Here I Am

It seems that a lot of you like to email me to see what I really look like. I'm not proud of it, but I suppose I'll post it for you. I guess it's better to give everyone what they want rather than to just ignore them. So here's me. I will warn you that I'm currently in my work clothes because I work overnights and weekends in information technology. The job never sleeps! So anyway, here's me. Please be gentle.

Bra and Panties

So I've received enough encouragement through other outlets, and I really can't believe I'm doing this. I really can't. But... well, here's me in my bra and panties.

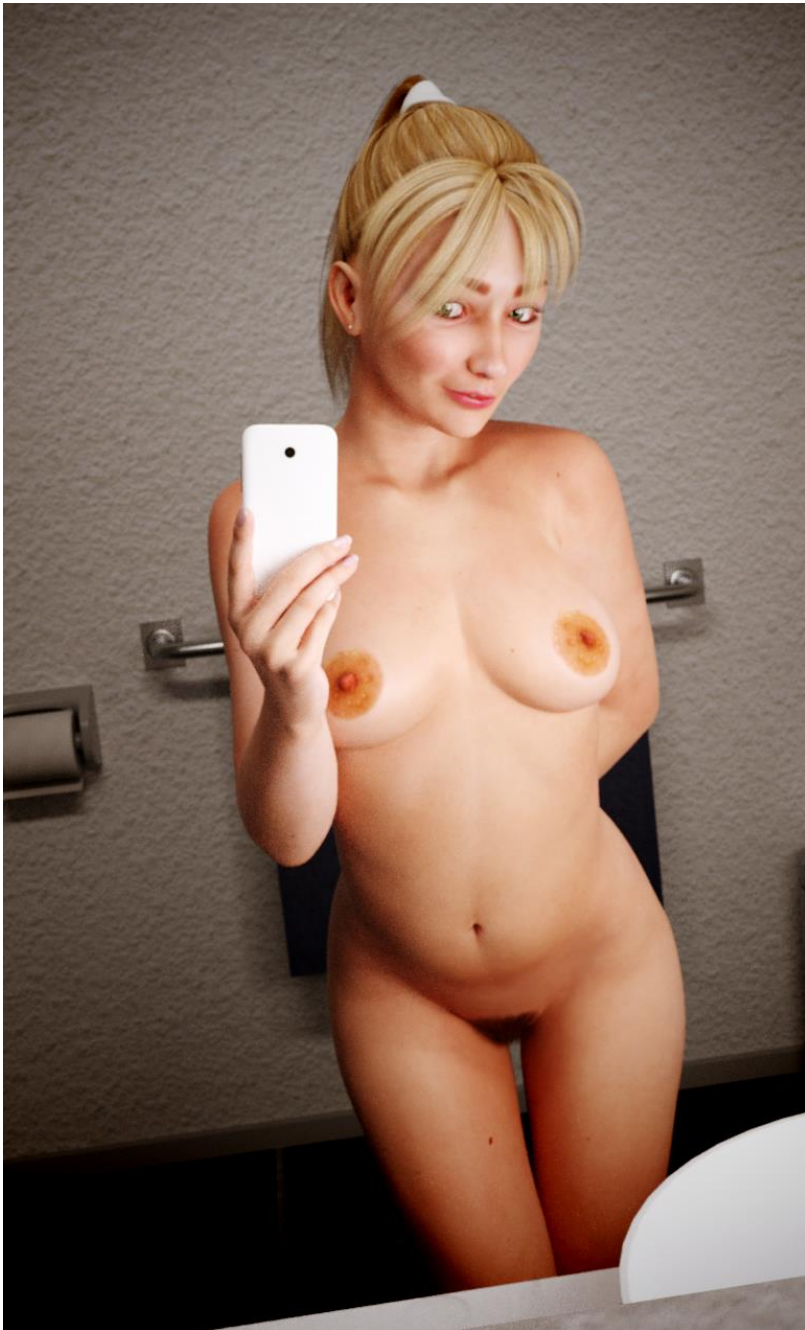

I'm trying to look happy about it, but it's kind of tough when you're as embarrassed about it as I am. I don't know. It's just weird to pose like this. I feel so bare. I don't know if I like it, but a promise is a promise. And no, that's not a penis. It's just the sink faucet, you weirdos. I'm not taking a re-do picture though. You asked for it and you got it.

Oh Alright, Fine.

You guys really are perverts, aren't you? Don't get me wrong, it's what to expect from folks following a blog called "The Bimbo Way" but I must have gotten 20 messages asking me for nudes. I figure I can limit the viewers of this blog to strangers and make sure that nobody at work knows about them, so here it goes.

There. I hope you sillies enjoy it. I've never done anything like this before, so you're all probably just a terrible influence. I guess I don't mind, though.

What the French???

So, TGIF! I decided to take some suggestions and go to the nail salon today! I was so shocked at what they were able to do, as you can see!

They took great care of me. I was able to relax and get a foot massage while my nails were French tipped. This is the type of nails that a bimbo should have! I mean, being a bimbo is a fun goal, but I never thought that I'd be able to say that I have some bimbo looks! They girls at the salon did an absolutely fantastic job, and they said that I should come back in a few weeks to get a new color, if I wanted! I might take them up on the offer!

Inking? What was I thinking????

Sorry I didn't post yesterday, everyone. I'm still getting used to typing with these nails. Hehe. It's tougher than I thought. I try to type with my fingers themselves, and the nails just keep getting caught in between the keys! I suppose if I just click the keys with the nails, it'll be better. But yesterday I decided to go out and have some more fun. I'm a bit of a lonely girl with my job and all, and I'm not really adventurous. So I decided to step out of my comfort zone and I got a tattoo!

Yes, it's real. It looks a lot bigger in person, too. I'm so proud of myself!

So again, your help and suggestions would be appreciated. Normal bimbo posting will resume later today/tonight.

Amanda

Face-ing the music

Okay, I have to acknowledge this. I have a real problem. Something with me just is not right, and it's the fact that my hair is atrocious! I thought that keeping my hair in a ponytail would be fine but the girls at the hair salon are encouraging me to try new things. They combed out my hair and straightened it. As you can see, my roots are showing. That's no fun at all. I didn't have time to get a full treatment, but the girls took care of my eyelashes and eyebrows too!

I've got an appointment next week to get it colored, because the color artist is booked solid until then. Can you believe it? I have to walk around with these nasty roots for a month! Eek! I love my new straight hair, though. Maybe I can just say that it's a fashion statement? I don't know who will believe that.

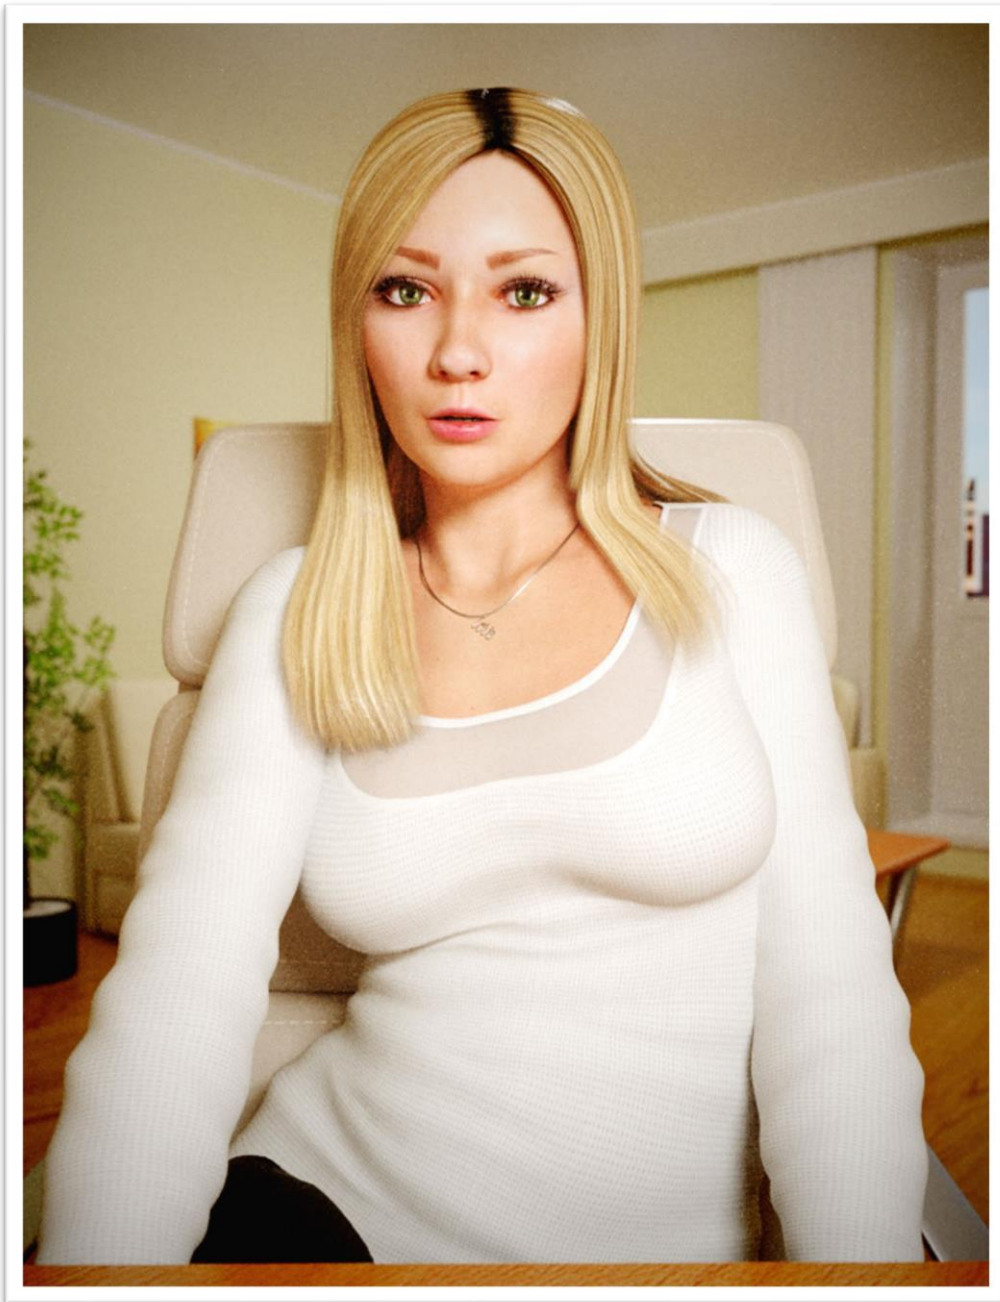

I'm sure I've been more embarrassed in my life, but this is right up there.

Doctor's Appointment

Hi everyone. I'm off to my doctor's appointment now, but I wanted to snap a picture. I decided to wear something prettier that showed off my figure more. It's just something that made me feel like a woman rather than someone trapped in boring clothes. And besides, I'm not going to work like this, and I've never been to this doctor before, so I can afford to look a little nicer, right?

As you can all see, I'm still stuck with these silly roots. I was told not to bleach them on my own, so ughhh. I just hate waiting! But I'm trying to be confident so that people think it's an intentional choice on my part.

I'll let you know what the doctor says when I post my bimbo of the day later today. :-)

Up Early!

So I'm off to the gym now. The doctor recommended that I do a little bit more exercise. He called me "skinny fat". It meant that even though I don't look fat, there's a layer of fat tissue around my midsection that I can lose via exercise and diet. I'm lucky that my work has an employee wellness center, so I'm going to go there. I decided that I didn't want to dress in workout clothes, so I just threw on some work clothes. And well... see for yourself!

I've never broken out in such a bad rash before. It burns and itches. I shouldn't have worked out in my work clothes. That was a silly, dumb idea on my part. But I've never really focused on exercise before. Maybe I'm just having an allergic reaction to something, but I'm going to buy a couple of exercise outfits and then take some allergy medicine for this rash!

This Friday night... (do it all again)

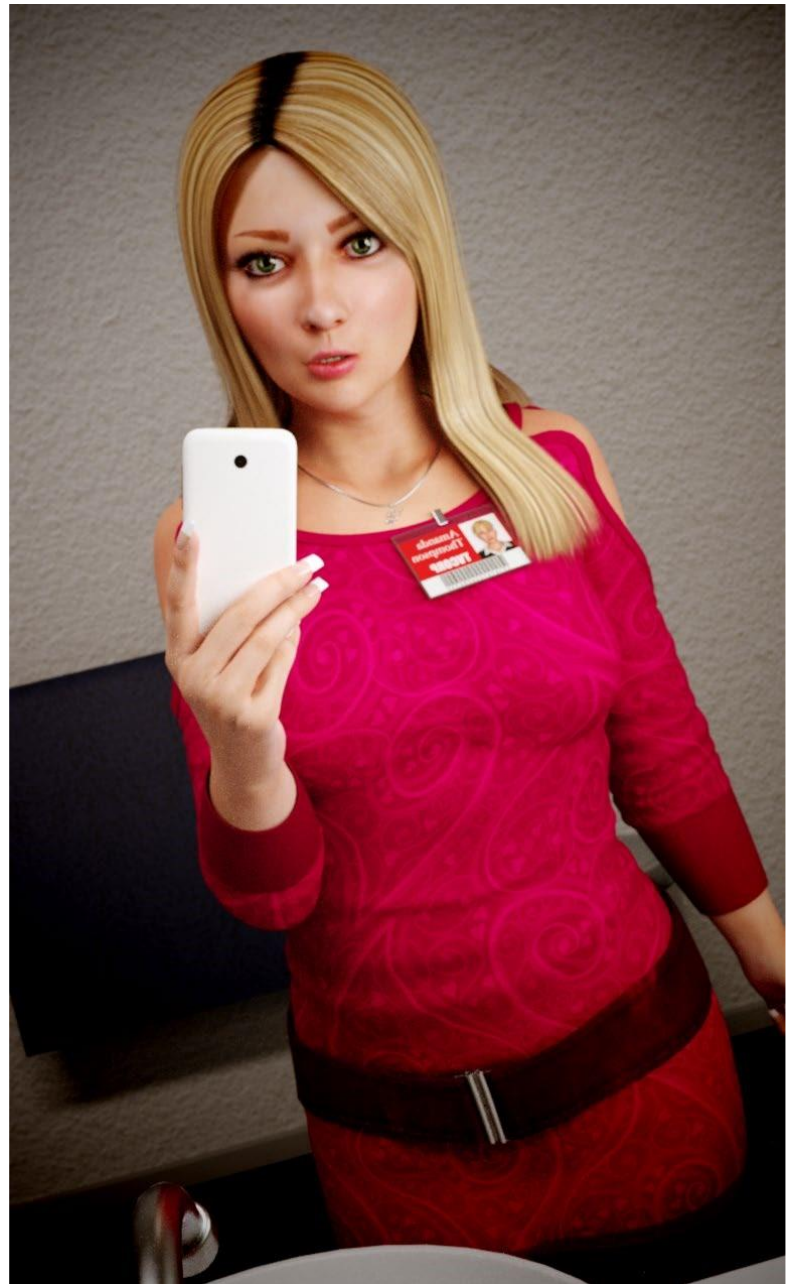

So my new gym buddy dragged me out for a girl's night last night. It wasn't as bad as I thought it would be. I'm not what you'd call a "girly girl", but we just went to a club, had a few drinks and a guy even flirted with me. It seemed that there was a non-stop line to my friend, but it was nice to get a little bit of attention.

It's not something I want to repeat every weekend, but it's still nice to be noticed. I decided to post a picture of what I decided to wear out. Yeah, it's a little bit like work clothes, but still! And the rash is gone, but when I tried to put on a work shirt this morning, it came back. And then when I put something cuter on, the rash disappeared. I shouldn't have bought these clothes online. I knew it was a bad idea, but I was trying to save a little bit of money!

My friend is taking me shopping today. She said that we'd only get a few things and maybe another workout outfit. So that'll be fun, right?

Here's a picture of me with what I'm going to wear to work today. Yes, I work weekends. It sucks, but at least I got to enjoy my Friday night. :P

Pretty Clothes!!!!!!

Like, hi everybody!!!! I super hope you're havin' a totalli good weekend. I just gots back from the mall with Barbie and O-M-G. I bought so many cute clothes!!! And I got my hair done too! No more icky roots! Take a looksie!!!!

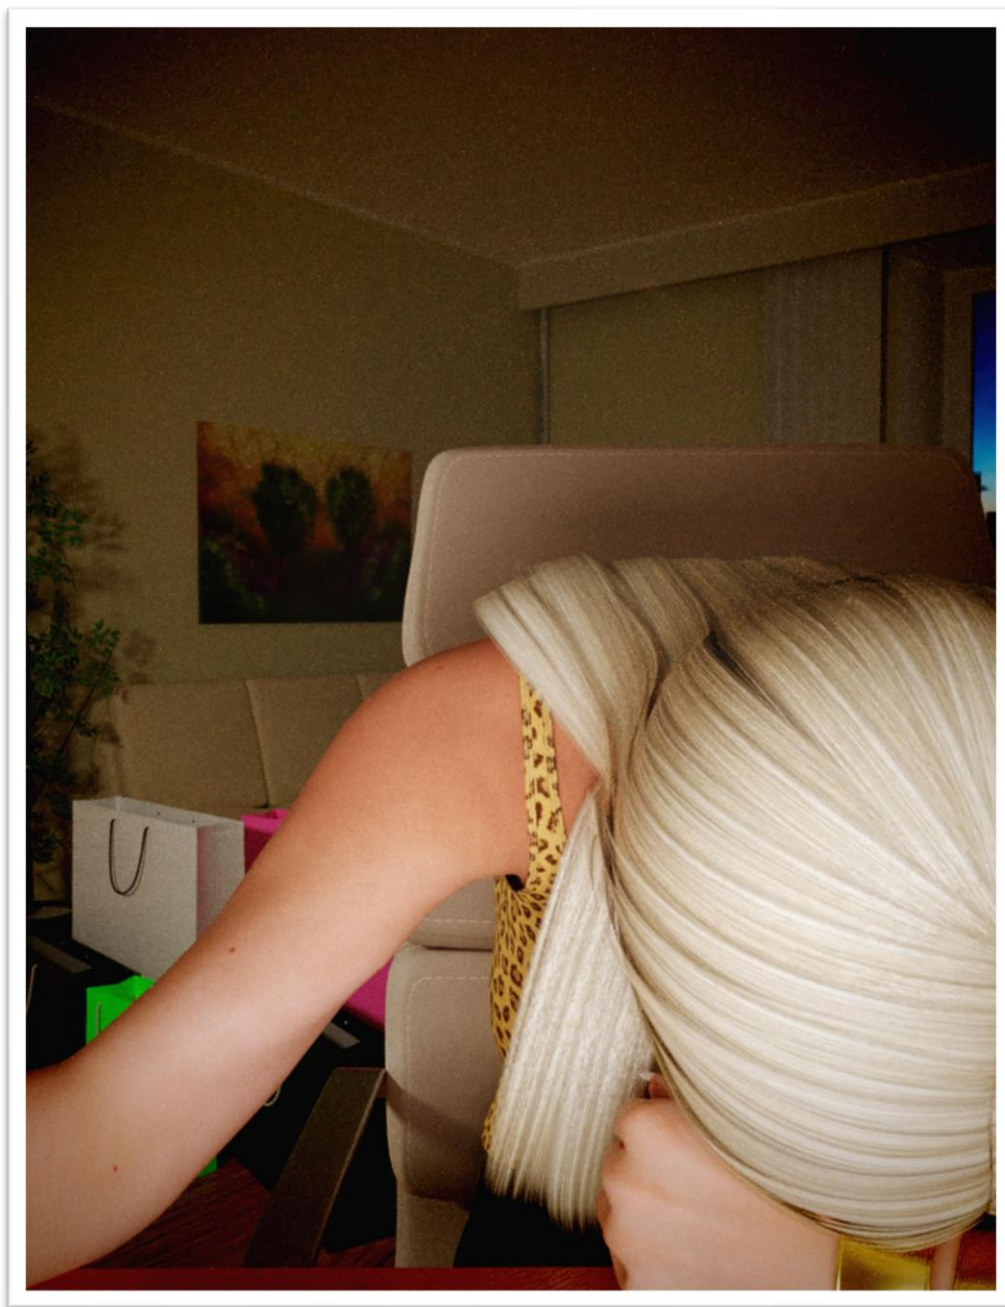

This was taken in the dressing room with a totalli new outfit! Isn't it super coolie??????? Barbie picked it out for me! I feel soooooo super hot, so I hope you all like it! (Hehe hope you like the bimbo voice to go with these bimbo clothes!)

Kisses n' licks!

Oh god, what have I done???

I was rummaging through my closet to find something to wear today, and I was met with the most horrible of sights. Boxes and bags. TONS of them. I don't even remember.... oh god, the receipt says that I spent over $1500 on clothes and shoes. What am I going to do???

By the way, that's not a selfie. My stupid webcam takes random pictures now. I think someone infected it with a virus, and now I can't remove this stupid thing. As you can see, I put on one of the new shirts I bought. They're cute and everything, but $1500??? I'm going to be scraping by until my next paycheck! I can't keep getting so carried away!

Please send love and hugs my way, and maybe some money if you can spare it. Blahhh!

No Tan Lines

So yeah, I'll be honest. I was in a pretty tough situation a couple of days ago, but my new workout friend, Barbie, is helping me get by. She says that I should look my best and feel my best and that money shouldn't be an issue. Barbie took a (totally unwanted) picture of me yesterday when she was trying to cheer me up, so I thought I'd post it here.

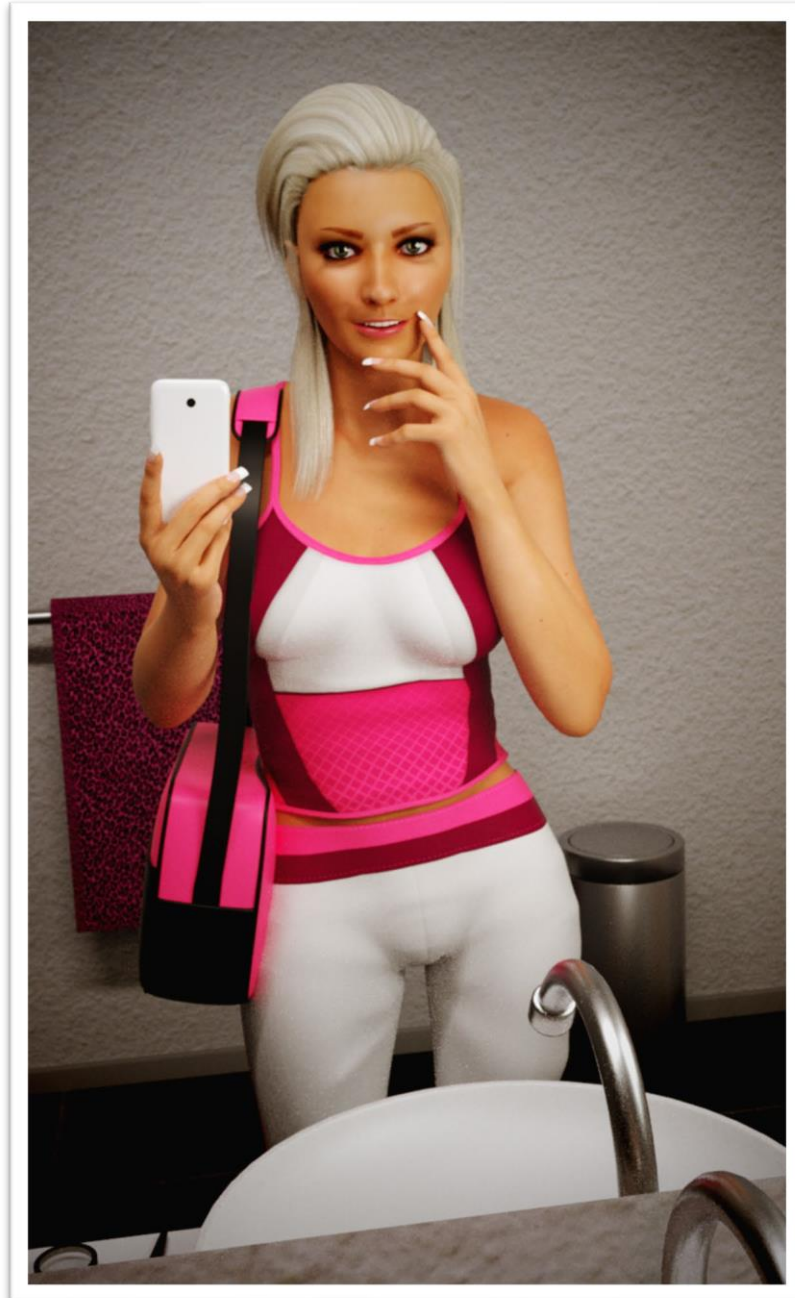

As you can see, my new friend has been taking me to the tanning salon, and I'm already starting to see the results. I used to be so against them, thinking that I'd damage my skin, but the results are pretty amazing! But Barbie seems happy about it and I'm not complaining. It's nice to have a little bit of color rather than just my pale skin tone.

Workout Clothes

So you all wanted to see a picture of me in my workout clothes, so here you go!!! Ya see, it's not such a bad outfit. It's just a tiny bit big on me, but Barbie said that if I wanted to do any further changes, I could definitely grow into it. I've been working really hard at the gym, and I think I've already lost some weight! What do you think?

By the way, I went to the salon again and my stylist suggested this cute new look! I think I may have to keep coming back to this place! Barbie was there and started clapping and cheering when I showed her. Hope you like!

How to Lose Weight By Really Trying, Part I

A lot of you have been asking what my secret is when it comes to my weight loss. Well, I'll admit that it's still a lot of hard work on my part, but Barbie actually invited me to a fitness class she teaches at the wellness center. You can see her leading the class here in this picture. I mean, just look how flexible she is! I'm going to work my hardest to be able to hold that pose for as long as I can!

So basically, this is what the class is like. We all hop on stationary bikes to get our heart rates up. Then we go to the yoga mats and start doing these very difficult stretches. It's so tough because you have to contort your body but then you have to hold it there. My muscles ache after every session! Then, once we're done with the yoga, we do some light weight training, and then cool down on the treadmill with a jog.

