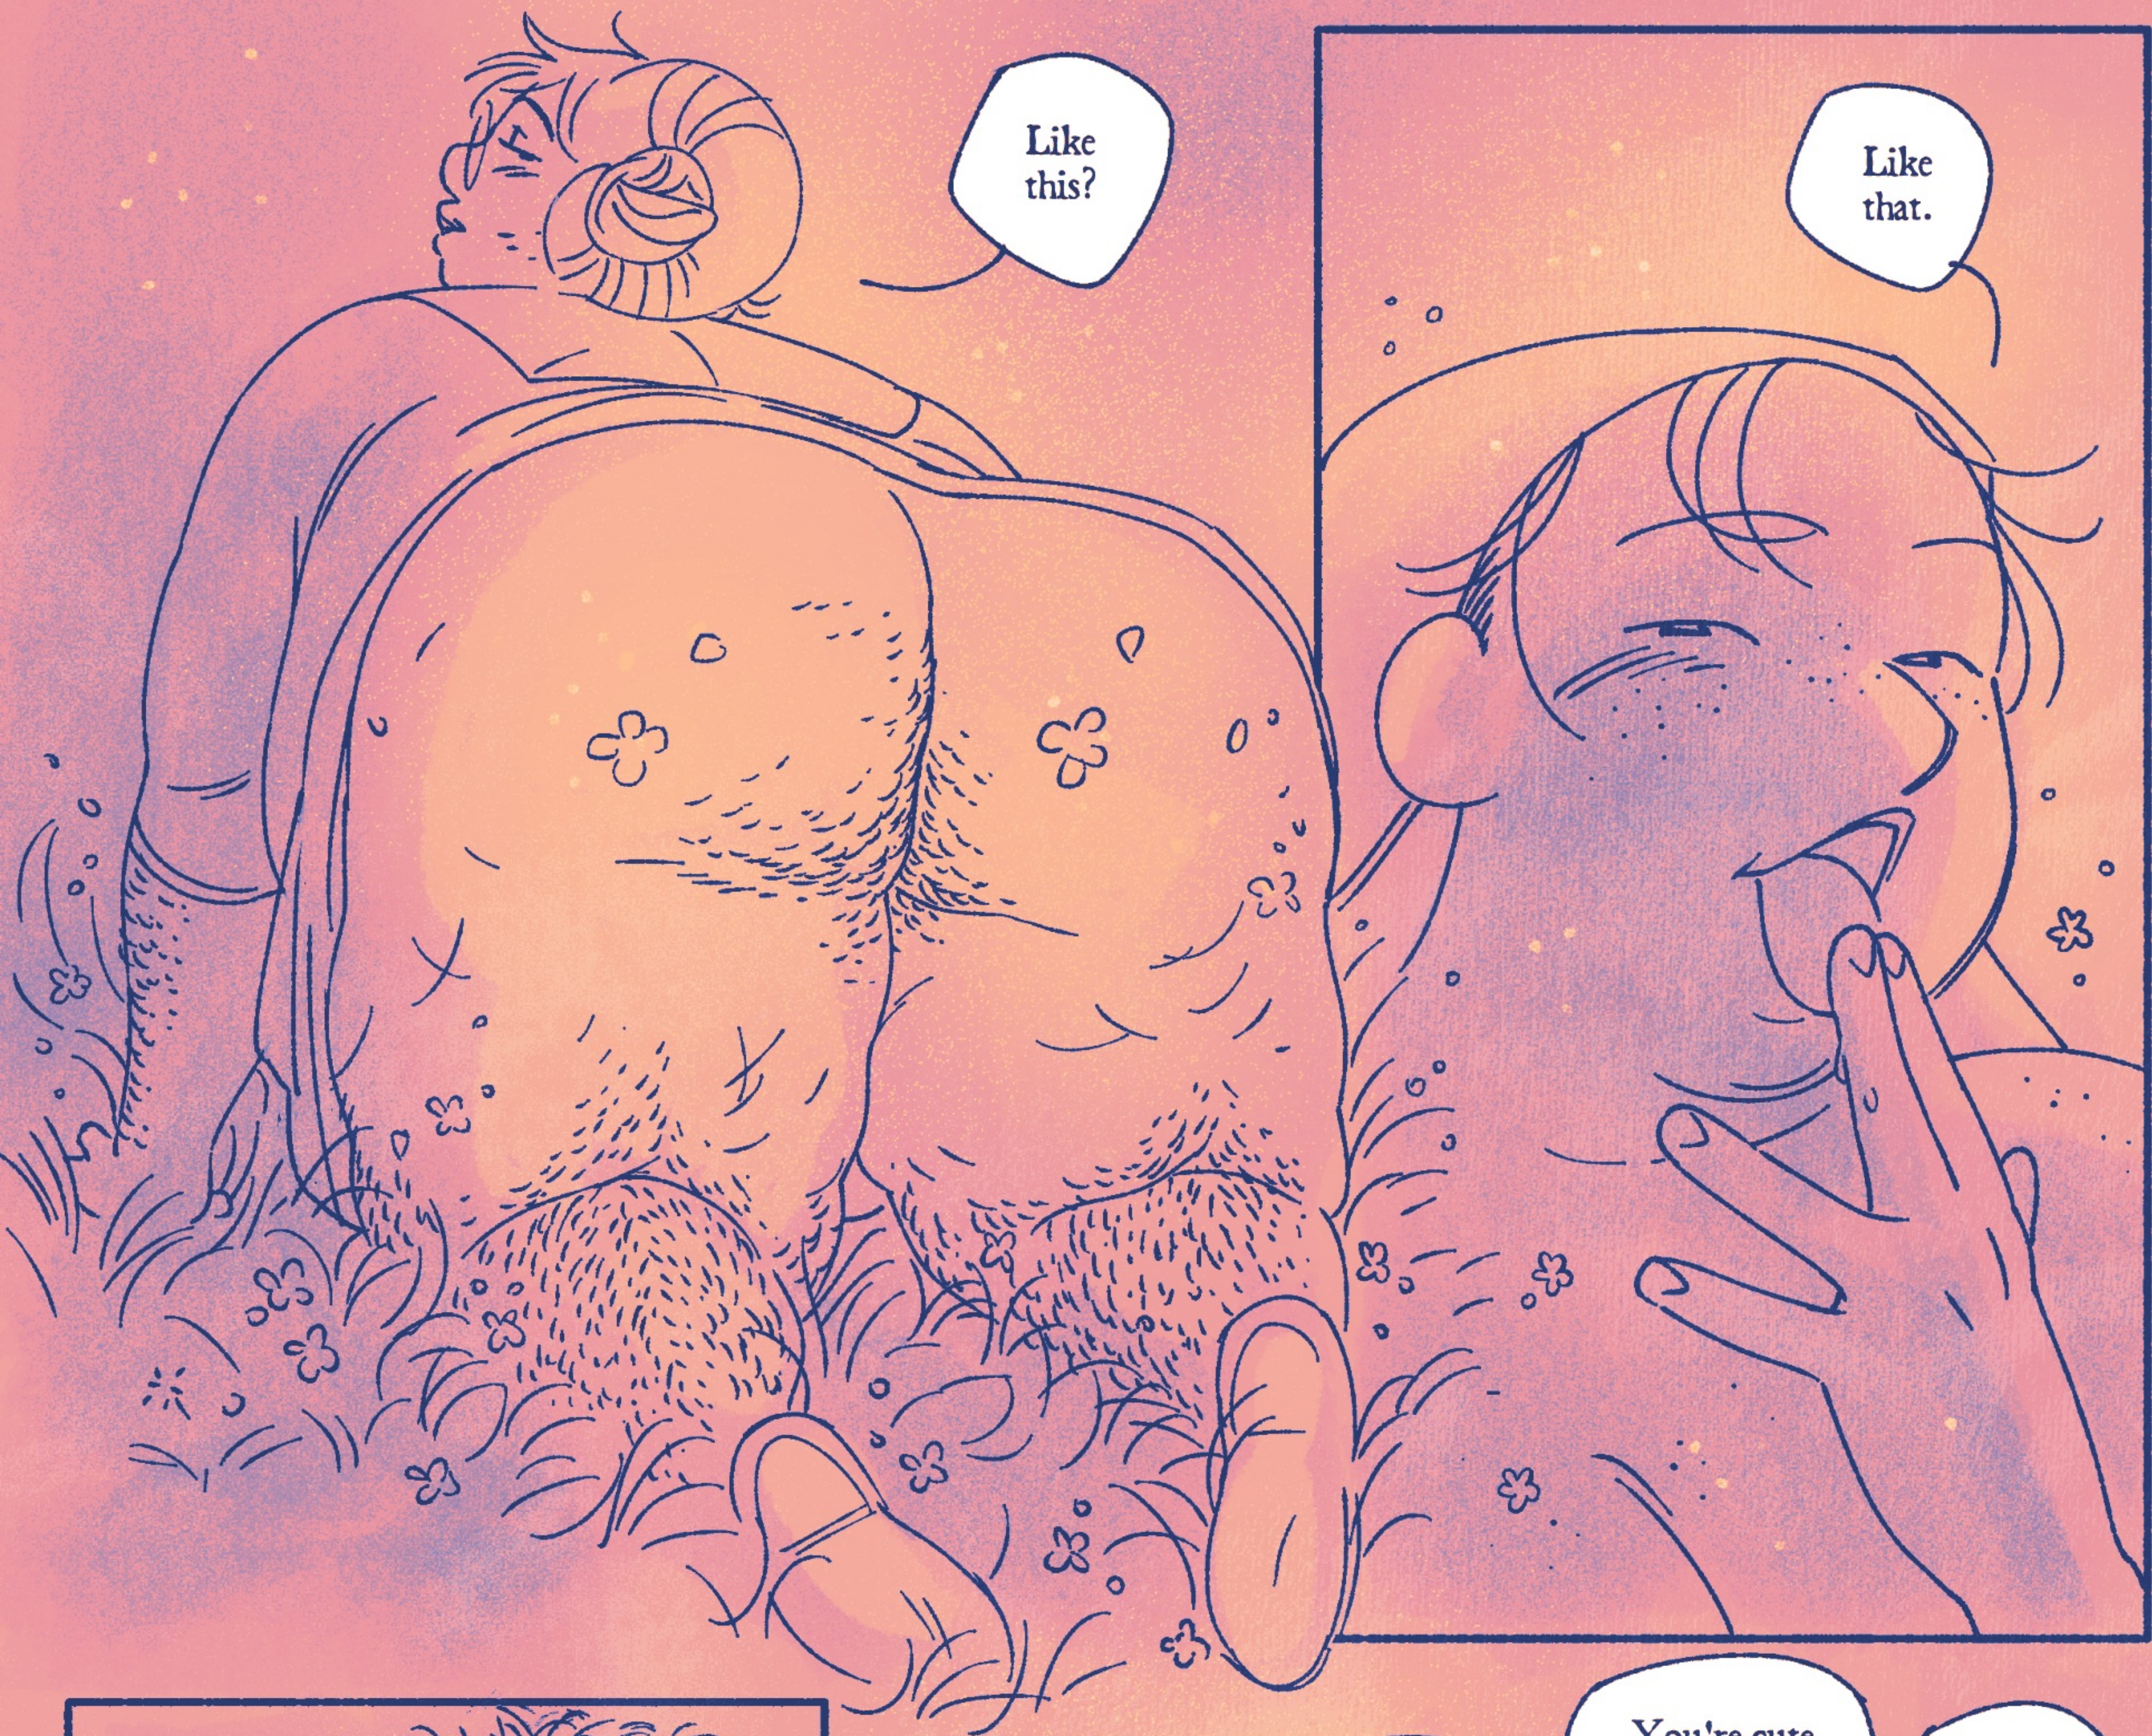

How did it feel...?
Having them grow in so slowly...

