CLOAK OF A THOUSAND HEARTS

Wondrous Item, uncommon (requires attunement)

This leather cloak has a glowing red heart made of silver and ruby on the chest. Every time you genuinely help someone, the heart glows in magic energy, and the cloak gains one gratitude charge. This cloak can uphold 5 gratitude charges at the same time.

Helping hand. When you roll an ability check or saving throw, you can spend one gratitude charge to roll 1d4 and add to the result. You can do this after the roll is made, but before the result is declared.