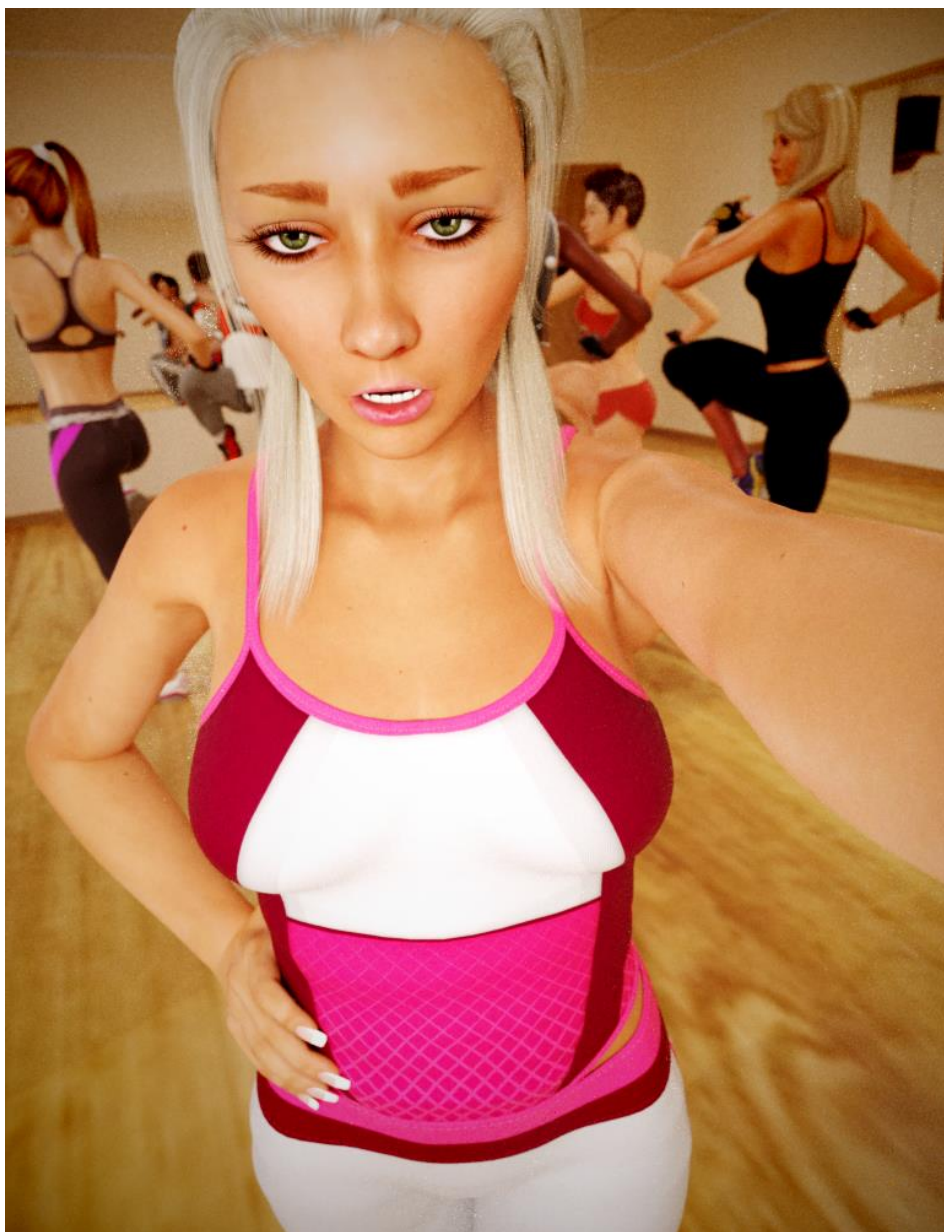

Like I said – it's tough, but it's so very worth it. I'm feeling the results already and I'm much more energetic!

How to Lose Weight By Really Trying, Part II

Hello again, everyone. It's been so good losing this weight. But I'm not going to lie to you. It's such tough work! I'm going to guided workout classes coached by Barbie herself! She's really helped get me into shape, but it is tiring! This workout you're seeing right here was so exhausting that I had to take a break. Barbie told me that if I was taking a break, I had to take a selfie. It's her gym and her rules, so here you go. I thought you might enjoy it, at least?

I know, I'm not looking my greatest, and I think that this was the point in my workout where I had a bad cramp in my abdominals, but I powered through it. I promise. No pain, no gain!

Not Like Me At All...

Well you all are just the luckiest people in the world today, because you're getting a double picture post! It was another tough day of working out at the gym, but afterward, I just felt so... erm... pent up. I don't really know what came over me, but I saw one of the male trainers and he saw me. I guess he noticed me taking that selfie yesterday, and he wanted to have some fun. God, I felt so self conscious after just finishing a workout, but he said he didn't mind. Well, here you go...

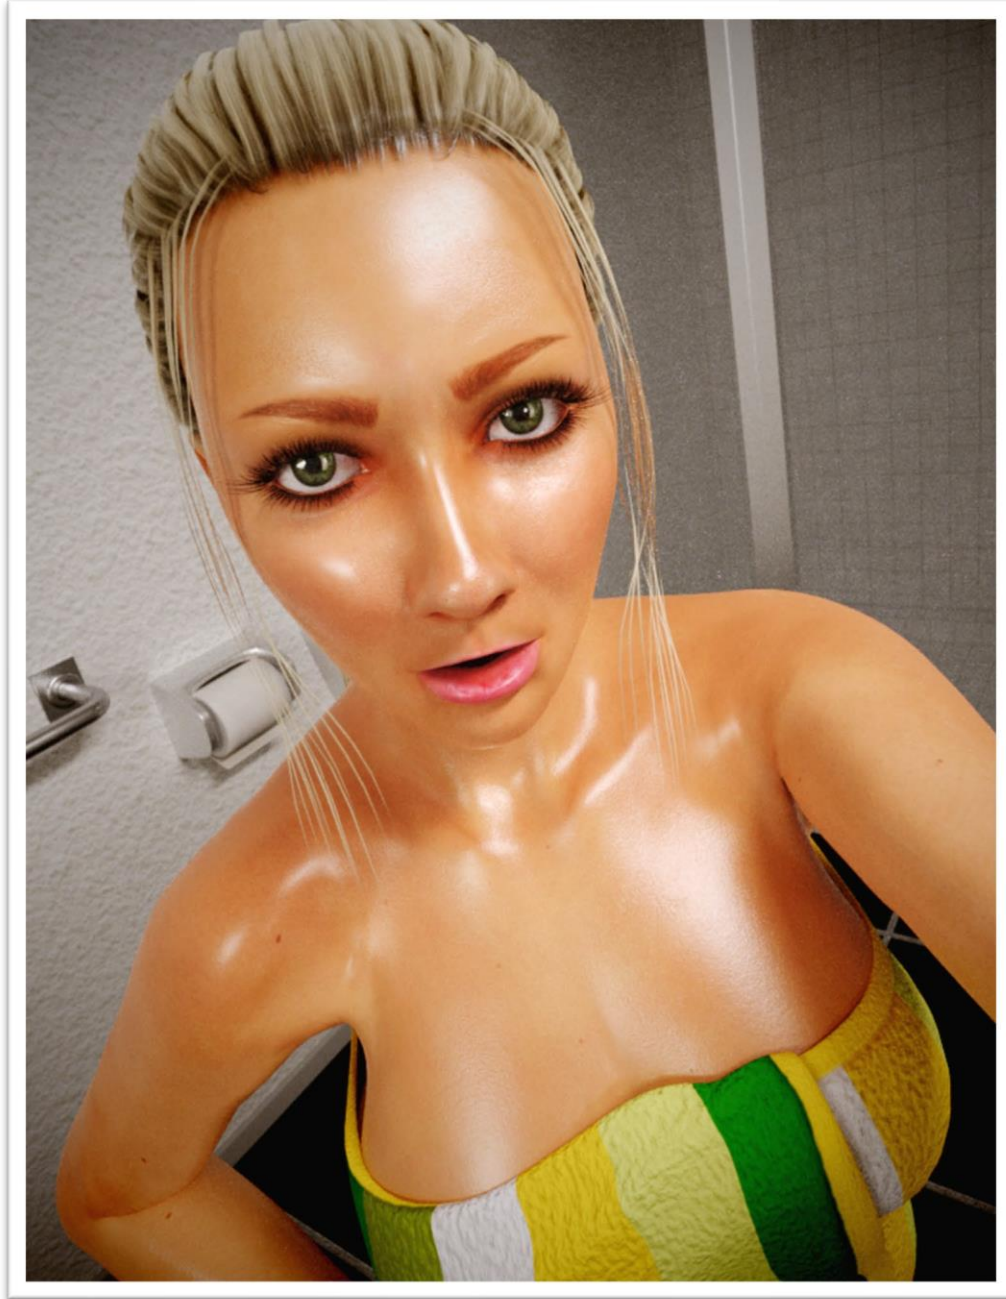

God, I know I said that I'm not a slut, but it's hard to think otherwise when I look on my phone and see this. Please don't judge me too hard, even if it was a lot of fun...

Just out of the shower

I'm getting ready to go out with Barbie tonight, so I thought I'd take a quick pic to reward you all for sticking with me for so long. Please be sure to leave plenty of yummy comments for me to read when I get home. I wanna see what everyone has to say! Don't go scolding me just because it's Tuesday!

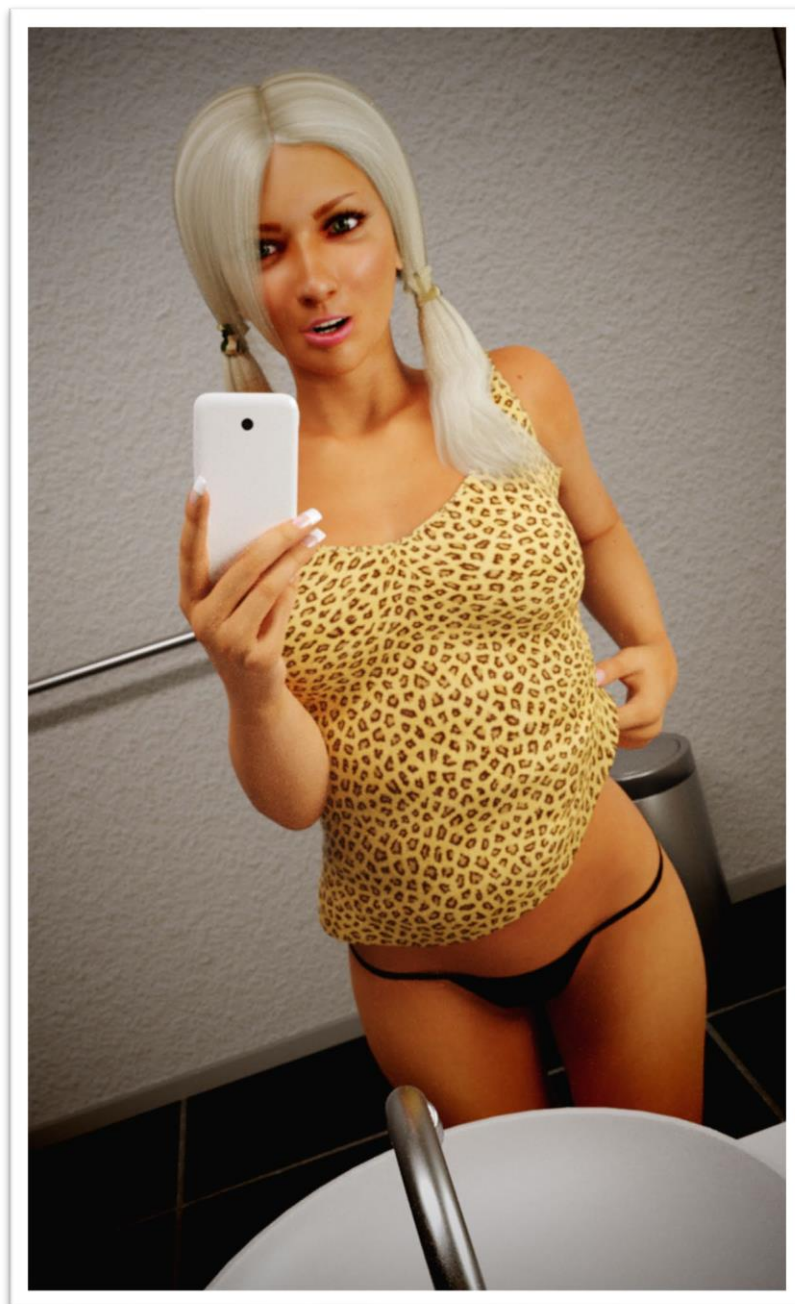

And yes, that's a towel. I'm not going out looking like that. :-P Please let me know what you think!!!

Dropping Weight?

So, wow. I'm kind of shocked right now. The shirt that I bought the other day? Yeah, it turns out it's way too big! I've been working so hard at the gym, doing a lot of work on my core and my midsection, and now look! It's too baggy around my midsection. I'm clearly doing really well with my workout at the gym and I feel amazing! Barbie is definitely an awesome life coach! I wish I could just quit my job and help people like she's helped me!

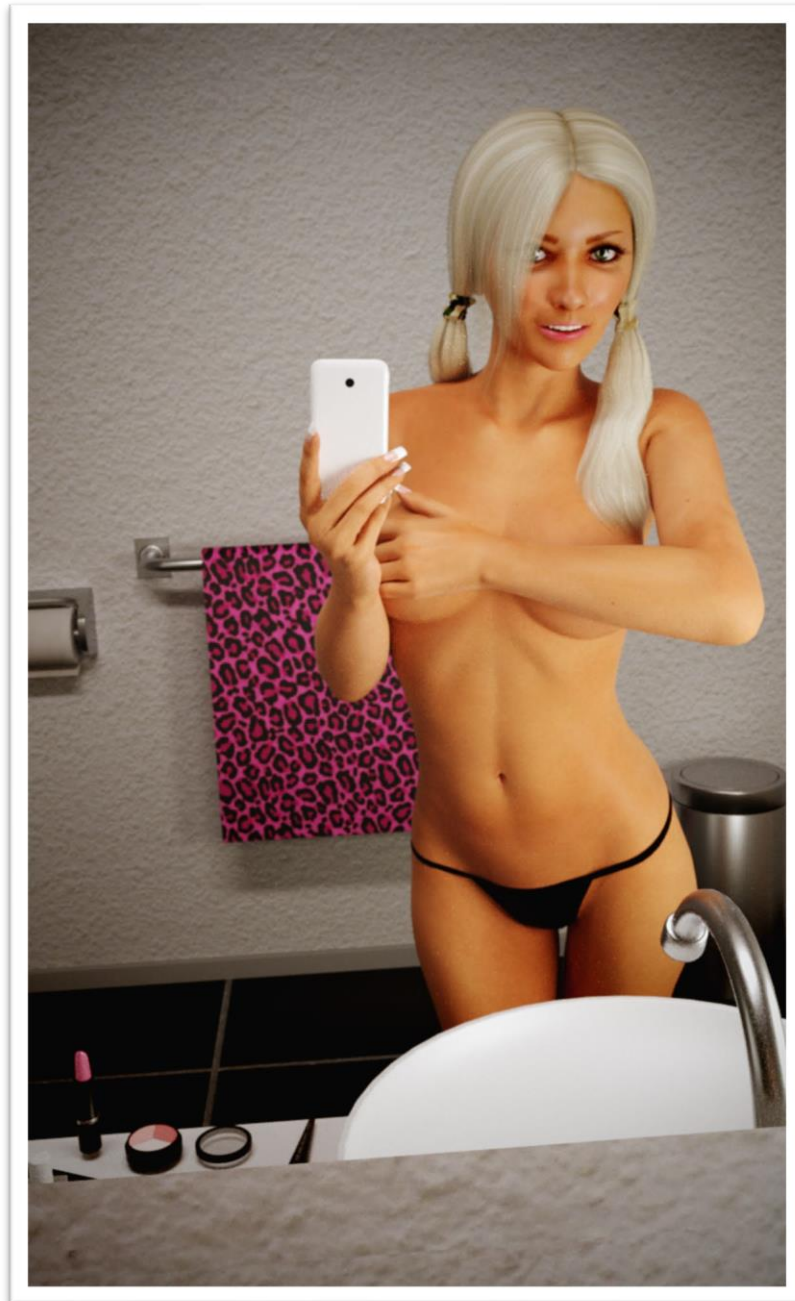

So, what do you think of my results so far? Hopefully I'll have an hourglass soon.

New Panties

Hey there everyone! After dropping so much weight, I feel absolutely amazing! I thought that because I feel sexy, I'd show off a little bit for all of you. Barbie and I went shopping yesterday and I got some new underwear. This is a pair that I've had for a little while, but if you're good, you'll get to see the new ones soon enough. Hehe!

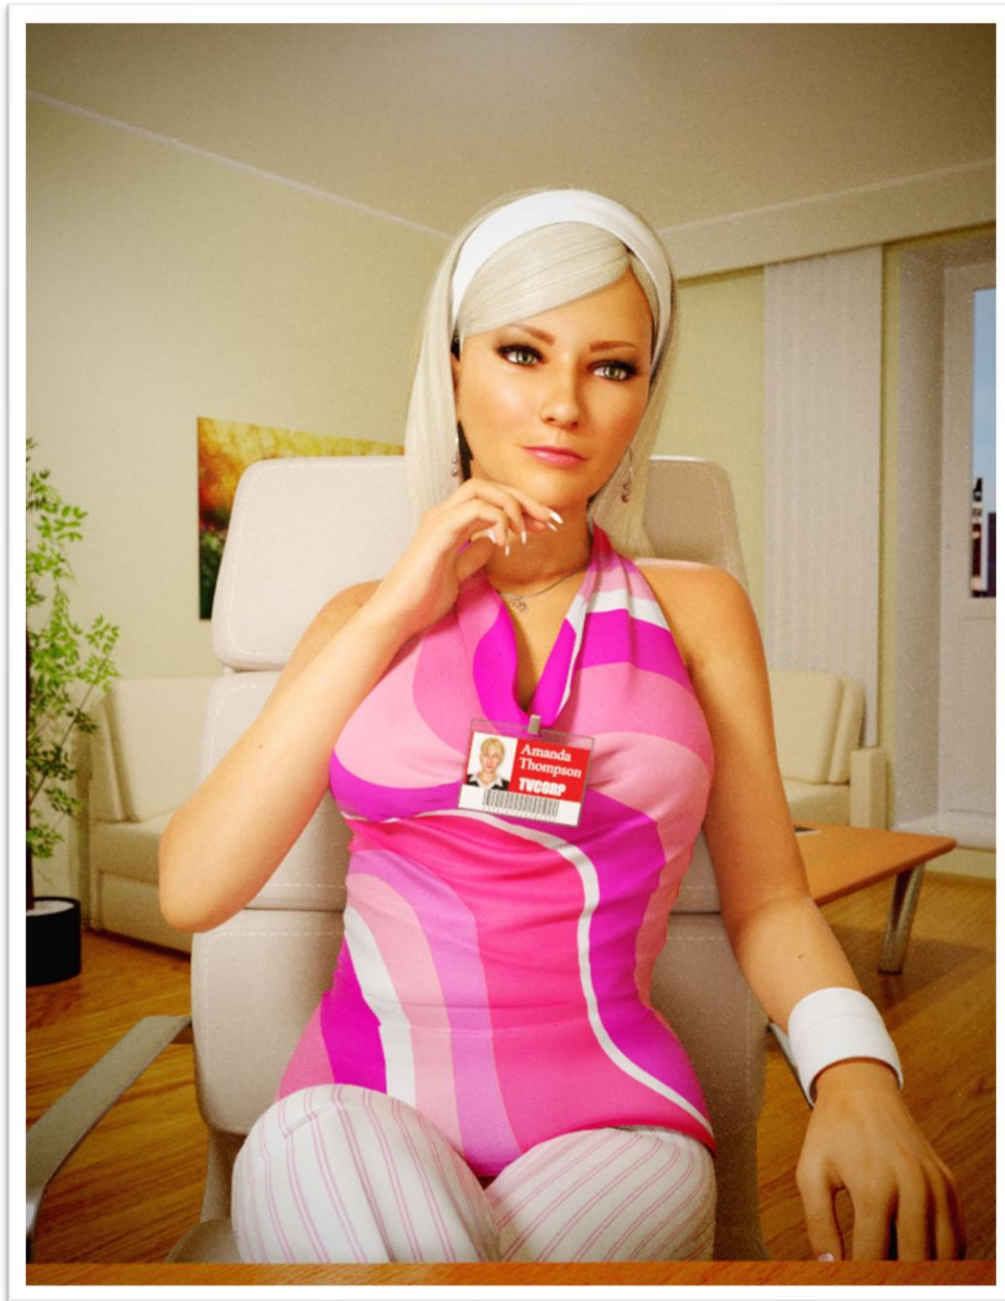

Barbie and I are going to a party on Friday night, so I think that I might just wear the new ones there! I think I'll keep this one on and wear it at work. Only three more days to go until we can party it up!

Off to work

Hey there, everyone! You got quite the eyeful yesterday, so I want to tone things down a little bit here. This is what I'm wearing to work, but it's not what I'm wearing to the party. I've gotta stop home before that. But here's a picture I took with my webcam this morning. Sorry it took me so long to upload it!

I kinda love this pink top! It's just too bad that I'm getting some dirty looks at work about what I'm wearing now. But it's not like I'm wearing tubetops and miniskirts! I wish that everyone would just relax. I'm taking good care of myself, but the girls in the office seem to be jealous. The men aren't complaining too much though. Are you complaining? Hehe.

Party Dress!

Ooof, I have such a headache today. I think I might have had TOO much of a good time. Everything is still fuzzy, but I know that I'm still wearing my panties, so I'm okay there. lol. Just... wow, I haven't been that out of it in a while.

As promised though, here's a picture of me in my dress... before things got all blurry!

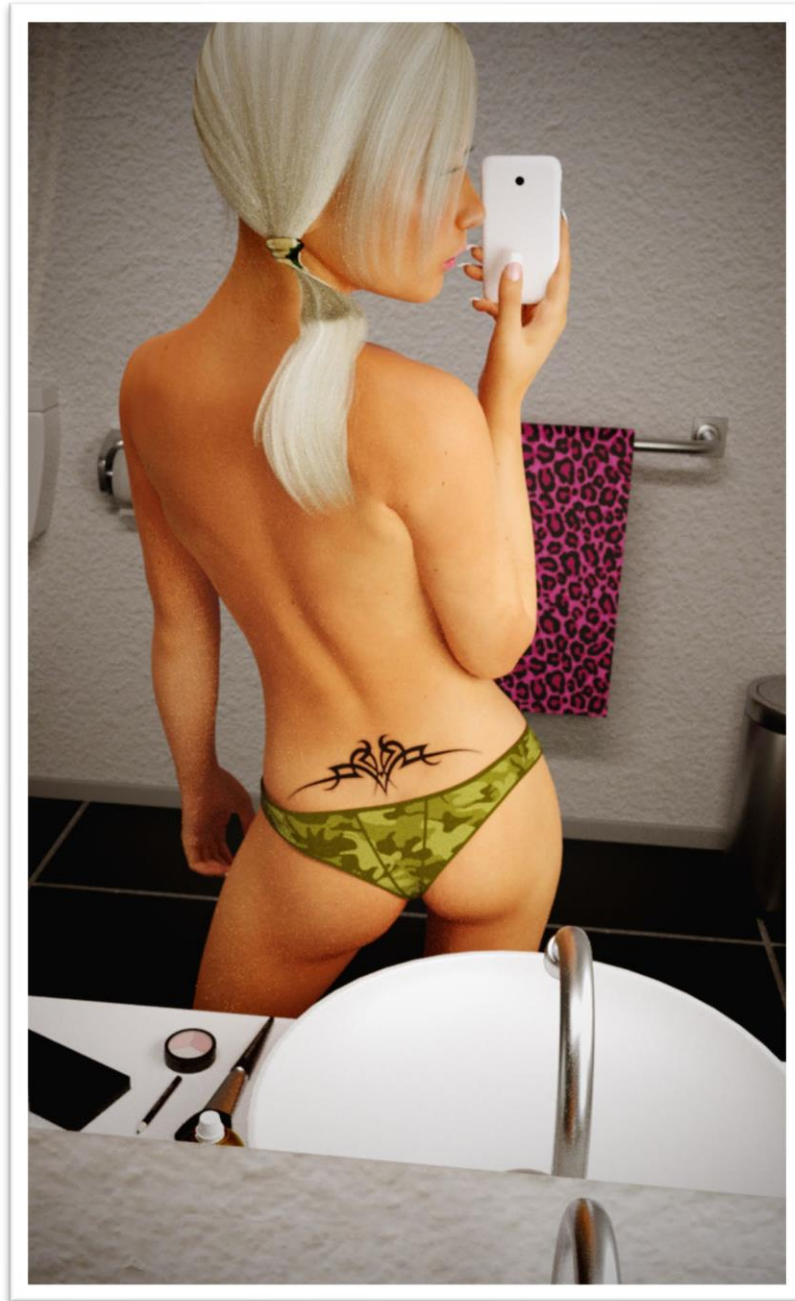

As you can see, I didn't opt for super-slut here, so don't even comment about it. :-P

More ink?

Okay, so I was... pretty drunk Friday night. I don't remember much of what happened after the party, but Barbie must have thought it was a good idea to get me out to the tattoo shop again, because I just noticed THIS on my lower back. A tramp stamp. I mean, I don't hate it, but it's definitely not something I would have done before meeting Barbie, that's for sure.

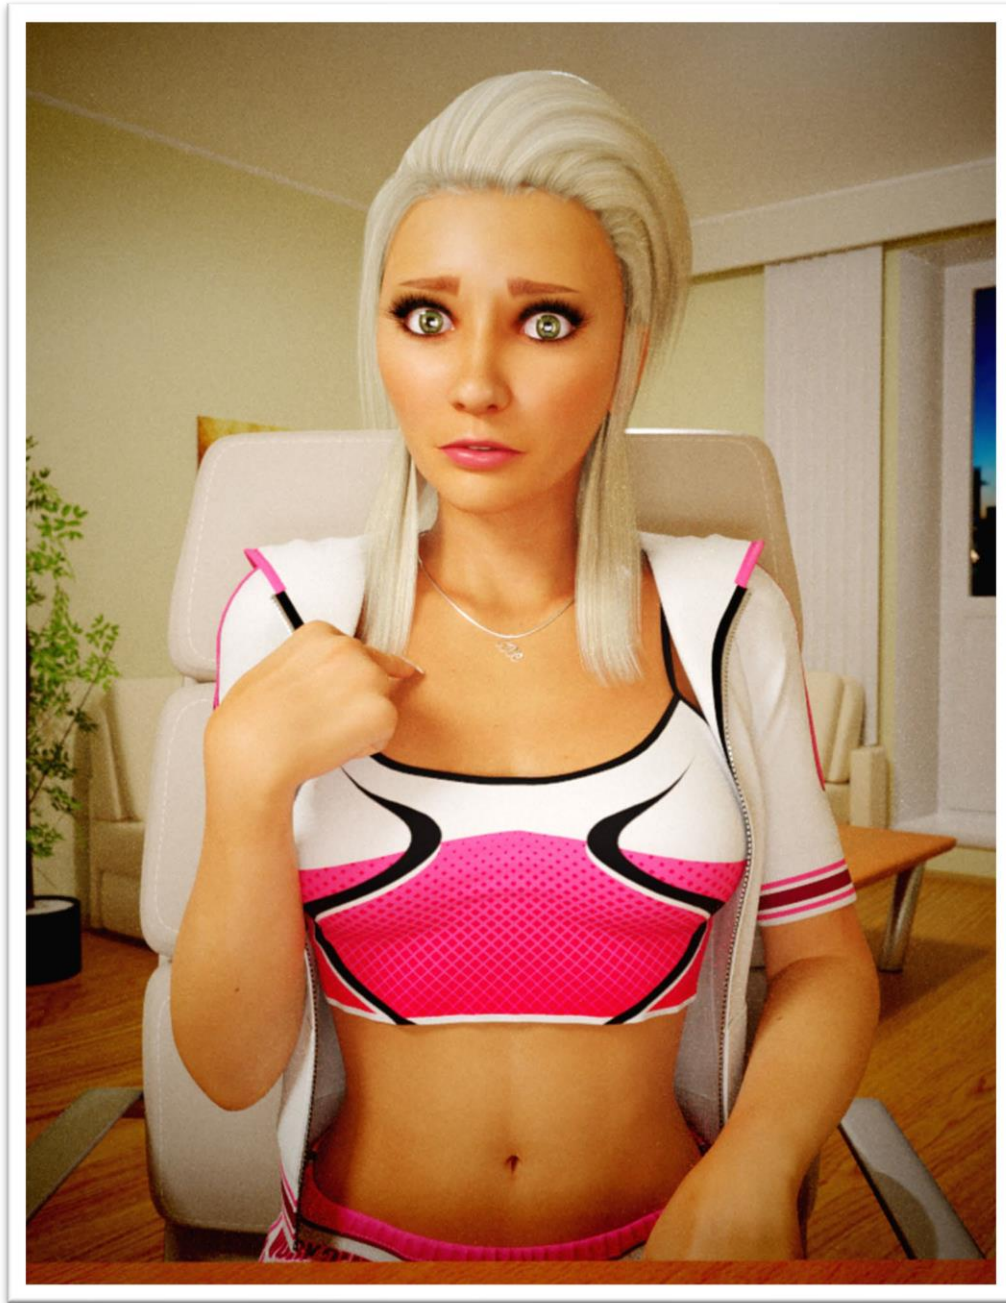

I've got to learn to hold my liquor better. Also, new panties! YAY! What do you think of them?