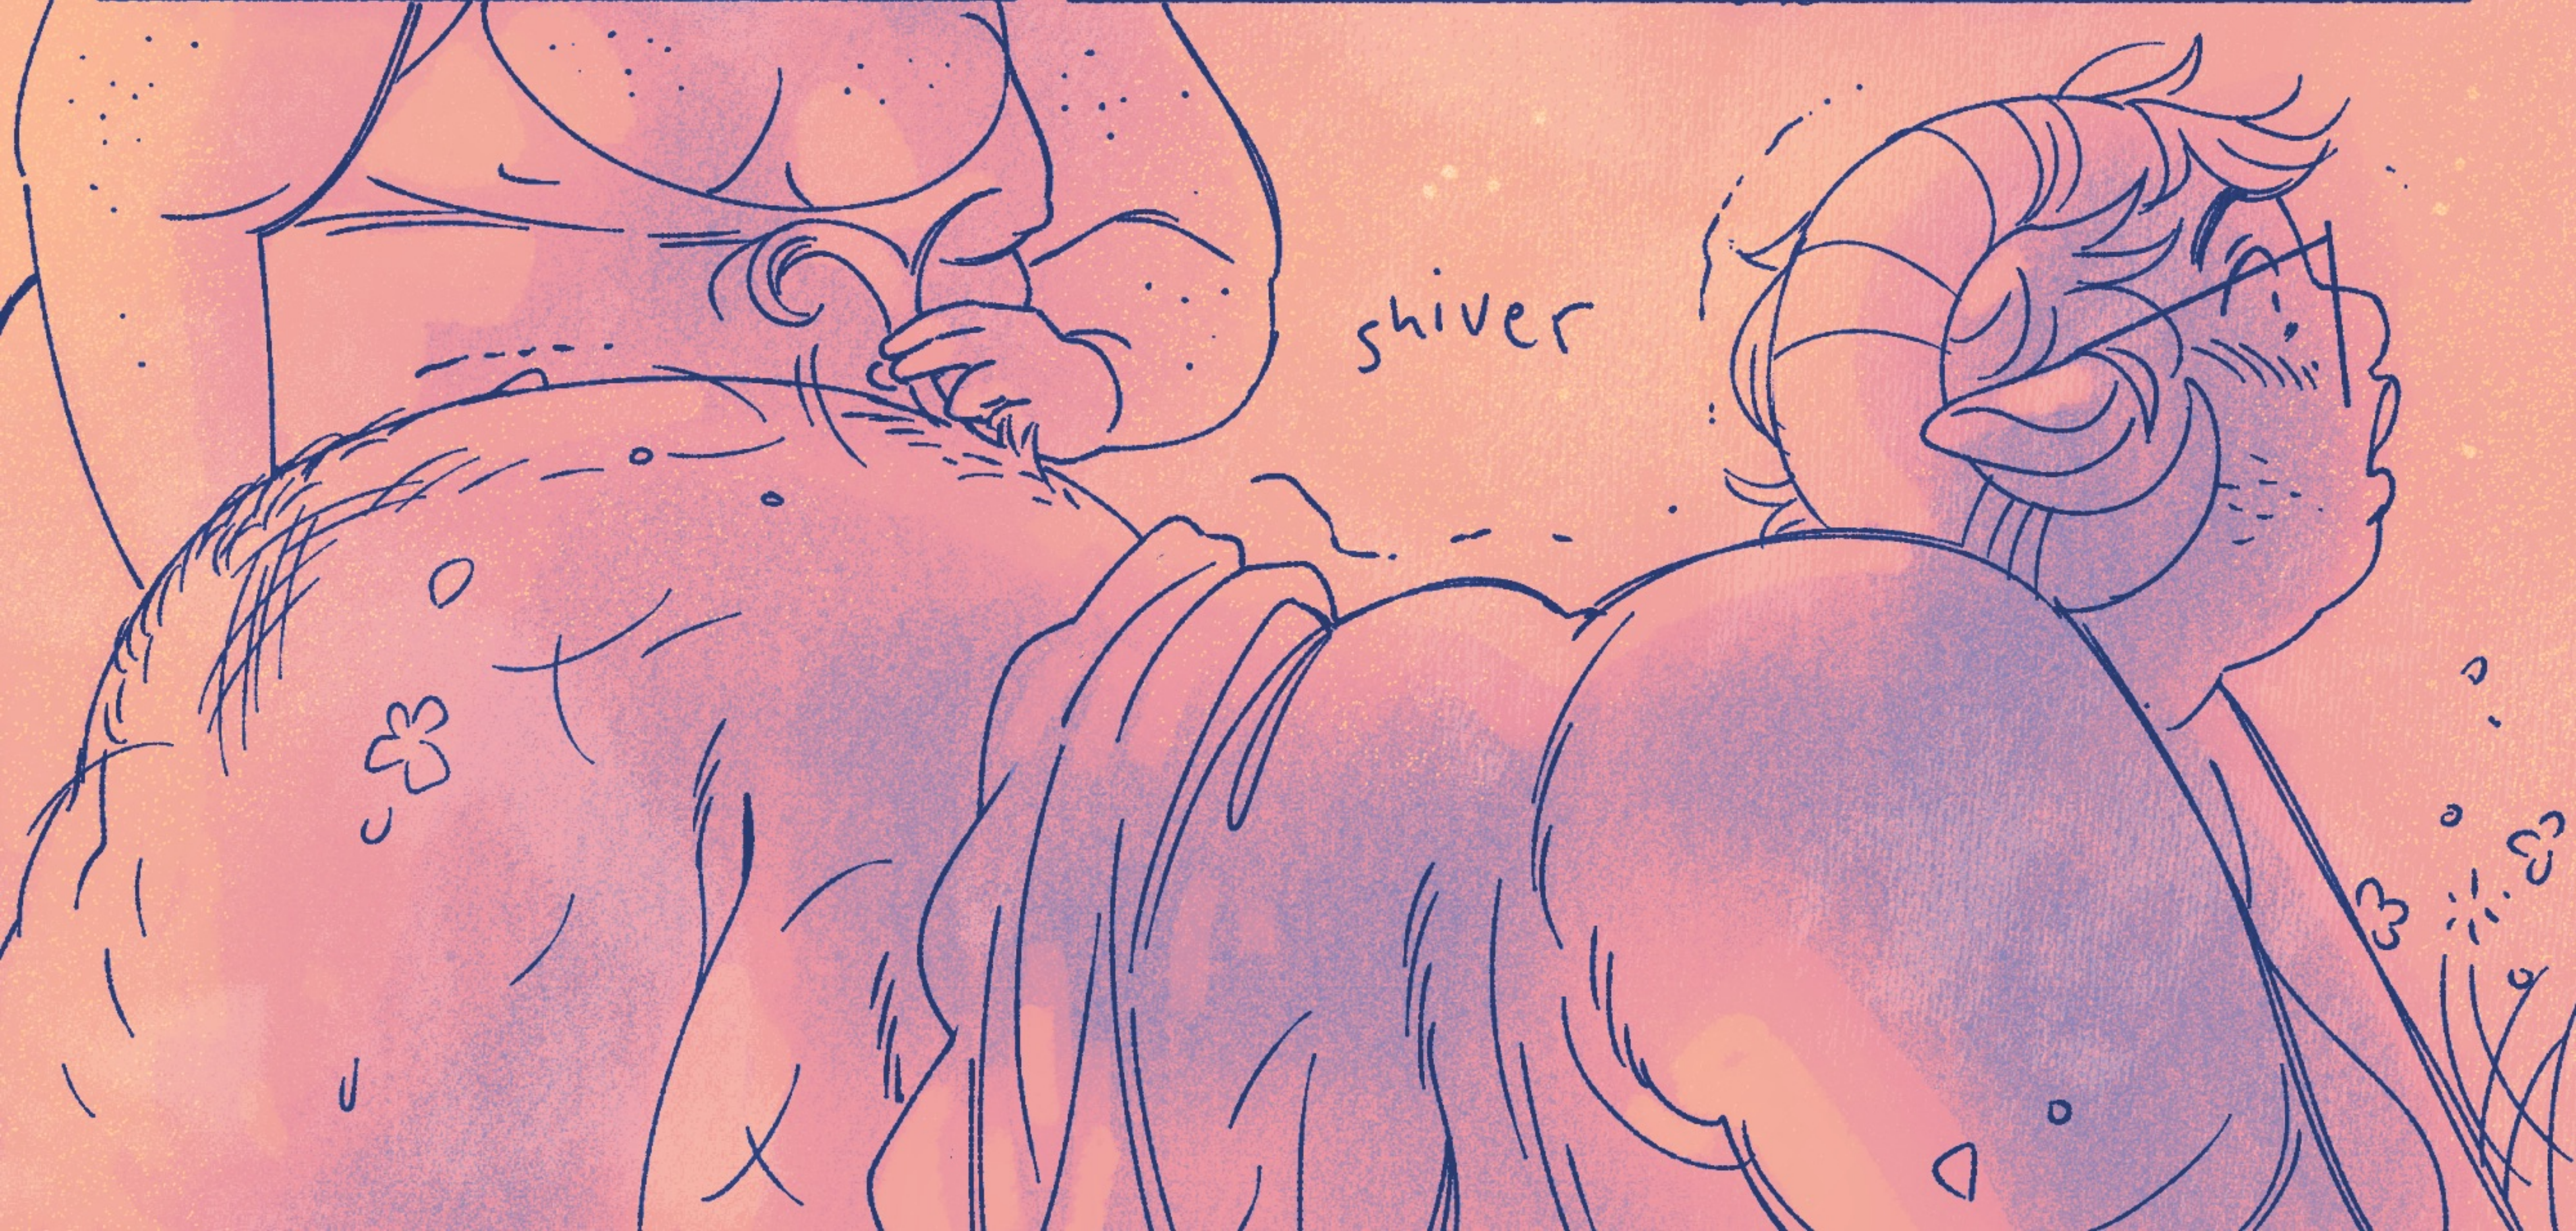

