Mako-Chii~ Reads: Growth by Destruction - Written by SGA

[Narrator]

Esme had always dreamed of being a giantess. She'd constantly search the internet for ways to get bigger, from chemicals to hypnotism but nothing so far had worked. However, one day she found something interesting.

[Esme]

Growth by... destruction?

[Narrator]

She read from the screen. It was a pill that would grow the user for any damage they caused to their environment. This sounded awesome to Esme, and she barely held her excitement waiting for it to be delivered in a couple of weeks.

[Narrator]

In time, the pills arrived. Reading the instructions Esme swallowed the pills with the last of her Soda, then found a surprising final instruction.

[Esme]

Then, smash this pill container to begin growing? Okay!

[Narrator]

Esme dropped the container and the glass smashed against the floor.

[Esme] (m is a moan)

m wow, was that? Did I really get taller?! Here!

[Narrator]

Esme took her now empty soda can and crushed it in her fist. Then, the feeling flooded through her again.

[Esme]

m Oh wow m yes! I'm growing taller m it's actually working! Aww, I need to break more!

[Narrator]

Looking around on her desk she found her text-books.

[Esme]

Ehehe, not gonna need these as a giantess!

[Narrator]

She opened the text book and began tearing pages out of it frantically.

[Esme]

m Yes! It's working! C'mon, give me more! m Yes, I wanna get taller, wanna get so much m bigger!

[Narrator]

Slowly, destroying the textbook caused Esme to spurt up, inch by inch taller. By the time she reached the end of the textbook, she'd just passed 6ft tall.

[Esme]

This is too slow, I need to do more.

[Narrator]

She looked again to see her computer, the heavy and expensive PC that sat beneath her desk.

[Esme]

grunt this is heavy... but not enough for me... Hyaah!

[Narrator]

She threw the computer as fast as she could towards the window, which smashed dramatically. Her computer continued through it and impacted hard on the concrete outside, also breaking into lots of little pieces.

[Esme]

m Yess! This is m more what I'm talking about m Clothes getting tighter m and tighter m Ahh, bye bye m shirt, guess you can't m handle my new and awesome m body!

[Esme]

Several moans to go beneath narration

[Narrator]

Esme's clothes broke off piece by piece as she grew, her skirt, then her bra, then her panties. She was soon left 8ft tall and completely naked, standing in her room very close to the roof.

[Esme]

Wow, that was incredible! But, I need more! Hmm...

[Narrator]

Thinking on her feet, Esme dashed into the kitchen. Here she found several more potential objects to destroy, the first of which again involved chucking something out of the window. This time, the toaster. The window smashed again and the toaster landed outside with an inaudible crunch.

[Esme]

m Yes, time to get m even bigger! Better sit down m don't wanna get m hit on the head. Although m getting so big, I'm gonna m have to break out of this m apartment soon. Infact m while I'm here m I better build up some momentum m

[Esme]

[Narrator]

While she sat down, Esme began to kick at and break as much as she could in the kitchen. Each damaged cupboard door or dented cabinet would only help to further fuel her growth.

[Esme]

m bigger! m even bigger m that's it! Yes m now we're really getting somewhere m and things are getting m pretty cramped in here already m time for my biggest destruction yet!

big moan

[Esme]

several more moans to go under narration

[Narrator]

Erupting out of the side of her apartment block, Esme landed on the grass outside with a heavy thump. Still growing from this new destruction of the wall, Esme now got to her feet.

[Esme]

m thanks so much house, you've served me well m but now, I need to sacrifice you m to get even bigger! m

[Esme]

[Narrator]

Esme then began to kick and punch at the building, knocking off bits of machinery and plaster as she broke through the wall repeatedly, making her way into the houses inside. Her punches broke pieces of furniture and equipment inside the apartments as well as the structure, all furthering her growth and the pleasure she was feeling.

[Esme]

m Yess! Grow faster m even stronger m even bigger m it feels so good! m I just can't stop! m yessss! m I'm going to get soo big m

[Esme]

several more moans to go under narration

[Narrator]

Passing the height of her apartment block she aimed a particularly strong kick at the building, cutting right through it and out the other side. From then on it took her practically no effort to knock the remainder of the building to the ground, her growing bigger and thus stronger all the time. Once she had destroyed it, Esme sat down on the remains and just enjoyed the growth ride out.

[Esme]

m this is it! What I've always wanted m always dreamed off m I'm finally becoming a giantess m and it feels so amazing m I've never felt anything so awesome m but still growing m still getting stronger m and I can get as big as I like m as strong as I like m I will be unstoppable! m undefeatable! m a goddess, even! m Ahh, the thoughts make me so excited m I'm so turned on right now m and still getting even bigger m look how small all those buildings are getting m I'm twice as tall as any of them now m and this growth keeps going! This is awesome m Ahh... I think it's stopped, wow.

[Narrator]

Standing up, Esme now rose to her full height, which was 30ft. Most of the buildings around her only came up to her waist

[Esme]

Ohh yeah, this is what I was waiting for! Finally, it's time to be a giantess!

[Narrator]

Esme ran at the nearest buildings and kicked straight through them, dislodging their whole structure. She turned her attention to the building next to it and did the same.

[Esme]

m and the more I destroy m the bigger I grow! m so I need to destroy everything! m so I get really really huge! m

[Esme]

more moans to put under narration

[Narrator]

The next building, Esme just leaned her thighs against, and as they rose up and swelled her weight became too much for the structure and she toppled backwards through it, landing on and destroying most of the house beyond it as well. Lying down, Esme stretched out as she grew further and destroyed more, causing her to grow even further and destroy even more! Soon however, she got tired of just growing through things and got back to her feet. The buildings were now much smaller than her, most down to her ankles.

[Esme]

m I think it's stomping time! m

[Narrator]

Esme began to stomp on houses with her bare foot, crushing them completely with each step. She stepped from house to house carelessly, so eager on getting bigger.

[Esme]

m Yes! Get squished! Hyah! m make me even bigger! m and bigger m Ahh, ahh, it's m getting too much... I m I can't hold on much longer m

[Esme]

more moans to put under narration

[Narrator]

Esme scoured around. Most of the buildings were the same and shrinking down by her feet, but one stood up above the rest. A tall cylindrical tower used as a tourist attraction, though Esme's present ideas were far from the family friendly attraction the tower was at the moment. She wandered over to it, growing bigger all the time. Then, she finally reached the tower, reached over and picked it up off the ground.

[Esme]

It's just the right size too, perfect. insertion moan followed by masturbation moans under narration

[Narrator]

Esme in a craze of pleasure stuffed the tower inside herself and began to masturbate. All her growth had been slowly turning her on, and it had just hit its peak causing Esme to desperately pleasure herself, her prior destruction still growing her bigger mixed in with the masturbation. She could feel the tower shrinking within her as she grew more and more massive, it was just too much, and Esme violently came.

[Esme]

climax

[Narrator]

The force of her climax washed straight through the tower, breaking it up as Esme fell backwards, exhausted. Her now gigantic body fell backwards onto the remainder of the city, crushing hundreds of buildings all at once.

[Esme]

m Oh wow! m Even bigger! m I'm still growing! m guess there is still more to destroy after all m let's see how huge I can get! m