Uh oh...

I guess I went a little too far with my last picture Some of you said I was being a little tease. But I'm not a little tease, am I? I couldn't be! I've never gotten this kind of attention before, so I'm just trying to document the positive changes I'm making in my life! I never thought I could possibly be considered a tease...

You must all be mistaken.

All the stares...

I've been getting a lot of attention lately... at work, in town, you all online. It's kinda fun. I had a long heart to heart talk with Barbie, and... I don't think that I'm a bad person to show off anymore. In fact, it's kind of nice to do it. Don't worry. I'm still the same old Amanda, but it's just so nice to feel sexy. I kinda love it. Here's a little reward for all of you who have stuck with me.

MWAH!

New, puffy lips for your enjoyment. ;-) Barbie took me to her plastic surgeon, and he set me up with some collagen injections! I love the way my mouth feels.... Well, I will whenever the numbness wears off!

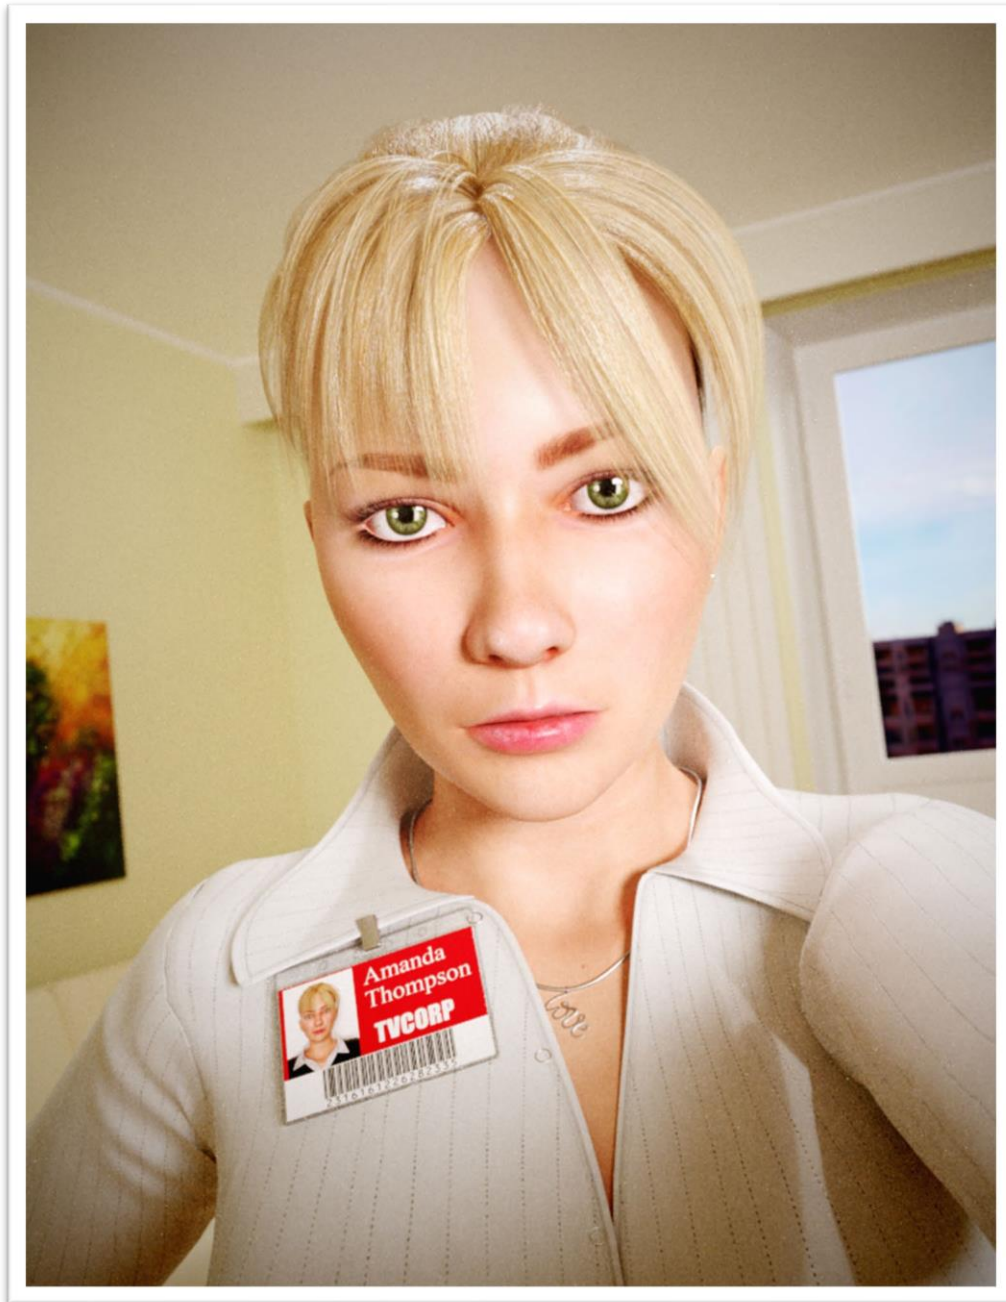

Oh shoot! Look at my reflection and you'll get a nice look at my tramp stamp. 😊

Shopping for the beach.

So it appears that you silly people just LOVE to see me showing off even if I am a little tease. I thought that I'd show you some of the things I bought yesterday for this coming weekend. Barbie and I are going to go to the beach, so I figured that it would be a good idea to get some new swimwear! If you look closely, you can see Barbie's heels standing just outside the door! :-P

First up, the white one with pink.

And next, my favorite, neon green with black outline. You'll have to wait until the weekend for me to show it off though. ;-)

New piercings

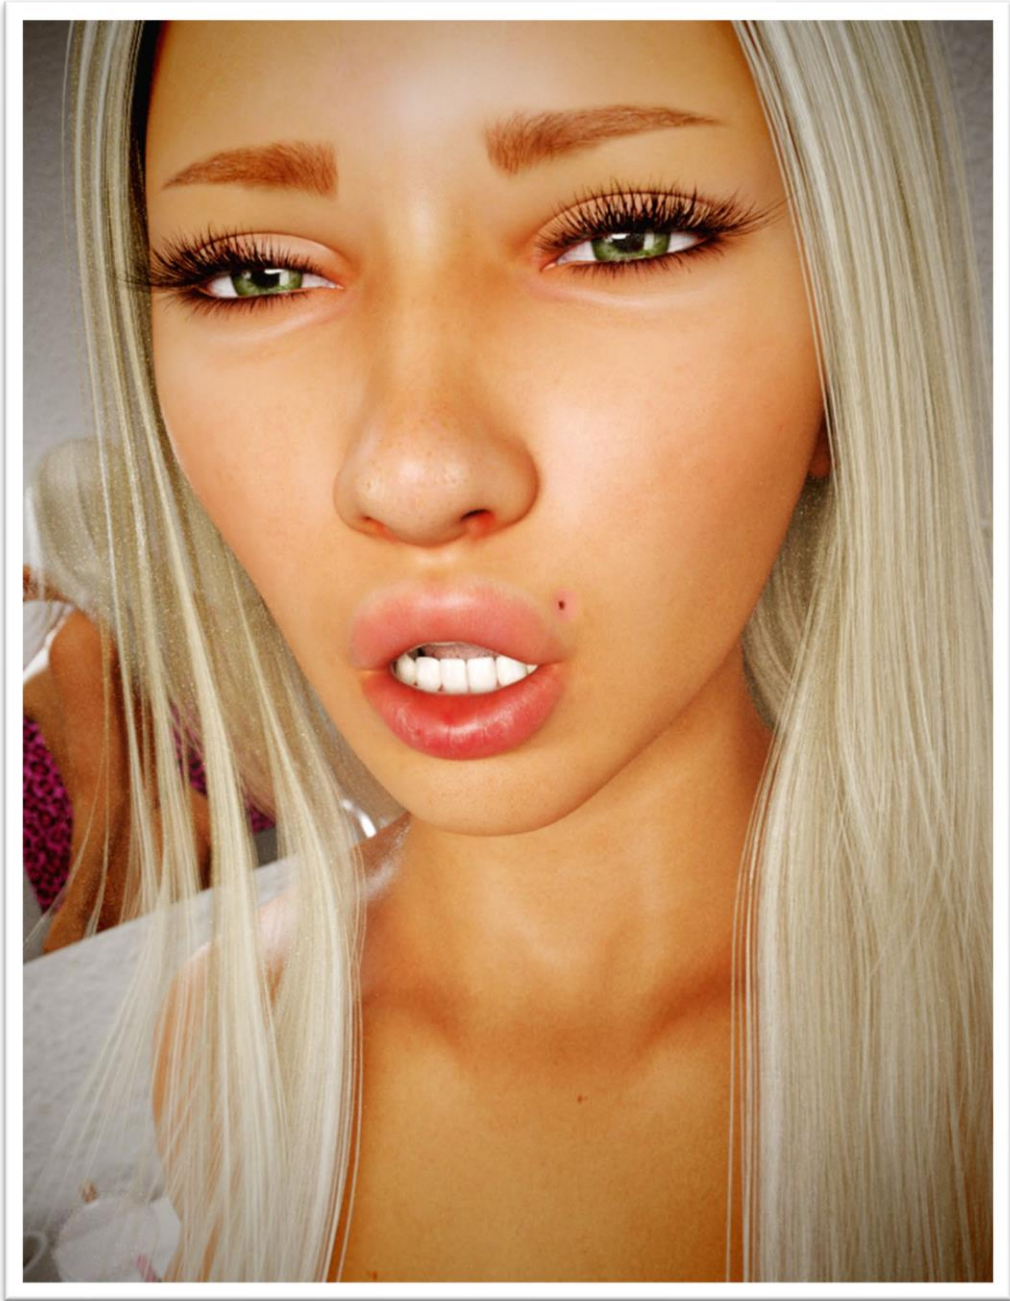

Oww... so I went out with Barbie last night and I must have... well, I must have gotten some new piercings. They hurt a little bit, but hopefully they'll be fixed sometime soon. I don't know what it is. I think we might have gone to a piercing place? But I don't remember it... I need to be better with my alcohol. But it does open up a lot of fun opportunities for me... I guess I'll just have to find some jewelry for my new additions!

This is my belly button. See how red it is where the piercing was? You'd think I would have left the jewelry in, if I got it pierced at a parlor? I'm going to have to talk with Barbie and see what kind of mischief she's been up to...

Another piercing. I guess they call it a "Monroe". It's kind of cute, but right now it just hurts to do much, let alone blow kisses.

I'll give it a few days and see what happens.

Heels

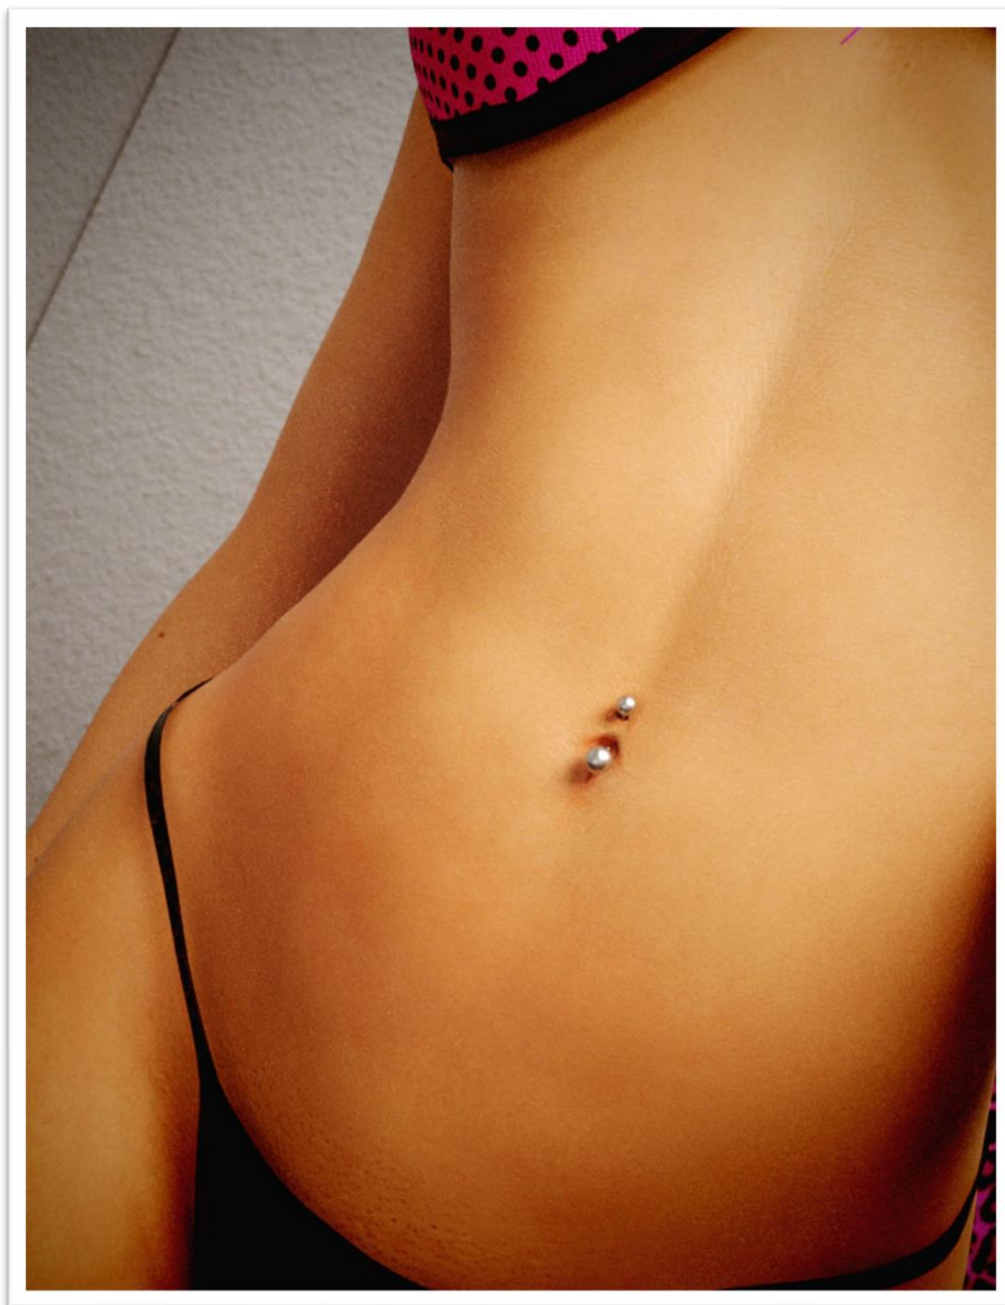

So what do you think? Will I look good in them? If you think so, maybe I can show myself off in them for you all. They feel so good on my feet! I can't even remember the store Barbie took me to when I got 'em – it was all just a wonderful whirlwind of consumerist bliss! Now that I've been working out, I feel a lot more steady on my feet, and wearing heels isn't as uncomfortable as it once was. They're still a little bit of an ache, but I'm sure that will fade fast once I get used to them!

Plugging the holes

So after work yesterday, Barbie and I went to the jewelry shop across town to get some new piercings for me. It took a little bit to find the right sizes and everything, but we got it sorted out and now all of those piercings are properly filled with cute jewelry! Here's my bellybutton one...

And here's my brand new Monroe one!

Beach Weekend, Part I

Hello from the beach, everyone! Barbie and I are taking a nice, relaxing weekend to have some fun, but I promised a picture, so here ya go. Not sure what we'll be doing tonight, but for now, we're just relaxing a little bit and enjoying all the stares! Hehe!

Beach Weekend Part II

So the beach has been a lovely, relaxing spot for me and Barbie. I don't know what I'm going to do when it comes to work when I get back, but with the way people have been staring at me and the way that my boss has treated me, I don't think I'll be working there much longer.

It's okay, though. Barbie said that she'd help me find a job that's better for someone who has my looks. That makes me nervous, but I trust her enough to help me.

This weekend has been so much fun. We went to the club last night after a long day at the beach, and I think we're on our way back there again tonight. Barbie was quite the big hit when she started to dance in the middle of the dance floor, but of course she had to drag me into the center with her, and people didn't boo me, so I think I did okay!

Today we went back to the beach, and here's a picture she took of me with her cell phone.

There, now you can see the back of my bikini and see that it's a thong. I hope you're happy. lol. But I've been feeling very weird in my feet lately. It seems like it's more comfortable to walk on my tip toes, as if I was wearing heels. I can't stand flat-footed for too long, or it starts to hurt. But whenever I get back to my tip-toes, it's okay again! So I suppose I'll just be tippy toeing around for a while.

Hope you all had a lovely weekend!

Amanda

Sick Day

Ugh, that's it. I'm taking a sick day today. Ever since I changed my hair and started to lose a little weight, I've been harassed non-stop by my co-workers and even my boss. I don't like it very much, the way they whistle and make me feel bad. I mean, yes it's nice to have the attention, but not that way!

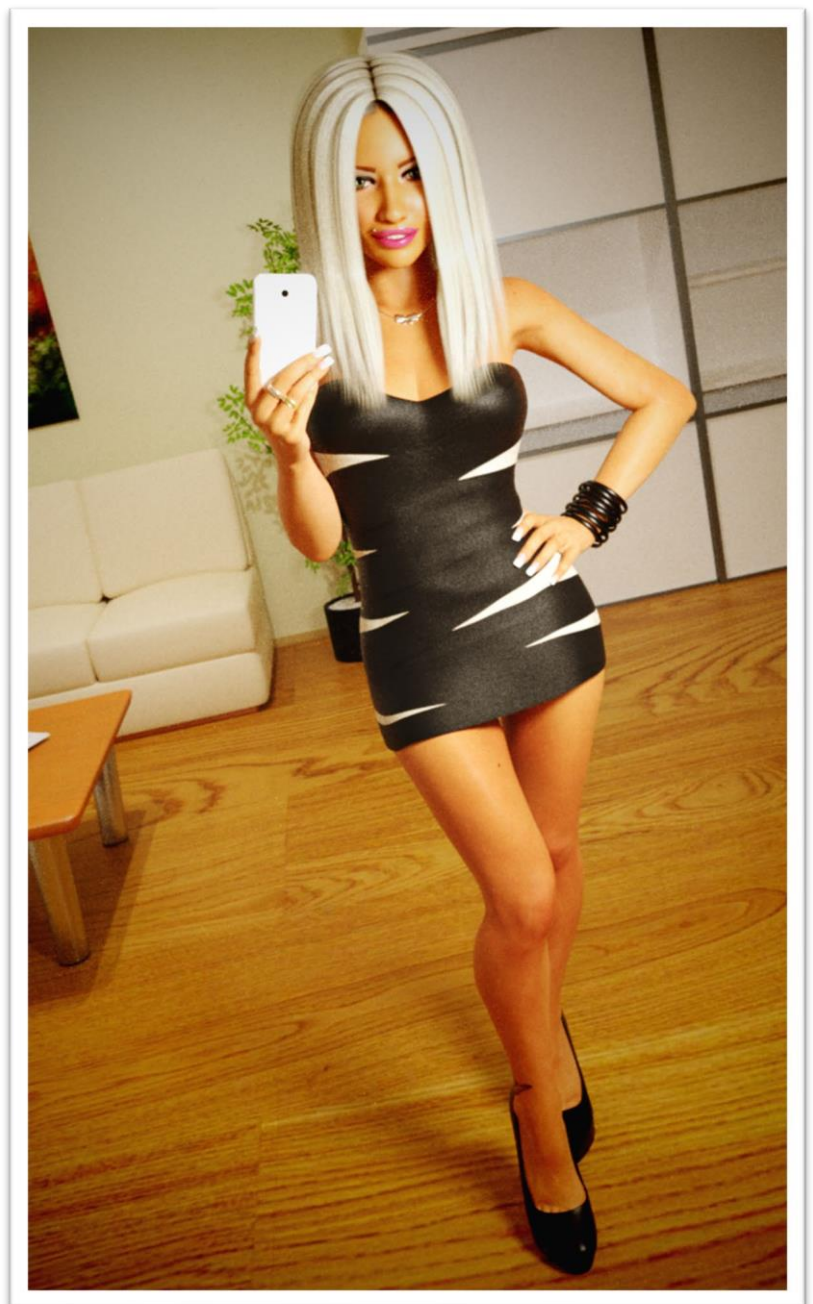

I can understand if it's out in a club and things like that, where the point is to look sexy, but at work I just try to do my job the best I can. Maybe this company isn't such a good fit for me after all. I'll continue to try, but I don't know what I can do. I think I'm going to take a few days off and spend them with Barbie.

Tonight she said that I should go to the club with her, and I think that's exactly what I'm going to do. I have the perfect dress for the occasion (and the perfect heels, as I've already showed you)! Hope you all like it!

Hope you like it. I think that getting away from work for a few days will be a nice break. I won't have to worry about inappropriateness at work and I'll be able to have some fun with my friend. Maybe I'll have a few drinks too. After all, it's almost like the weekend for me! I'm just so frustrated and I think I've earned a few days for myself.

Hope you all have a great day!

At the Club

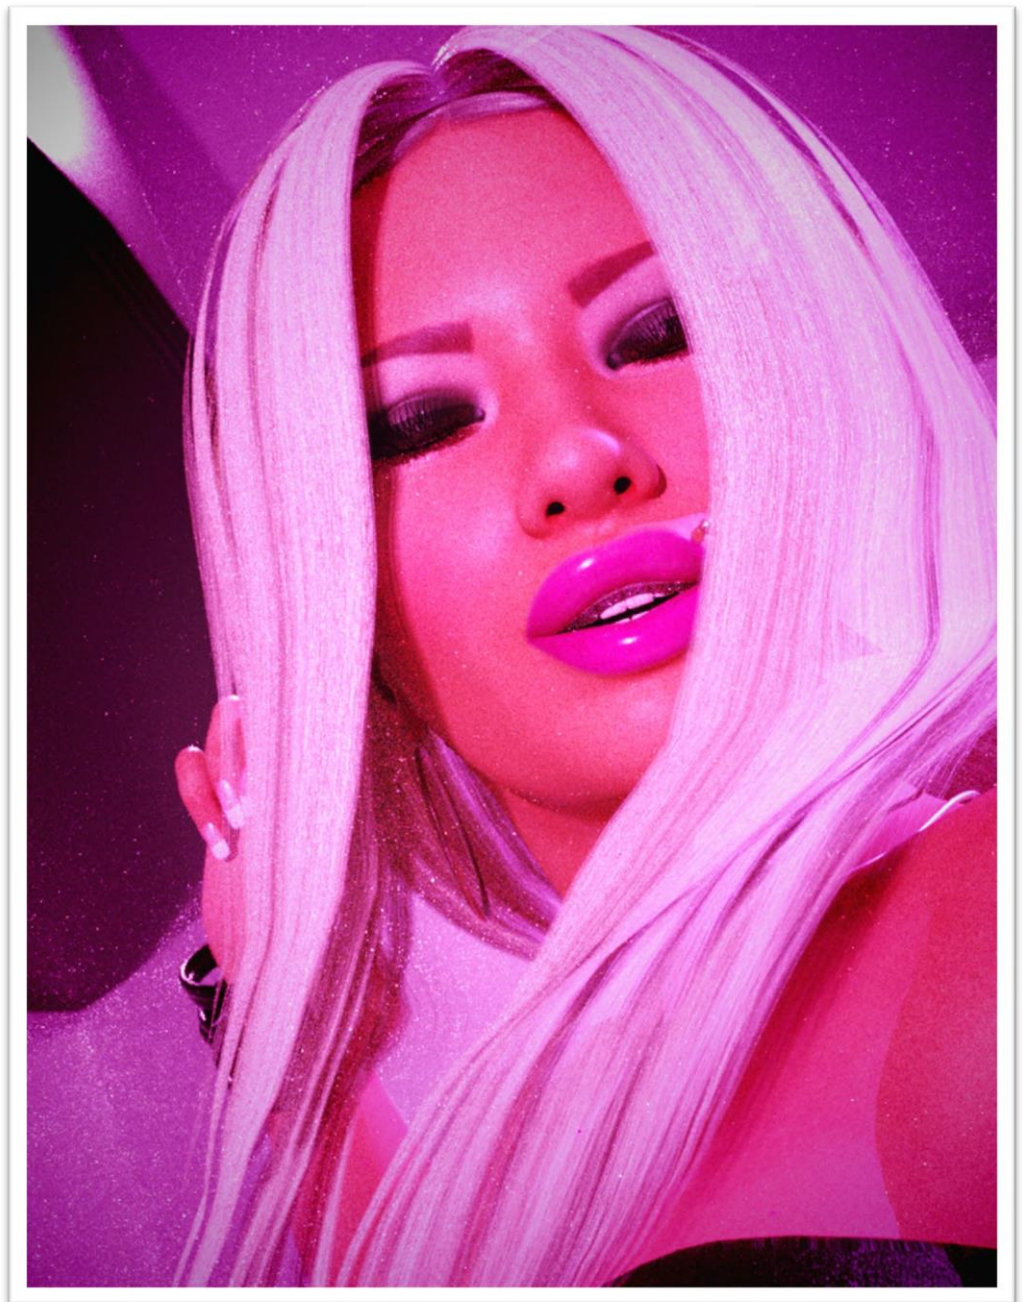

Wow, so I never thought I'd have such a great time dancing and partying with Barbie! It's been an amazing time, and I think we're gonna go back tomorrow night too! I've just been so cooped up lately and now I finally feel FREE! So I might take some more sick days just to relax even more!