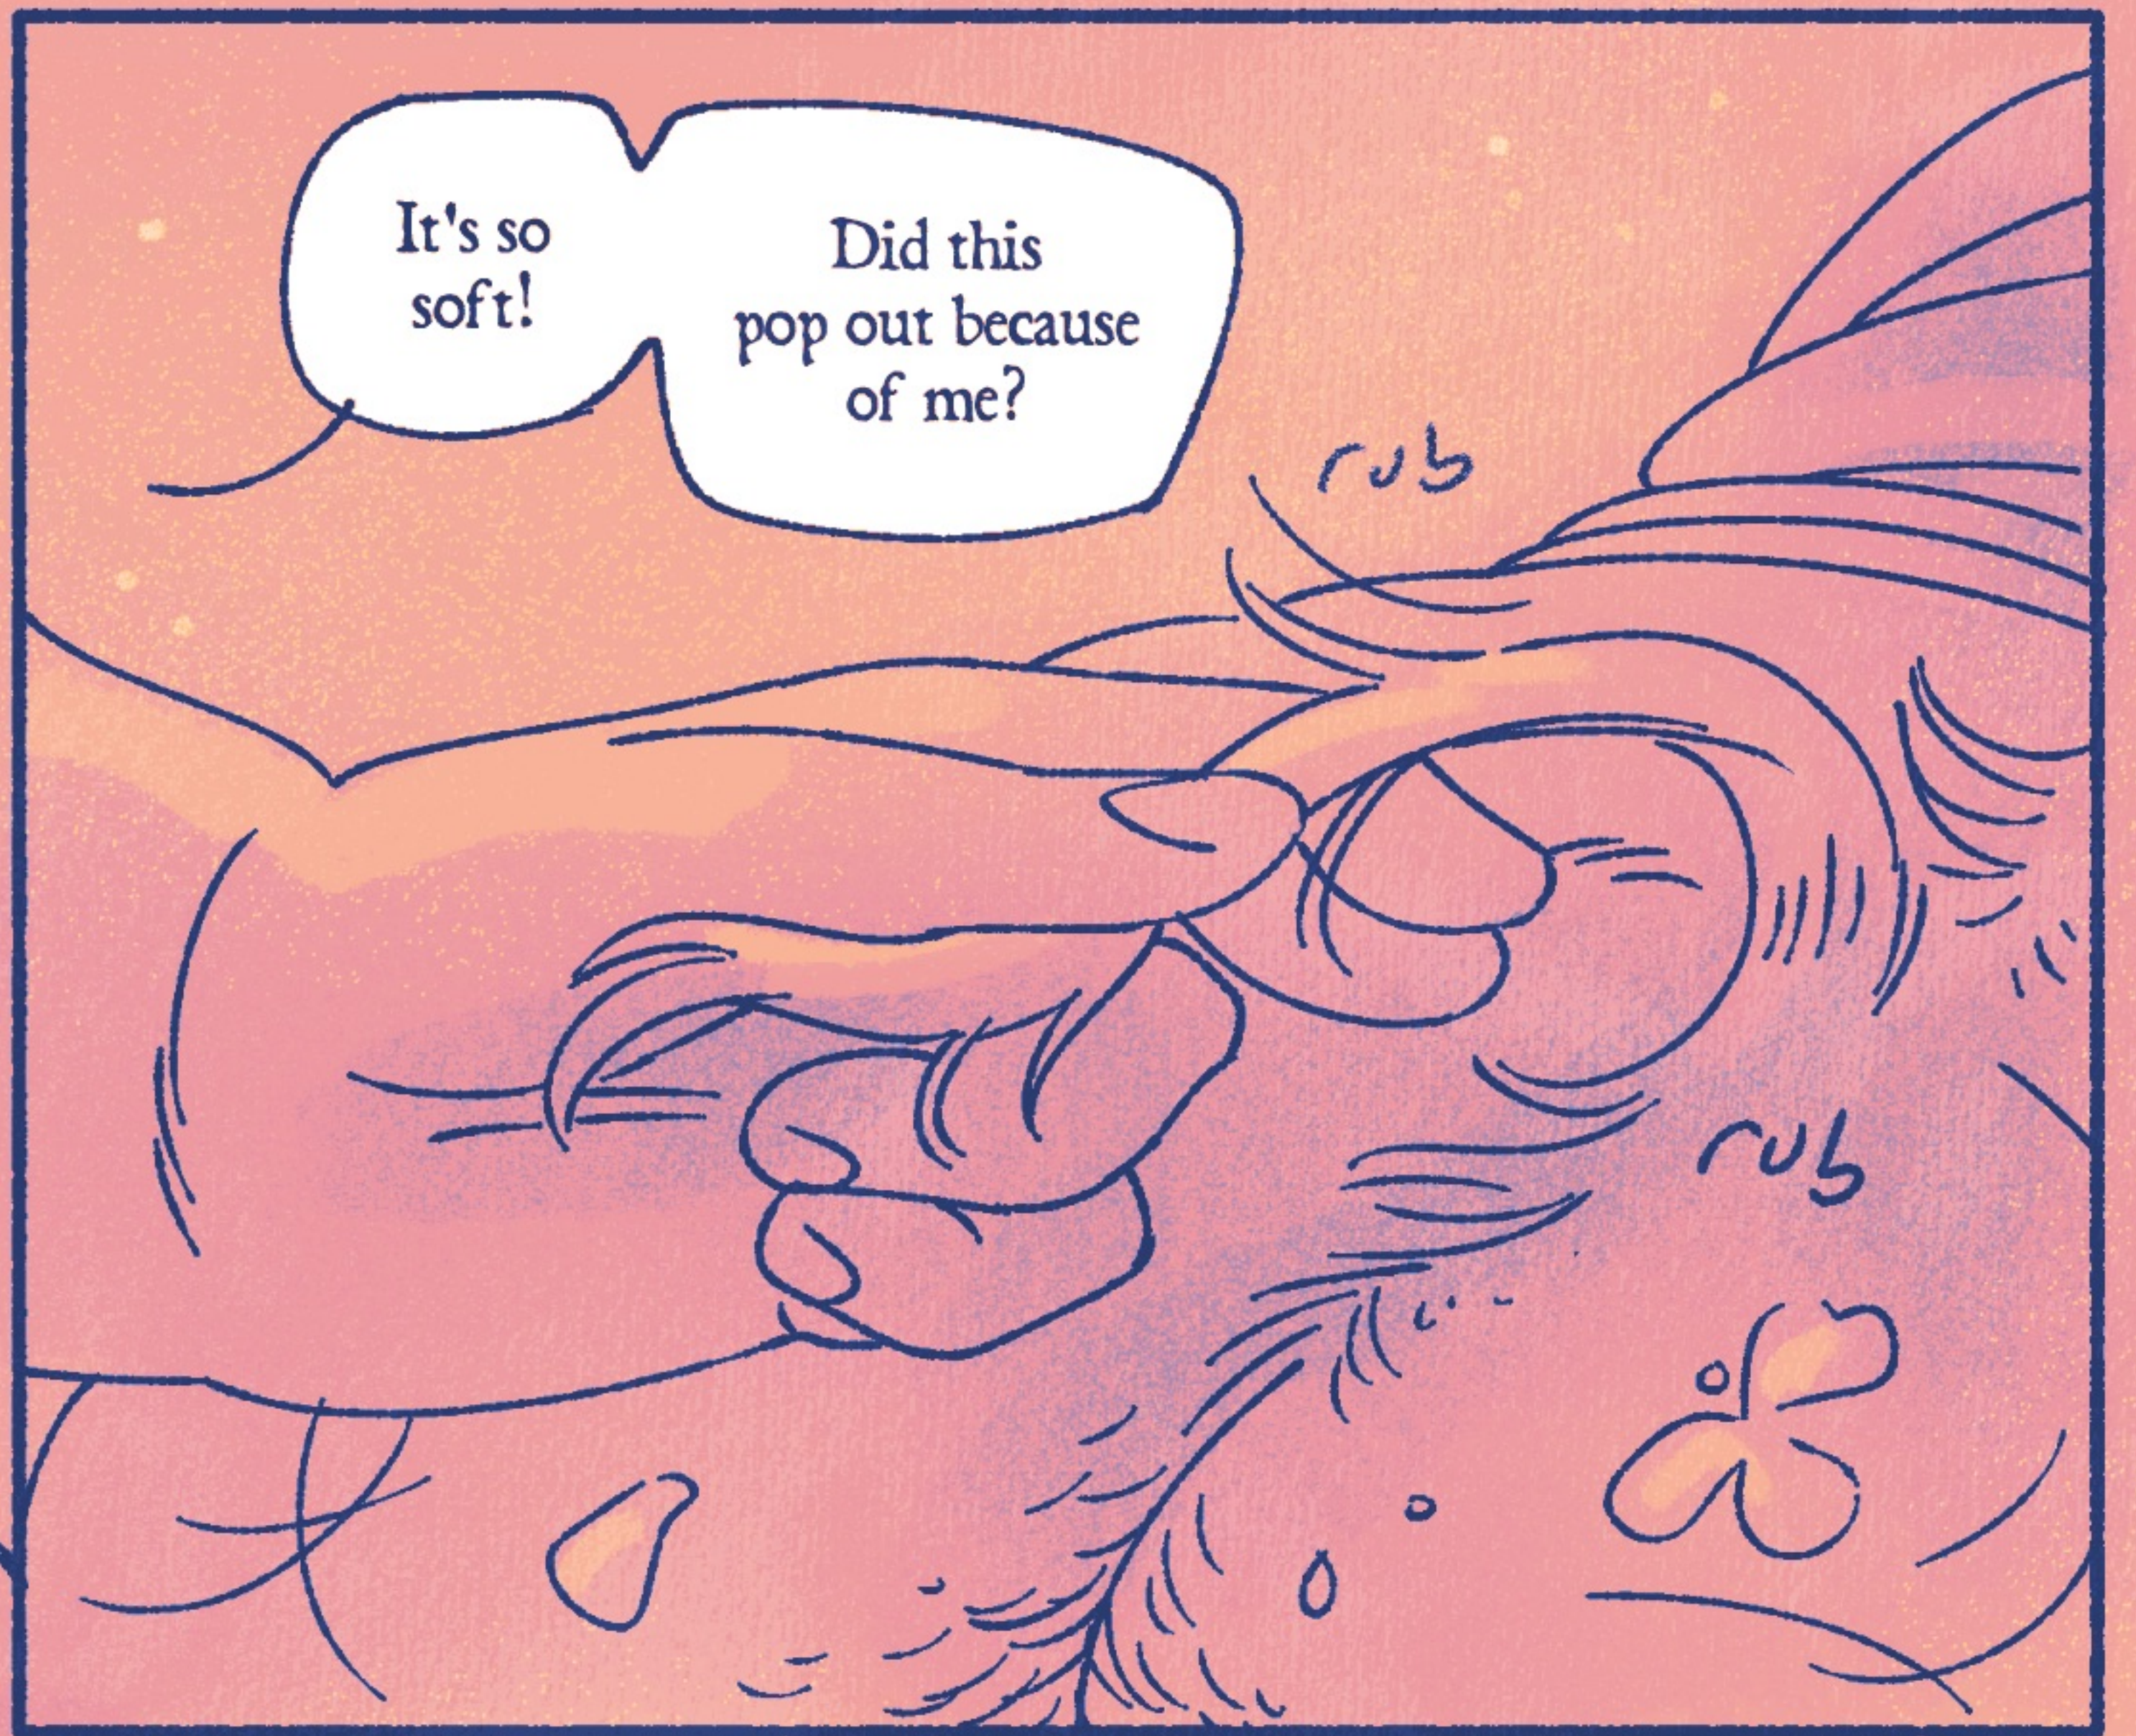

Oops!

