It's been almost 2 days now since the incident at the lab shrunk me down. I just need to get the attention of a full sized human to get back to the lab and return to original size. She looks like a sweet young girl, I'm certain she'll help me!

Wow sure is hot today, wonder what my friends are up to right now

Excuse me ma'am, sorry to interrupt you but I need your help to return to my normal size. Could you please pick me up and return me to my lab?

Ohh what do we have here? A bug sized man hehehe! Hmm help you? Let me think Sorry little guy, but you look more like a bug to me, and the only help bugs get is a helping of my shoe sole hehe!

No she can't be serious! Please this isn't funny!

lol you're a juicy little worm aren't you hehe!
Wow your bones are so crunchy!

Ahhhhh!!

Sorry little guy but that was a bad idea to approach a giant like me! Wonder if there are any more like you?