Everything was great from the minute we walked into the door. We were treated like guests of honor and had a blast dancing. They even invited us onto the stripper poles. I didn't take my clothes off, but Barbie certainly showed off her big, fake boobs. I'm not quite that comfortable yet. I'd need to be really, REALLY drunk. LoL!

So anyway, we made a rule when we were at the club. Barbie would take my cell phone so that I didn't pay any attention to any of my coworkers or friends from home, and she'd take some cute pictures of me while we were having fun!

She took this picture when I was dancing up a storm and kind of lost myself in the music. I didn't realize she got that close to me. What a creeper! Haha! But it was a great time, and I think this pic proves it! Hope you're having a great week!

Oh no...

I think... I think I had a bit too much fun last night. Barbie took this picture of me and it looks like it automatically uploaded here. All I can do to edit it is add text. It won't let me delete it. Oh god. Oh god, what am I going to do??? If work sees this, I'm going to be fired! I mean, I know that I don't want the job anymore, but if anyone sees, I'm totally screwed. Oh god, oh god.

So this... yeah. This is me after wayyy too many tequila shots at the club. Barbie... Barbie took the picture, but she didn't know it would be uploaded right away. Oh god, what am I going to do????

If anyone has advice, I need it. Can anybody please help me out?

Panic Attack

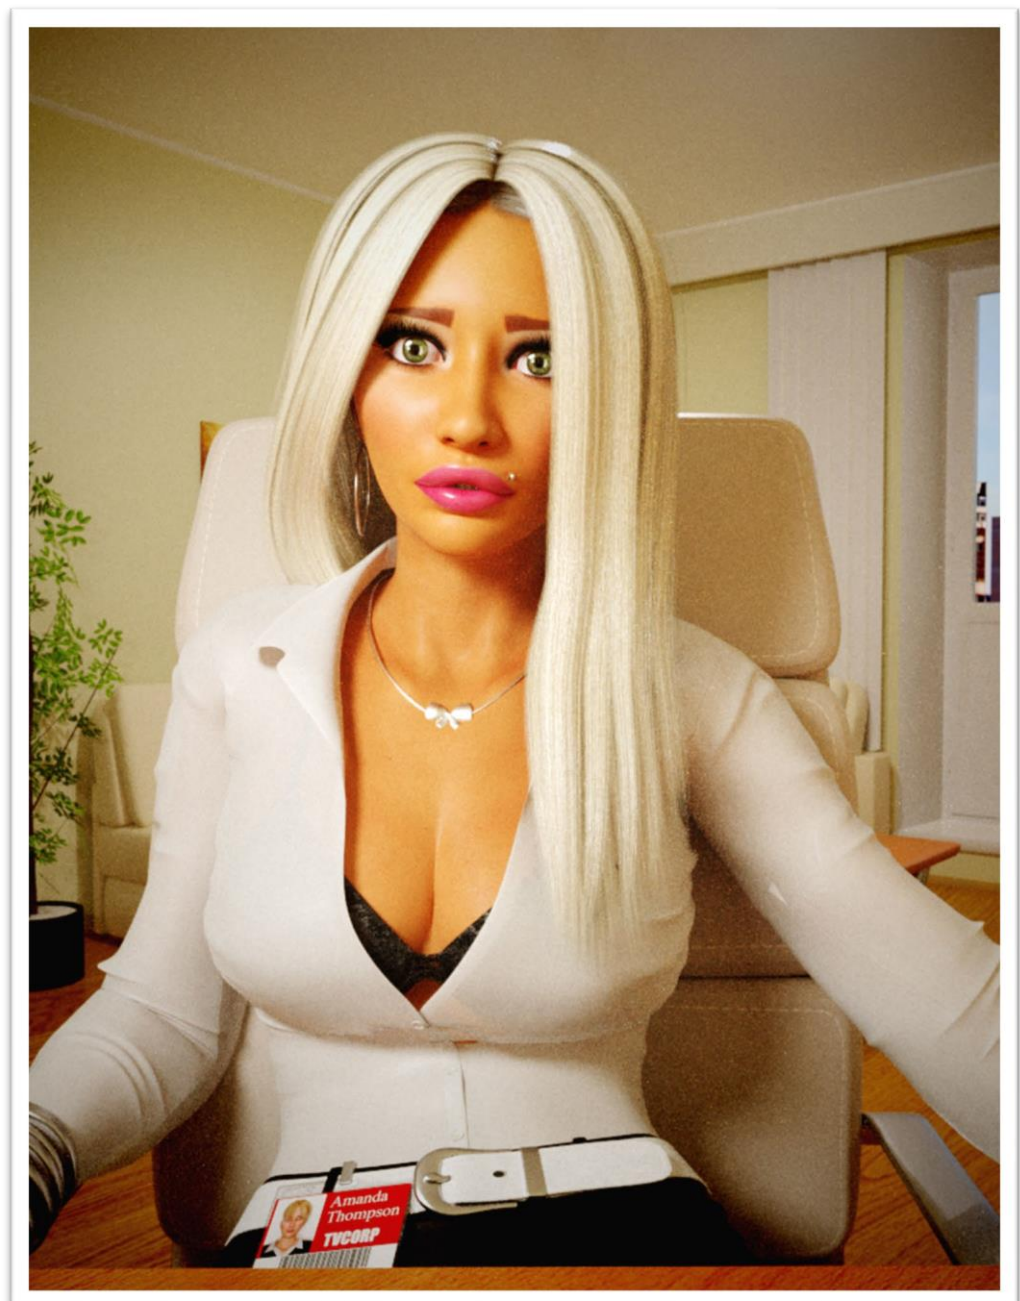

So today is was my first day back at work since I took that time off, and this is what I wore. I don't think people were very pleased with me, but I've been told that I'm walking on very thin ice. I have to be careful, or else I'm going to lose my job! I mean, I don't like the job, but it pays good money, so what else could I possibly do??? I've never been fired from anything before in my entire life! I don't want to be a failure.

I had such a panic attack that I started to cry at work today. I got some filthy looks from the female employees because they saw that I was only wearing my bra under my jacket. But it's not like I have the boobs to show off there! God, I'm just so stressed! I just can't take this anymore! I'm so nervous and anxious all the time!

I need to call Barbie. She always knows how to calm me down. Maybe she can stay the night with me and watch movies and things, and then we can relax together. That sounds like it would be very relaxing, and I NEED to relax!

Please send happy feelings my way.

Love,
Amanda

Just waking up...

I'm just waking up... to the fact that my no good job is just no good for me anymore! I decided that this week would be the week to take control of my life. I used even more sick days and decided to get a consult for a breast enhancement over the weekend. Barbie's plastic surgeon was able to work me in today. Barbie said she never left my side. It was really sweet and I wasn't sure what to expect. But when I woke up, I pulled the covers aside, and... well...

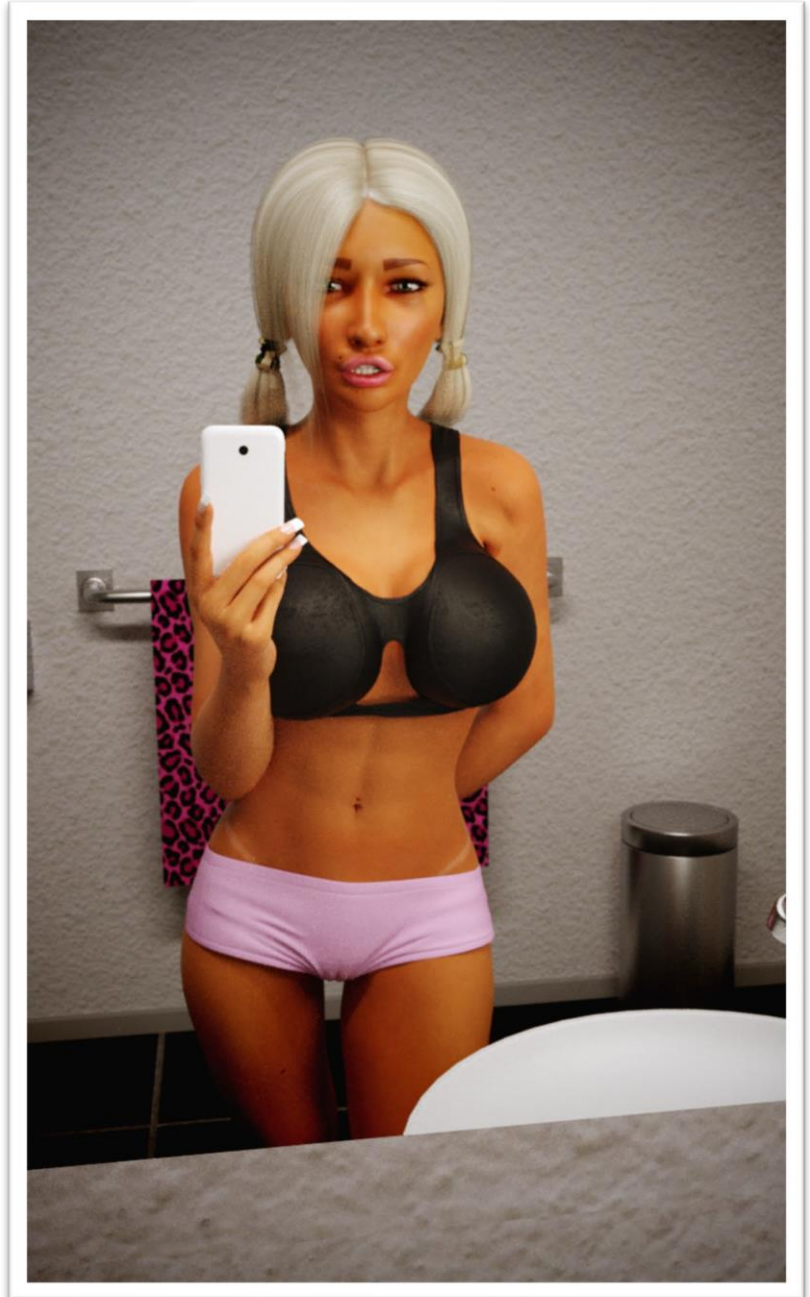

Now I've got some boobs! They're not as big as Barbie's but the look good. I haven't seen a bill for them yet, so I'm kind of happy. I was always too tiny and I definitely can't say that now! But I have the problem of getting used to them. They're just so big and get in the way of everything. Even eating is more troublesome thanks to these things!

Barbie said she'd help me every step of the way as I got used to my new "twins". The post-op bra is very uncomfortable to wear, but I was told that since I was asleep so long, I would only need to wear it another day or so, and then I'd be able to see my new boobs up close!

I know I really should be more worried about work, but I'm kind of happy. Barbie has been paying for my "enhancements" so I'm not hurting for money. And if I quit my job, that means I can show off a bit more at the club. Oh well. We'll cross that bridge when we get there. For now, I think I may go a little bigger, just to match Barbie's, but that decision is a long way away, too.

Happy Boob Day!

Amanda

Boob Update - Still Here, Still Fake

So it appears that this isn't just some crazy dream! I actually did it! I went through with it! I actually got boobs! And it was just in time for my birthday yesterday! I was finally able to get out of the post-op bra and got a good first look at my new friends. Here, why don't you take a look, too?

What do you think? I kind of love them! I went out to party with Barbie for my birthday, and everyone at the club complimented me on my new tits. I just had to wear a bra and make sure they stayed properly covered because I didn't want them to rupture or fall out. I was extra careful, and now here I am!

It was a great night, and I can't wait to have more nights like this with me, Barbie, and the twins! YAY!

Bikini 2.0

With great boobies comes great responsibility, and I'm responsible for showing you how far I've come! ... at least that's what Barbie told me. So, you remember how I took those pictures of myself in the bikini back in the dressing room when I bought it?

Well, thanks to my new boobs, the bikini actually fits PERFECTLY now! Take a look!

Fuck yeah! Look at how my tits fill that top out! I mean, the bikini looked good before, but now I'm SURE to get stares. I still might go bigger, but seeing my tits in this bikini top make me think that this is the perfect size! I can't wait to go back to the beach with Barbie. It's going to be so fucking awesome.

Well, I just wanted to show you to keep you updated. :D

Sunday Surprise(s)

Hey there everyone. Sorry for the delay the past few days, but apparently getting a couple of foreign objects stuffed into your body takes a little bit out of you. I've spent the past couple of days resting, relaxing, and using the last of my vacation time. I don't expect that I'll have this job much longer, but that's okay. There are other things I want to do and other avenues I wish to pursue, so it's all for the best.

Anyway, I promised you some Sunday surprises, so here ya go!

Hopefully these nice, big surprises are to your liking? And no, I'm not talking about my nails, even though I love those, too. My hair and my nails are getting a lot of compliments at the club too, because they're so cute. And as for these boobs? I love them!!!

I'm still thinking about getting slightly bigger ones, but that's another decision for another time. Barbie says that these are healing up nicely and that I should be ready to show them off at the club very soon! Too bad I have to go to work this week, otherwise I'll get in trouble and lose my job before I really want to. It's all about timing, and I have to be ready first.

Amanda

Back To Work

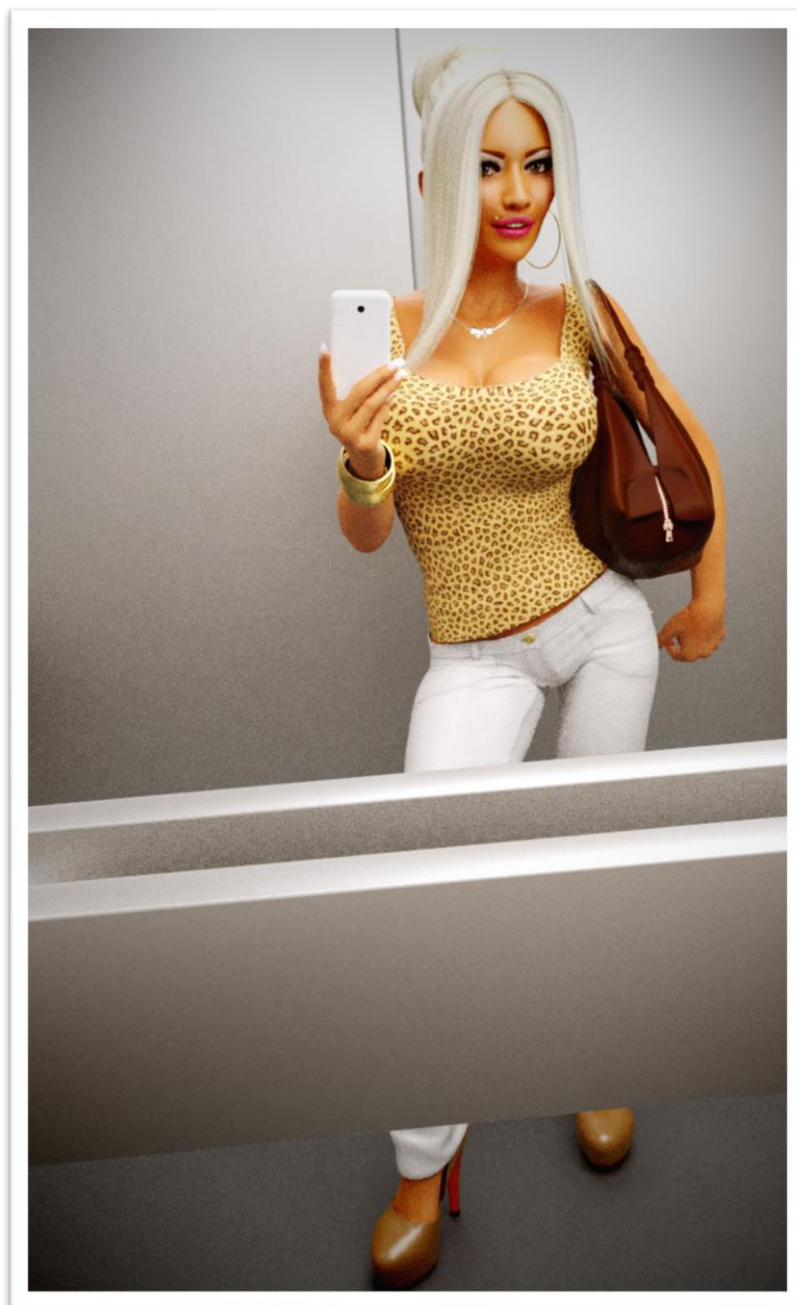

Hi everyone. So I did go into work yesterday and I got just as many stares as I thought I would. Maybe it's because of the outfit I wore to work... or it could be because of my new boobs, or the fact that I haven't been to work in a while. I wasn't fired on the spot, but my boss told me to take some time off to go "find myself". He's such a nice guy. He said that while he was staring at my new chest, so maybe he was just letting me do that because I pouted and stomped my foot, making my tits jiggle, but I don't know. I've got more time off, and this time it's with permission. I know he's just keeping me around for my boobs.

Anyway, I took a picture while I was in the elevator. Mirror walls are so cool, don't you think?

So what do you think? My hair is getting so long compared to what it was! I've made a ton of changes to my body, and I like it! I'm just glad that nobody was in the elevator with me when I took this picture because I had to adjust my boobs in my top to get them to look just right. :P

Love,
Amanda

P.S.: I'll be gone for a few days because I decided to visit my family. We'll see how they like the new me. I doubt they will very much, but I'll be the star of the show at my high school reunion in a few years! Talk to you all at the end of the week! <3

OMG, Shoes

Hey everyone! So I'm finally back home. My parents were a little shocked about my appearance, but they thought that it was good that I was finally branching out and having some fun. Good to know I have their support!

After I got back, I decided to go shoe shopping with Barbie again, and we got me some more totally amazing heels. My closet is full of so many pairs, but here's a picture of just a few.

And yes, they ARE all heels! I'm amassing quite the collection and I love them all. I just wanted to post so that you didn't think that I was dead or something, hehe! I'm very much alive, very much busy, and very much happy to be back home.

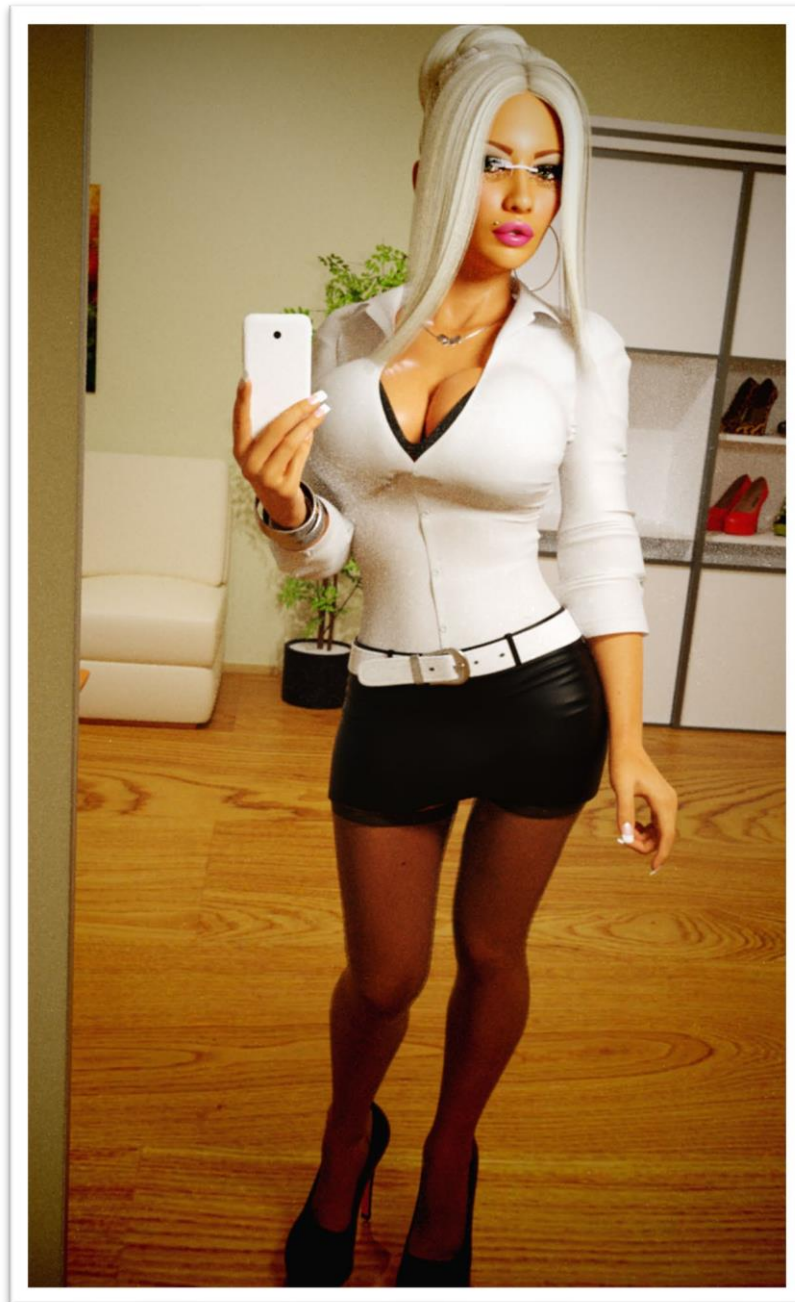

Not sure what my plans are for the weekend, but either way, I'll keep you updated. :)

I'm a Professional!

So don't worry, everyone. I've just been working hard so that I don't get fired. I figured that you all have been worrying, so I'd upload a picture of me in a more professional outfit. Tell me what you think!

See? I'm making an effort! It's just that my boss doesn't think that I'm going about it the right way. It's not like it's my fault my boobs don't fit into any of these tops! I'm trying my best! Maybe if they'd let me deal with clients, they'd be making a little more money!

Ugh, I don't know. I'm still looking for a way out of this job. Me and my big boobs should be worshiped, not treated like nothing. All of these changes and no appreciation. At least my parents were supportive. Grr...

Amanda

Busy!!!

Ack! Sorry for the lack of updates everyone! I've had a very busy week. I finally quit my job, because I was getting zero respect there, so there's one problem gone!

But before I did, I went to the doctor's to make sure that everything was perfectly healthy. He seemed pretty happy to see my boobs, so that made me feel good. Then I went out with Barbie to celebrate, so I've been sort of busy lately. Here's a nice topless picture of me as an apology for keeping you all waiting.

See? Everything is healing up very nicely and they're so big that I can't even look down when I put on my shoes, lest I get a face full of huge fake boob!

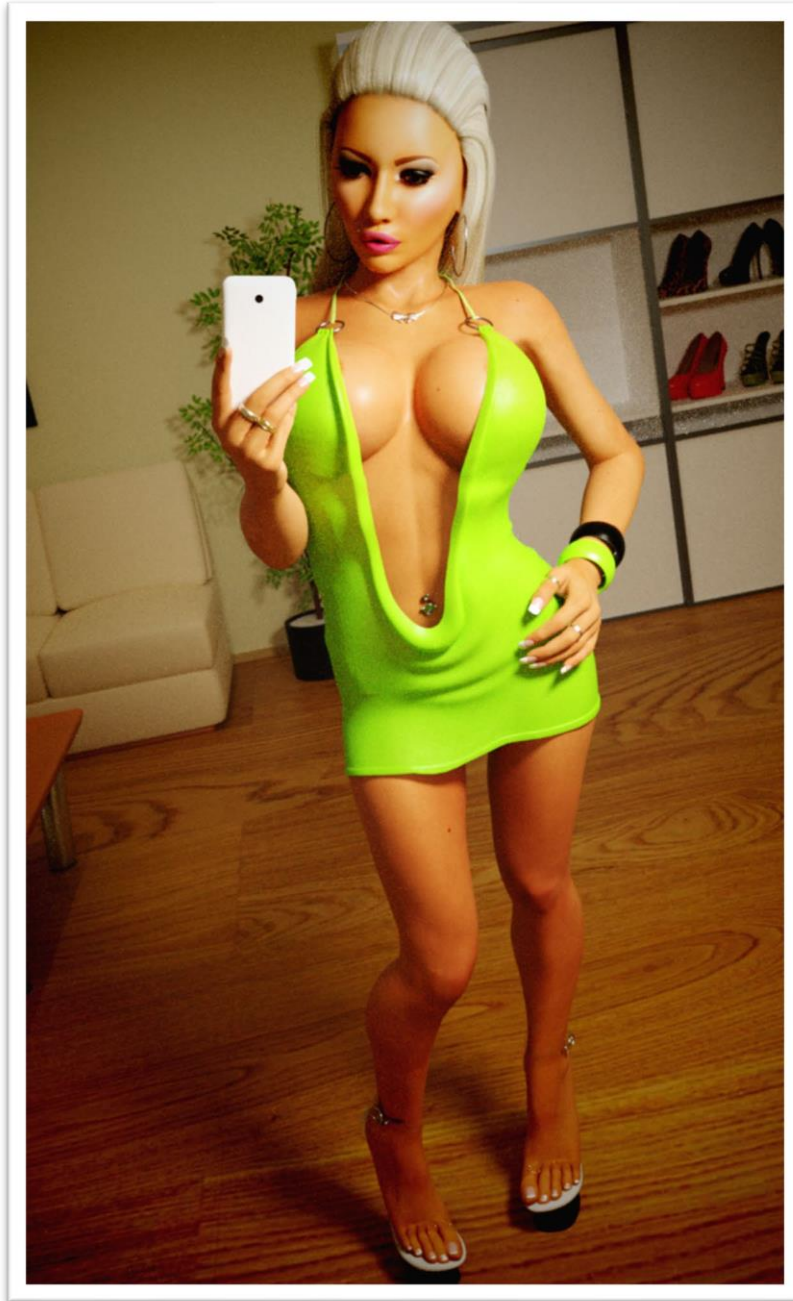

I'll have some more sexy pics coming. For now, Barbie is continuing to help me out with money and clothes (she's such a good friend!). But you'll see more of me very, very soon!

Busty!!!

So yesterday I was busy, but today I'm feeling busty! Barbie gave me this totally awesome dress and look how well it fits me! It even keeps my boobs so perfectly in place, but I can easily pull everything aside if I want to show off. Take a look!

And I just love the way it feels on my body, too. It's so soft and so comfortable! I'm going out to the club tonight, and I asked Barbie to take some pictures so that I can really show off my huge boobed body in action! This dress just feels so right!

