Sure, I knew what was coming
It's just, once faced with the reality,
you start having second thoughts,
you know?

That... and you don't seem to have on any panties.

We can spend all day worrying about whether or not I wore panties... or we can get started training for that gold medal!

Oh yes, this outfit selection was the perfect choice. This is going to make training so much fun!

Everyone starts somewhere...
these are those first steps
to the podium!

These pants are rather soft...

And don't worry. If today doesn't go well,
we can try out the back tomorrow!