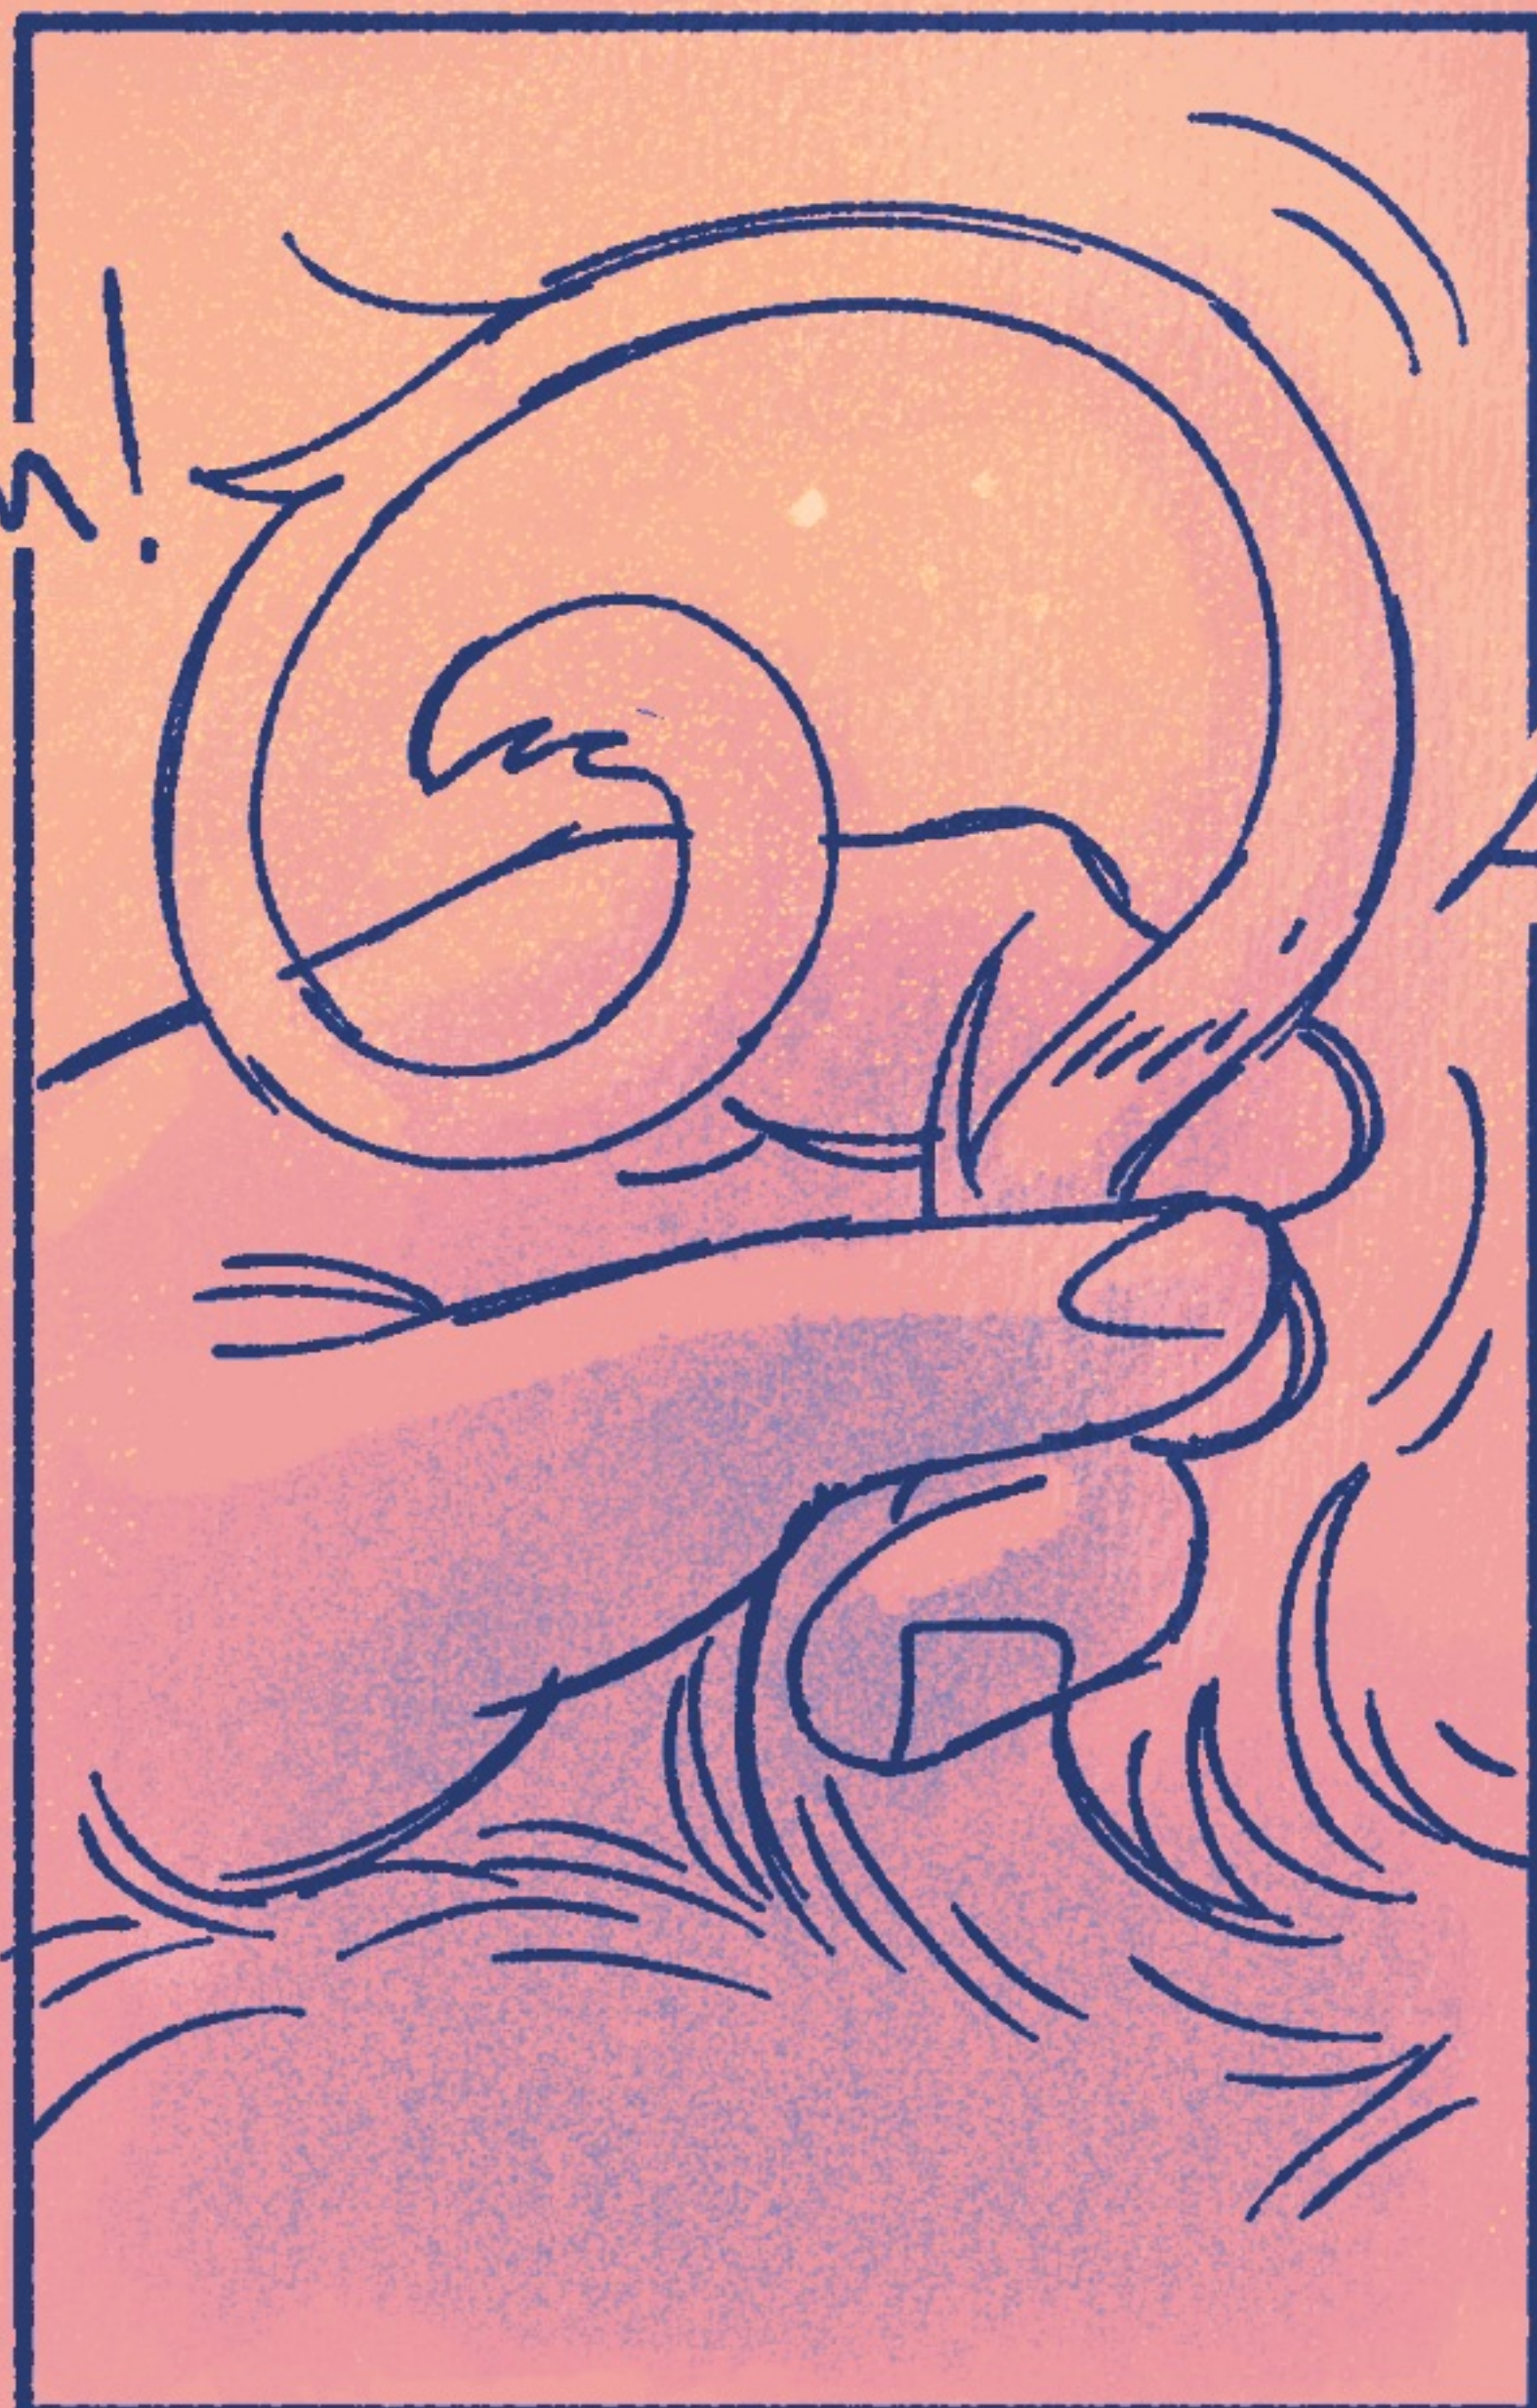

Oof-