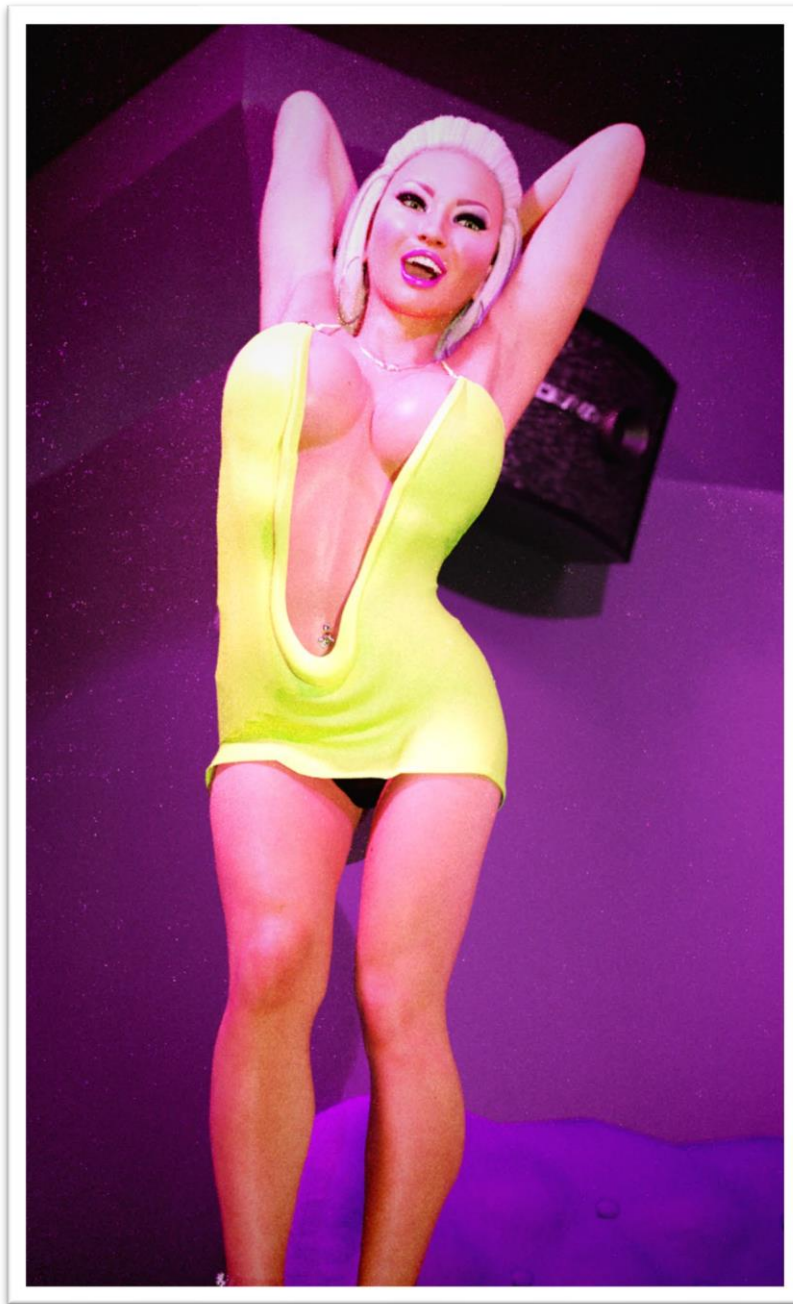

Hope you all have an awesome Friday, and I'll be sure to show you some pictures this weekend!

At the Club Again

So I'm finally uploading a picture from Friday night. Barbie and I are making a true weekend of it and are hitting up the clubs all weekend long, so here's a picture from my first night out in my new dress!

As you can see, I'm having a great time, hehe! There are a few more from Friday night, but I'm gonna be a little tease and make you wait. Hint, they're a bit naughty. ;)

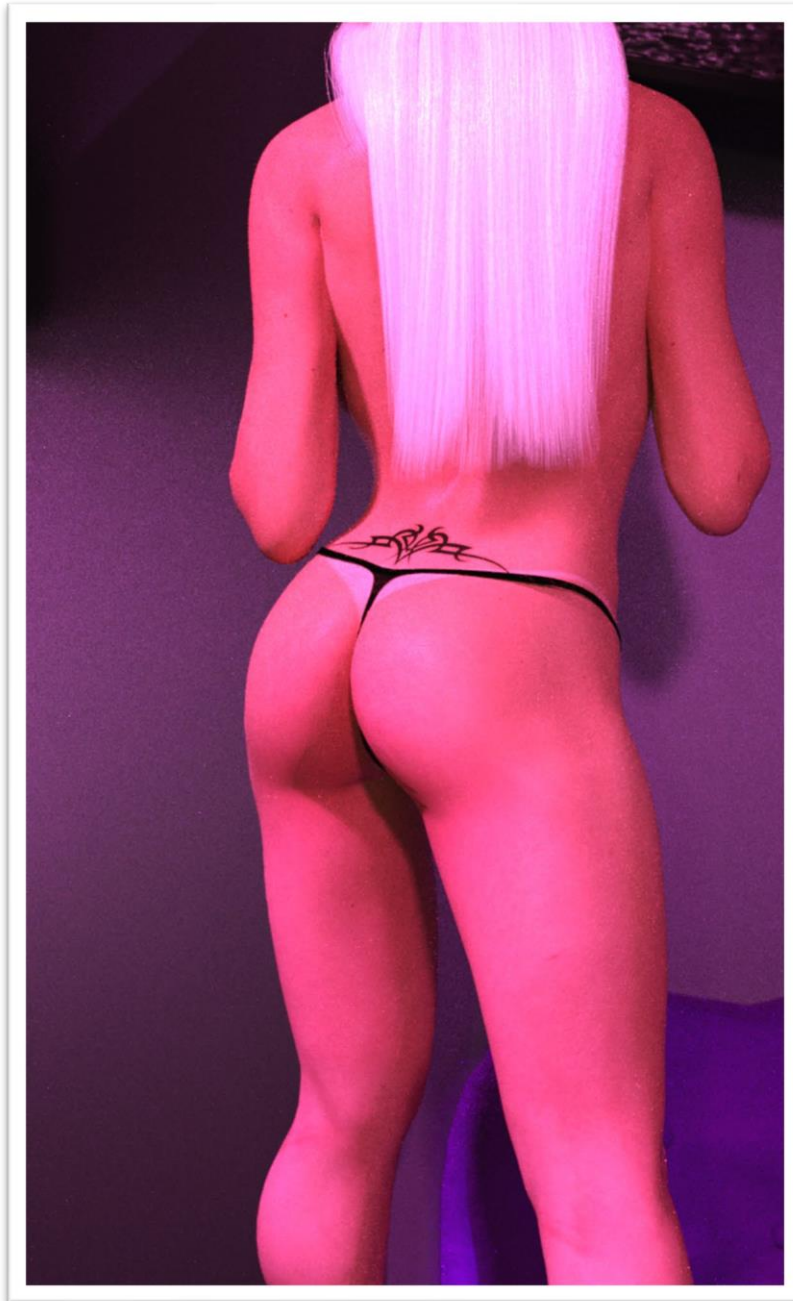

Hope you're having a great weekend, and maybe you'll see me partying at a club near you!

Check the Rear View Mirror

Another one of my favorites from Barbie's impromptu photo shoot with me at the club. There is another that I'm really looking forward to showing you all, but I can't resist a little suspense. After all, who doesn't love a gratuitous booty shot, hmm? And now you all can see just how long my "mane" has actually gotten. ;)

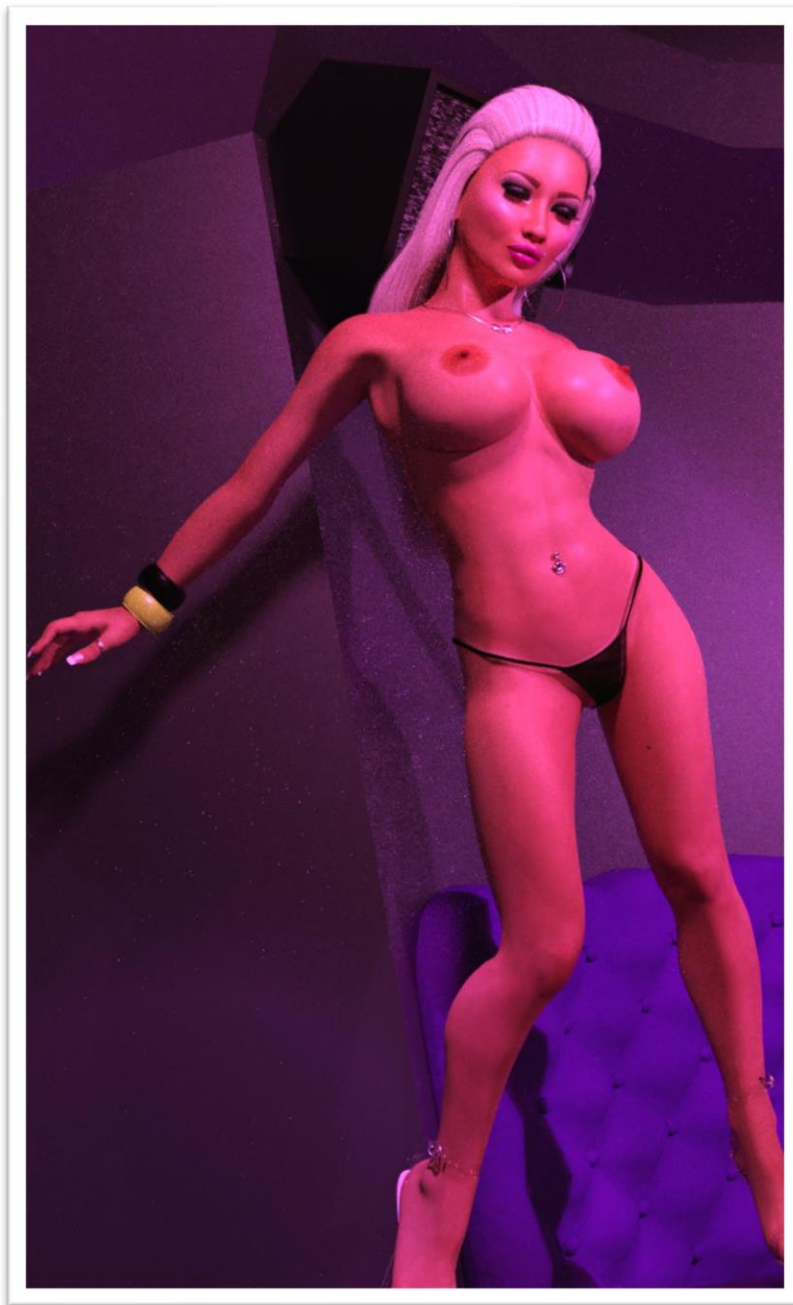

I might have some major news regarding a new job, but it's too early to tell. Once I know for sure, I'll let you all know. For now, just enjoy my butt!

The Money Shot

So I've teased you for long enough. Might as well show you how much fun I had when I was at the club this past weekend! So, since you're really interested, here ya go!

It might not look like it, but I was having a great time. I was just making sure that I was able to stay balanced and not slip down the stage. :P I figured that it wouldn't be too sexy to start dancing and then fall flat on my face.

But yeah, this is probably my favorite picture though. It may not be a smile, but it definitely has that "seductive" look. And if you couldn't tell by my nipples, I was quite turned on by all the attention! So yeah, it was an amazing night and an amazing weekend.

Hope you all are having a great start to your week!

After Effects

Oof... I have not gotten that hammered in a long time. And what's this I'm waking up to? I post a picture of me having a good time and now everyone thinks I'm a stripper? LoL. I'll confess that it does sound fun, but I haven't made an official decision either way yet! You sillies, I told you I'd let you know. But the truth is that big things ARE coming for me.

But right now I'm just trying to recover from one of the worst hangovers ever. A lot of you have seen me being oh-so-pretty, but this is reality, friends.

In the real world, you can't drink until dawn and expect to wake up all pretty. And no, those aren't braces in my mouth. The flash on my camera is just acting weird. But yes, this is the face of beauty after a long weekend of partying.

Moral of the story? If you're going to drink, don't do it all at once.

Much Better!

So what a difference a day can make! After a very busy day of trying to get my new job straightened out, I snapped a quick picture for you. As you can see, my lips have plumped a bit more, and now that I actually did my makeup, it feels so much better!

Or maybe it's just the fact that I'm not hung over that makes me feel better. Either way, this me when I actually look better. lol. And then yeah, those lips! I love puckering them and blowing kisses. They feel wonderful!

Hope you're having a great week. Happy Friday!

New Outfit

Hey there, everyone! So things have been a little tricky with the new job. I've been trying to get some free time to post a picture, but it keeps me going and going! The good news is that Barbie and I get to spend a TON of time together, but unfortunately, it's been keeping us super busy.

Anyway, here's a new outfit that I bought with some of my hard earned money. Hehe. Hope you all like! And if you think you see a little bit of a rounder butt, I've been doing a lot of booty workouts, and I've noticed that things have been looking bigger, yet firmer. What do you think?

It feels so great to be in clothes that look good on me. I don't think I'm spoiled, but the feeling of wearing a sexy outfit is beyond comparison. It's incredible!

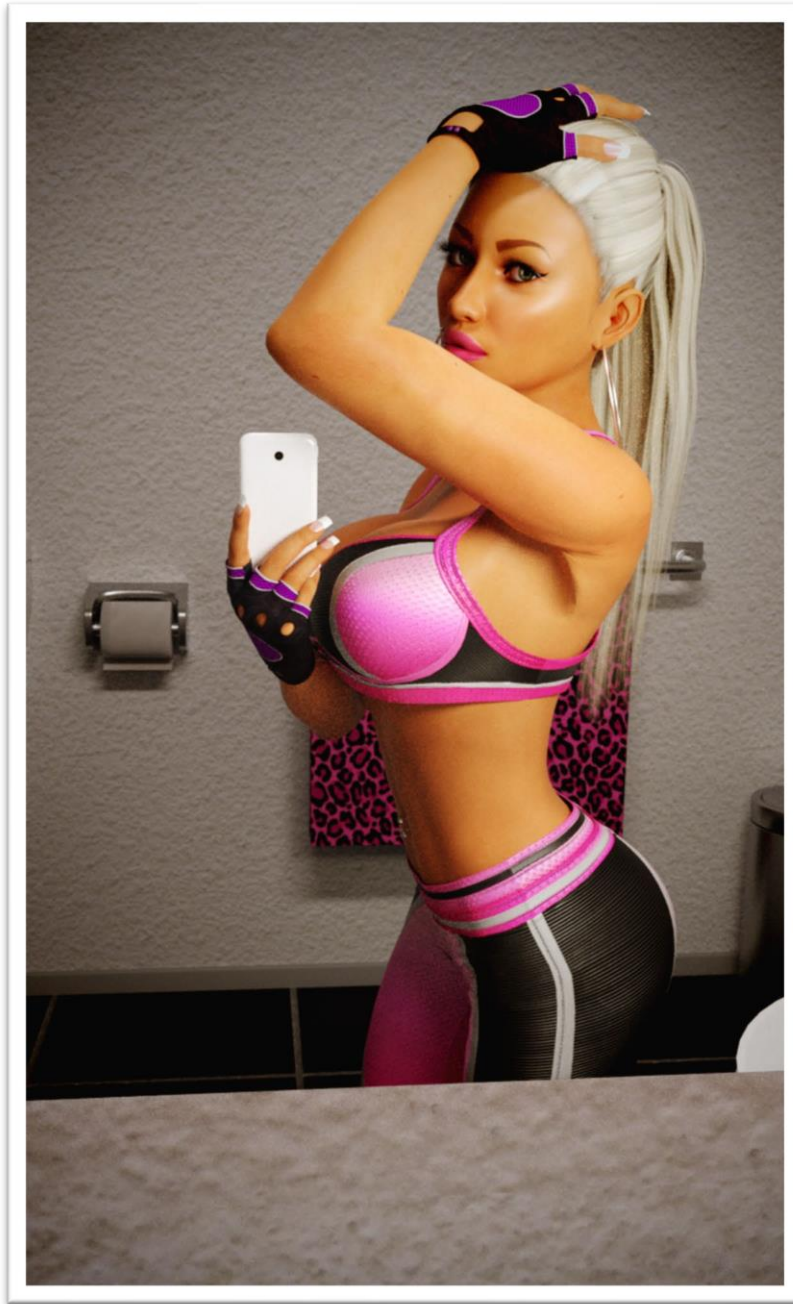

Anyway, I hope you've had a great start to your week!

Time to Work It!

Grrr... listen up, runts! You're never gonna get in shape if you don't get off your butt and do something about it! You can succeed as long as you put the hard work in! This is gym trainer Amanda here to whip you into shape! Now come on and give me 10 jumping jacks!

No time for excuses! I see you slacking off and trying to stare at me! That flab isn't gonna melt itself! Now drop down for 10 push ups and maybe I'll take off my top! See? I told you everything would work out with a new job! I'm a personal trainer now, just like Barbie!

Hehe!

The Secret(s) to My Success

Hi everyone! Hope you enjoyed the inspirational post... or maybe it was more like a drill sergeant, but whatever! I was able to achieve these results through hard work, but in the interest of full disclosure, I did have some help.

As you can see, I don't exactly want to have a huge, muscular body, so these have been helping me keep my figure during the workouts. Don't give me the whole, "Oh, this is suspicious. I bet it's just bimbo juice inside," argument. I've been taking them for a while now, and I promise they're fiiiine.

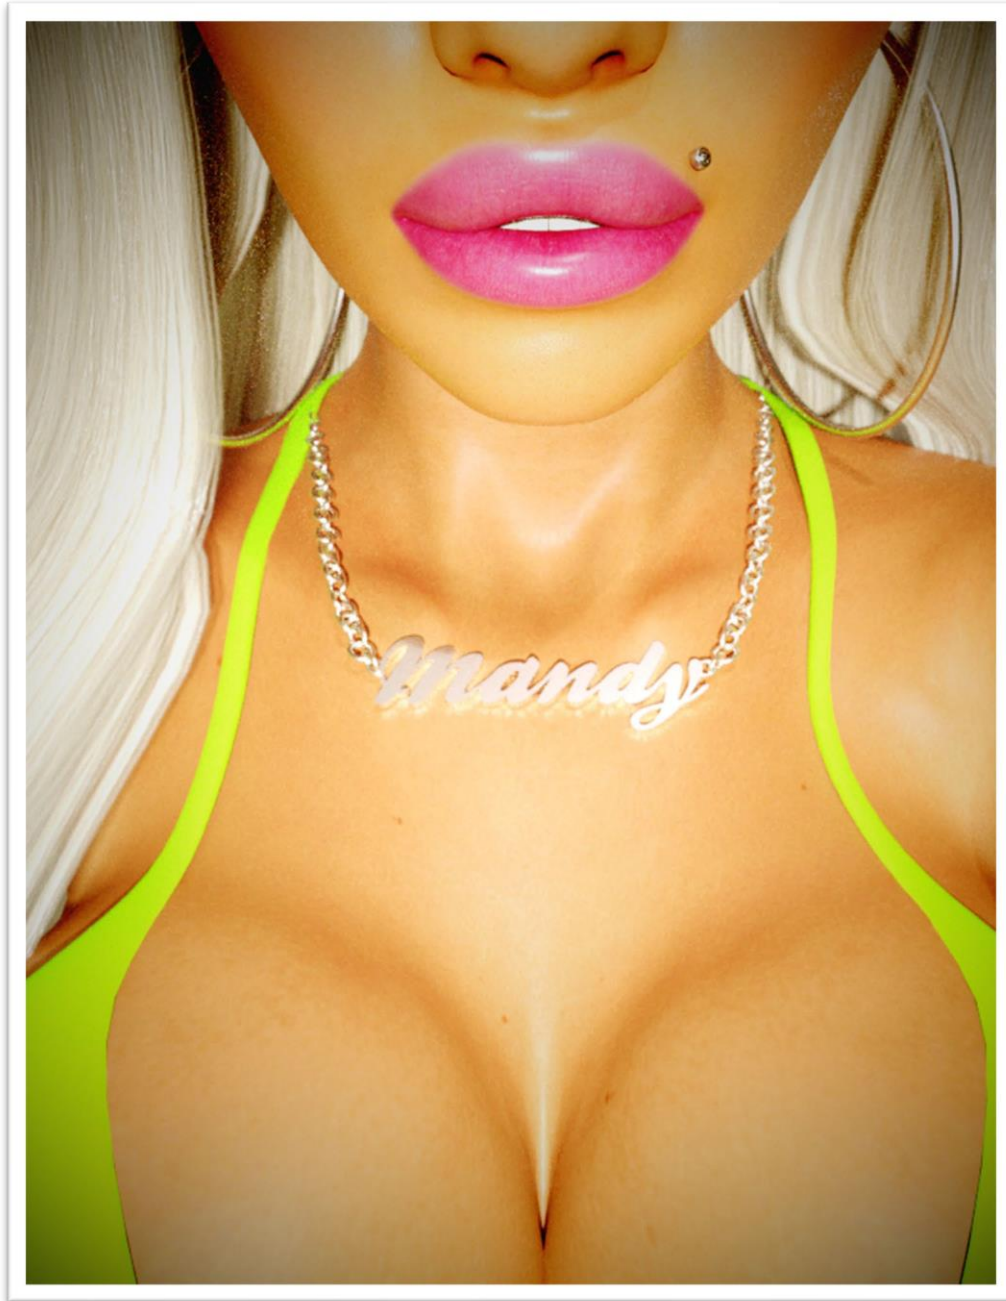

Seriously, they have helped me out a ton, and I feel like I'm in the best health of my life. :)

Amanda... or Mandi?

So what's in a name? Amanda... or Mandi? I was given this awesome piece of jewelry today, and I've been going back and forth on it for a little bit. I thought that I'd give you all a chance to think about it and let me know. I'd want to spell it "Mandi" because that's a super cute name for a tease, don't you agree? :P

And yes, as a free bonus, you get a good look at my cleavage. I expect a lot of feedback so that I can make a proper decision. After all, a name means a lot!

Amanda... or Mandi?

Webcam Surprise

Hi there everyone! I just wanted to give you a taste of a little show I did on my webcam. I thought it'd be a fun reward to show off my new bubblebutt. You've stuck with me through thick and thin, and this was the least I could do to show my gratitude.

Hehe I know it's just a sample, but I thought you'd enjoy seeing my butt and hips jiggle. And yeah, my boobs are shaking quite a bit too! So happy birthday to you all!

I've got a few more pictures to show you from a professional shoot I just did today, and I think you'll love the shots. Everyone at the studio did a FANTASTIC job and I can't wait to show you the stills once they come out!

Intense Training

Hi there everyone. Sorry my posts have been so short this week, and I apologize that this one is so short too. I'm working hard at my new job, and you'll all see what that means once these pictures from the shoot come in! I promise!

Meanwhile, the job has been keeping me busy. Tonight I'm gonna be putting in a full 12 hours, and I have to leave shortly to meet up with Barbie, so like I said, this is unfortunately a very brief post.

I promise I'll have more details soon. I would never leave you all hanging!

Professional Shoot, Part 1

Hey there! So I can officially tell you my secondary job! I'm now a professional escort! Basically, I get paid to look pretty, smile, and there's no sex required! It's pretty awesome. It's all the benefits of being a pretty girl without being labeled a trashy slut!

I went in for my photo shoot earlier this week, and they took a lot of great pictures. I'm going to share a couple of them with you per day so that you can see what my clients will see! :)

I figured I'd attach the super artistic black and white photo and then show off the color photo as a special gift to you. All the clients see are the black and whites, but I want you to see the colors too, because you've been on this ride with me for so long. I think the color photo really shows off how huge my tits have gotten. It's kinda making me wet to think of how far I've come. I'm still not sure if I want to go bigger, but I guess I'll just have to see what the clients think!

Mandi

Professional Shoot, Part II

Here's some more pictures from my photo shoot. I hope you all enjoyed my first set, and now here's some more from the same shoot. Again, it'll be the picture in black and white, and then the color version.

Hope you enjoyed this round of pictures. Basically, the photographer just said “give me your best sultry look” and this is what I came up with. It’s a little bit bimbo, because I was picturing myself saying something like, “Oh goodness, my titties are so big and my head is so empty, hehe!”

As I said before and as I’ll say again, this photoshoot was out of my comfort zone but was such an amazing opportunity. I just hope you all love seeing the results as much as I loved taking them!

Mandi

Professional Shoot, Part III

Even more pictures from my photo shoot. The photographer wanted me to do a couple of profile shots to show just how curvy I am, and I was happy to agree! They did such a wonderful job, don't you think? It looks classy and not trashy at all! I'm always afraid that somehow I'll look like some disgusting whore, and I never want that. I just want to be seen as a fun loving bimbo!

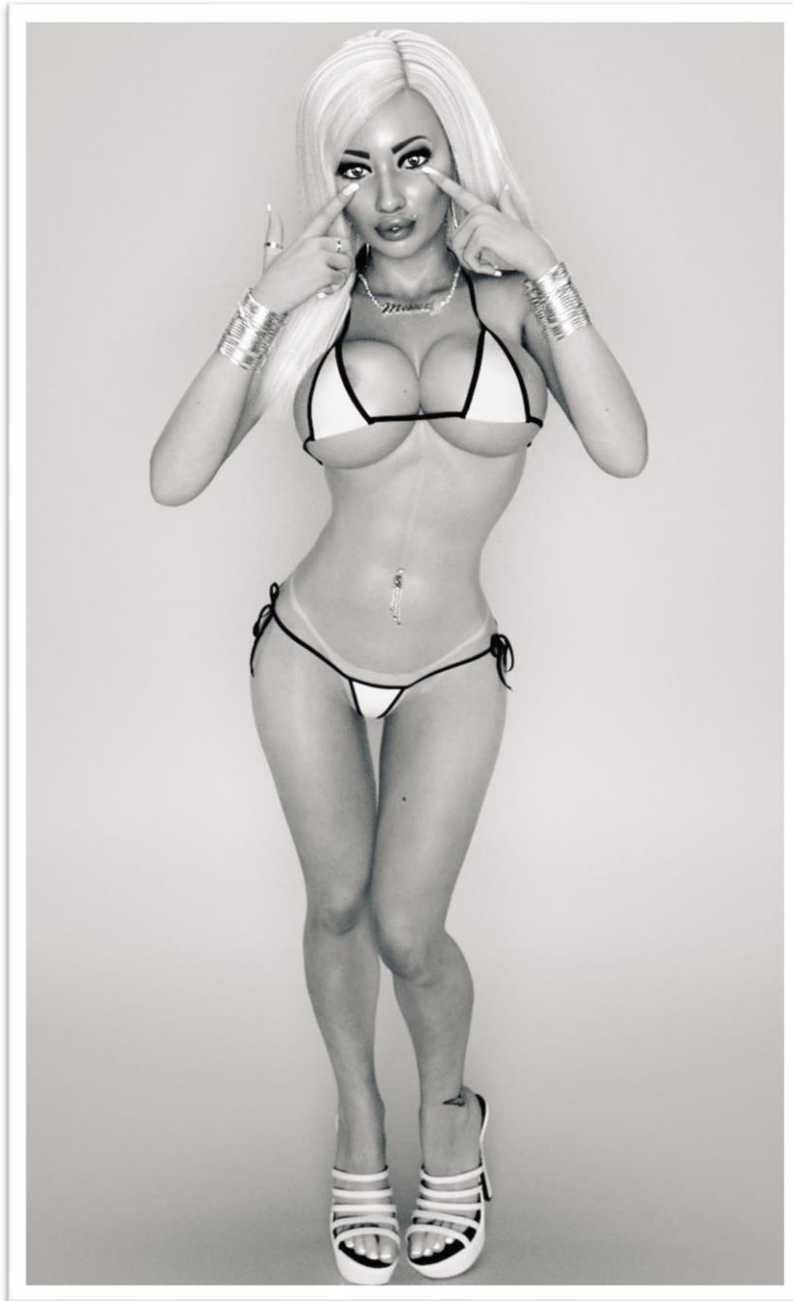

You can also get a really good look at my butterfly tattoo in this picture. I'm sure that's totally what you all were looking at when I suggested it, huh? Perverts... hehehe! During this one, I was kind of thinking along the same bimbo lines of "empty brain, big tits", but I wanted to give off a calmer, more relaxed appearance. I hope it comes through.

