Raccoon city mash up

The burning police car made Yukikaze's trigger finger twitchier than normal as she stalked the dead ruined street. The air felt hot with the fires from upturned destroyed cars, boarded up smoking buildings, and long dead gory bodies that even with her one piece of a taimanin armor, a dark red and black leotard that buried into her large wobbly ass; the string between her ass did nothing to hide her tanned rear and tone legs, she felt unnaturally cold.

Though short in height, the size of a middle schooler, Yukikaze's figure is mature at least in the waist. Her chest, small mounds belonging to a child, formed small jiggling mounds under her suit as she scanned the burned, obliterated street.

"You see anything up there Zephyrmon?" Yuki called out to the sky to what looked like a bird. However, as it glided down to the ground it is a woman with large bird wings. Short light blue hair flicked in the dead wind of the city. Her leather armor could not contain the bouncing of her large chest, though her tone stomach is still shown to the world.

"Nothing but destruction."

A car was suddenly turned over out of the way of an alleyway. Her frilly, short black dress fluttered in the dead wind of the ruined city. It flew up for a moment to show a hint of the white leotard digging into her wide hips. A black blindfold, slightly hidden by her short silver hair covered her eyes.

"I detect no signs of human life." Another woman spoke as she lifted a car blocking an alleyway.

"It is as though hell itself walked through here...." Garbed in golden armor, the jiggling chains on her staff announced the priestess before she appeared out of the alleyway next to the girl. The fox helmet covers half her face but show her full purple paint lips marred in a curious frown. Her golden breast plate followed the heavy curves of her buxom chest while her black skintight suit is glued to her body. Not even trying to hide her large rear form swaying and jiggling with every click of her heels. Her hair, large twin silver tails, floated around her with some unseen power.

Sakuyamon whispered in worry, "All life here seems to have cased, and yet I cannot feel any sprites roaming...."

"Where even are we? The hell is raccoon city?" Yukikaze sighed. "Maybe I should paid more attention to those English classes...."

"Hold on..." Zephyrmon said as she narrowed her eyes. The air changed in the slightest that no one else but her noticed it feeling heavier. "I feel something coming this way."

"Something big is coming this way...this signature..." 2B said as her scanner showed a large object get closer to their location.

Large pounding footsteps echoed out the formerly quiet streets. They shook the abandoned cars and toppled trash cans as the looming figure got closer to them. Towering over them is a mishmash monster with his face stitched together in various pieces of skin. Yet he has no nose. With his skin pilled back showing the gums of his mouth and rows of human teeth. One eye, bulging out in pure white glared at them as he walked through the flames in a dusty, filthy leather coat covered in dirt and blood. Fleshy tentacles pulsed out of his body “STARS!!!!” The monster roared. Shaking the street as he tossed his head back in a blood curdling scream.

The cackling of the goblin and hissing of a lizard man joined him as they skulked from the shadows. Both of them wearing nothing but loin cloths and lecherous smiles

Two wolves howled as they jumped on top of the cars. Snarling at the girls seemingly in rage but it is clear from the red throbbing erection between their legs, feasting on the women is the last thing they have on their minds. They can even see tents in the loin clothes of the lizard man and goblin as they drooled with lewd ideas.

“Yeah, that is not human!” Yuki snarled as she pointed her guns at the massive monster. “Is that a goblin? Does Nomad have something to do with this?”

“Be careful!” Sakuyamon shouted as she raised her staff as the rest of them prepared for a fight.

PHASE 1

“Stay back beasts!” The priestess acted fast and created a sphere of magic around her allies. purifying the air as a magical shield covered every area around her allies. The clear bubble sparkled with a gentle warmth that protected everyone.

The shield did not deter one of the wolves. The wolf snarled as he jumped at the priestess. His teeth glared in that light of the full moon as he aimed to leave her bottoms bare so he could get rid of the erection bouncing between his legs.

However, his fangs and claws bounced off the fox priestess's shield. Knocking him on his side but only angering the beast.

"Heee heee heee!!" The goblin, licking his lips at the side of the lighting taimanin's bouncing tush, charged at her.

"Back off tiny!" Yuki flipped out of the monster's swing of his claws. Landing on her feet, the young Taimanin pointed her guns at the massive monster in the center of the street. Light green lighting sparking around her.

"That big guy is going down! Eat this!" Yukikaze smirked as she rushed forward with her guns crackling.

