

HEROIC IDEALS

Scroll of Revelation #068

GOAL-BASED IDEALS

It is my purpose in life to...

1. {Save} Spare at least one evil soul and guide them down the path of redemption.
2. {Charity} Establish my own adventurer's guild with the soul purpose of giving away as many recovered riches as possible.
3. {Mastery} Not simply be "good" at my craft, but to become the best in all the realm.
4. {Legacy} Be remembered not as a lofty hero, but as a humble farmer who always did the right thing no matter the cost.
5. {Genius} Invent arcane marvels that have never been witnessed on this realm.
6. {Creative} Fill this world with as many beautiful pieces of art as possible before my untimely demise.

VACUE-BASED IDEALS

I believe...

1. {Science} The only way to bring about true peace is to engage in the support and advancement of the arcane sciences.
2. {Enlightenment} Reflection, forgiveness, and correction are the holiest of acts.
3. {Exploration} You should never spend too long in a place you've already been.
4. {Longevity} Whatever I create must withstand the ages so as not to be plundered by future heroes.
5. {Balance} Nature must be brought into our

- homes and communities if we wish to maintain balance between our worlds.
6. {Community} There would be far less war in the world if we simply came together more often to enjoy shared food and festivities.

EMOTIONAL-BASED IDEALS

I expect myself to...

1. {Ego} Attach my sense of self to my deeds rather than my personal possessions.
2. {Beauty} Admire the beauty of one's mind and soul rather than their appearance.
3. {Honesty} Never tell a lie, even if it would save myself from loss or direct harm.
4. {Humor} Always have a smile on my face and make others laugh as often as possible.
5. {Empathetic} Listen to others and put their needs before my own when possible.
6. {Grieve} Help others grieve their losses and show them that death is never the end.