Professional Shoot, Part IV

Look me in the eyes when you talk to me! Hehe. This is just another in the part of my weeklong series of photoshoot pictures. When I told you they took a lot of pictures, I mean they took a lot of pictures! They wanted me from every angle in different outfits. These past couple days you've seen me in my bikini. It seems that the photographer loves it as much as I do and as much as you all do! It's truly a fantastic feeling to feel wanted. This is something I've never had before, and it feels amazing!

Like I said, when taking this picture, I just wanted to focus on my beautiful eyes. Hehe! Well, at least I think they're beautiful. What do you think?

Mandi

Professional Shoot, Part V

I am sure that this is the part of the photo shoot that you've been looking forward to the most – that's right, the NUDES. Hehe. I was a little nervous at first, but after a glass of wine and some relaxing music, I was ready to take my clothes off and really show my new body in all its glory. I'll be honest with you, everyone. I'm still a little nervous about it. I've spent so long hiding my body and hiding myself from others. It's a little tough to open up sometimes. But thank you all for being so patient!

For this picture, I was told to give a sassy look. I hope it came out that way! I wanted to give potential clients a good look at what I have to offer! You can see my nipple peeking out, which I didn't quite want, but the photographer said it was okay so we left it in!

Mandi

Professional Shoot, Part VI

So this is the last of the professional photos taken for my escort portfolio. This might be my favorite of the bunch. I look so naturally happy in this one, which is what I was going for. I wanted to show the camera and everyone who thought about hiring me that I'm a sweet girl that knows how to have a good time, but more importantly, one who knows how to be happy. So many girls can just be in it for the money and not care about the experiences. For me, it will definitely be both. I love trying new things! I can't wait to see how this new job turns out!

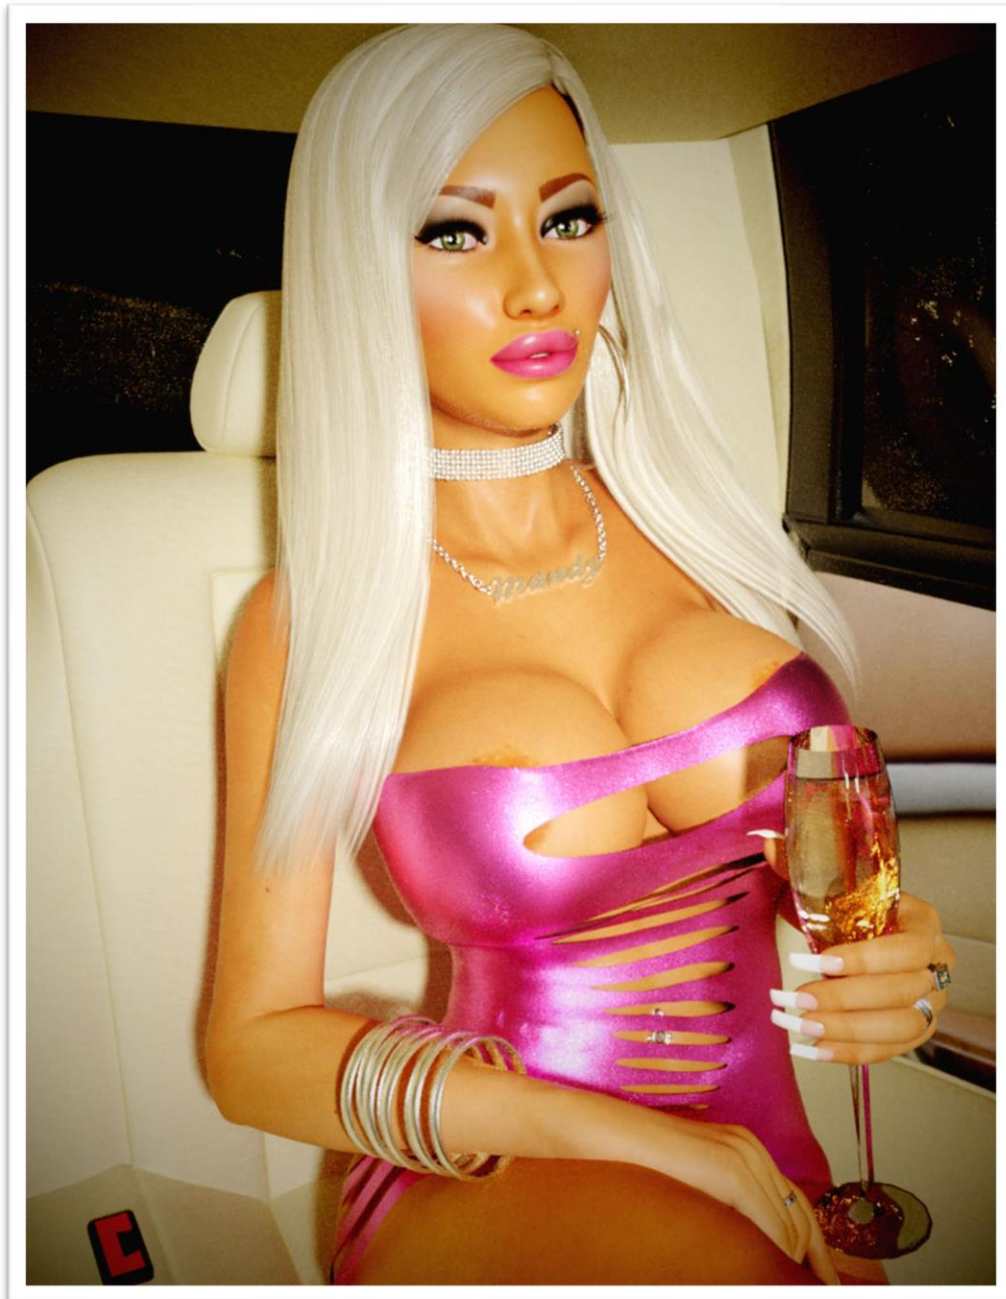

Again, I'm so happy we were able to take a picture like this. The photographer just said "show me your true self. Show me the Mandy you want to show to the world." And this is the result. I was stunned when I saw the picture. It was incredible and amazing and jaw dropping and perfect all at the same time! I hope you enjoy it as much as I do.

On the Job

I just had my first client on Sunday night! I know, Sunday night is when people are normally preparing for work, but my client? Let's just say he isn't bound to a normal 9 to 5 schedule. He's the big boss and can make up his own hours! So on Saturday, I had this beautiful dress shipped to my house, and then Sunday night, he showed up in this amazing limousine! Of course there was champagne on ice just waiting for me! I could certainly get used to this! I wasn't ready for the picture he took, so don't judge me! Hehe.

Life of the Party

So here's me and my date for Sunday evening! He wanted me to come off as his wife, and who was I to say no to that when I was getting wined and dined like the classy lady I am! Hehe. I know the heels weren't a solid color, which got a few funny looks, but most of the other guests were too busy staring at my boobs to notice anything. Besides, I was quite the conversationalist! Everyone loved Mrs. (Lastname)!

A Day On the Balcony, Part I

Hi everyone! I'm so sorry! I know it's been a while – almost 3 weeks, but I've had a good excuse, I promise! I've been so busy with the health club and with the escorting that I haven't had much time to update the blog here! As you can see, I visited a new tattoo artist that Barbie recommended, and look at this beauty! She did such an amazing job, right? It was a little painful around the ribs, but it's so worth it!

Anyway, this is the first of two pictures of me on the balcony of a beach house from one of my recent escort jobs.

A Day on the Balcony, Part II

A gentleman never asks and a lady never tells. So don't ask me what I did before going out to the balcony with this client, because I'll never tell. Though I'm sure you little perverts can guess correctly! Hehe. The cigarette was his, but the scotch on the rocks was all mine. Like I said, I'm classy!

Workout Body

So a lot of you have been asking what's been shaking in terms of my fitness journey. Well, in addition to yoga, I've started to take up kickboxing as well. You'll notice the gloves I'm wearing, and you probably noticed them last month too. I'm also very happy to report that you can see an "ab line" starting to form right in the middle of my belly! See? Progress is a beautiful thing! And, spoiler alert, this was actually taken about three weeks ago. Tomorrow you'll see just how far I've come!

The Results of Hard Work

As promised, I'm here today to show you that hard work pays off. You'll also see a couple of other little additions to the overall Mandi package. Kickboxing, yoga, weight training, cardio, and a healthy diet have led me to ... this. Well, in addition to some nice big, round implants! I'm going to be taking a little bit of a break to focus on opening my own workout studio! I still party it up with Barbie, and she was actually the one that encouraged me to open up my own studio, so I'm going to venture out on my own. I'm not sure when I'll update next, but I just wanted to thank you all from the bottom of my heart for all the love and support you've shown me. I promise I'll be back soon. I love you all so much.

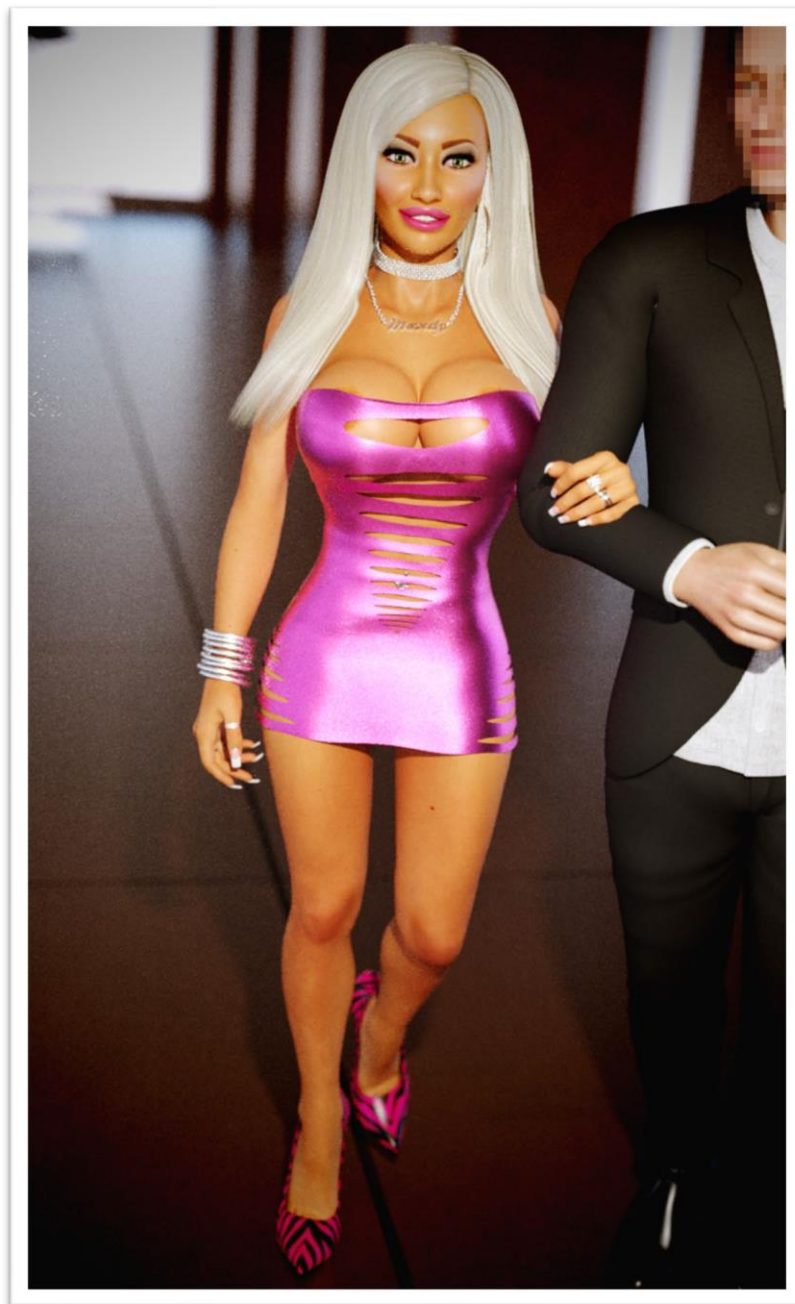

With love, kisses, and a busty hug,

Still Alive

Hello my little perverts! I'm so sorry – I know it's been six months or so, but I've been so super busy with my clients lately. I haven't forgotten about you, though! I'm currently working with three classes of ladies a day, and my story has served as an inspiration to get them in the best shape of their lives too!

There have been some other big additions in my life, but I'm not quite ready to reveal them yet. You all have called me a little tease, and I might as well live up to the reputation! But, just to show you some love, here's an old picture of me when I first started escorting, so that you stop feeling so lonely. I was wearing a lot of makeup that night, but hey, it's how he wanted me, and I wasn't going to say no to the kind of money he was offering. Face has been blurred out to protect the innocent!

Paying the Bills

So... how have I been spending my past few months? Well, I told you that I was doing personal training and escort services, but I don't think you'll really appreciate it until I show you what's been up in terms of paying off my debt.

Student loans, payments on my new car, bills bills bills? All paid off. IN FULL... You have no idea how many doors this opens up for me to continue to grow my brand!!!

Just look at all this cash!
It's good to be the queen.

Before and After, Pt I

So I've uncovered some pictures from my old computer (I bought a new faster one with a better webcam!), and I thought I'd share with you some before and afters. Can you believe how much I've changed in less than a year? My goodness!

Poor little boring Amanda all ready for her boring work. And now... drumroll please for the latest additions to this bimbo...

Ta-da! It's a bodacious boobed Mandi after her latest round of plastic surgery! Perfection, here I come! I can't remember what cup size I am anymore. I've had to start getting fitted for custom bras! And don't worry about the nose job. It's just another touch-up I wanted to have done to continue toward that Barbie doll look. So... what do you think of the new me?

Before and After, Naughty Edition II

And oh, look at how things have changed! Sorry for those that are offended by dick pics. But I'm looking right at you, so don't be too blah! This wasn't the best dick I've sucked, but hey, it wasn't the worst either. You'll notice how my technique improved! And for those asking, yes, most of these pictures are before my most recent boob job. So chillax, everyone! :P This is me last year...

And this is me this year! Different cock, same result. I've definitely been able to be a bit more picky in what kind of man I want to have fun with, and that's such a blessing for me. And you can tell by the look on my face in both pictures just how much my attitude toward it all has changed. Going from nervous and trying to look sexy... to looking sexy without even trying!

Do you approve? Maybe you could be next?

Before and After, Naughty Edition III

So a bunch of you little perverts out there have been asking me a lot of questions, and I'm going to answer them here to make sure that they show up for everyone to see.

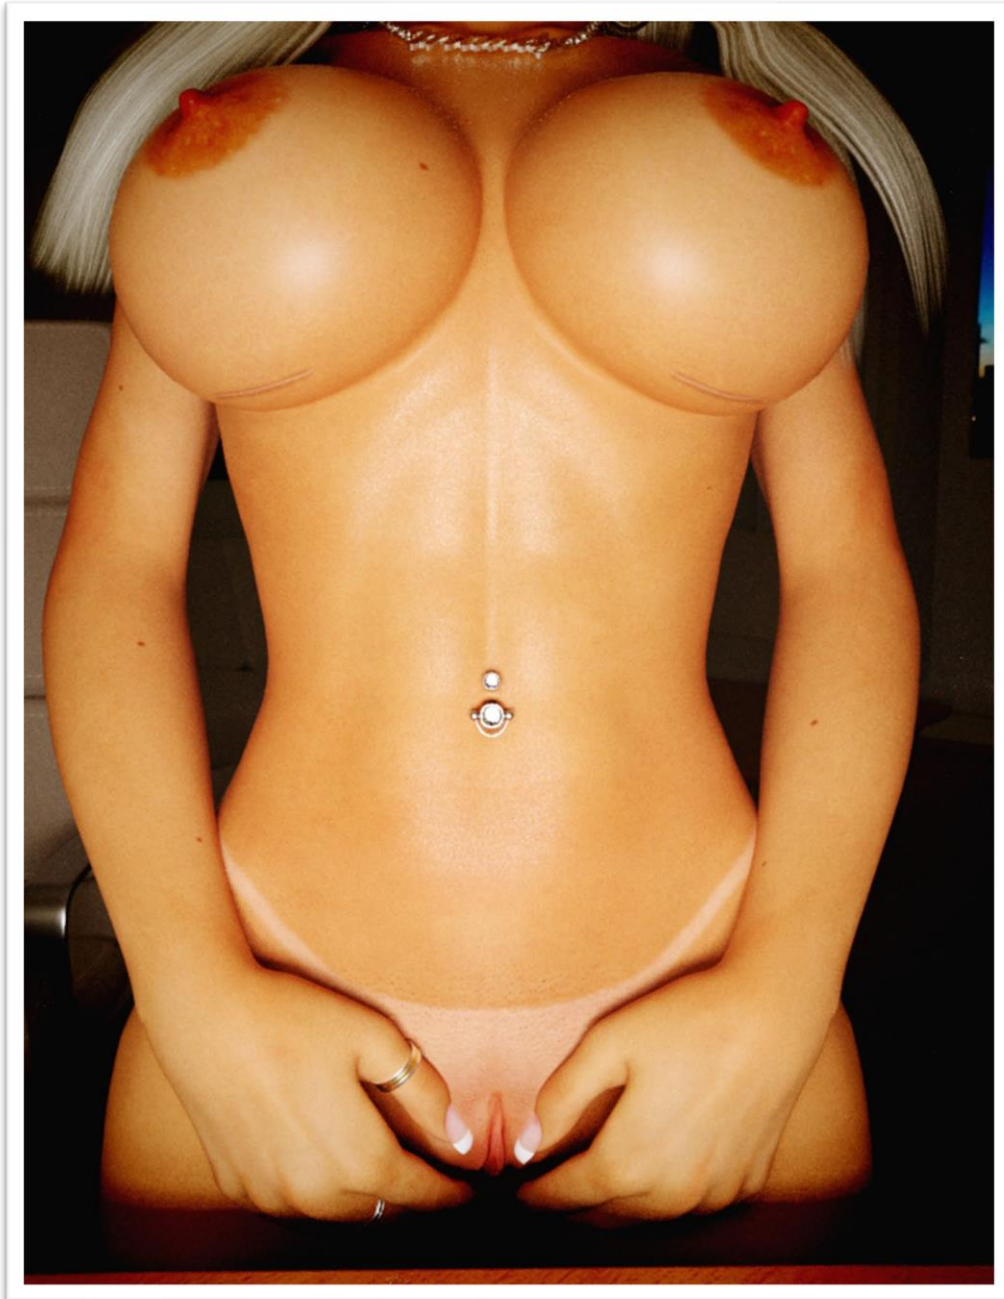

I do have piercings, I do have sex, but I'm a lady that doesn't want to reveal too much right away. So now that you've got a little taste of how naughty Mandi can be, I promise you that I won't hold anything back. But I'm not just gonna go taking pictures to please one person. So please be patient, and please, for the love of all that is holy, don't ask creepy questions. :P

For today's before and after, I think you'll appreciate a few pictures I've taken at my computer. It should answer a bunch of questions that you may have about what's pierced and what's not.

First, here's me as I started this incredible journey.

Next up is a few months ago, after my first boob job. See how the yoga was paying off for me? I still hadn't quite developed my abs yet, but you can see that they're starting to come in! Also, the surgery lines are still pretty apparent in this picture. I went to a much better plastic surgeon this time around, as you'll notice if you haven't already. Also, you'll see that I'm becoming more confident in my body, allowing you to see a little bit more than you did with boring old Amanda.

And now here's the new me. You'll notice that there's a bit more muscle definition, a little more ink, and a few more piercings! There's also a friendly little guy in the foreground just waiting to be played with! You can probably tell, but I've been growing my hair out and keeping it a bleached bimbo blonde this whole time. I love my look, and soon you'll see a full sized picture of the masterpiece I'm creating.

Love,
Mandi

Before and After, Part IV

I figured that you all might like a little more in the terms of full length pictures. So here's me when I first started this weird journey. As you can see, none too impressive.

But then look at me now! As you can see, I still love my Chuck Taylor's! As you can see, the woman in the mirror is nothing like the old boring Amanda. You'll even notice that I got a new place! Don't you just love the pink décor? And yes, that is a stripper pole there in my living room. It's so I can practice my moves and do some stripper-robics! This is pretty much how I dress now. I've moved to a beach town, and all the girls are pretty much dressed like this if they look as good as I do. Hope you don't think it's too slutty. And even if it is, are you complaining? Hehe.

Love,
Mandi

Before and After, Part V

For this round, we have from the side and back. As you can see, my body used to be not very impressive. But hey, I had no motivation. Then I found out the secret of taking care of myself and having fun! You'll notice that I used to have ... well, not quite as nice a body, if I can put it gently. But you can still see the potential for greatness! I just need to embrace what you all helped me embrace!

And look at me now! Look at those sexy tits and that badonkadonk! Don't you just love it? I know I do! And yes, with this top, there's no need to wear a bra when your tits practically defy gravity! I hope you enjoy the rear view as much as the front view!

Before and After: The Face of a Bimbo

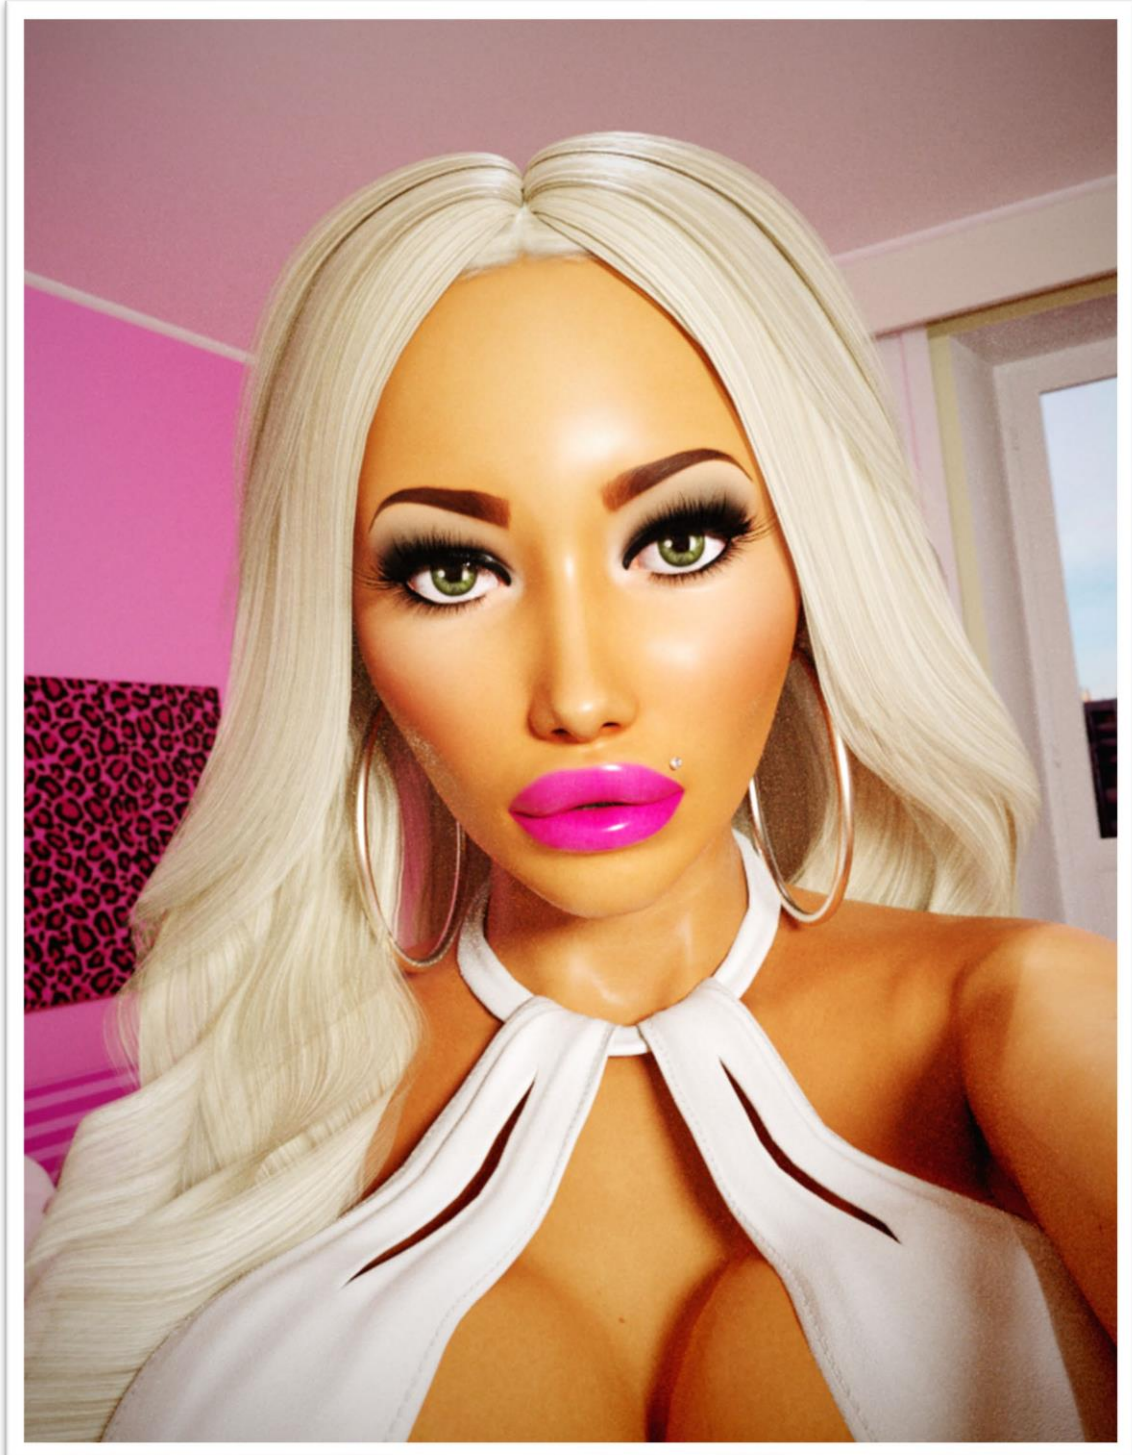

Hello again, everyone! It's time for another before and after. I found a few more photos from the pictures I've posted here, and things have changed quite dramatically! You'll see what I mean. This poor girl, you might recognize as me from the day I started my blog. See, none too fun. Kinda boring. Working in a crappy, dead end job and just trying to get by in day to day life.