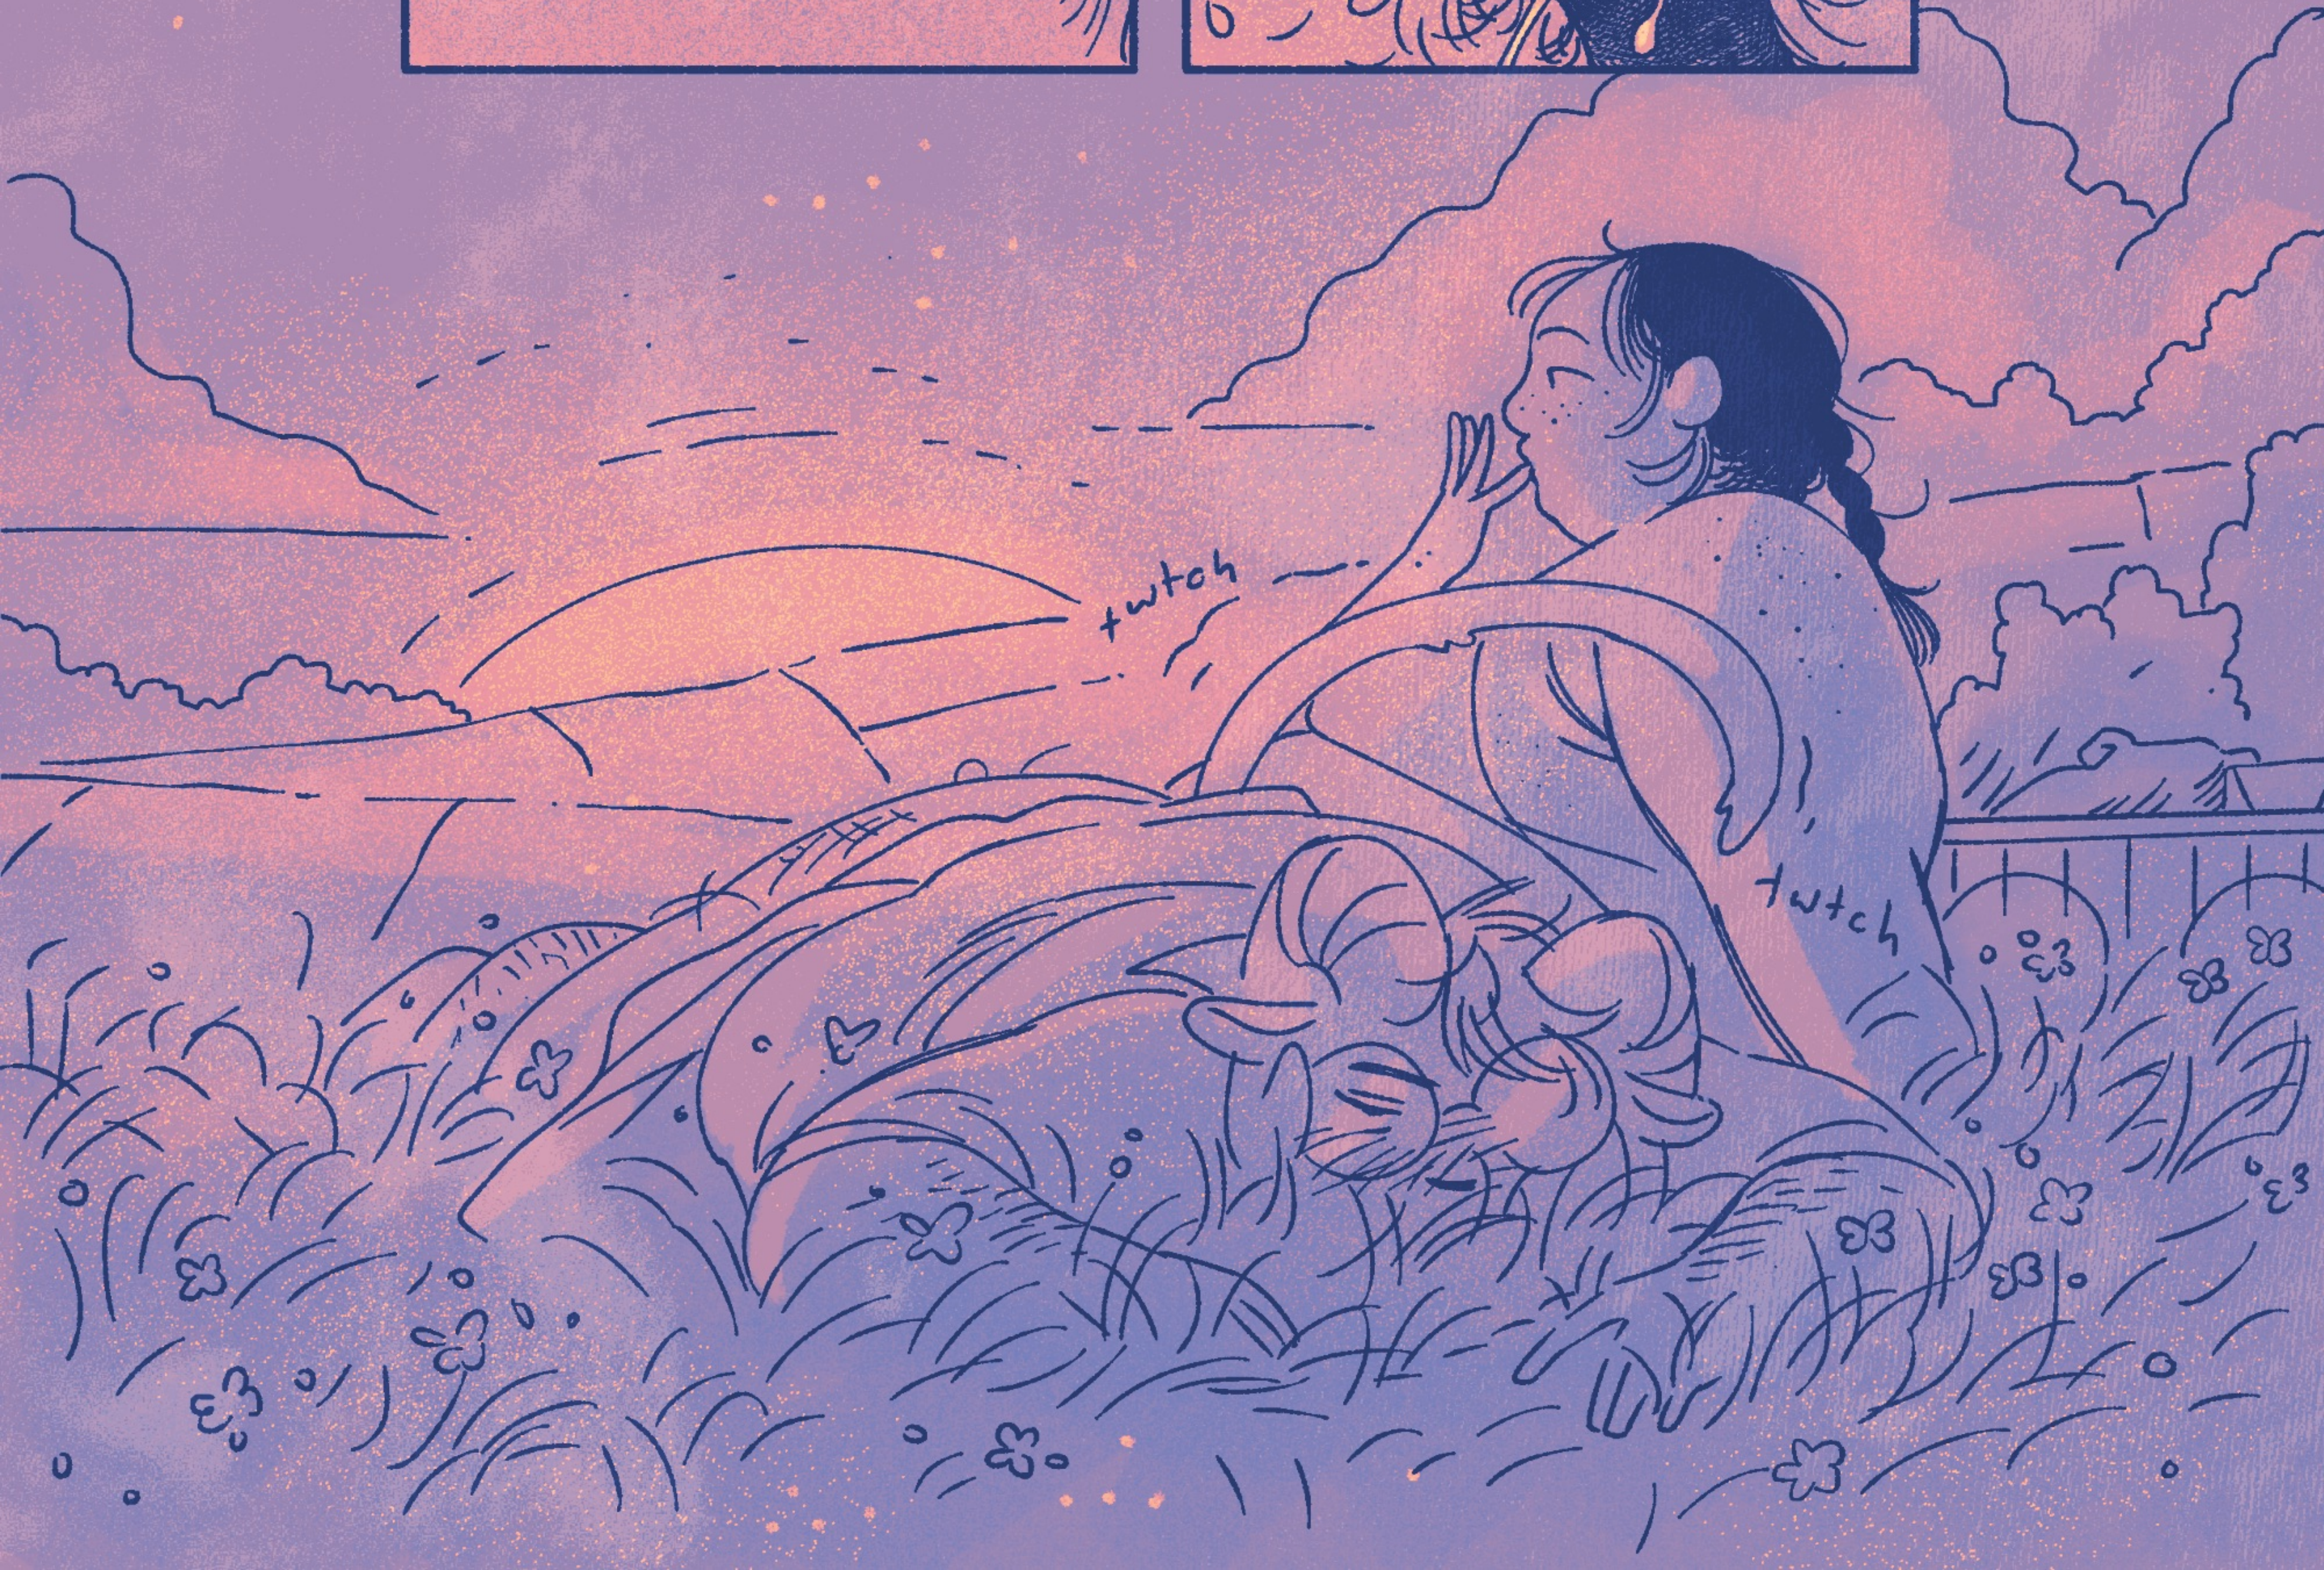