"Wah!?" However, the young taimanin did not notice the broken car door in front of her and tipped over it. knocking her on her face, the rookie taimnain left her large fat ass in the air as she laid dazed from her blunder.

The other wolf bares his fangs at Sakuyamon. His claws scrapped at the wet ground as he dashed towards the priestess with nothing but lust on his mind as his thick, red erection bobbing in the wind. Leaking precum as it flicked up and down with it's greedy lunge.

Wolf (1) tires to attack with advantage

MISS

His speed was enough to push past the barrier for a short moment for his fangs to latch onto Sakuyamon's tights. Barely scratching her skin, but mainly pulling apart the fabric to reveal her bare crotch. Topped with thick silver hair, the priestess's bare groin is shown for all to see as well as part of her bouncy, pert rear.

"Damn beast!" The priestess yelled as she swung her staff to push the lustful canine back. Only for the hound to easily jump out of the way. He spat out the pieces of her armor out of his muzzle and licked his fangs. His tail wagged at the sight of her groin while his viney cock twitched in need. Nearly humping the air, the viney member taunted the sprite medium with a long drool of thick pre-jizz being flicked at her.

Sakuyamon snarled in disgust and took up her staff in a defensive position.

“Stars!” The monstrosity on the other hand lashed out with its tentacles towards Sakuyamon and Zephyrmon. They ripped out from his back and one of his arms and surged forth in a hurricane of wiggling arousal. Slimy appendages with bulbous perverted tips lunged at the two digimon with the intent to bind them.

However, Sakuyamon’s shield blocked them. They bounced off the barrier while Zephyrmon glided and weaved through them. Spinning and flipping through the air, expectingly gliding between perverted limbs as they tried to gabbed her. Twirling just before a tentacle closed in on itself, she dived toward the towering monster like a bullet.

“That monster is mine!” The winged Digimon howled as she gathered strength in her claws and surged forth towards Nemesis’s towering form. Glow a bight sea green as wind roared from her bladed nails.

Her claws light up in bright green as wind magic roared through them. With a violent roar, she slashed upwards. Trying to send the beast’s soaring in the air as a tornado whipped and slashed around the monster. A tornado the size of the budlings around them raged and boomed around the battlefield. Slicing up the bio monster as it roared in pain.

“Raagghhh!” The monster raged against the wind to keep his ground. Swing his arms to bat away at the fairy before she could do any more damage. His clothes and skin were covered in scars but no real worse for wear.

“Tch! Careful its hide is tough!” Zephyrmon shouted as she ducked away from the monster’s swing.

The lizard man looked at the ensuing battle beside him. Turning pale at the power being thrown around he looked towards a more appealing target in Yukikaze's prone form. Her large tush is still in the air as he made his long tongue trail across his maw in delight.

Yukikaze is still stunned.

“H-Hey!” Yuki snapped as the lizard man grabbed and pushed her on her shoulders. Spreading her legs above her head and forcing her toes to touch the ground. His dual cocks flipped up his loin cloth. They looked menacing with their impressive girth and length throbbing against Yukikaze's crotch. The members over stretching along her groin far enough for a thick drip of cock slime to drip on her face. The throbbing, warm weight of them on her pussy made her shiver in what she prayed in horror. The only thing protecting her pussy is the thin fabric of her taimnain suit however that was easily pushed aside by the monster's tongue as he kept his claws on her full thighs. Caressing and marveling at their softness as he hissed in delight. Pointing his cocks down at her exposed holes.

“Wai-ngh!” The young taimanin bit back a moan as the reptile slid both his cocks in her asshole with not a single care for her protests. His smooth, tapered shafts both slide in and over stuffed the tiny taimanin's cavernous, tight anus. Hilting his cocked to the base of his waist as he hissed in delight. Both members throbbed happily as they rested in the belly of the tanned gunner. Creating a lump in her gut that threaten to tear her suit.

“O-Oohh~!” And then the monster started thrusting and Yukikaze started moaning. “S-Stop you-ha~!”

The lizard man's thrusts are slow at first. getting used to the tightness of the young demon slayer's asshole. Eventually, he gains a hard, rough rhythm and started slamming down into the lighting user jiggling rear. Getting sharp cute moans out of her as she tried to hold back the tingling sensation racing up her spine and towards her cunt.