This is me after my first ever makeover, and it felt so super good, but there's still a little ways to go until bimbo perfection, right? I still had the boring, dead end job, but I was already making my plans to escape. Barbie was such a huge help to me during this time, giving me money and a place to stay while I got my financial situation back in order. She's still such a good friend, and I love her for it. But there was still more changes needed for me to even get close to being perfect!

And now, behold! My new look! This is the face of a true bimbo. I could have put in blue contacts, but I've gotten so many compliments about my lovely green eyes, so I've decided to keep them as is. I still take amazing care of my body, and I just love this shade of lipstick, don't you? Mwah! I feel so bimboicious!

A Look Behind the Scenes

I forgot to show you one more picture of my continuing changes, and I think it's one you'll really like. It's one of me just getting home after my latest breast augmentation. As you know, I went bigger, and now here's the healing process. Don't mind the hair. I just got out of the shower, but I felt so cute. It was my first time really being able to admire these nice big globes and I couldn't help myself!

Tell me know how much you love the new me!

My Weekend

Hello everyone! I'm having quite the busy weekend, but I just wanted to hop on here really quick because I absolutely LOVE the dress that I get to wear this weekend. Here, take a look. It arrived on Thursday and I felt so incredible when I tried it on. Now with the accessories, I feel gorgeous! But that's not even the best part. You see, from the front, I look like a beautiful and elegant woman trying to be modest despite her breasts.

But then you look at the backside and it goes from classy to sassy! My client specifically requested that I didn't wear panties, and I was happy to follow those instructions. Plus, with a back like this, wearing any sort of panties just seems pointless, doesn't it?

I'll definitely have more fun to report on Monday, but this weekend is going quite busy for me, since I'll be here with my client all weekend. Talk to you all then!

Mandi's Getting Naughty!

Well, my weekend fun carried over a little bit, but as promised, I do have pictures. There's not much to really say about them. I just really hope that you all enjoy the view. I know I had fun with them! ;) My client is an amateur photographer, and who am I to say no to some modeling? We had a nice king bed the entire weekend at this beautiful resort, and I was excited just from all the food and drinks! It didn't help me at all that my client was quite good looking, so I may have been doing my best to seduce him in these photos. I mean, looking back at this picture, I'm basically looking at him and demanding that he have his way with me. But he was a tease just as much as I am, and made me wait until he took as many pictures of my body as he could.

After a few more pictures, I was getting a little frustrated, so I felt that I needed to show him how badly I was aching for more physical attention. I think this picture conveys the thought pretty well. I was asked to wear all golden jewelry and that included my nipple rings. I was going to anyway, but I was so happy to hear what my client wanted. It seems he's got some good taste in accessorizing.

And before you ask, yes. Maybe I was a little drunk. I don't drink too much, and I definitely moderate myself, so please don't think poorly of me. It's just that with all of the other beautiful, rich people and the never ending food and drink, it was tough for me to say no to everything! And besides, isn't it better to get a little tipsy than put 25 pounds of fat on this perfect body?

More to come tomorrow, I can promise you that!

Even Naughtier...

Yes, I'm back with more pictures from my amazing weekend last weekend. This weekend is a little bit of a rest and relaxation weekend. Barbie booked a spa day for us, but she encouraged me to at least post these fun stories to the blog so that you can know exactly how I felt about my client and how he felt about me!

See, this is definitely not part of the escorting contract. I am under no obligation to perform any sexual acts in the line of duty, but there was just an amazing chemistry between us that I couldn't help myself. He's not the first client I've felt strongly about, and he certainly won't be the last, but I've gotta have my fun when it's offered by such a handsome man!

Loving my Body

Have I mentioned lately how much I absolutely love my new body? The sensations that I feel, just from touch or from any carnal act sends shivers up and down my spine. I've heard that losing weight and getting fit boosts libido, but its as if my pleasure has grown a hundredfold since embarking on this amazing journey!

It feels so incredible, and I'm so glad that people think I look great! Here are a few more pictures of my fun in bed with my client. I think in this first one, it was a mixture of ecstasy and tipsiness, but I was definitely about to orgasm. So yes, you are now officially seeing my "O face". I hope you're happy. Hehe.

And then, my reward for a job well done. It was unfortunate that he came, because I could have gone for another hour or two. I won't tell you how long he lasted, but I will say that it was definitely long enough to satisfy me. No issues there. But he desperately wanted a picture of me cleaning up my body, so here you go.

The Taste of Perfection

Hello again, everyone! I've been busy this week at the fitness center. There are a ton of dedicated girls that are really giving their all and proving that they're incredible, talented, and driven women. It's a joy to have them in my classes, but to properly make sure they get their money's worth, I have to give them my attention.

I found a few more pictures my client took of me with my phone. He must have a photography fetish or something. Hehe. But I was happy to help him out, and I'm pleased with the results. This is another one of me cleaning up and showing off what a good, perfect bimbo I am.

And now this was on Sunday afternoon, before we were scheduled to leave. You can almost see him in the background there, but I figure the lighting is too poor so nobody will make out his face. Anyway, I remember this picture clearly, because I was trying to get him to follow me into the walk-in shower for one last round before we said goodbye. Hehe.

Moved to the Beach

Hey everyone!

It seems like my time here is winding down. I've been so super busy with clients and my new workout studio that I might be calling this blog quits in a little bit. I might post things occasionally, but with everything going on in my life, I've gotta help others.

That's what I've always been about, helping others. It's not the brain that makes the bimbo. It's the body. And I want to inspire others to have bimbo bodies too, which is why I started the workout studio. And, of course, I like to help big strong men get off!

So for those of you clamoring for me to dumb down, I promise you that I can act like a ditzy dumb blonde when asked, but that's just not who I am. I'm a helper, not someone that needs help.

I might have mentioned this already, but I recently moved out to California to celebrate my new life and open up a bigger studio. It seems that this blog has given me a lot of fans out there, and my studio has already paid for itself! The adjustment from New England weather to California weather has been incredible, and I took a day for myself and went to the beach a few blocks from my house.

Yes, I moved houses, but a designer was nice enough to design my "office room" just like the one back home, since that's where you all fell in love with me. I told him it was important to have the pink walls too!

Anyway, here's a picture of me at the beach.

Beach Bimbo in Cali!

That's right, this beach bimbo is living it up! I hope you like my bikini! You got to see the back side of it yesterday, and now here's the front side! And yes, if you couldn't tell, this smile is 100% genuine. I could have never imagined being this happy or smiling this big back in my old life and my old job. It just takes one step to achieve your dreams, and I was so unwilling to take it. Now, I finally decided to jump in with both feet, and as you can see, it's paid off nicely! And guess what? It's all thanks to your love and support!

Unfinished Business

So as you can see below, I've been really enjoying myself at the beach. The photographer that went with me to the beach insisted that we wait for just the right wave to sweep up around my body. But... as the picture suggests, one wave was so high that it totally ruined my hair. Oh well, wet hair is sexy, right?

But I got an interesting piece of mail today! It seems I need to tie up some loose ends back home. I especially want to get back for my high school reunion!

I don't want to spoil any of it for you, but I'm just gonna show you the ID badge they sent me in the mail. I've kept it in my purse and scanned it in today! I think they're gonna be SUPER surprised, don't you?

Sneak Peek: The Reunion

Hey there! So, uh... the class reunion happened, and for the first time in a while, I felt like that shy, embarrassed, girl that wasn't confident. But that quickly changed when people told me how great I looked. It really gave a boost to my self esteem, and I think the prom dress was a nice touch. After all, every girl wants to feel like a princess every once in a while! I never really felt like a princess at my prom, so I was definitely out to make up for it at the reunion. So yeah, maybe I went a little overboard, but nobody seemed to mind.

Here's a little preview, since I know you're all eager to see what I wore. Please let me know what you think!

The Reunion: Meeting Up

So as you could probably guess, my 10 year reunion wasn't one I was looking forward to, because I was one of the nerdy girls. All the cheerleaders got the attention, and there I was on the computer, studying to make sure I could make a good living. Who knew I could make such a good living by looking pretty though, hehe!

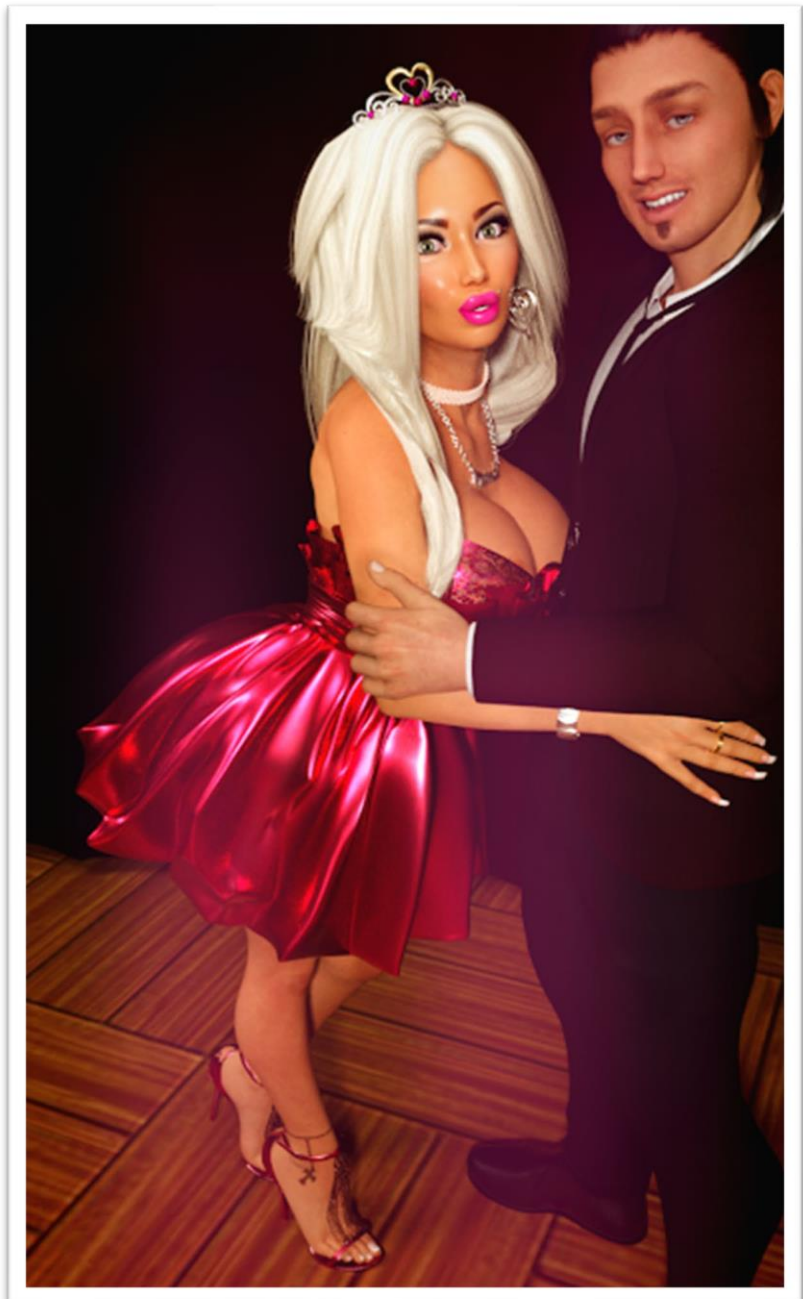

I was going to be all mad and bitchy to the cheerleaders that made my life miserable, but it looked like they got knocked down a peg or two by age. It's amazing what 10 years can do to a body. Well, I guess it's amazing what one year can do to a body, let alone 10! So I didn't get angry at them or yell at them. I just felt bad for them.

I even offered a girl the chance to come back to California with me so that she could lose some weight, get back in shape, and maybe get a bimbo body. Normally I wouldn't have offered, but she told me how great I looked and apologized for being so mean. She said she'd do anything to have a body like mine, so let's see if my Bimbo Boot Camp can shape her back up into a worthwhile bimbo! Hehe!

But there was one guy there that I had a huge crush on back in high school. His name is Brad, and I got a chance to catch up with him. Here's a picture of us!

We had a great time. He looked very excited to see me! Don't you agree?

Reunion Fun

So yeah, I think you guys could already guess, but the reunion wasn't just fun and dancing and getting to catch up with old friends (and old enemies). It seems that my brand new body was the most popular thing there, because everyone was talking about it.

Then, the inevitable happened. My fun new football player friends wanted a piece of the action, and who am I to say no, especially when I look this good!

It was a little overwhelming at first, but I think everyone enjoyed themselves!!!

By the way, thank you all so much for your interest in the former cheerleader that wanted me to help her get in shape. I know that you all are eager to see HER progress, but the problem is that people have to give their consent to get their pictures taken, especially if they want to be in my boot camp. So while I love to see you're all very interested, I don't know if we'll be showing her get in shape. Sorry to disappoint!

Reunion Rewards

Sorry to leave you all hanging, but I've been so busy seeing other people while I'm in my hometown. I'm headed back to Cali with my new ex-cheerleader friend soon, but I've just had to make a few more stops.

In the meantime, I wanted to show you a little bit of a follow-up to the last picture I posted.

I think... I think I may have lost consciousness after the fun that I had. Everything was just so overwhelming. I had done threesomes before, but nothing ever like that. It felt so amazing to have all those cocks cum all over me. It made me feel like a real prom queen, even though it was our 10 year reunion.

As you can see, my name tag isn't exactly in the best condition right now, but I can't complain about that either!!! It was so much fun to see everyone though, and to taste all of those boys.

And in answer to previous questions, those were all members of the team from 10 years ago. I'm not a pervert and sucking off high school boys. Just wanted to clear that up. :P

One Last Visit to Work

Well, like I said before, I had a few loose ends to tie up here on the East Coast before heading back to California. I just had to thank my boss at the TV station for being so understanding when I told him that I needed to pursue other ventures.

So I'm getting ready to go there now, and I think that I look okay. I just hope people recognize me. I'm still wearing the same ID badge as before, so I don't know if they'll let me in or not. Maybe if I flash the security guard, they'll give me a warning and let me pass. Hmm... guess I'll have to find out!

So Many Clients, So Little Time

Hello again, everyone!

I'm so sorry that I've been absent again. It seems that I've been swamped with clients at the escort service after showing off my little bit of fun at the prom! People seem to really enjoy dressing me up and showing me off now!

Anyway, as I promised you long ago, I did get the chance to visit my old work. They didn't really remember me, and they were quite suspicious when I showed them my old badge, so I just unbuttoned my blouse and showed them the only two ID cards I'll ever need now!

The security guard let me in, and... well... just see how everyone reacted!

Yup! It looks like I've become quite the center of attention!!! But there was one person I just had to see, because it was the whole reason for the trip. I wanted to see my old boss, since he was so nice to just let me leave to follow my dreams. That's coming soon, I promise! :)

Love,
Mandi

P.S.: I'm almost at 1 million views! How crazy is that!! Let's push it and get us up to that million! Love you all! <3

A Very Grateful Boss

So it looks like my old boss was very happy to see me! I had resigned before most of my changes really took hold, and he hardly recognized me either! But I showed him my ID badge and then he looked at my eyes and pretty much recognized that it was me!

But he really couldn't stop staring at my huge titties. He was trying to be polite and making small talk, but finally I just flashed him. I've never seen a cock get so hard so quickly! Soon enough, he had me down on my knees and was taking out that monster of a dick.

As for my blowjob skills? He rated them 11 out of 10. Haha.

If you couldn't tell already, I love the taste of cock!

My Last Corporate Paycheck

Yes, I'm so clever, aren't I? I suppose cum counts as a paycheck, right? Well, I'm officially done with big corporations so that I can focus on my escort work and my private workout studio. It feels so good to be able to cut the strings from the lifestyle that just wants people to be so mean to each other just to get a leg up.

I mean, for me, I'd just rather put both legs up and take a pounding, which is just what I did after slurping up my old boss. He was very eager to go, and didn't tell me until after that I was the best fuck he's ever had! God, I hope he's not married! That'd be kinda awkward!

So anyway, please enjoy this last picture from my last day at TV Corp. It was definitely a day I won't forget for a long time, and I'm sure he won't either! Hehe! And just as a little side note, as punishment for him being rude to me when I first left TV Corp, I wouldn't let him see my perfect tits. He just had to admire them while covered up. Hehehe.

My Fantastic New Life

Hello all my silly friends!

That's right, Mandi is still here. I've been spending the past few months with a few of my clients, and it's been so fun to see how they've improved. I know that it's been a little while, but I didn't want to update the blog until I was able to show off some real results!!!

So I'm proud to say that I'm back, and with some super friends! I love my life so much, and these girls have been such a big part of it. I've even started to see a special someone out here in Cali! Things have really started looking up for me ever since I moved out here!

And so, here's me and a few of my friends. I hope you enjoy all of us! We work so hard to make our bodies perfect!

From l. to r.: Jenni, Suki, me!, Cassie, Latasha

Don't you just love us all? I promise that there will be some showing off soon! By the way, I absolutely LOVE these heels I've got! They were a gift from my new boyfriend, Mr. A! Sorry, no revealing names! Mandi doesn't kiss and tell!

But I hope you're all having a fantastic fall!

My New Crew, Part I

As promised, here are some more pictures of me with my "new crew". These are all girls that I've helped out, encouraged, and cheered on as they've attained their own personal brand of perfection. I'm so proud of every single one of them!

Here's a picture of me with Suki and Latasha. Look at Latasha's ass! Those buns are bigger than mine! Hehe. I'm so happy that I could help these girls out. You'll learn more about them individually in the coming days, but I just had to show off the rest of the pictures from this photo shoot! I hope you enjoy!

My New Crew, Part II

So here's the other two girls, Cassie and Jenni! Jenni is the former cheerleader I told you about, that came back to Cali with me! Cassie has been working so hard and she's even been an instructor for some of the workouts I offer!

Both girls have worked incredibly hard over the summer, and I'm so freaking proud of all four of them! Here's me with Jenni and Cassie.

And don't mind my big butt getting in the way. I can't help it sometimes! Hehe!

My New Crew, Part III

So I wanted you to have a chance to get to know all the girls better! I've decided to open up my case files for each of them. Maybe if you like these enough, I'll create a case file for myself. I'll just have to ask the girls to write something about me! Hehe.

As you can see, I made notes for every girl and attached a before and after picture, but I'm not going to bore you with stats and numbers. Besides, for these girls, the only important numbers are the number of times they get to go out and have fun per night!

So without further ado, here's the first of my case files. I hope this shows up okay. I had to take a picture of them from my desk. If you're having trouble seeing, just click on the picture and it should open up bigger... I hope!

Hope you enjoy! Get ready for more of my friends very very soon!

CASSIE

Cassie was an elementary school teacher that was overweight and under-sexed! Her hairstyle didn't change much after I helped her, but she decided to dye it a pretty blonde like me! Cassie was really struggling in her marriage, with a husband that didn't care for her at all. So after helping build her confidence and shrink her body, Cassie's become one of my newest teachers at the gym! She's an amazing person and learns things very quickly. She leads the morning classes, which lets me sleep in a little bit after a long night out working my escort job!

If you're ever lucky enough to see Cassie on the streets, she's such a friendly person! A true Southern belle, she greets every one with a happy smile and a cute little "Rya!" But, did you really have a doubt that I'd hire a meanie to be one of my teachers at the gym? Of course not! Cassie is a strict instructor, but a friendly person. She just wants everyone to give their best!

My New Crew, Part IV

Hey all!

As promised, I'm back with more super fun stuff! It seems that Latasha is a big hit, and she totally should be! She's a sexy college student with a big, bubbly badonkadonk! Here's my case file on Latasha. Hope you all can see how hard she's worked!

Go on and give it a read! I'm so proud of Latasha, and she's thinking about opening up her own studio after graduation! Isn't that so cool! Two more friends to go! Get ready for Suki next!

Love,
Mandi

LATASHA

My lovely black beauty is Latasha. She was a college student, and still is, actually! She proves that you don't have to completely give up on your old life if you want treatments. Latasha is majoring in communications with the goal of becoming a public relations expert. Well, thanks to my help and a lot of hard work, this very average girl got the body she deserves! A set of nice round boobs, and a tweekable butt that's a must for any proper black girl! Looking at her now, you'd never know that she was a shy little wallflower in her classes. Now, Latasha is sexy, confident, and doing great at school!

Latasha has been such an asset to the gym as well. Once she's on summer break, she's asked if she can start a dancing class and maybe even help out with some pool therapy. I want her to fulfill her dreams and get her degree, but she's always welcome to help out here whenever she'd like!

My New Crew, Part V

Hey everyone!

As promised, here's the next installment of my case files. This one is Suki, our lovely Asian princess! When she came to us, she was incredibly shy and lacking in confidence, but after some workouts (and some bigger boobs), Suki has the self-esteem and happiness that she deserves!

Last up is Jenny, who will be featured tomorrow. I've seen in a couple of comments that you want to see the full sized before and after pictures. Would you like to see all of them? I can't post them all at once because I need to put on a little bit of a tease for you, but if you want me to, I can show off a before and after of one girl per day. Does that sound good to you all?

Hope you're having a fantastic week!

Love,
Mandi

SUKI

My Asian friend is the adorable Suki! She was sick and tired of not being appreciated at her job! She had worked so hard to make it in the world of computer technology, but being one of only four women in her department, she was always looked at as "eye candy" rather than as a valuable member of the team. Suki came to me in tears, saying nobody took her seriously. I asked her if she was really happy with her job, and after a couple weeks of thinking about it, she realized that the only way she could really be happy would be to please herself. So we set up a beauty regimen, and the former stick figure girl with tiny little boobs and no butt to speak of has become my adorable Asian cutie!!!

Nowadays, Suki may be looked at as "eye candy", but at least she has the confidence of knowing that she did this for herself and that she doesn't need anyone's approval in order to be happy. That's my Suki girl! I'm so proud!

XOXO :3 Mandy

My New Crew, Part VI

Hello everyone!

This is the last of my case files, the super terrific Jenni! She's become just like a miniature version of me around the club. It took her a while to get to be like this, which is what I've been so busy with this past summer, but just look at her now!

I'll be starting the before and after pictures at the beginning of the week. I'm gonna take the weekend to have a nice, fun time with my boytoy... of course, he'll tell you that I'm just his toy. But whatever! If you're lucky, you'll get some pictures of that in due time as well!

Have an amazing weekend!

Love,
Mandi

JENNI

This was my biggest project yet. Jennifer. She was the one that I met at the class reunion. The former cheerleader that fell on hard times and really let herself go. She was very overweight and just stopped caring. She was a housewife and did cleaning and cooking (and a lot of eating!). I felt so bad for her, even though she picked on me all through high school. It's amazing how things can change in 10 years, and I was happy to help ease her struggles.

And so, she left her husband a note and her wedding ring and then flew out to California for some major life rehabilitation! I put her through all the work I knew, and while she complained sometimes, she was immediately happy once she started seeing results. So now, all thanks to her dedication and my help, she's become the gorgeous, long haired blonde, looking even prettier than she did 10 years ago! She now goes by Jenni, so say hello!

Before and After - Cassie

Hello everyone!

As promised, here is the first of the before and afters of the girls. Since everyone seemed so excited to see them, here ya go! We'll start with Cassie.

You can really see how much all that hard work pays off! Look at that bikini body! More to come!

Before and After, Latasha

Hi everyone!

So here's the second installment of before and afters, and it's the VERY in-demand Latasha. It seems that everyone loves this gal's booty, so I'm gonna say sorry that you don't get to see it too much in this picture. I hope you enjoy her either way!

Two down and two to go! Hope you're enjoying all the girls so far! They've worked so hard and they just love to show their new bodies off for you! Please let us know what you think of them!

Before and After, Suki

Well, it certainly seems like Latasha's makeover went over pretty well, at least judging by the number of hits the post received! Now, here's one that's been in demand for a while, cute lil Suki. She's so happy and confident now, which is so totally awesome. I'm really happy with how Suki really changed her life for the better. So here ya go, check her out!

Isn't she adorable!!! And she looks absolutely killer in those heels, huh!!! It's Jenni tomorrow, and then I've got some super special pics to show you afterward! Hope you're having a great week! It's hump day, so we're almost to the weekend! ;)

Before and After, Jenni

So, here's our last before and after, and it's of our most recent recruit, Jenni. I had to work pretty hard to get Jenni back into shape. She's a former cheerleader at my old high school and her life really took a bad turn after an awful marriage. But now she's feeling so much better about herself and her life. Just take a look at how she's changed!

See? She's totally got those sexy curves back! She's such a cutie! Hope you've enjoyed seeing how my new business is going. The girls are so happy that they're getting to be shown off as much as I am! Hehe. Back with more tomorrow, and then I'll be taking a break for the weekend. Have an awesome night!

TGIF!

Thank goodness it's Friday... or what else can TGIF stand for? Tits... Gigantic... In... Fresno? I dunno. If you have a better idea, leave it in the comments below! I only got one comment on my last post, which makes me super sad! Jenni worked so hard! I know that I've been gone for a little bit, but I do read every one of your comments, and it makes me and the girls so happy to know that we're making you all happy, cheerful, and horny!