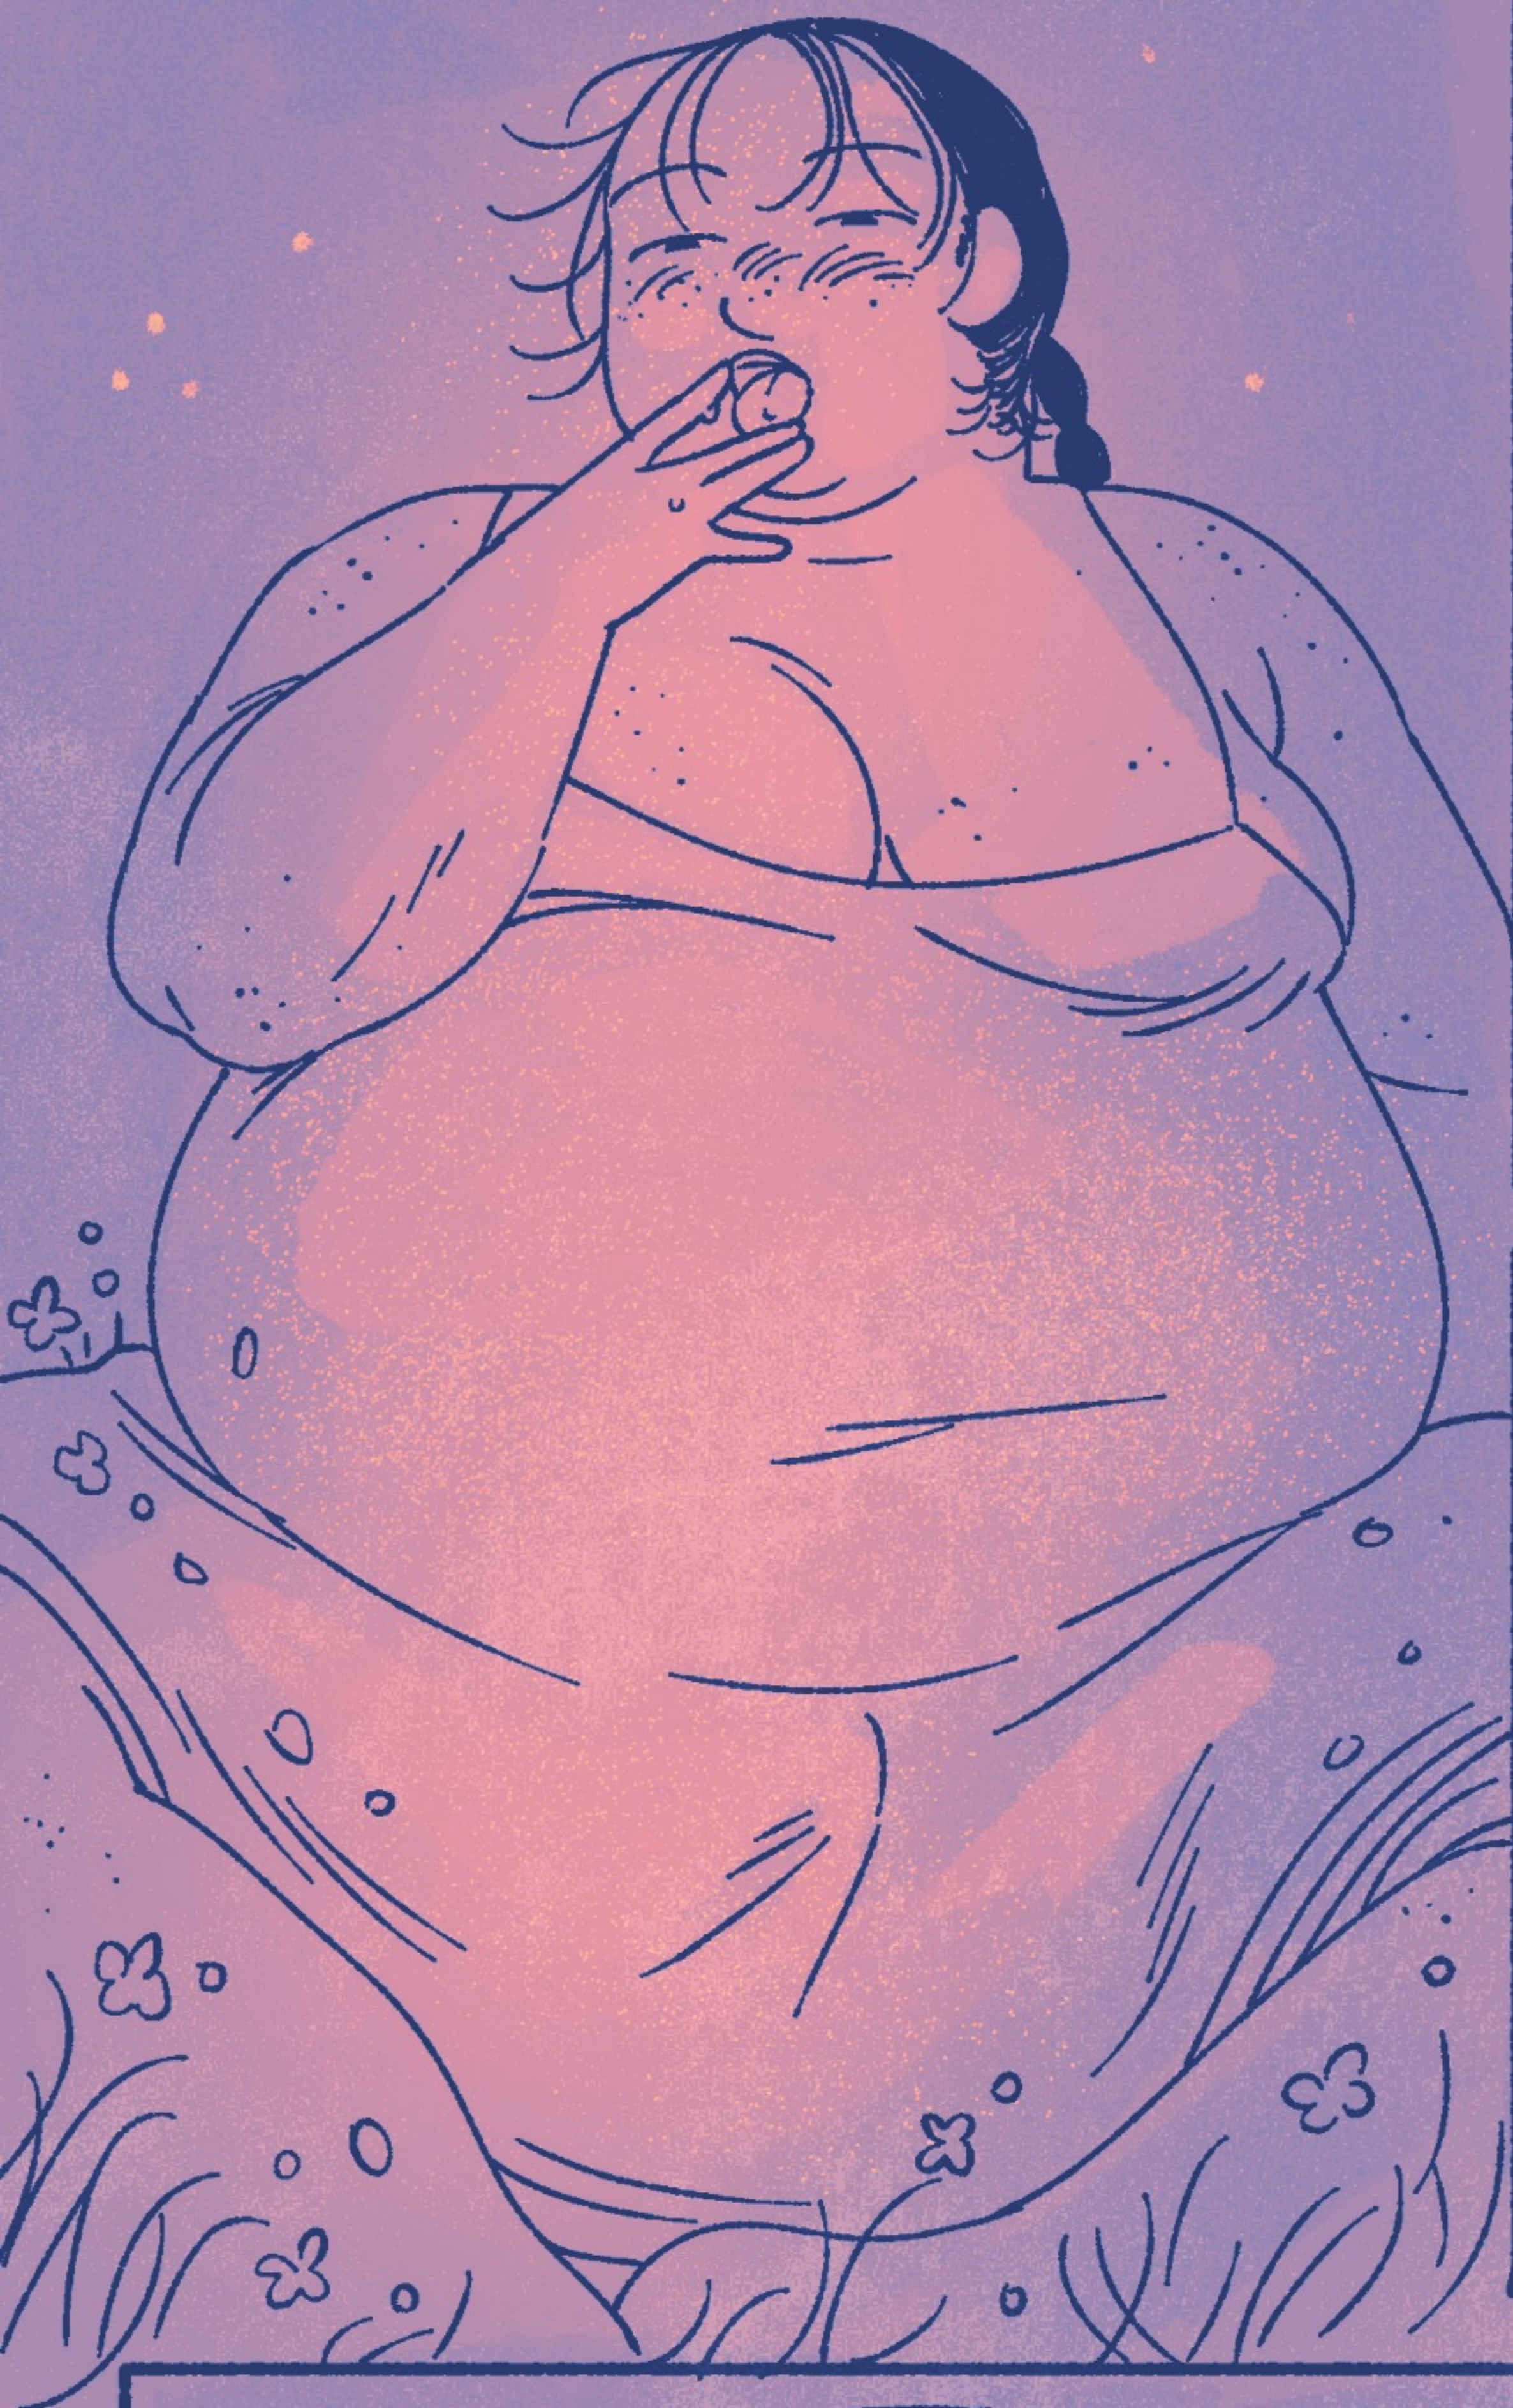

I think I needed that.