“Scanning...scanning...target confirmed. Engaging target.” 2B's analyses confirmed that Nemesis is the bigger threat as she took out a pure white katana, glinting in the fires of the over ruined city, and aimed it at him.

“Fire.” She said coldly.

The wolf licking its fangs as she glared at him and his bother circled her.

Squeezing her cute tits to get a moan from her furious lips. Gritting her teeth, she struggled to hold back her sweet cries from the monster's two dick rampaging in her. The cocks throbbed separately from one another, creating a continuous loop of shock riding up and down her body. But they both stretched and rubbing her sensitive asshole with relentless fever. ### PHASE 3

START

The light around the party dims, flickers, and then finally dissipates as Sakuyamon's spell finally dropped. Much to the delight of the wolves circling her as they licked their maws. Their cock throbbing even harder than before in anticipation and sinking into one of the noble woman's holes.

However, the priestess set her sights on the larger problem of the massive monster roaring at 2-B's pod firing at it. Readying her staff, she pointed it at the monster. Small, slim ghost fox spirits gathered around her. Cutting the air to cool as a mist formed from their cold souls.

"Go!" The priestess sent the sprites raging forth at the horrid creature.

Sakuyamon attacks Nemesis

Result:

"STARS!" the monster however gave a massive roar that shook the area. Dispelling her sprites as they vanished before they could even get close to him.

The wolves saw this as a chance to strike at the prettiest with her shield down she would be easy prey and lunged out at her. Jaws are open and members needy.

"Ha!" Sakuyamon senses their intent and flies up just out of their fangs. While the goblin gritty from his strike on Zephyrmon set his sits on 2B as she battled with Nemesis.

The goblin's claws ripped through 2B's skirt as she did not notice the little monster sneak up on her from behind. Her large rear, eating the fabric of her leotard, shook in the monster's face as she jumped away from his prying hands.

"G-Get off of-ngh-me!" Yukikaze struggled as she pushed her hands on the needy reptiles drooling maw. His sock still throbbing hard in her as she struggled to hold back the growing lust in her body.

Mind break roll

Though Yukikaze's cunt spammed and sprayed over her, showering both her and the lizard man in her lust, she kept her sanity. Still, her moans began to echo out through the dilapidated streets, as she held strong against the lizard man's feverish pounding. His own cock is being lovingly choked by the young taimanin's rear. Thumping faster as his release is not too far behind his anal fuck toy.

Stretching her wings, the fairy digimon soars in the air above everyone. Getting a better view of the battlefield, her eyes glared down at the tentacle swing monster. Nemesis snarled and roared at her as his tentacles continued to miss her at every turn.

“Gligamesh slicer!!” A tornado of wind raged throughout the field. Tearing up the ground, blades of wind slashed through cars and the street. Knocking stone that slammed into Nemesis and the beasts on the field.

Sensing the sudden change in the air both wolves scampered off in the alleyway. The goblin raced under and upturned car and hid in the glove compartment. Both of them just barely avoided the powerful gale that roared down the street. The lizard man, already deep into Yukikaze, got his face cut by the wind while Nemesis was pushed back by it. Making them both disoriented as stone and debris buffeted them roughly.

The lizard man took his anger out on the young taimanin as he slapped Yukikaze’s thighs. Repeated hard smacks burned the young taimanin’s dark, full legs. Leaving stinging red marks on her tan skin and getting a chuckle out of the monster as Yukikaze let out a heavy moan. His cocks still slamming down in her mercilessly. Pumping down in her asshole far more easily now that her lust has coated the both of them. Though it did not make it any less tighter as both cocks thundered with the need to release their seed. Making the growing and shrinking lump in Yukikaze’s belly shake just as much as the rest of her body.

Thicker than any humans, it is slick with sweat and the pre-cum that is oozing from its tapered tip.

The wolf didn't hesitate nor care for which hole it slammed into as his bright knotted prick into her asshole. stretching her to her limit as the knot rammed inside her. The hound's tongue rolling out of his mouth as his cock pleased and hummed inside the priestess. Moving his hips left and right, shaking his cock side to side in the priestess to get used to the suffocating tightness of her asshole.