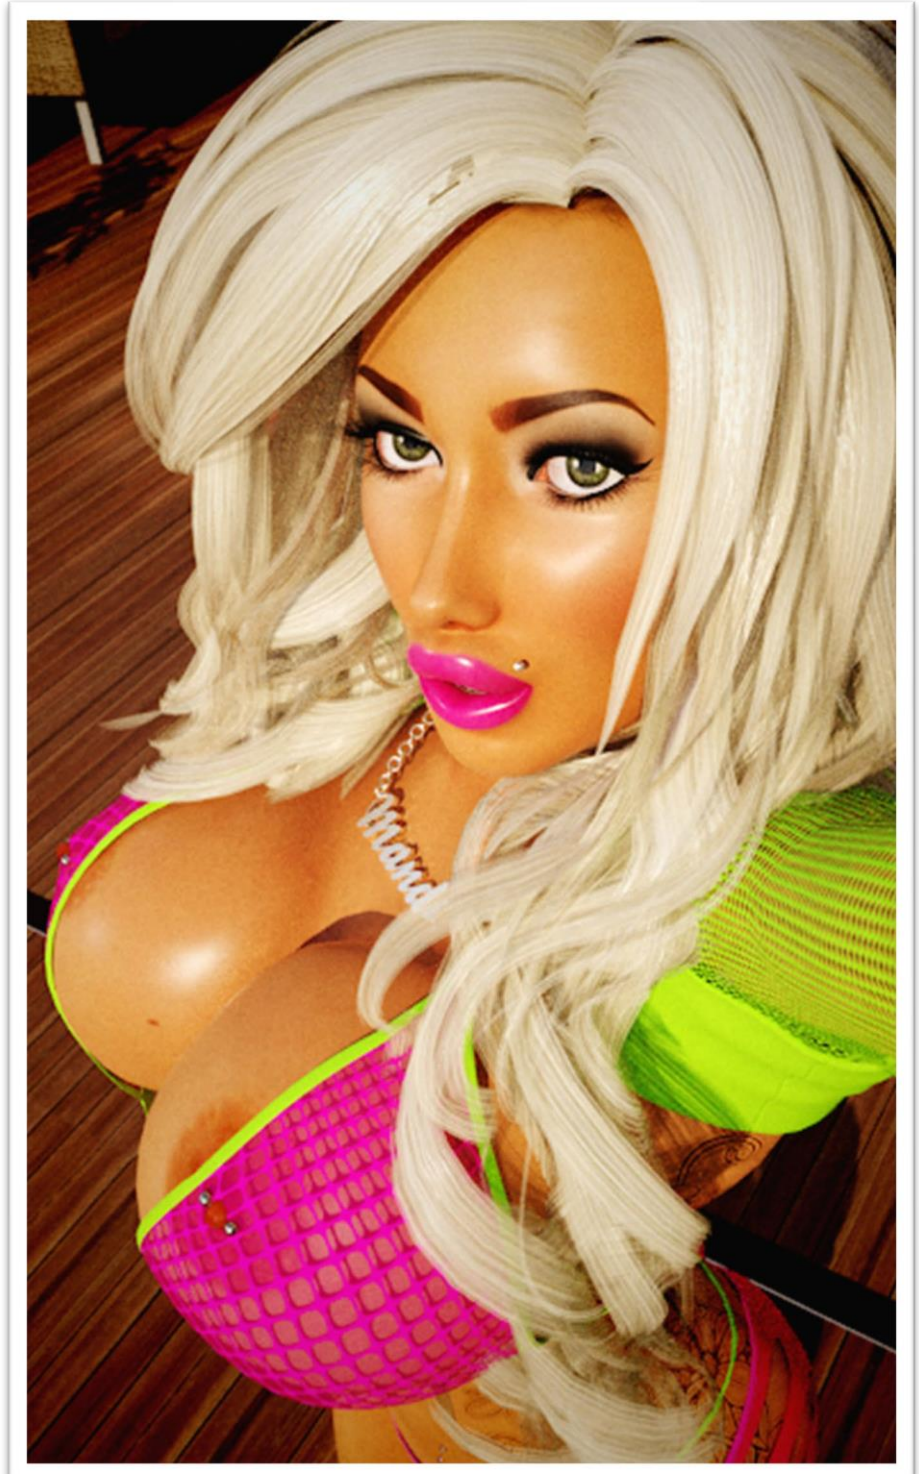

So please leave comments for us to read! Tonight is my first Friday off of escort work in a long time, so I'm going to go to the club with the girls and maybe leave a little early for some special fun with a special friend. ;) Guess we'll just have to see where the night takes us!

I'll be taking the weekend off to relax by the pool and enjoy the weather before it becomes freezing cold again. Yes, I know that 65 degrees isn't freezing because I moved to Cali from the northeast USA, but still! I've adapted to the weather and I've become a California Girl. I don't like the cold!

Have an awesome weekend everyone, and as a little bit of help to get you through a long weekend of sports, drinking, or whatever else you're gonna do, here's a teaser from a shoot I did. I'll be releasing the rest next week!

Have fun this weekend!

Monday Funday!

Hi everyone! I know that some people are headed back to work this morning, so I just wanted to make a post to make your work week super better! But first, the best of your suggestions for what TGIF might stand for...

- These Giant Implants (are) Fun
- The Greatest Implants Forever
- This Girl Is Fantastic And then my favorite...
- Thank Goodness I'm Fake!

Thank you to everyone who sent me comments this time. I've been feeling so lonely without them, so please keep them coming! I want to know exactly what you think.

And to get you thinking, here's a picture of me and Jenni along with my wonderful beau. It's okay. I share. ;)

Such a Long Night

Oh my goodness. I had the weekend off of escort duty, but this past night was absolutely craaaazy! Three guys, and all of them wanted a happy ending. Good thing I've learned the perfect oral sex technique, or it would have been an even longer night!

So it looks like the consensus around here is that girls need to be a minimum of a D cup, but if they have anything smaller, they better have a great attitude. The high end of the scale was a G cup! A minimum of a G might result in an achy back, but it's totally worth it, right???

Anyway, today's discussion question... which would you prefer? A blonde bimbo, a redhead bimbo, or a brunette bimbo? If there's something you'd prefer aside from them, be sure to leave it in the comments!

Now another picture for all of you!

Love,
Mandi

Midweek Madness!

Hooray! People are finally taking the time to comment again! That makes me so happy! I read every single one, so it makes me very happy to see all the love! It looks like the majority of you prefer blonde bimbos, especially of the platinum variety, and I totally agree, since I'm a platinum blonde! Hehe. But redheads got a lot of love too!

This week has been a very fun week for me, and I've been able to get a lot of things done in terms of working on workout schedules at my fitness center. Thankfully, things are coming along very nicely with my friends' help. Don't worry. I have a few more pics of Suki and the girls on their way. Hehe!

But for now, I've got another question of the day for you, and I want to see lots of replies! If you could spend a day with a bimbo like me, what would you want to do? And don't say sex. Come on, be more creative than that!

Hope you like my nice bimbo badonkadonk butt! Gawd, I love these heels!

Thirsty Thursday!

Hey there everyone! It's almost the weekend! Hooray! I absolutely ADORED your ideas for your perfect date with me. I couldn't even choose a favorite! All of them sounded so great, especially if it involved me going shopping! I love to shop. :P

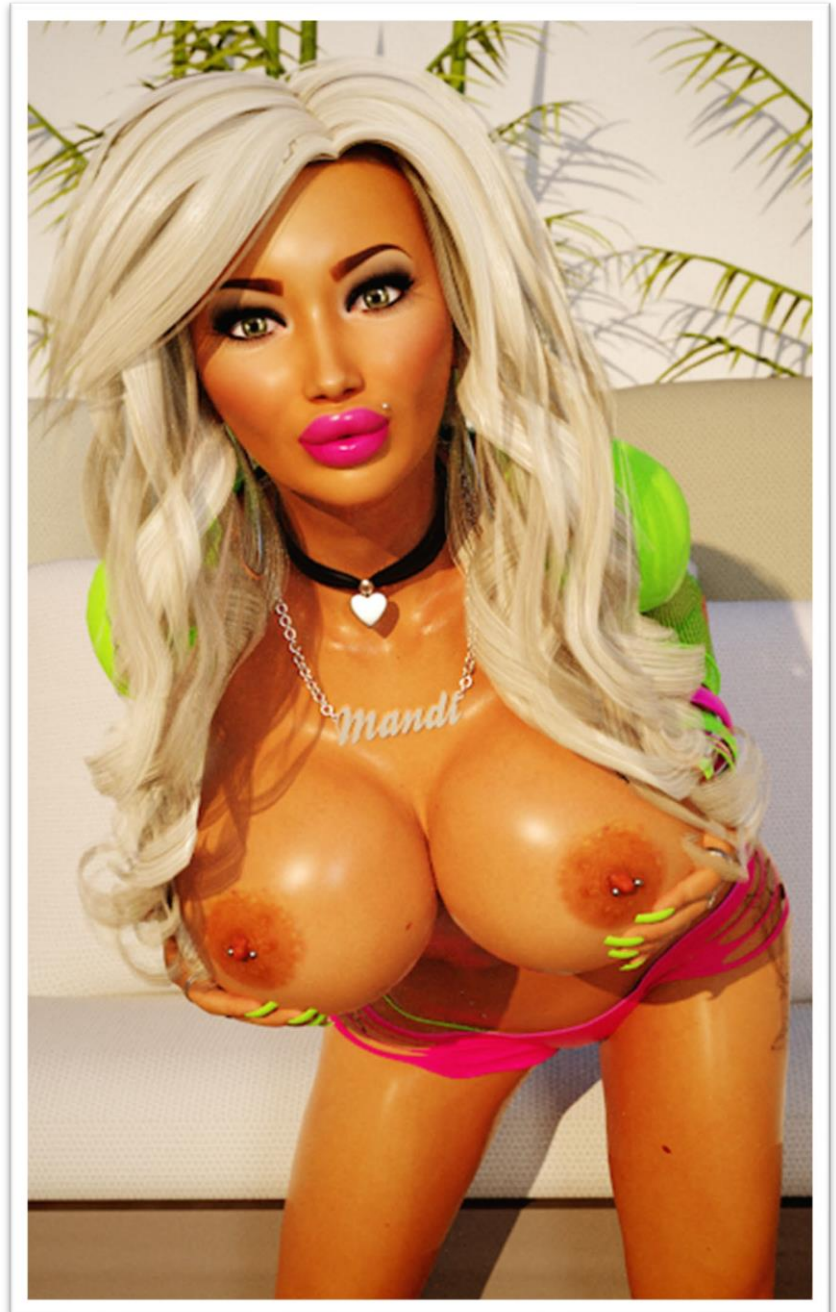

Anyway, I hope you've had a fantastic week so far. It looks like my weekend will be a busy one with all the fun escort stuff I've got going on. Let's see... what should today's question be.... oh, I know!

Are you an ass person or a tit person?

Hehe, that should get some great responses! Here's another picture of me! <3

Hehe hope this doesn't sway you toward my boobs. Remember the picture of my butt from last week!
Haha. Have fun!

Mandi

Woohoo! Friday!

Hey everyone!!! Hooray for Friday! I've got a busy weekend planned. I'm going to be some arm candy the entire weekend, which I'm looking forward to so much!

It seems that just about everyone that replied prefers tits.... especially tits like mine that are big... plastic... FAKIES! Hehe! I'll be back on Monday with another question for you all. I don't want you to strain yourselves too much over the weekend needing to think about a silly bimbo question when there's surely more important things going on like football or whatever. :P

So I hope you all have an amazing weekend, and please feel free to reply to this to let me know how much ya love me! Haha.

Have fun!

Mandi

Monday Sick Day

Hello everyone!

Today is a sick day for me. Yes, even bimbos can get sick too. It doesn't happen lots, but it does happen. It's just that being sick isn't exactly what people consider "sexy", so they don't show it. :P

When I was escorting over the weekend, me and my date went to a very crowded gala, and we were sitting at a table next to a man that was having trouble talking. He said he had a sore throat, and what happens when I woke up today? My throat is sore and I can hardly talk! So after doing my workout day, I got right back into a hoodie and sweatpants. Not very sexy but hey, I think I'm allowed to have an unsexy day every once in a while!

So your question for the day is... what would you do to make me feel better today? And don't say sex! I'm not in the mood for any of that right now, plus I don't want to get you sick! Haha.

Here's my absolute favorite picture of my most recent set. I hope you like it as much as I do!

Mandi

Well, that was no fun!

Hi everyone!

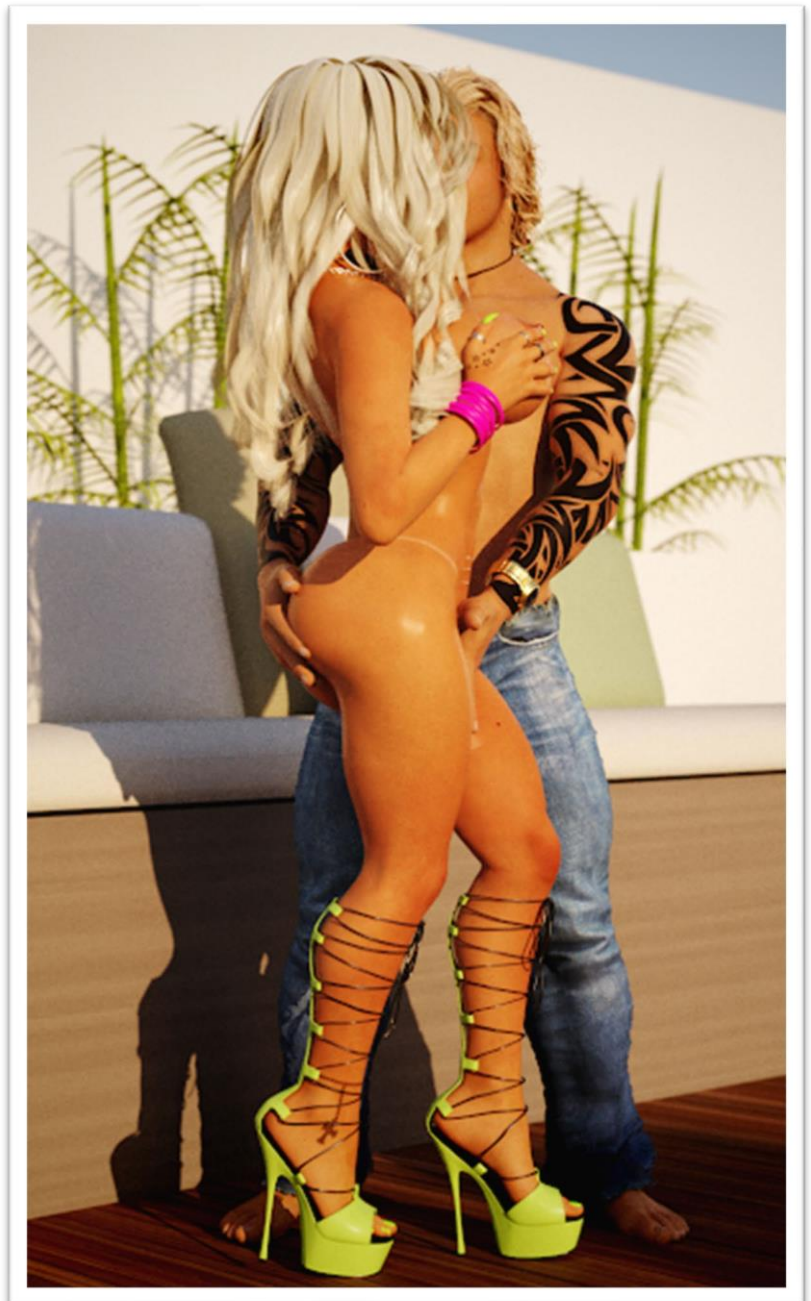

I think I'm finally starting to get back to normal after being sick the last couple of days. Stupid sore throats and colds! But some hot tea, chicken soup and grilled cheese (my mom's go-to feel better meal), and plenty of sleep, I'm feeling like a normal functioning human being!

That being said, thank you so much for the suggestions as to what you would do to help me feel better. I had never even heard of a hot toddy before, and I think that might pack a little too much punch for me. :P

So I've got a few more yummy pics of me and Jenni with the wonderful Mr. A, but I also have some of the other girls having their fun too! Don't worry, you'll see it all very very soon. For now, here's the first of my fun with Jenni and Mr. A! I just had to steal a kiss before things got hot and heavy!

For today's question... what's your favorite sex position? Mine is reverse cowgirl, especially when I can arch myself backward to be kissed on the neck while a big strong cock pumps into me. Oops, am I getting too naughty? Hehe! Let's hear all of yours in the comments!

Never... again...

Hello, my dear readers!

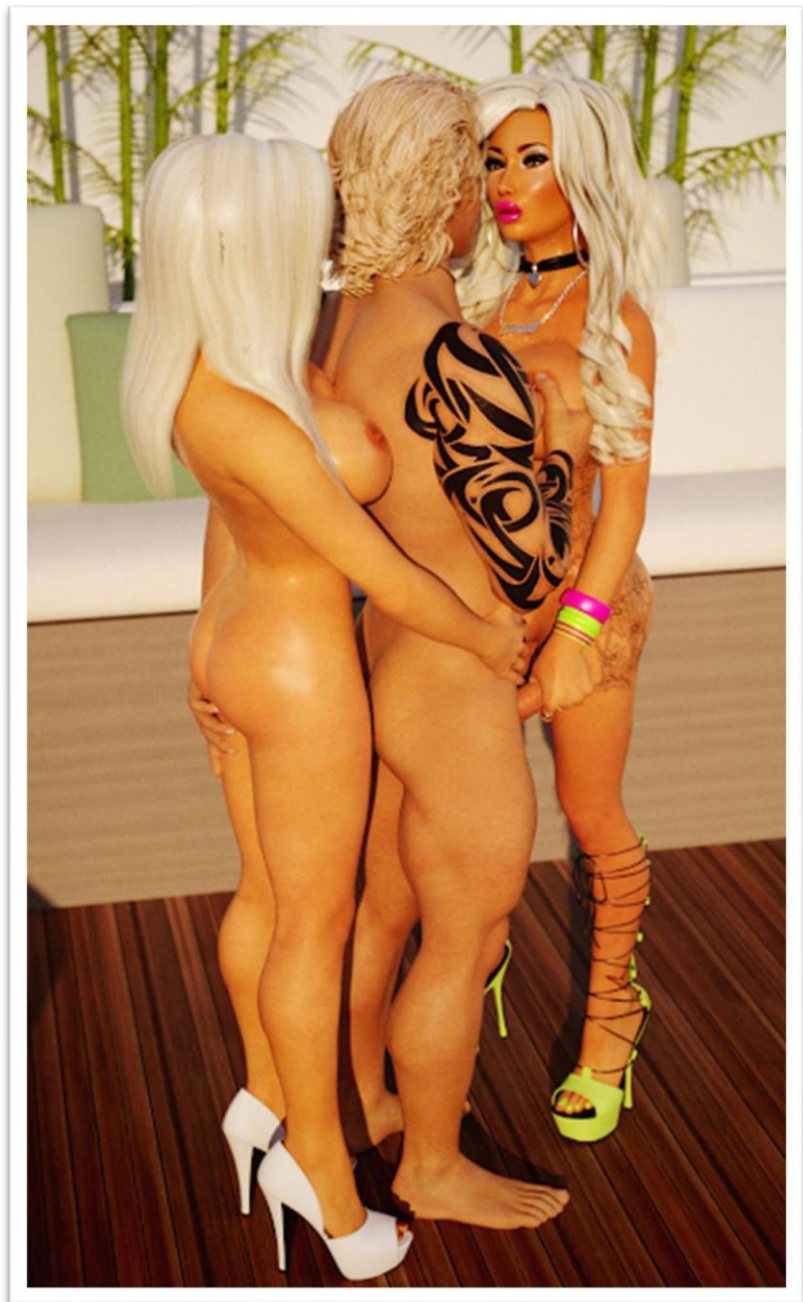

It seems that a lot of you just seem to loooooove doggy style! Hehe. I can't complain too much, it hits me in just the right spot so I like it too!

Yesterday was absolutely INSANE. I had an escort job out of state, and I decided to drive to it rather than take a plane. Yeah, that was an awful idea. I spent all afternoon in the car, worked the event, and then drove all the way back and I didn't get back in until 3am, when I promptly hit the pillow and was knocked out cold. So I will never do that again! Hehe.

Today's discussion question is in that same vein... how far would you travel for decent sex? Not mind-blowing sex. Just decent sex. How far would you go?

This picture, on the other hand, was mindblowing sex. I hope you like. ;)

Mandi

Jenni's Turn

Hello everyone! As I said before, I'm always happy to share. I know what it's like to be on the opposite side of the spectrum, with no yummy cocks coming my way, so when I have a nice huge cock constantly plowing me, I want to give back to those less fortunate.

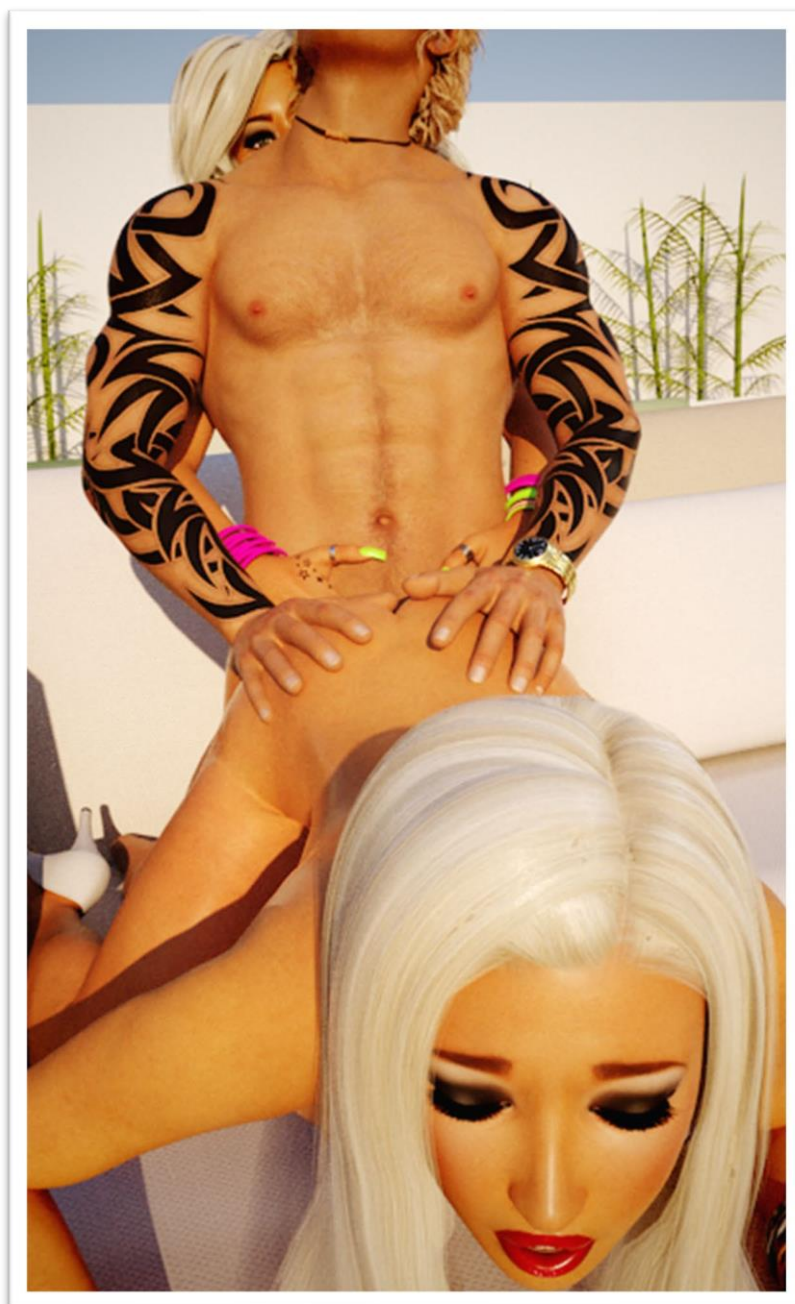

Jenni was one of those that was less fortunate. After high school, she got married and soon her husband stopped wanting to touch her. So after we made Jenni nice and hot again, I told her that Mr. A would reward her hard work. Mmmm it was such a tease, making Jenni think that she'd just have to watch while I got plowed over and over and over again.

I think she was a bit surprised when he bent her over and slid right in! I don't know, look for yourself and be the judge!

Hehe and yes, that's me in the background looking silly, but I wanted to be a part of the fun too! So as you can see, Jenni is now feeling much much better!

I've got a few pictures of the other girls to show off, but that'll be a tale for next week! Hope you all have a fantastic weekend!

Having Some Fun!

Hello, my lovelies!

I've been mixing work with play lately, and I've got some fun, naughty pictures to show you of my girls in action. Did I mention that all these lovely ladies are bi? Don't believe me? See for yourself!

Mmmm they're all such eager, good girls! I think Cassie came harder than she ever had in her life up to that point. It's amazing what a little nipple licking can do, huh? I've got one more sexy pic of these three to share, so stay tuned!

Even more fun!

My naughty little girls just can't keep their hands to themselves, it seems! But that's okay, they're cute so I'll keep them around. Here's a fun candid picture. I absolutely LOVE the look on Suki's face in this one. She's clearly ready to orgasm!

I hope you're enjoying my cute, lovely girls! I know that they're giggling just from looking at themselves. Uh oh... I think they might be starting up again! I swear, I'm going to need to get a spray bottle and spray them when they get too horny! LoL!

Busy Times

Hello everyone!

I promise I'm still with ya. Things have just been so crazy when it comes to work lately. The club is having a special "Hottie for the Holidays" promotion, and we've been overwhelmed with ladies trying to look just like me and my best recruits! Pile that on top of people wanting escorts to their lovely fall parties and holiday parties, and I'm going absolutely crazy!

I promise I haven't forgotten about you, and here's a little taste of what I've been up to. Hehe.

Yeah, I've been a bit of a naughty girl. Guess I'll start having to behave before Christmas comes!!! I hope you all have had a great week, and I hope you have an even better weekend!

Love,
Mandi

(OOC Note: I've kinda drawn things out this week because that's all I've got from Avaro for now. I consider him to be a friend and I don't want to rush him with anything, so please just be patient and there will be new Mandi soon. In the meantime, I'll have more bimbo porn for you from adult models!)

Happy 2016!!!

Heya everyone!

I hope you've had a fantastic holiday season and that your start to 2016 has been amazing so far. I've been working on a lot of yummy stuff upcoming, but I found a few more photos from my villa shoot with Mr. A, so I just HAD to post them to you!

Did anyone make any fun New Year's resolutions? I have resolved to get fucked more often, to pinch my nipple rings at least 3 times a day to stimulate them, and to learn how to twerk like the pros do. What do you think? Are those good goals?

Anyway, here's another picture from the villa. I hope you enjoy. Happy Nude Year! :D

Starting the Year with a Bang

Hiya everyone! Welcome back to Monday, I guess. Blahhhh. Haha. I was very busy over the past few days because everyone seemed to want me as their escort to New Year's Eve parties and things like that. I'm just glad that I was able to find some time yesterday to wish you all the best. As you saw yesterday, I dug up the last of the photos from my time spent with Mr. A at the villa, and here's the final one from that amazing week in the sun.

I hope you all enjoy it as much as I enjoyed it! Hehe. Right now, I'm not sure what 2016 holds, but I know that it's going to be a great year, filled with great friends and tons of fun! I'll be sure to keep you updated as to what's going on in my life when I can. Love you all!

All Good Things...

Hello everyone!

It's with great pleasure and a bit of sadness that I'm announcing this is my last post. You've all followed me on my bimbo journey for nearly two years, and I think that now is the time to complete it. I've fallen head over heels for Mr. A, and I think he's gonna pop a big question soon! Hehe. He says I can still work as an escort and fuck who I want, but I need to make sure to come home to him!

So these will be the last pictures you'll see of me for a while. I've got a lot of work on my hands with the expansion of my workout studios throughout the entire state of California and being so in demand for my escort service. So like all good things, this blog must come to an end.

I'm so very happy that I've found my Bimbo Way. Now it's time for other bimbos to go out and find theirs. And every step of the way, I'll be cheering for them.

With all the love in the world (and so much sex),
Mandi