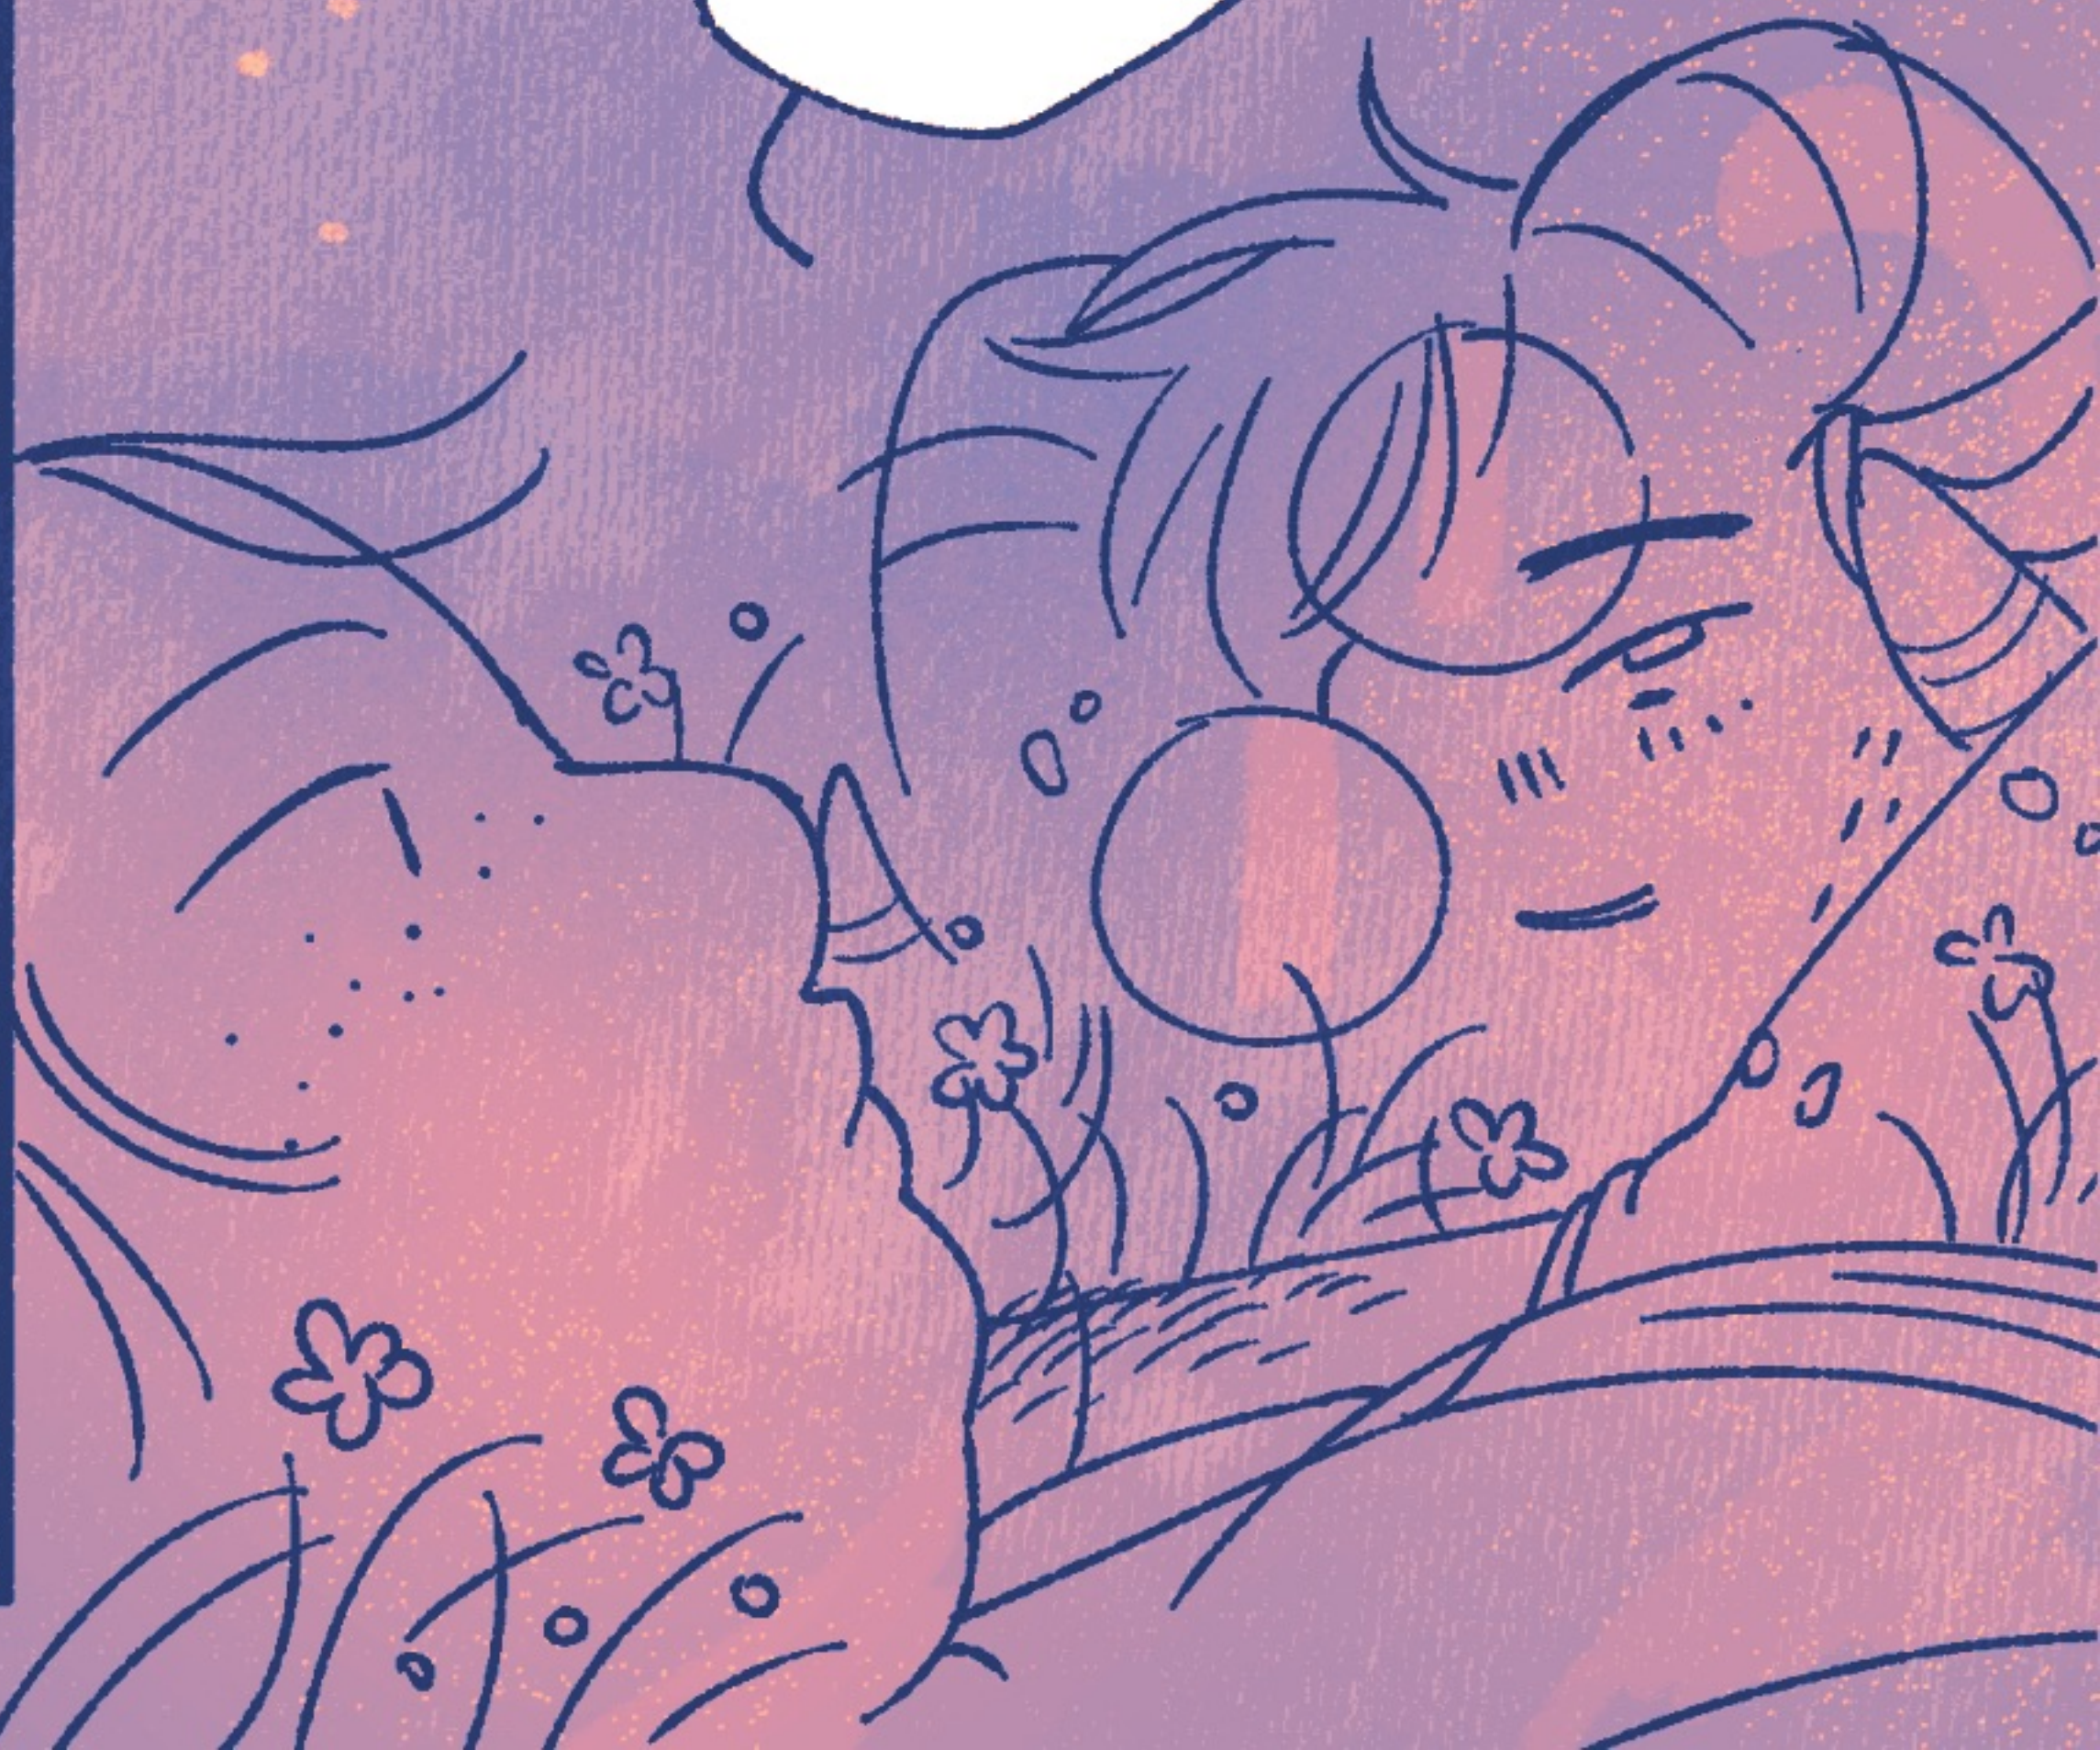

Agatha doesn't wreck your pussy of ten enough?

Har har.

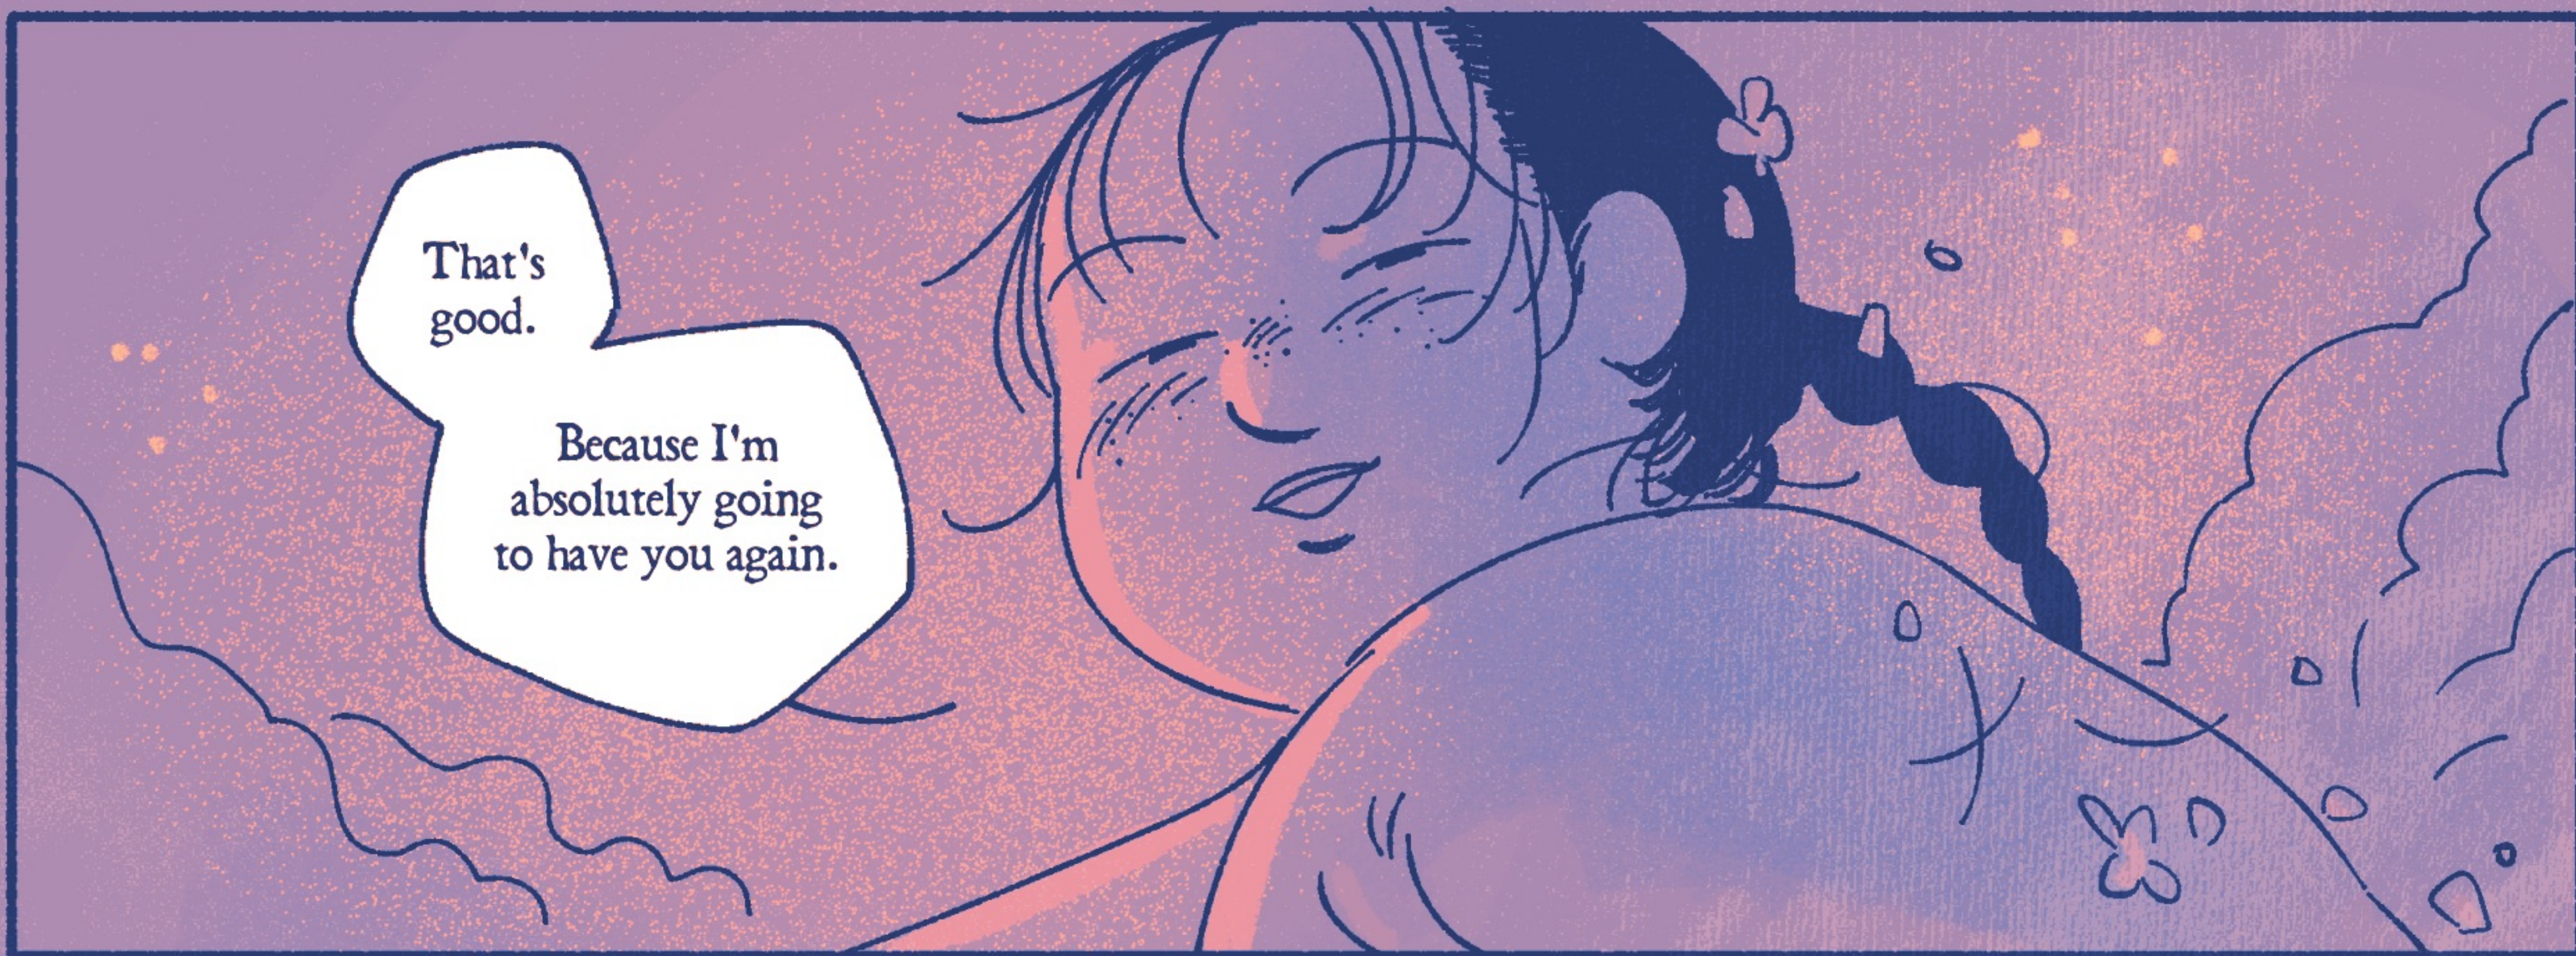

I haven't had sex with anyone but her since I started...

Since it started to happen.

So this was nice.

That's good.
Because I'm absolutely going to have you again.

I'm not going to pull the fucking wagon, by the way.

Ughhhh fiiine.

Next time can you please fuck each other after you've brought the things I need to cook dinner for 30 people?

No promises.