“Wha!?” Too busy watching the more important threat of Nemesis, 2B did not notice the goblin sneak up on her and trip her with a sweep of his leg. He knocked the curvy Android to the ground allowing him to jump on her stomach. His cock slapped at her pussy, before slamming right into her asshole. Getting the android to grunt as the girthy thing stretched out her rear. Her hips instantly rise off the ground from the pleasure roaring through her. Her body shook wildly as she bellowed out in the middle of the street. Nemesis's massive, hearty cock still rampaged inside her making her eyes roll in the back of her head as well as her hips as she began to roll in time with the monster thrusting.

Nemesis's tentacles continue to thrust and wiggling violently inside Zephyrmon. Two of the thick, wormy appendages thundered in and out of her pussy and random intervals. One would fully pull out. Dragging it slimy lust covered member along her body as it's sibling would pump inside her with reckless abandon before shoving back inside her. Making her back arch in a ruinous moan that made her swallow more of the seemingly endless, wrist thick tentacle bending and wiggling in her mouth. The last three blinked in and out of the Digi woman's asshole at such a rough, brutal pace that there is a worry of them catching fire from slamming so hard in her. Her belly having an endless wave of lumps bubbling and bulging outward.

Nemesis's cock is giving Yukikaze no quarter either as her moaning grew weary as her tongue hung from her mouth. Her eyes started to go in a haze as she started moaning more outwardly. Nemesis's tentacles wrapping around her small breast to squeeze at her small nipples. Pulling them to get a torturous sigh from her as he pounded down into her.

The wolf in front of her was worried for a moment when he felt his cock pop out his mouth, but that has wavered away when he felt his new slut’s tongue drag along his cock. Licking up the spit she drooled over his musky, thick shaft before burying her face in his testicles.

FAIL

Zephyrmon's eyes, blurry from the dust from the explosions, shook open as she surveyed the battlefield that has blown to high heaven thanks to 2B's explosion.

The priestess and the taimanin are cum filled quivering messes. Their legs spread with the monster's seed oozing out of them while cock happy smiles are etched on their faces.

The monsters all lay unconscious on their backs. thrown every and anywhere from the explosion that 2B's silent body laid in the middle of.

"S...STARS..." Save for the behemoth pulling himself from out of the rubble of a budling. More than a few scarps and cuts, Nemesis did not look fully fit for a fight, but he stood tall none the less. There is a massive piece of glass stuck in his head. But he pulled it out and stalked over to her. The lumbering monolith of a monster loomed over the weakened digimon. Her are feathers everywhere as her wings dropped weakly over her. Her body quivered in both exhaustion and lust as her nipple poked hard through her clothes.

Zephyrmon tried to gather the energy to stand.

But she couldn't even do that.

"Ah!?" The monster picked up the Digi woman by her short fairy blue hair and slammed her over the car she was blown into. Nemesis shaft, throbbing with as much life as he is, slapped between the wind digimon's supple cheeks.

"Oohhh~ Naahh~..." And all she could do is give a weak moan. Beaten into nothing more than a whore for the monster to use.

With her ass raised in the air, Nemesis pushed his cock back in her and slammed into her like a mad beast. His testicles flying up and bashing her clit as Zephyrmon arched her back and let loose a throaty whorish monad as her mind snap into. But her moans became silent as the monster pinned her head back down on the ground while he railed away at her.

The tentacles coming out of the monster's body gave a few harsh sharp smacks on her rear. Punishing her for trying to fight back against him but all Zephyrmon could do is moaned and weakly wiggle her hips. She is already slobbering fuck toy as her tongue drooled over the metal of the vehicle and her hips bucked back into him. Her slutty moaning woke up Yukikaze and Sakuyamon form, not from their slutty mind however as they crawled over to their new master and harem mate as her eyes grew blank from another orgasm running through her.

Nemesis did not grunt as his cock fired off a sticky thick load of cum inside the wind digimon. His hands only tightened a little around her head to keep her still as he filled her greedy cunt with his seed. Her belly grew twice inside from the sheer amount of his load.

With a harsh pop, the beast ripped his massive dick from his personal fuck hole and let her drop to the ground. cum pouring out of her gaping pussy as she shuddered and quivered on her knees. Letting Sakuyamon and Yukikaze clean up his messy dick with her tongue slurping and sucking around the massive cock as much as they could Sakuyamon tended to his undercarriage while Yukikaze showed her greed and tried to swallow the whole shaft. All the while Zephyrmon looked on with cold lust clouded eyes. Just another broken whore in this land ruled by Nemesis.
